Biographical History: Charles Crume [1933-1996] of Bardstown joined the Air Force upon graduating high school. After his discharge he worked for Southern Bell Telephone & Telephone Company in Louisville. While there he enrolled in night classes at the University of Louisville. Afterward he pursued his interest in nature art publishing a column "Nature Notes," in the Kentucky Standard. This led to a position as Chief Naturalist of Bernheim Forest in Bullitt and Nelson Counties. He received his PhD from the University of Kentucky in 1983. Crume was a physical education and recreation professor at WKU from 1969 to 1995 where he was Interpretive Naturalist and Lecturer in Residence.
