HISTORY OF SOUTHERN KENTUCKY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

(Program presented to S.K.G.S. on Nov.19,1981 by Lucille Scott)

GENEALOGY is a word that has been in our vocabulary for a long time, but has come to the foreground of our thinking, for the most part, in the last ten years. Genealogy is a record of individual or family descent from some ancestor, especially, a list in the order of succession of ancestors and their descendants.

Why think of our forebears? Why their seeming importance? Maybe the wars brought it on, the wars of the 20th century, World War I and II. The invention of the atomic bomb has had its influence. Do we think our civilization is doomed to smoulder in atomic ashes soon? Maybe we think of absolute oblivion. We would like to hold on as long as possible to what we have and what we are.

Anyway, genealogy is a good term we moderns understand. We seek to know more of it and our relation to it has become more dear.

Mrs. Claire Davenport, a teacher in Community Education and a specialist in genealogy, was our first president. The idea came from Mrs. Davenport to found a genealogical club because of the interest of her students in the subject. She was elected president in its organizational meeting at the Public Library on October 13, 1977. Other elected officers were: Vice president, J.David Evans; Secretary, Mary Frances Williams; Treasurer, Dana Harlow; Historian, Martha Jackson; By-laws Committee, Virginia DeVries, Sue Evans and Beverly Wells. The thirteen charter members of the group were: Claire Davenport, Colleen B. Garrett, Ann Downing Hocker, Dana Harlow, J. David Evans, Sue Evans, Melvin Adamson, Faye Adamson, Betty Lyne, Rosa Isbell, Pete Howell, Sadie Howell, and Martha S. Jackson. The group planned that regular meetings would be at 7:PM on third Thursdays of each month. at the B.G. Public Library.

Regular meetings of the SKGS helped the members in numerous ways to reach their goals in ancestor huntings. Probably the information they received in the talks or speeches of those on the programs helped as much or more than any one effort. The following is a list of the programs of the meetings:

June 8	1978	Dr. Glenn Dooley on Dooley Family Research

Now, let us back-tract for a while and pick up some information that is available and important. The meeting places for our organization have been attractive and comfortable. Beginning in February 1979 there were five in the Educational Building at Western Kentucky University. The University has always been hospitable. Through September 1981, we have enjoyed twenty-four occasions in the Public Library. We realize and appreciate that the Library has also always been hospitable. We have had other miscellaneous meetings. On November 9, 1978 a dinner meeting was enjoyed at the Lone Oak Restaurant on the Old Scottsville Road. In December 1979 a large number of Christmas gifts were collected for the patients at Western State Hospital.

Money-wise the Society has done very well, Several projects are on hand with the idea of adding information and quality to our club. The current membership fee is $6.00 and the last record from the minutes dated May 21, 1981 was a record of the treasurer's report of a bank balance of $621.83.

The most dynamic influence in our Society has been the SKGS newsletter. Our first and only Newsletter Editor has been Betty Lyne. The first issue was completed in the Spring 1978 and there were two volumes that year. In the years 1979, 1980, 1981 there have been four issues.

In addition to the Newsletters, our Society has created what we designated as "Line Generation Ancestor Charts". By August 1980 each member endeavored to contribute as many of these charts as he could. This was put on sale in March 1981 for $12.50. Index Chart No. 1 was compiled by Neel Jackson at a sale price of $2.00. Index Chart No. 2 was compiled by Mrs. Eugenia Hayes at a sale price of $3.50.

Now we are in November 1981.

For years a club like ours has just begun.

We must think of it with zeal and zest.

We must organize, trust and study to keep our success

For real and for true.

Remember members,

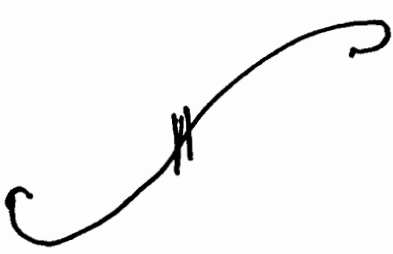

Our genealogical success depends on all, on you, and all who try.

This is true.

Let us be glad of what we have done.

Let us look to the future and strive for the best.

We can do it, yes, we can, let us win in the test!

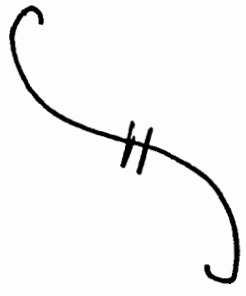

KITH 'N KIN

By

Mrs. Virginia Posey DeVries
Bowling Green, Kentucky
(Jan. 3rd, 1982)

It is quite an amusing fact
And somewhat baffling at that!
How children -- Kissin' Kinsmen
While at play,
Can fuss and fight and carry on
And seem to always want their way!

And then when they become grown-ups
And quite perchance -- GENEALOGY BUFFS
And they meet again along the way
In searching for the missing
FAMILY LINK one day--

It is Kissin' then of Kith 'N Kin
As their early past begins again
And this time things seem to take on a different trend
As their lives toward each other gradually bend
AND together they pursue their ANCESTER HUNT toward a common end.

One Hundred and Fifty Years Proclaiming The Good News

The First Baptist Church of Russellville, Kentucky is celebrating its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary.

According to an old church manual: The Russellville Baptist Church was constituted in the town of Russellville, Logan County, Kentucky, November 24, 1813, by Elders Leonard Page, Ambrose Borne and Sugg Fort with ten members. These members were Spencer and Catherine Curd, Drury W. and Betsy Poore, John Poindexter, Thomas Grubbs, William and Mary Kirchival, Catherine Owens, and Elizabeth Rollins. Brethren from other churches were present. The church adopted ten articles of its belief.

In February, 1819, Elder Leonard Page was chosen as pastor to preach "each second Lord's Day and the Saturday preceding of each month." On September 19, 1819, the church joined the Red River Association. At the close of Elder Page's pastorate, January, 1821, the church reported 102 white and 69 colored members. In February, 1821, Elder William Warder succeeded Elder Page as pastor and was employed to preach two Sundays in each month at a salary of from "$300 to $400, according as the members agreed to pay."

In September, 1821, the church withdrew from the Red River Association and united with the Bethel Association which had been organized three years before.

In 1831 the balance of the debt was paid on the Union Meeting House which was owned jointly by the Baptist and the Cumberland Presbyterians. About this time a great revival prevailed and among the many additions to the church were the Longs and the Nortons who were to do so much for the local church and become well-known in Baptist ranks throughout the Southland.

Following Elder Warder, from 1836-1841, there were a number of short pastorates and among these pastors were Elders John Wilson, Thomas Chilton, Phillip Warder and R. T. Anderson. During the pastorate of Elder Anderson in 1838, the church affiliated with the "General Association of Kentucky Baptist," which was formed the year before in Louisville.

Elder Samuel Baker became pastor December 9, 1841. He was the first full time pastor. His salary was $600 a year, plus a parsonage. During Elder Baker's pastorate the church contributed to all missionary causes, at home and abroad, and erected a new church building, which Elder Baker dedicated July 20, 1844. Upon application of the congregation and by act of the General Assembly of Kentucky, the church was incorporated under the name of the "Russellville United Baptist Church." After a five-year pastorate, Elder Baker resigned, "Leaving the church full of zeal and with a noble membership."

Elder Baker was succeeded in 1847 by Elders E. D. Burns, W. I. Morton, William Sum, (1849) J. M. Pendleton, (1850), and Leonard Fletcher, (1853). During Elder Fletcher's ministry, the church prospered and monthly Missionary meetings were held with prepared addresses by two of the members at each meeting.

In 1856 the parsonage and grounds were sold and the proceeds were invested in stock of the Bank of Kentucky.

Elder W. W. Gardener became pastor in December 1857. He was greatly beloved by the church as a true shepherd of the flock following the terrible Civil War period. The members contributed $100 a year to benevolences in addition to regular church expenses and the Southern Baptist Convention met in this church in 1865.

In 1868 the African Baptist Church of Russellville was constituted by Rev. W. W. Gardener of whom the members were dismissed from this church for that purpose. Since 1841 they had been having separate meetings but under the supervision of this church.

After twelve years of service on January 1, 1870, Elder Gardener resigned as pastor to take up his duties of the Theological Department in Bethel College. Though he devoted himself exclusively to the instruction of the young ministers, he was always in close touch with the church.

In April, 1870, D. A. W. Chamblis was called as pastor. During his pastorate, the church adopted a Manual prepared containing the Covenant, Articles of Faith and many other matters of church government. He resigned in 1872.

In January 1873, Elder Samuel Baker began his second pastorate. He served until 1885 and during his ministry, "with the church established in sound doctrine, increased in numbers and taught in the love of the Holy Scriptures."

Elder Samuel Baker was succeeded by Dr. S. M. Province who served the church for two years and was succeeded in February 1888 by Elder Jonathan G. Bow who served until October, 1889. Interim pastors from 1889-1890 were Elders W. A. Vaughn, George Kinnard, T. S. McCall and G. W. Kinnard. On January 30, 1890, the church called Elder G. S. Kinnard to be pastor. He resigned on March 6, 1891.

In 1892 Elder W. J. Williams was called as pastor and served until 1896. Elder Williams was succeeded by Elder E. S. Alderman.

In April 17, 1898, a Building Committee was instructed to let the contract for a new church building, our present structure. Upon the resignation of Dr. Alderman, Elder John S. Cheek took over the duties of the church in July, 1900. On the fourth Sunday in April, 1903, the new building was dedicated. The sermon was preached by Dr. E. C. Dargan of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, from Acts 2:42.

W. C. James became pastor May, 1906, served two years and was succeeded by Elder Charles Anderson in August, 1908. After serving four years, Elder Anderson was followed by Elder George Seay in 1912. It is interesting to note that in the early days of this church, the burden of the Missionary Movement was borne by the men. Dr. Seay served from 1912 to 1917 and was succeeded by Dr. Frank S. Hardy in May, 1917.

In the following June the church raised funds to send Miss Mary Nell Lyne, one of its members, as a missionary to China under the Foreign Mission Board, Richmond, Virginia. In July the church adopted the Duplex envelope system for weekly gifts to all causes.

On the one hundredth anniversary of the church was observed with special services. The pastor, Dr. L. Hardy, preached the sermon and the church history was read by the clerk, Mr. A. C. Hardy.

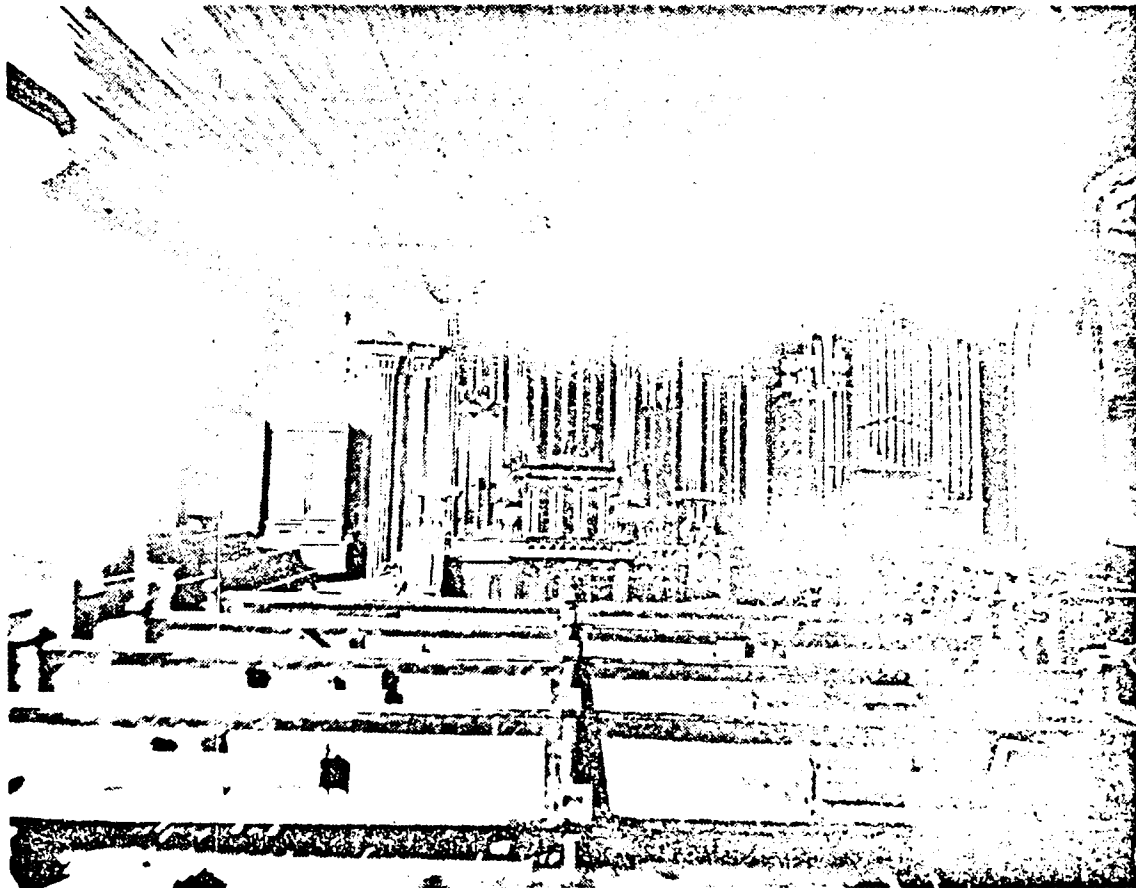

On June 21, 1964, the Services of Dedication for the remodeled Sanctuary were conducted and Rev. John Wood delivered the dedicatory sermon.

Rev. C. Glenn Sullivan began his pastorate in July 1964. He was formerly the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Sulligent, Alabama. Rev. Sullivan has contributed to the spiritual growth and doctrinal instruction of the church. The Experiment in Christian Committment, emphasizing discipline toward a life that matters, was initiated in 1967. This program showing love for God and fellow man has had far reaching effects.

In July, 1965, the Henry Jones property was purchased, and the E. G. Perkins property was purchased in 1967.

On December 3, 1967, the first $100,000 budget was adopted. The debt of the church incurred in the construction of the Educational Building has been substantially reduced. In December 1964, the debt was approximately $113,000 and since that time $35,000 has been invested in the property and church repairs and in December 1968 the debt will be $48,500.

One hundred and fifty years ago ten members and three elders lighted a candle on the altar of their faith. "We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly." (II Thes. 1:3) Today the First Baptist Church stands as a monument to their faith and those committed Christians who have continued to carry the torch. "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." (Hebrews 12:1-2)

HISTORY OF THE DRIPPING SPRING BAPTIST CHURCH

Mrs. Earl Pidcock

The Dripping Spring Baptist Church was constituted in the community schoolhouse on Saturday before the third Sunday in December, 1850. The sermon was preached by Rev. William I. Morton. The charter members in the organization were composed of persons, who were holding letters from the Union and Pleasant Grove Churches. These members were as follows: Thomas M. James, John W. Mimms, James A. Page, James A. Boyer, Samuel W. Page, Robert Bagby, William Page, Russell Miller, David W. Mimms, William Sanders, Sarah A. James, Mary Mimms, Priscilla Page, Mary Miller and Louisa I. Page. After prayer, the hand of fellowship was extended to the members of the new church by Elder William I. Morton and by two deacons of the Mt. Pleasant Church, namely Edward Mosely and Daniel Maddox. Thomas M. James and James O. Boyer were ordained deacons. Brethren James O. Boyer and Thomas M. James were elected clerks to serve alternately year by year. The second Sunday and Saturday before the second Sunday in each month was adopted as the time for regular worship. Elder James B. Lamb was elected pastor by private ballot at the first regular conference meeting.

Brother Lamb began his work as pastor of the church on Saturday before the second Sunday in February, 1851. On that meeting day William Page and Amanda Page were received for baptism.

The church was received in the Bethel Association in its session with the Old Bethel Church the following September. The church's report to the Association showed ten members had been received by baptism, and a total membership of 44. There were reported 43 members in 1853. In 1855 there were reported 66 members, and Elder J. F. Sanders, a licensed minister, was the only messenger present from the church.

Brother Lamb served the church as pastor for about four years and was succeeded by Elder D. Buckley in 1854. Brother Lamb was called to succeed Brother Buckley and served about two years. At the September meeting in 1856, Benjamin F. Price and Asena Price were received into the church by baptism.

In November, 1857, Elder B. Roberts took charge of the church as pastor and continued in service until April, 1863. He stated to the church that he could not serve any longer. A motion carried, when Pastor Roberts refused to continue, that Brother F. M. Page be appointed to draw up a subscription list to raise funds to compensate "our pastor" for his past labors.

Elder F. C. Plaster was unanimously called to pastor the church at the regular conference meeting May, 1863. February, 1864, Brethren B. F. Price and David Hughes were appointed to employ a sexton for the church for the balance of the year. This committee reported at the next meeting that a servant boy, Jim, employed by Brother F. M. Page could be secured. A subscription list was started and $18.00 was raised to pay for his work.

Pastor F. C. Plaster was succeeded in the pastorate by Elder J. J. Felts who took charge of the church in January, 1865; Brother Felts continued as pastor until February, 1868. In April, 1868, Elder S. P. Forgy became pastor and served about one year. Brother W. J. Page was superintendent of the Sunday School. On the third Sunday in June 1869, Elder E. N. Dicken was called as pastor on motion by Brother W. J. Page, ? Price (colored) was excluded from the church, having united with the Methodists.

In April, 1870, the church called Elder G. W. Tremary who continued until 1879. Elder J. G. Kendall held a great meeting with the church near the close of the pastorate of Brother Tremary. December, 1879, Brother Kendall was called to be pastor and served until April, 1881. December, 1881, Brother Tremary was again called as pastor and continued until December, 1883. February 24, 1884, Dr. W. S. Ryland became pastor and continued one year. Dr. Ryland was succeeded in 1865 by Prof. C. P. Shields of Bethel College, who had been ordained to the ministry a short time before. Brother Shields served the church one year and was succeeded by Elder

T. W. Bibb, who served until November, 1888.

Elder J. H. Burnett was pastor during 1889, Brother F. M. Page was superintendent of the Sunday School and the church reported 113 members to the Association. In January, 1890, Elder B. F. Page became pastor and served six years. In 1897, Elder W. J. Puckett was pastor, Brother A. J. Page was clerk and there were 212 members reported. In January, 1898, Brother B. F. Page was again pastor and served one year. Elder A. H. Rather began his work as pastor in January, 1899, and continued until 1904. In 1905, Elder William Wilks was pastor, Brother A. J. Page was clerk, and F. M. Page, Superintendent of the Sunday School.

In 1908, the Dripping Spring Church withdrew from the Bethel Association and united with the Logan County Association. Brother Wilkes was succeeded by Elder J. H. Vaughn who served the church as pastor about two years. The church returned to the Bethel Association in 1912, but made no report that year.

The minutes of the association in 1913 showed that Elder J. H. Burnett was pastor, Brother W. O. Price was clerk, and Brother Silas Mason was superintendent of the Sunday School. The church reported 126 members, and the following year 125 were reported.

Brother Burnett continued as pastor until 1921, about nine years. The church reported to the Association in 1920 that the church had grown under Brother Burnett's ministry to 328 members, and the pastor's salary had been increased to $600.00 a year. The minutes showed that Brother Orion Price was clerk and Brother R. L. Wells was superintendent of the Sunday School. In 1922, Brother Burnett was succeeded in the pastorate by Elder W. J. Puckett, who served one year.

In 1923, Elder T. P. Simmons, then a student at Bethel College, was called to the pastorate. In 1926, according to the Association minutes, Brother J. H. Burnett was again pastor and continued until 1931, when he was followed by Elder H. L. Green. In 1933, Elder G. L. Youman was pastor and was succeeded by Elder Reed

Brother George M. Ray is the present pastor, having been called in February of 1939. (From the April 21, 1940 notes). Brother Earl L. Parker served as Clerk, Brother Harold Bagby as Treasurer, Brother Robert Blick as superintendent of the Sunday School, and Mrs. Eva Holiday as President of the W. M. S. The membership of the church was reported as 312, and 111 enrolled in the Sunday School. The church contributed the year before to all purposes, $1,164.41. The following were deacons: B. M. Miller, chairman of the Board, Howard Poor, E. R. Parrish, Byron Wilson, Ira Miller, Robert Blick, Earl L. Parker, John Miller, and Jesse Price.

On March 10, 1956 Dripping Spring Baptist Church building was destroyed by fire; the pulpit chair, piano and books from the library were saved. The Church met in the Olmstead Gym as they had used our Church for a year of school while rebuilding the school after it was burned.

All members went to work to rebuild our church--each one doing all he could. The men did most of the work, but hired help with what they couldn't do. On August 31, 1958, the beautiful colonial brick building was dedicated. Rev. Robert Dandy of the Baptist Sunday School at Nashville, Tennessee, preached the morning service and Rev. J. Thomas Miller the evening.

An easy way to tell the cousin relationship:

If you have a common grandfather, you are first cousins.

If you have a common great grandfather, you are second cousins.

If you have a common great great grandfather, you are third cousins.

BILLIARDS

French kings and English royalty have played billiards, as well as American Presidents Washington, Lincoln, Garfield, and Cleveland. John Quincy Adams billed the government for a White House "billiard table $50, billiard balls $6, and cues $5," until he was denounced as a spendthrift and had to pay himself.
