MEET YOUR TREASURER:

ARVILLA BECKHAM TABOR, born 9 February 1946, at the home of her parents, Paul and Ora Hendrick Beckman, Warren County, Ky. She married at an early age Bobby Preston Tabor. There are no children of this union. Her father, Paul Beckham, was a farmer and a carpenter until his retirement. Her mother, Ora, is a housewife. Arvilla attended Three Forks (County) School, Oakland Elementary, and North Warren High School. For eighteen years she has worked as a factory worker. Her hobbies are, of course, genealogy, history, collecting old/new photographs, traveling, and cake decorating. She is a member of the Forest Park Baptist Church and several genealogical societies.

Begin your family history with the first individual who located in Grayson County and bring your story to the present generation. Give the state or county from which the family came, the approximate date, and the area where they settled. Describe their mode of travel, first homes, kind of work. Include items of human interest such as hardships, interesting events, different customs, unusual happenings, humorous incidents and contrasting ways of life. List the children of each succeeding generation. List where and what schools and churches they attended.

The following is a sample Grayson County family history to show a typical family story. Please do not make your family history just like the sample. Your history will have more meaning in your own words.

Badgett, James Spivy and Orlena

by James Gipson Badgett

Both James Spivy Badgett and Orlena Palestine Davidson came to Grayson County during the 1870's. After the death of their parents, Thomas E. and Minerva (Mitchell) Badgett, five of the Badgett children sold their share in the family home and land in Warren County, Kentucky to their older sister, Elizabeth, and her husband, William Smith. The five Badgetts who came to Texas were James Spivy; Thomas A., his wife Charlotte and two children; Adondrium Judson; Susan; Sally W., her husband J. Polk Hedg. peth, and daughter, Jimmie. Several cousins and their families came about the same time.

Orlena came from Dade County, Missouri in 1871 with her mother Susan Meneese Davidson and brothers, Thomas R. and John Winton. They came in a group of wagons. Probably other relatives were with this group. Jim Goff, a long time Grayson County resident, and his family were among the several black families who left Missouri with this group. Orlena's father, John Winton Davidson, died as a prisoner of war January 12, 1865 in a Union prison camp at Alton, Illinois. He developed measles while in the prison camp at St. Louis and was near recovery. In transferring from St. Louis to the prison in Alton he suffered a relapse and died several days after reaching Alton.

James Spivy Badgett was born in Tennessee March 14, 1845. Orlena Davidson was born in Dade County, Missouri, February 13, 1861. They married December 28, 1882 in the home of the A. M. Bryants and settled on a farm in the Pilot Grove-Bethel area. They moved locally several times but lived for near Whitewright the rest of their lives. They had four sons and five daughters—Thomas Roy, David Ray, Rosa May, Winton Elmo, Cecil, Susie Lee, Betty Lou, Nell and Pernie Ann. All married Thurmond Bishop July 16, 1923. They have two sons. James Thurmond and Joe Dan. Pernie did not marry. David Ray married Florence Bell Sloan, daughter of John Winton and Laura Ellen Sloan. They married December 31, 1911. Three of their sons, David Woodrow, James Gipson and Preston Roy were born near Whitewright. Their fourth son, Jack Sloan, was born in West Texas. Florence and Ray moved back to Whitewright when Jack was small and he grew up there. They later returned to West Texas.

The lives of the Badgetts and the Sloans were close in several ways. Not only did Ray marry Florence, but Betty Badgett and Alpha Sloan were also best friends. Spivy Badgett taught Sunday School where both families attended church. When he passed with his Bible in his hand on Sunday morning, other families along the way followed. After services he would often stop to visit with "Gip" Sloan. According to Alpha (Jan) Rhoads, one of the stories he told was that several years before he came to Texas to live, he made a trip down there and worked on a ranch. People in Kentucky had warned him to be on the alert for scorpions and "poisonous horned toads." One day he set out across the prairie of high grass with his rope looped across his shoulder. After a while he glanced back over his shoulder and noticed movement in the grass several feet behind him. He thought surely a horned toad was following him. The faster he walked, the faster the thing came. It suddenly dawned on him that one end of the rope had fallen, and the dragging end of the rope was the "Poisonous toad." He enjoyed telling the story on himself as much as others enjoyed hearing it.

James Spivy Badgett died May 13, 1927. Orlena lived with their daughter, Pernie, in Whitewright until she died August 1, 1947. Grandmother told me when I was small that her gravest fear was that she would outlive her children. She outlived all but Pernie, Nell and Ray. He died July 1, 1965 in Floydada, Texas. The grandchildren live in scattered locations across the country.

My father, Ray Badgett, moved his family to Floydada, Texas in December 1919. Woodrow and Preston still live there. Jack lives in California. I left Floydada in 1938 and after several moves, Marguerite and I now live in Conroe, Texas.

The James S. Badgett family. L to R: Cecil, James, D.R., Susie Lee, Rosa May and Orlena.

James T. Hudnall was born in Warren County, February 9, 1842. His father, John W. Hudnall is by birth a Tennessean, born July 16, 1808, and is yet living. His mother was a Miss Rachel Upton. She died in 1873, the mother of thirteen children, six of whom are living: Mary A., Caroline, James T., Rhoda, Heritage, and Louisa. John W. Hudnall has been one of the successful farmers of Warren County. He took a strong stand in favor of the Federal Government in the late civil war, and was and is yet an uncompromising Republican. He has for the past forty years been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal faith, and yet, at the advanced age of seventy-seven years continues in the work with scarcely diminished zeal. He is a son of James and Rhoda (Chastain) Hudnall, the former of Irish and the latter of Highland Scotch descent. James T. Hudnall was reared on a farm. His father patronized the schools and took an interest in the education of his children; but young Hudnall's education was cut short by the war, in which he engaged as a private soldier in Company A, Eleventh Kentucky Volunteer Infantry in 1861. He served as a private until the close, and was engaged in the battles of Shiloh, Perryville, Stone River, siege of Knoxville, and on the campaign through Georgia from Dalton to the siege of Atlanta. After the war he returned to his home in Kentucky and engaged in farming, which business he yet pursues with success. He owns 335 acres of land lying on the waters of Green River, all of which is fenced and improved. Mr. Hudnall was married, February 11, 1873 to Judith Cole, of Warren County. Their three sons, William, Even, and John, and two daughters, Mary and Maude, all reside with their parents. Mrs. Hudnall is of Irish descent, and a daughter of William and Nancy Cole, of Warren County; she is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Hudnall is a Master Mason in Woodbury Lodge, No. 280, and in politics is a Republican.

Riverview, the Historic Hobson House

The Hobson House is located at the end of West Main Street, past the original business district and over the L & N Railroad tracks. The Colonel's property consisted of 400 acres overlooking the Barren River.

Although he had a fine house on College Street (where the Bowling Green Towers now stand), he wanted to set his sons up in the Thoroughbred horse business, so he proceeded to start construction on a replica of his house on the large property.

Only the basement was finished at the start of the Civil War. When the Confederate troops were advancing on Bowling Green, the Colonel sent a servant through the lines to the commanding general, Simon Bolivar Buckner, with the request that his new home be spared. Buckner, an old friend, complied, and had timber cut to cover the structure which was then used as a munitions magazine.

The Colonel's and his son's careers during the war make up another whole story. However, the Colonel was captured and escaped to Louisville. After the war the House was completed. The College Street house served as a place for recruiting parties for whichever army was occupying Bowling Green at the time. Julia VanMeter's brothers were serving in the Confederate army and she naturally felt a loyalty to them, although the Colonel was a Union sympathizer.

The House is of Italiante Villa architecture, with the Palladian windows, large rooms, central halls, and a generally spacious, open air. The river was deep enough in those days for river boats and the family had an open vista to the water and a wharf for launching and for the children to play.

An outstanding feature of Riverview are the frescoes on the parlor ceilings. They were originally painted by an immigrant artist, Fritz Lieber, whom the Colonel and his banker friend from Louisville discovered on a business trip to New York. The artist and his young son lived in Riverview's basement and commuted between Louisville and Bowling Green as he worked on the Hobson House and two of the Barrets' houses on 4th Street in the other city. His son later came back to work on St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

The restored Riverview is on the National Register and several travel guides. Each year we welcome visitors from at least 23 states and several foreign countries. One of the real advantages from an historical point of view is the fact that the two surviving granddaughters, Miss Margaret Hobson and Mrs. Dick Duncan, live in Bowling Green and are a source of research. As a matter of fact, Miss Hobson lives in a house near Jennings Creek that is of equal, if not more historical significance to the area's history.

SWAN CREEK * GREENCASTLE POST OFFICE

The Swan Creek Post Office, was established April 15, 1850. It was the eighth post office established in Warren County and was one of seven in operation at the time. The Briggsville Post Office, which was established August 7, 1840 was discontinued as of January 1, 1842. So it would not have been in operation at the time of the establishment. There is also the possibility that the Warrenton Post office (Wherever it may have been located) had been discontinued prior to the establishment of Swan Creek, as I could not read the last digit of the microfilm of the date of discontinuance of this office. It was July 1857.

The name of the Swan Creek office was changed to Greencastle on March 26, 1856.

Other post offices in existence on Warren County at the time of the establishment of the Swan Creek office were: Bowling Green, Smiths Grove, Martinsville, which was discontinued September 9, 1850, Woodburn, Polkville and possibly Warrenton.

It is noticeable that Swan Creek was the only post office north and west of the L. & N. Railroad and Woodburn was the only office south of Barren River. All the other post offices were located in that pie shape portion of the county north of Barren River and south and east of the railroad, with Bowling Green being the apex of the triangle. This appears to be indicative that this was at that time the heaviest populated section of the county

Explorers and Early Settlers South of Muldraugh Hill

"Without further mention in detail, I incorporate two lists of names, showing, as completely as I am able to give, the names of the first settlers in Severns Valley and on Nollynn, embracing probably nearly all who had located at these stations down to about the first of the year 1785 and some who arrived later. Where practicable, the approximate date of arrival of each settler is shown.

AFTER 1785

For several years after the Severns Valley and Nolynn Stations were established they were regarded as outposts. In the "Kentucky Gazette," of Lexington, notice was given, under date February 26, 1791, that various posts on the frontier "are to be immediately occupied by the guards for the defense of the district," naming among others, Mouth of Salt River, to have 19 men, and Sovereigns Valley, 10 men, and Hardin's settlement, 12 men."

REV. N. W. TAYLOR

The following biographical sketch of the late N. W. Taylor was read at the funeral Sunday and forwarded at our request for publication:

"Rev. Nicholas Wren Taylor was born in Warren County, Kentucky, on June 21, 1828, and died at his home in Mulberry, Kansas, April 26, 1901, aged 72 years, 10 months and 5 days.

"The early life of the deceased was spent in the state of Kentucky. In the sunny land of the South in the eighteenth year of his age he gave his heart to God and united with the Methodist church, South. When in the 23rd. year of his age he was licensed as an exhorter in said church.

"In 1854 he was married to Miss Julia A. E. Cole and soon thereafter started with his wife for the great Northwest. He tarried for a short time in Missouri and then made his way across the line into Kansas, settling in Jefferson county in 1855. He made his home here for fourteen years and passed through and participated in the struggles incident to the early settlement of Kansas.

"When Bro. Taylor came to Kansas he joined the M. E. church, and was ordained a deacon therein in 1863 by Bishop Ames.

"The deceased came to Crawford county and settled on a farm one mile west of Mulberry in 1869, where the remaining days of his life were spent.

"Bro. Taylor was an earnest, faithful Christain, a strong defender of the truth, a fearless advocate of temperance and prohibition reform, a highly respected citizen, a loving husband, a tender father.

"The last few weeks and months of his life were spent amid great suffering, but amid it all he was patient and resigned to the will fo God. The faith which sustained him in life gave victory in death. His sufferings are over, he has entered into rest: for 'There remaineth--- a rest to the people of God'.

"A wife, seven children, two brothers, three sisters and a host of friends and relatives survive to mourn their loss and cherish his memory."

~~"The funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. F. Allen Sunday, April 28,~~ and the remains were interred in the Mulberry cemetery. The service was largely attended.

The deceased was a brother to Jos. I Taylor, of Lincoln township, and an uncle to Joe. D. Davenport, Henry Taylor, Sam Miller, Mrs. Wood Singer and Mrs. Fred Nipple, of Lincoln, Luthor Taylor, of Pittsburg, Lum Basham of Baker, and Perry Basham, of Fort Scott.

We can hardly say that we knew the deceased intimately, but we knew him for sixteen years and we knew him well. We have met him in the avocations of life, in the turmoil of politics, in the sanctity of the Lodge and in the privacy of his home. In business he was honest and truthful: in politics he was fearless, conscientious and aggressive: in the Lodge he was charitable and Fraternal: in his home, he was kind, affectionate and hospitable.

More than fifteen years ago he recommended us to be made a Mason. He was made a Mason in Kentucky, and was a charter member of the Masonic Lodge at Mulberry and still a member in good standing up to the day of his death. During his last illness the brethren of the mystic tie administered to his wants, but at his request he was buried by the church, of which he had been a member for half a century.

His weary feet have come to the end of their toilsome journey, from his nerveless grasp have dropped forever the working tools of life, beneath the clouds of the valley his arms lie motionless upon his pulseless breast, the tender heart that throbbed for others has ceased its boating, the spirit has returned to God who gave it, but the record of his life and actions that he left behind him are as pure and spotless as the fair emblem that he wore so worthily for so many years: and that stainless record is his children's most precious legacy - - - their priceless heritage.

MRS. JULIA COLE TAYLOR

June 6, 1833----- February 2, 1917

Julia A. E. Cole was born June 6, 1833, in Warren County, Kentucky. There she spent her girlhood and there still reside the most of her kin.

She was married to N. W. Taylor June 28, 1854.. A few months of their married life was spent in Kentucky near the old home place; from there they moved to Missouri, near St. Louis.. Here the husband taught one term of school.. Late in the year of 55 Kansas and Free Stateism enlisted their lives and they landed in Leavenworth November of that year.. They settled on a farm near Winchester in Jefferson county and close to the military road between Leavenworth and Junction City. Here they lived through the period of pioneer days and border warfare. During the rebellion the husband was sheriff of the county. Many of the experiences of their early life were of varied interest and formed a most endearing page of their life's work even though attended by many dramatic and pathetic incidents.

In 1869, they sold their interests in Jefferson county and moved to Crawford county, near Mulberry. Here they lived until the family was grown. The husband died April 26th, 1901.

Mrs. Taylor first came to Rooks county in 1904 with two sons and a daughter, having purchased the Sam Boggs place on Big Medicine Creek. The daughter died in August of the same year. In September, 1906, she went to live with a daughter near Ft. Scott. Last September she returned to Rooks county to visit her son, Alfred Taylor and family. She was ill only a few days with pneumonia when heart failure terminated her life. The deceased united with the M. E. church when eighteen years of age, from which time she has been loyal to her faith and Master. One daughter, Mrs. N. E. Barkdull, of Anthony, Kans. and three sons, J. I. Taylor, of Los Angeles, Calif: Wm. Taylor of Laurel, Mibt. and J. Alfred Taylor, of Woodston, Ks. survive her.. The son from Montana and also the daughter started for Woodston upon learning of their mother's serious illness, but death had claimed her before the daughter's arrival, and when the son reached Concordia, he learned that the sad cortege had already passed that point, enroute to Mulberry, Kansas, where the final service was held Tuesday afternoon. Interment was beside her husband in the family lot of the cemetery at that place.

Although Mrs. Taylor had passed the four score milestone, she was a woman of remarkable vitality, youthful in spirit and appeared much younger than her years would indicate.

She was exceedingly fond of her young friends and they reciprocated her affection. She will long be remembered in the Survey locality as a woman of beautiful character and as a mother her life was such that her children "rise up and call her blessed."

PLEASANT C. NEAL

Pleasant Neal lived approximately 42 years, having been born in about 1820 and dying at Shiloh, Tennessee in April, 1864. In these forty-two years only three instances have been found when his name appears in public records.

The first of these being on March 28, 1847, when he secured a marriage license and married Dorcas Ann Spencer in Grainger County, Tennessee. Pleasant Neal and his family do not again appear on record until the 1860 census of Warren County, Kentucky. While data from this source reveals that this family was in Tennessee in 1848, 1850, 1853, 1855 and 1858, when their children were born. But a search of the 1850 census of Tennessee as compiled by Byron and Barbara Sistler does not contain this family. Most likely they were residents of that state and failed to get listed by the census taker. This is only a conjecture. Hiram (Hyman) and Mary Spencer were listed in the 1850 census of Grainger County and the records indicate that they came to Warren County in 1859. Most likely the Neals came about the same time. Hiram Spencer appears to have been a relative of Dorcas Ann Spencer. Just what this relation is, is not known at this time, but he may have been her father or brother.

The third and last record that we have of Pleasant is the record of his death as stated in connection with his widow's application for a pension. Even these records are at variance as to the date of his death; it being listed variously as April 11, 12, 13, 15 and 22, 1862. P. B. Hawkins, who was a Colonel in the 11 Regt. of Ky. Vol. 1, made an affidavit that he was present at the death of Pleasant Neal and lists the date as April 13th. Pleasant did not die from wounds received in battle, but from exposure and Camp Diarrhea. Most likely he was buried in an unmarked common grave with others. In November, 1864 at Pulaski, Tennessee the Confederates captured and Destroyed the record of Neal's Company - Company A 11th Ky. Vol. Inf. This is a most unfortunate occurrence to those of us seeking further information of the service of this soldier.

While there is much we do not know about Pleasant Neal, we do know the following. That he was forty years of age at the time of the 1860 census. On March 28, 1847 at Rutledge, Grainger County, Tennessee, he married Dorcas Ann Spencer, who was born in Tennessee on August 17, 1829 and died in Warren County, Kentucky on November 10, 1908. She is buried at Oak Forest, near Riverside, Kentucky. They were married by Samuel West, a Justice of Peace. That the Neals came to Warren County, sometime after May, 1858 and prior to the taking of the 1860 census. They settled in the Riverside area of the county. Pleasant enrolled, at the age of 41, in Co. A 11 Ky. Vol. Inf. on the 11 day of September, 1861 at Camp George D. Prentice to serve three years. He was mustered into service, as a private, at Camp Calhoun, Kentucky on the 9th, day of ~~##~~ December, 1861. He died at Shiloh or Pittsburg Landing, Tennessee in April, 1862. It has previously been mentioned that Pleasant died from exhaustion caused by engaging in the Battle of Shiloh and Camp Diarrhea (another report lists the cause of death as Typhoid Fever). It is significant that during the War Between The States that disease killed approximately three men for each man lost as result of battle and Disentery was the major killer.

Pleasant C. and Dorcas Spencer Neal had the following children, all of whom were born in Tennessee; with the exception of Elizabeth.

1. Mary Jane Neal born May 23, 1848; died March 22, 1887; married S. Davis White in Warren County, Kentucky on December 10, 1863. He was the son of William Lawson and Charlotte Taylor White and was Born July 1, 1830; died December 28, 1913. They are both buried in the Lon White Cemetery near Riverside, Kentucky.
2. Susan Frances Elizabeth Mildred Neal born October 3, 1850; died June 19, 1883 and is buried in the Lon White cemetery. On January 27, 1868 in Warren County, Kentucky, she married William Lewis (Tomp) Simpson, son of William and Winifred Simpson Simpson. He was born November 6, 1838 and died May 9, 1911. He is buried at Mt. Pisgah.
3. John M. Neal born June 8, 1853; died July 15, 1906. He married M. E. (Nellie) Richards, daughter of Bro. John Richards and his first wife, Emaline Hester Wilson. Nellie was born February 8, 1867 and died April 6, 1963. Both are buried at Oak Forest.
4. Cordelia A. Neal born ~~May 17, 1854~~ ^{Nov 17, 1854} and married Harry Grimes, who was born ca. 1854 in Warren County on January 6, 1876.
5. James R. Neal born May 17, 1858; married Ada White and was residing in Howard County, Missouri, the last record that I have.
6. Elizabeth J. Neal born January 12, 1861 in Warren County, Kentucky She married Henry Evan (EV) Tarrents on December 21, 1876 at the home of Dorcas Neal. " Uncle Ev" was the son of Larry and Rachael Tarrents and was born ca. 1853. It is believe that both Elizabeth and "EV" died and are buried at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

The parentage of Dorcas Ann Spencer Neal ^{is} ~~are~~ unknown at the time of this writing. They may have been Hyman (Hiram) and Mary Spencer, but then Hyman may not have been her father, but may have been her brother. This much is known, Hyman Spencer was residing in Grainger County, Tennessee at the time of Dorcas' marriage and in an affidavit submitted on October 18, 1864, in connection with Dorcas' application for a widow's penision Hyman and Mary state that they were present at the Wedding of Dorcas and Pleasant; that they were well acquainted with Pleasant Neal during his lifetime, and that they have lived in Warren County, Kentucky for five years and that prior to that they resided in Grainger County, Tennessee. A deed dated September 1, 1887 from Hiram Spencer to John R. Neal (Son of Dorcas and Pleasant) conveys 100 acres of land to said Neal for the taking care of said Spencer. This would appear to indicate a family connection.

On March 19, 1873, in Warren County, Kentucky, Dorcas Ann Neal, married Benjamin T. Johns. He abandoned her on October 6, 1873. She obtained a divorce and restoration of her former name of Neal on November 30, 1891. Dorcas Ann died November 10, 1908 and is buried in the Oak Forest Church Cemetery at Riverside, Kentucky.

"IN REVIEW"

By

Mrs. Virginia Posey DeVries
President

It can be said of the Southern Kentucky Genealogical Society that "We've come a long way, Baby", since a small group of genealogical buffs met in 1977. Four years later our membership approximates 260 and is steadily growing. Not only have we grown in membership, but also in attainment of goals and accomplishments.

Important among these is the Members' 5-Gen. Ancestor Charts Book, Vol. I, project of Past Pres. Claire Davenport, who started the first 100 copies of the book in 1980 and had readied them for sale by Spring 1981. The response was good and most of this first 100 copies quickly sold. A duplicate additional 100 copies became the responsibility of this President. Several members graciously volunteered. They spent many hours as we worked together collating, comparing sequence of pages to correspond to the first 100 books already published and sold, and finally affixing the binding tapes; The second 100 books were ready. My special gratitude goes to Mildred and Leroy Collier, Mrs. Helen Lawrence, Mrs. Shirley Leath, Mr. Wm. Neel Jackson and Mrs. Eugenia Hayes for their sacrificial contribution on this.

Receipts from the book sales and increased membership dues, quickly boosted the Club's treasury to the largest balance since the Club's inception. Our most efficient Treas. Mrs. Arvella Tabor, has capably handled this increased volume of business all year.

This year, upon taking office, I asked for member suggestions for improving our Club. The members responded. Acting upon the suggestions of many, coupled with the expertise of the 5-Member By-Laws Committee, we necessarily and successfully updated and revised the old By-Laws. Some new Standing Committees were added. In compliance with my pledge as President to involve as many members as possible this year, appointments were made to these committees. These Committees have functioned well in performing their specific duties, contributing to a more efficient operation of the Club activities. The following Committee activities and accomplishments bear notice:

Publicity - Chairman, Ethel C. Brown and Miss Lucille Scott faithfully cooperated in publicizing Club activities in the local paper. Increased Club receipts made possible also advertising beyond our local paper. Miss Sue Hudnall on this Committee contacted The Genealogical Helper for an ad placement, which was accomplished.

Sunshine & Hospitality Committee - Through the gracious planning of Mrs. Eugenia Hayes, this Committee added to our historical knowledge and pleasure by planning our July Club meeting at the Hobson House, with a pot luck dinner and a tour of the House.

Genealogy Committee - As Chairman of this Committee, Claire Davenport arranged for sale of our book and materials at Greenwood Mall, procuring a reservation for Oct. 31st and Nov. 1, 1981 to be assisted by Mrs. Mary Garrett, Mavis Smith, Bertha Osborne and Virginia DeVries.

Library and Book Purchasing - Early in 1981, Chairman Claire Davenport, finalized arrangement with the Ky. Library for the preservation and placement of our books as donated by our Club. Some books were placed there at that time and are presently being catalogued. Several new books have been purchased this year by the Club, most recent of which has been that of a member, Mrs. Wm. Pate Garrett, "Records of Mt. Olivet Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Bowling Green-Warren Co., Ky. 1813-1981".

Publication Committee - Much of the success of our Club's growth can be attributed to this important committee, Chaired by Newsletter Editor, Mrs. Betty Lyne. Her ingenuity, faithfulness and dependability has kept our quarterly Newsletter rolling each quarter. Mr. Lloyd Raymer, Publication News Scout, is credited with keeping the supply of members' genealogical materials filtering into the Editor's office.

Distribution and Mailing Committee - The suggestion to change the process of mailing our Newsletters by combining all member newsletters with Exchange Newsletters was an excellent one proposed by Mrs. Shirley Leath, and has entitled the Club to a Bulk Mail Rate, resulting in a substantial saving financially to the Club. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Garrett have been faithfully filling any book orders during the year.

With with a view to achieving the cheapest mailing rate, I prevailed upon one of our members, Atty. Chester Bays, to look into this. He graciously consented and is presently exploring the possibility of a non-profit corporation. He is doing this free gratis. We really appreciate his generosity and are hopeful for success.

When our member, Miss Mary Frances Williams of necessity, early this year, ceased the copy machine production of our Newsletter, which she had so sacrificially done for so long, it became the responsibility of your President to locate some place at which our Newsletter might be quickly and satisfactorily printed at a minimum cost. The Barnard Printing Co., Inc., 500 W. Tenth St., Bowling Green, Ky. became a most welcomed solution to this problem. We are pleased with their work and trust we can continue with them. Our finances also permitted the purchase of an electric stapler this year.

The application for a downtown post office box for the Club is being processed and should solve the problem of multiple addresses for our Club.

Many interesting programs have been enjoyed this year. This was another instance, which I felt member involvement appropriate and several members participated during the year: Mr. Wm. Neel Jackson discussed the Jackson genealogy explaining with charts, that by the process of elimination of certain ancestors with identical names, one can arrive at the proper one for his own family line. Mrs. Betty Lyne presented a most outstanding program showing slides on her trip to England and Paris. Mr. Joe Hays sopke on Land Grants. Several members participated in "Show and Tell" programs as planned by Program Chairman, Miss Sue Hudnall. Among these were: Mrs. Helen Lawrence, Eugenia Hayes, Mavis Smith, Louise Taylor, Era Stinson, Mrs. Landferes, Mr. Leroy Collier, Mr. Lloyd Raymer, and Mr. Wm. Neel Jackson.

Our Historian, Miss Lucille Scott, has been working for months in order to present an accurate and interesting account of the history of our Club. We are looking forward to this at the November meeting.

The musical talent of our Club should not be overlooked, as Mrs. Ruva Halliburton, Mrs. Lucille Wallace, and Mr. Gene Wicker at various times have played the piano for us at the opering exercises of our meetings as we sang "America" - 1st stanza. Also at each meeting we have always opened with prayer and the flag salute. America was built by patriotic and religious forefathers who believed in honoring God, for which we are thankful. This is just one way we can show our appreciation.

As your outgoing President in December, 1981, I would like to express my appreciation to all of you for your cooperation and support. I am particularly indebted to all the officers for the faithful performance of their duties. Thank you Mrs. Hayes, Mr. Wm. Neel Jackson, Mrs. Arvella Tabor, and last but not least, Mr. Harry Jackson for your perservance and continued interest despite obstacles due to illness. We are encouraged by your example of faith and optimism. Our special appreciation also goes to Sue Hudnall who acted as Program Chairman, and Scrap Book Committee Chairman. Our increase in membership can be credited to Helen Lawrence as Chairman of the Ways and Means; Mary Frances Williams of the Membership Committee as they worked behind scenes

May we encourage, support and help our new President and other officers in 1982, lending our utmost cooperation. The Club belongs to all the members and it is only as good as we purpose to make it. I am looking forward to having more free time next year to work on my genealogy. I have done my best in serving you during the past year.

Your President
