OLD MULKEY MEETING HOUSE

The picture on the cover is the old Mill Creek Baptist Church, now called the Old Mulkey Meeting House and the focal point of the Old Mulkey Meeting House State Park. The church, near Tompkinsville, is believed to have been established in about 1776 by Philip Mulkey who was the progenitor of a line of Mulkey preachers stretching all across the country. The present building was built in about 1798 under the leadership of John Mulkey, grandson of Philip Mulkey. John's brother, another Philip Mulkey, went on to Illinois where he founded a church and the town of Mulkeytown.

The founder of Mill Creek Church, Philip Mulkey, was a native of North Carolina and founded several churches there before moving on to the South Carolina back country where he started and pastored several more churches. He started the Fairforest Baptist Church there in 1761, and records show he was there until late 1775. Because of the stirrings leading to the American Revolution, the back country of South Carolina became a seething area of contention; as a result Philip Mulkey dropped out of sight. Oral tradition and a study of dates suggest that he and his 12 followers came to Kentucky and established Mill Creek Church in about 1776.

Mulkey's son, Jonathan, became one of the first preachers, if not the first, in what became Tennessee. He was the father of three preachers: John Mulkey and Philip Mulkey II of Mill Creek Church and Isaac Mulkey who remained in Tennessee.

EDITOR'S COMMENTS
CONCERNING THIS ISSUE OF "TRACES"

Dear Friends,

As a researcher with ancestors who lived in Monroe County, I quickly became aware of the scarcity or unavailability of records from that area. The court house was burned in 1863 and again in 1888, and very few records have survived. From time to time, we have printed items in "TRACES" that might possibly be of help to someone. In this issue, which is devoted entirely to Monroe County, I have reprinted some of the earlier articles, as well as some more recent items that have come to light. At the end of this letter, you will find a listing of additional articles which have been printed, and the volume and issue in which each was printed.

Several years ago, a Glasgow attorney, Marion Vance, now deceased, drew a map of the Meshack - McFarland - Meredith - Sulphur Lick Creek areas, and with the aid of land grants, deeds, etc., which he found in Frankfort, attempted to show on that map the approximate location of that settler's claim. About 1975 he gave me a copy of that map. It was quite large and had to be copied in sections. The paper has yellowed and the names have become very dim - some practically unreadable. I have reduced that map to become two unnumbered pages of this issue. As that made the names so tiny, I have instead placed a number at the location of that name on the map. The pages immediately following the map list these numbers, with so corresponding names. I have attempted to make it as accurate as possible, but the pages were so faded that errors are quite likely.

Any additional material you can supply will be greatly appreciated. This means all areas, not necessarily Monroe County. I need material for "TRACES". If you wish to send your family charts, that's fine, but they will not be printed in that form. I attempt to include as much material as possible in each issue, and family charts take up a lot of space. If you could type it in a more compact form, it would be very helpful. Your family sheets and any other material not used will be placed in our files for future reference.

ORIGINAL SETTLERS OF MESHACK CREEK, BLANDS FORK AND MUD CAMP ARES - EASTERN MONROE CO., KY.

By Marion Vance, Glasgow, Ky.

(Taken from January 1974 Traces, Vol. 1, #4)

Cumberland County was formed in 1798 from a portion of Green County, and included the Meshack Creek Area which later became Monroe County when it was formed in 1820 from portions of Barren and Cumberland Counties. The names of the original settlers of Meshack Creek community, now Eastern Monroe County, have been reconstructed from the early entry and survey books of Green and Cumberland Counties.

Meshack Creek received its name from the fact that Meshack Skaggs was killed along its waters prior to 1795, when the Indian danger still existed. In many instances "Meshack" was called "Maches" Creek, which pronunciation is used today by many of the local residents.

Military claims of Virginia soldiers had been completed during 1798, with some exceptions, when the new counties of Barren and Cumberland were formed from Green and Warren. Simultaneously with the formation of these counties came the land rush by settlers clamoring for the lands not taken south of the Green River by military claims. Practically all of the Meshack area was void of military claims, thus the settler in compliance with law could take his claim and perfect his title.

The state price was $30.00 per 100 acre tract of second rate land, and $40.00 per 100 acre tract of first rate land; none of the waste, un-appropriated lands were rated first rate, thus giving the settler a monetary benefit, with each settler being allowed a minimum of 200 acres at a location which did not overlap another's claim. These claims were authorized by an Act of General Assembly of Kentucky in 1797, and were known as "headright" claims.

The law required occupancy, improvements, at least two acres planted in corn; county government certificates were granted for $1.00 each, and each 200 acre tract survey costing approximately $2.50 each, to be paid by the settler. The General Assembly from time to time granted extensions to settlers of their payment of the "state price", as it was called, and in 1835 those who had not completed payment for their lands were forced to finish payment, or work on the county roads in lieu thereof, and they were known as "headright debtors".

By special county law, county governments established academies which were allowed 6,000 acres of waste and un-appropriate land to be used, or re-sold for financing the county educational system. Thus we find The New Athens Academy (Green County), Bourbon Academy, and Newport Academy making land claims in Meshack and eastern Monroe County communities.

Moses Kirkpatrick was the first to settle in the Meshack area probably in 1776, according to local legend, although he had visited the area much earlier. He was an explorer, developer, and leader, prospering in trade of products along the Cumberland River to Nashville and New Orleans, and dealing in land claims in the area. He and James Henry, assistant surveyor under John Montford who was Surveyor of Cumberland, were land partners in many instances. According to legend, his log house at Meshack village, is considered the oldest existing structure south of Green River, and that the friendly Indians helped him to build it.

Thomas Lincoln and Hannaniah Lincoln served as constable and sheriff, respectively, in the formation of Cumberland County. Thomas Lincoln territory as constable included the Meshack area in eastern Monroe County. Recorded in Barren County, Kentucky, in 1807, is the The New Athens Seminary survey of 100 acres, which was located on the Kirkpatrick trace, at the headwaters of Meshack Creek, which record mentions "including improvement made by REYNOLDS LINCOLN" in the description. Who Reynolds Lincoln was, and his relation to Thomas and Hannaniah remains a mystery to local historians.

The 1798 formation of Cumberland County brought settlers to Meshak who had in earlier times been associated with the forts and stations of Central Kentucky, namely, the Potengers of Pottenger's Station (New Haven, Kentucky), the Kirkpatricks, Phillips, and Lincolns associated with Phillips, or Nollynn Fort or Station (Hodgensville), and the three forts at Elizabethtown. Others from the stations around Greensburg, and some from the south via Tennessee and the Carolinas.

Some pioneers settled in the area long before their title claims were filed on record. Green County records show claims filed there, in 1796, but not perfected until 1798 when Cumberland was formed. Many filed claims, stayed a time, became disillusioned, and left, seeking greener pastures.

The trail from Meshack via Persimmon, Cross-Roads, Randolph, Wisdom in Metcalfe County, thence to Elk Lick on Little Barren River, near Monroe County, Kentucky, where it joined the Cumberland Trace, was known as the Moses Kirkpatrick Trace (later Road) at it's lower, or southern end, and from the upper end, Elk Lick due southward along this trace known as "The Road from Elk Lick to Jackson's Ferry on Cumberland River". The middle portion of this trace, in the Wisdom and Randolph areas was later referred to as "The Salt Works Road", since it was the route northward to the Bullitt Salt Licks.

Edmund Rogers, deputy surveyor of the Virginia Military Land Office, surveyed the Henry Quarles 1,000 acre military entry (10 Aug 1784) on 13 September 1798, with Thomas and George Dooley, and Jacob Railsback as his crew, and mentioned in the description that the survey "crosses Kirkpatrick's Road". This survey is located about two and one half miles northwest of Persimmon, on the headwaters of Skeggs Creek, near the southwest branches of the headwaters of Marrowbone Creek in Monroe County. Thus, by 1798, Kirkpatrick's trace had become a "Road."

There were a few military surveys which only mentioned Cumberland River as the description of the location, giving description of the meets and bounds. It has been difficult to locate some of these, because Cumberland River traversed such a vast area of eastern Kentucky before it joins the Ohio. Such has been the case with the John and George Walden military survey of 400 acres on Cumberland River in 1786, (see Wells, History of Cumberland County, Kentucky, p19), and (Jillson's, Old Kentucky Entries and Deeds, p. 539). The Waldens were some of the earliest settlers of the Meshack area, which include Sam Biggerstaff who obtained 1,000 acre tract in 1798 on Cumberland River, according to a survey of Cumberland County, Kentucky.

ALVIN C. PILE, THOS. WEBB, REUBEN PAYNE, Admrs of Hezekiah Payne, decd; The Royal Ins. Co. of Tennessee, The Underwriters Ins. Co. of Hartford, Conn.

The Plaintiff, W.L. MARRS, states that on the day of 189- he made & entered into a contract with Deft. ALVIN C. PILE, by the terms of which it was agreed & contracted between them that this Plff. should make for said PILE a large quantity of whiskey, to wit: One hundred barrels or more for which said PILE agreed to pay him, the Plff. $ & which he has paid in full. It was further agreed & contracted between them, as the same time, that this plff should make said whiskey in his own name & execute each to the Government of the United States as was required by law, of a distiller, which he did execute with the Defts. MILLER & WEBB as his surieties. Said bond was accepted by the Government, through its proper officials, & this plff. proceeded to & did make for the said Deft. PILE, under & by virtue of said contract, one hundred & one barrels of whiskey, each barrel containing forty two gallons. Under the contract afd. and as a part of it, said PILE agreed that he would account & be bound to this Plaintiff for the tax due the Government in said whiskey; that this Plaintiff would stand bound to the government for it & that he would pay this Plaintiff the tax aforesaid. The Plaintiff says the whisky made by him as aforesaid amounted to 4242 gallons & the tax thereon, as $1.10 on the gallon amounted to & was $4666.20. Of the whiskey so made by this Plff. under said contract, 21 barrels have been taken out of hand & said PILE has paid the tax thereon amounting to $970.20. The balance of the tax has not been paid, it is now due to the Government by this Plff under his bond aforesaid & said PILE is indebted to this plff. for the full amount of same, the taxes now amounting to the sum of $3,696.00. Said PILE has paid this Plff no part of the sum & it is now due him by said PILE under said contract.

The Plaintiff further states that on the day of 189- he made and entered into a contract with HEZEKIAH PAYNE by the terms of which he agreed & contracted to make for said Payne a lot of whiskey, which was to be made in Plaintiffs name & for which the said PAYNE agreed to & did pay the Plaintiff $. It was further agreed & contracted between them that this plff should execute to the Government of the United States each bond? as was then required by law of a distiller which he did with the Defts. MILLER & WEBB as his sureties, which said bond was accepted by the Government thru its proper officials, and the Plaintiff proceeded to & did make for said Payne, under said contract, forty six barrels of whiskey, in which the said PAYNE paid Plff. $. Under contract made with said PAYNE it was agreed & contracted between the parties afsd. that said PAYNE under his bond & did bind himself & agreed to stand to this plff, in the payment of the taxes on said whiskey to the Government; it was agreed & contracted that this plff would, so between them stand bond & liable to the Government for said taxes & that said PAYNE would pay the same to this Plaintiff. The Plaintiff says each barrel of whiskey made by him for said PAYNE contained forty two gallons & that the tax now due on same, as $1.10 per gallon amounts to the sum of $2079.00. No part of this sum has ever been paid to the Plaintiff.

The Plaintiff says since the contract between him and the said PAYNE was made & entered into, that the said PAYNE has departed this life & that the defendant REUBEN PAYNE is his Admr. & now acting as such. As a part of the assets which came to the hands of said Admr. the forty two barrels of whiskey were sold & bought by the Deft. ALVIN C. PILE, who, when he bought said whiskey, knew about Plaintiffs contract with said PAYNE, and he agreed & promised this Plaintiff & said Admr. if they would permit him to & hold said whisky that he would account to this Plff for the taxes due thereon, & hold him harmless to any liability to the Government.

The Plaintiff says that in the 10th of January 1899 all of the whisky made by him under the two contracts aforesaid was stored in Plaintiff ware house in Monroe County, Kentucky & he is afraid he is bound & liable to the Government for the taxes due thereon & he further states that the deft. ALVIN C. PILE and the said PAYNE, deceased, agreed & promised him that if he would become responsible to the Government for the taxes on whiskey to be made by him, for them, that, they would as and be honor bound for & would acknowledge & assume their liability to him on that account, & he says they are now indebted to him or rather the deft, ALVIN C. PILE is, on that account in the sum of $5775.00. No part of the same has ever been paid; and he says he and his surities are bound to the Government for the same, and they have no indemnity against loss by reason of their liability; & the same is now due to the government & unpaid.

The Plaintiff says that at the time said whisky was the said, the Deft. ALVIN C. PILE, was the owner of every gallon thereof; but he says prior to said fire, he being in failing circumstances financially, took out two policies of insurance on said whisky in the name of his son, the Defendant LINDSAY T. PILE. That was done for the purpose of hindering, delaying & cheating the Creditors of said ALVIN C. PILE, and for the purpose of putting his property beyond the reach of his creditors. The said LINDSAY T. PILE, at the time said whisky was insured, owned no part of the same and had no interest in it.....

ATTENTION! ATTENTION! NEW CEMETERY PUBLICATION!

Our society is researching and collecting information for as complete a record of Barren county burials as we can get. As you know, the late Eva Coe Peden did copy many, many cemeteries which have been published in two volumes; the first is sold out, and we have very few copies left of Volume II. Even Eva could not copy all the cemeteries. We are including her previous records in this book, and are rechecking as many of these as is possible. (Many have disappeared since she copied them some twenty years or more ago.) Also we have added many additional cemeteries. Homemaker clubs in the county, school groups, and a large number of volunteers are making a new survey - with the data collected going into a computer. Our plan is to have a cemetery book ready for the Kentucky Bicentennial in 1992.

There are many family burial sites in the county that are no longer identifiable. In addition, there are many burials which have no markers. Many of the older markers are in such condition that reading them without error is difficult. Accurate information on all burials should be recorded and saved, and the only way we can publish this historic burial data is for someone with knowledge of the information to let us know - before Summer 1991.

We would appreciate hearing from any of our readers who have burial plot information - with location of site (if known), and names and dates. Barren County family records need to be preserved.

Please send what information you have to: Cemetery Book, P. O. Box 157, Glasgow, Ky. 42142-0157.

Thomas Bartley was born in London, England near Charing Cross on April 9, 1759. Just who his parents were is not known. He immigrated to America at the age of 13, landing in the port of Baltimore.

He fought in the Revolutionary War. He enlisted in the Regular Army from Maryland on July 28, 1776 under Captain Forrest, and again in Philadelphia where he was apprenticed to a Butcher. He was listed as missing in action in April of 1778 and as a prisoner of war in May of 1779. He was exchanged in November of 1781 at Charles Town.

He lived in Hagerstown for 4 years before moving to Virginia. In 1783 he joined St. Clair for a 6 month period of time. He was subsequently wounded and brought to Georgetown, Kentucky, by Major Bodinger. He stayed in Kentucky until his wounds healed. He returned to Virginia and enlisted for another 3 years with Captain Alexander Gipson of Stanton and General Wayne. He was discharged at Cincinnati, Ohio and returned to Kentucky in 1788.

On January 1, 1801 he married Margaret (Peggy) Burchum the daughter of Benaize and Elizabeth Burchum. They were married by Rev. John Mulkey in Barren Co. The Marriage Return is on file there.

The family tradition says that they lived on the "Old Trace Road." The Old Family Bible shows that they had nine children. William, George, Isaiah, Thomas, Sally, Martha, Elizabeth, Abijah (Bige), and Benjamin. Again, family tradition says that there was a tenth child born between George and Isaiah.

In papers filed for his Revolutionary War Pension his last name was inadvertently spelled "Bartlet" and the claim was denied. After his death, Peggy refiled. The statement sent in by the lawyer said that "he was an illiterate and uneducated man and did not know that his name had been misspelled." Margaret was granted the pension.

The Family Bible states that Thomas died August 10, 1849. That would make him 89 years, 8 months and 29 days old. He was reported to be buried in the Bartley Graveyard that had it's name changed to the Miller Cemetery. He did not have a marker until 1938 when one was erected at the Park at the Old Mulkey Meeting House.

There are still many of his descendants living in Barren, Metcalfe and Monroe Co.

BOOK REVIEWS

MEMORY AND AMERICAN HISTORY edited by: David Thelen. pub. date: August 31, 1990. 176 pgs. index. $25.00 cloth $10.95 paper. Published by Indiana University Press Publicity Dept. 10th & Morton Sts. Blomington, Indiana 47405 (182) 855-8054.

Memory and history go hand-to-hand, the former is the mental faculty of keeping and recalling events and the latter a story of past events. This publication deals with American History citing small groupus who have kept events to become such by keeping alive by memory. As we can see the challenge of history is to recover the past and introduce it to the present. The starting place for this book is the conviction that topics and methods surrounding the workings of memory open fresh approaches to problems that have troubled many of the humanities and social sciences in the 1980s.

In this publication Professor Thelen gives examples and methods on how this is achieved. This book is highly recommended for college and university students who are pursuing the study of history. David Thelen is professor of history at Indiana University and editor of the Journal of American History.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Membership is open to anyone interested in the history of the South Central Kentucky area, centering around Barren County. Annual dues are now $10.00.

TRACES, the society's quarterly publication is received by all members. It is published seasonally: Spring, Summer, Fall, and Winter. Members joining during the year will receive the past issues of that year.

Contributions are earnestly solicited. Family genealogies, marriage, Bible, will and probate, cemetery, court and other records are all acceptable. You will be listed as the contributor on all material you submit.

Queries are accepted only from members, without limit, and will be published as space permits. Queries should be limited to about fifty words each.

Books to be reviewed in "TRACES" must be sent with information as to the cost, including postage, and from whom the book may be obtained. Books become the property of the society library. Books should have some Kentucky interest. Reviews will be published as space permits.

Exchange of "TRACES" with other societies or publications is acceptable and welcome.

Meetings are held monthly, except December, at the Mary Wood Weldon Memorial Library, College Street, Glasgow, Ky. The meetings, held on the fourth Thursday, begin at 7:00 P.M. CST. Interesting and informative programs are planned for each meeting and your supportive attendance is always welcome.
