RUSSELL COUNTY, KENTUCKY - A RESOURCE PROFILE

Russell County is located in south-central Kentucky's Mississippian Plateaus Region and encompasses a large portion of Lake Cumberland, one of the state's most scenic waterways and recreational areas. Russell County covers a land area of 253 square miles and had a 1992 estimated population of 15,233 persons.

Jamestown, located in the central portion of Russell County, serves as the county seat. Jamestown had a 1992 estimated population of 1,794. Jamestown is located 185 miles south of Cincinnati, Ohio; 124 miles southeast of Louisville, Kentucky; and 149 miles northwest of Knoxville, Tennessee.

Russell Springs, the larger of the two cities, is located five miles north of Jamestown and had a 1992 estimated population of 2,436.

The Economic Framework - The total number of Russell County residents employed in 1993 averaged 6,310. In 1992, wholesale and retail trade provided 1,117 jobs; 533 people were employed in service occupations; state and local government accounted for 912 employees; and contract construction firms provided 188 jobs.

Labor Supply - There is a current estimated labor supply of 11,744 persons available for industrial jobs in the labor market area. In addition, from 1994 through 1998, 9,392 young persons in the area will become 18 years of age and potentially available for industrial jobs.

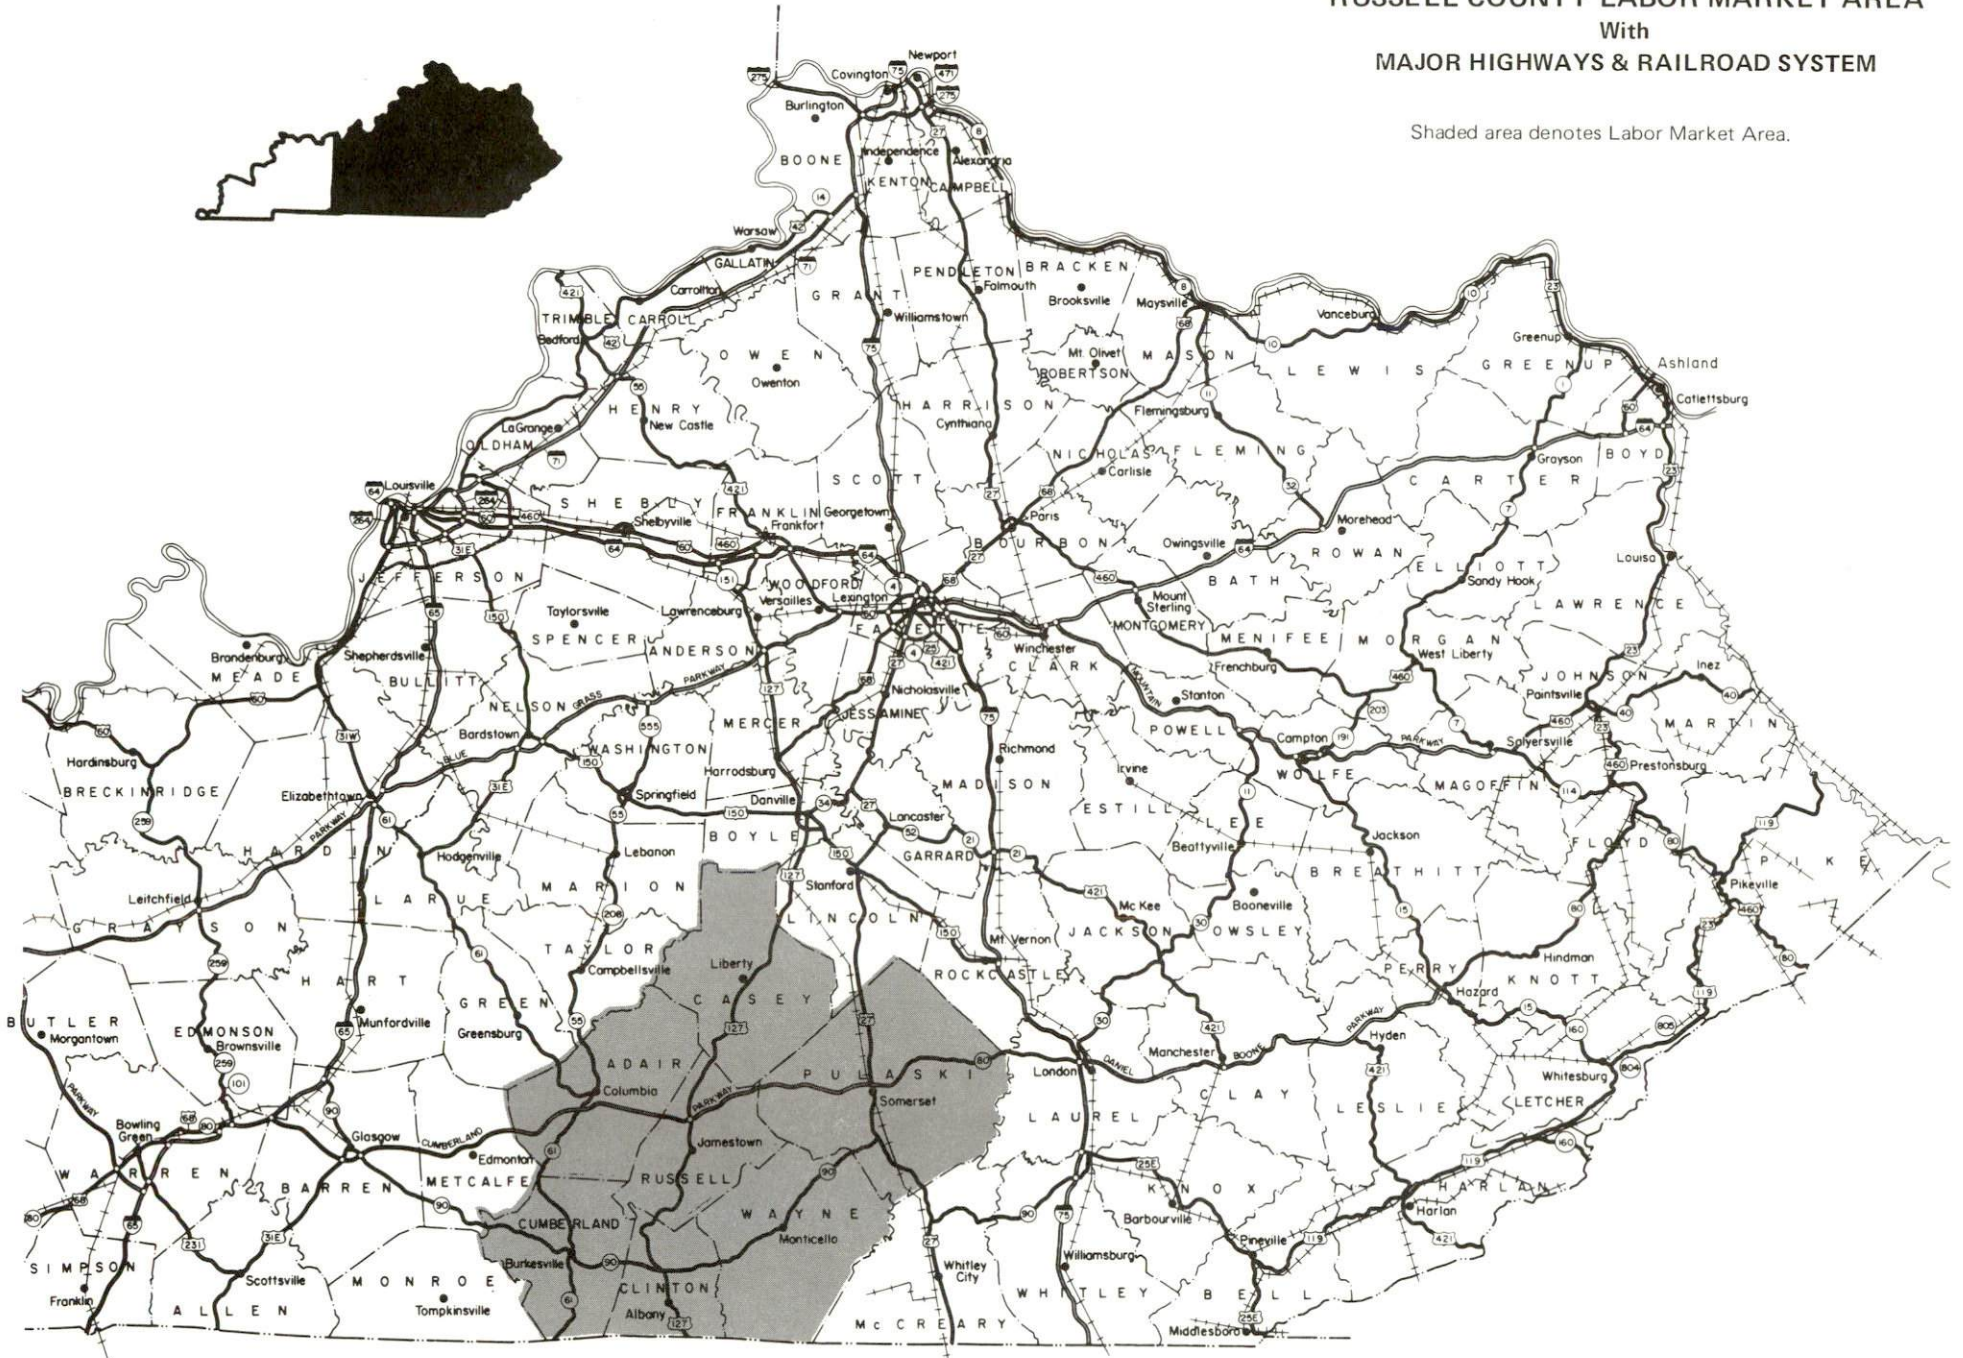

Transportation - The Cumberland Parkway, U.S. Highway 127, and Kentucky 80 are all "AAA"-rated (80,000-pound gross load limit) trucking highways serving Russell County. Interstate 75, a major north-south corridor, is located 63 miles east of Jamestown via the Cumberland Parkway and Kentucky 80. Interstate 65, another major north-south highway, is located 62 miles west of Jamestown via the Cumberland Parkway. Twelve common carrier trucking companies provide interstate and/or intrastate service to Russell County. Norfolk Southern Corporation provides the nearest main line rail service at Somerset, 32 miles east of Jamestown. The nearest scheduled commercial airline service is available at Blue Grass Airport, 92 miles northeast of Jamestown. The Russell County Airport, located two miles northwest of Jamestown, maintains a 5,000-foot runway.

Power and Fuel - Kentucky Utilities Company provides electric power to Jamestown, Russell Springs and portions of Russell County. The major portion of the county is served by South Kentucky Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation, whose source of power is East Kentucky Power.

Education - Primary and secondary education is provided by the Russell County School System. Fifteen institutions of higher learning are located within 95 miles of Jamestown, including three junior colleges, three community colleges, five senior colleges, and four universities. Vocational education is available at the Russell County Area Vocational Education Center in Russell Springs, and at the Somerset State Vocational-Technical School in Somerset, 32 miles east of Jamestown.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Structure

Jamestown is governed by a mayor and six council members. Russell Springs is served by a mayor and four commissioners. Russell County is governed by a county judge/executive and four magistrates.

Planning and Zoning

City agency - Russell Springs Planning Commission
Zoning enforced - within Russell Springs city limits
Subdivision regulations enforced - within Russell Springs city limits
Local codes enforced - Building and housing
Mandatory state codes enforced - Kentucky Plumbing Code, National Electric Code, Kentucky Boiler Regulations and Standards, Kentucky Building Code (modeled after BOCA code)

There is currently no planning and zoning organization in Jamestown.

Local Fees and Licenses

The City of Jamestown levies a occupational license tax of .25 percent upon all persons engaged in any occupation, trade or profession in the city. The maximum occupational license tax charged is $100. A net profit tax of .25 percent is also levied by the City of Jamestown; a minimum fee of $50 and maximum fee of $100 are maintained.

The City of Russell Springs levies a .25 percent occupational license tax on wages, salaries, and commissions of individuals and on net profits of businesses.

PROPERTY TAXES

The Kentucky Constitution requires the state to tax all classes of taxable property, and state statutes allow local jurisdictions to tax only a few classes. All locally taxed property is subject to county taxes and school district taxes (either a county school district or an independent school district). Property located inside of city limits may also be subject to city property taxes.

Special local taxing jurisdictions (fire protection districts, watershed districts, and sanitation districts) levy taxes within their operating areas (usually a small portion of community or county).

Property assessments in Kentucky are at 100% fair cash value. Accounts receivable are taxed at 85% of face value.

RECREATION

Local

Located in the heart of the beautiful Lake Cumberland area, Russell County, Kentucky, is a virtual water wonderland. Numerous commercial marinas and unnumbered private access points make this 101-mile-long lake and its 1,225 miles of pristine shoreline available year-round for residents and visitors alike to participate in all forms of water recreation.

Major attractions in the area include Lake Cumberland State Resort Park and the new Jamestown Marina and Resort. Lake Cumberland State Resort Park, which is situated majestically above Lake Cumberland, offers numerous suites, rooms, wildwood chalet style cottages and an indoor activities center with a pool. Hiking, boating, golf, and fishing are among the many activities visitors to the park enjoy. The Jamestown Resort and Marina maintains 750 boats slips, ship store, cafe, a forty-unit motel, fourteen cabins, boat rentals, and miniture golf.

Jamestown Lakefest Celebration, held on the 4th of July weekend, is a gathering site for artists and craftsmen alike. The Fourth is celebrated with free stage entertainment and traditional fireworks.

The Pumpkin Festival, held in Jamestown, adds an autumnal spice to the community's culture where man's handiwork combine with the fruits of the land for the celebration of a bountiful harvest.

Residents of Russell County have access to local city parks and many supervised sports programs including youth baseball leagues, and adult and youth softball leagues. 4 Sports, Russell County's new athletic facility offers gymnastics, championship racquetball courts, nautilus equipment, cardiovascular equipment, sand volleyball, outdoor basketball court and aerobics. Croquet and roller skating facilities are also available. A private country club with an 18-hole golf course, tennis courts and clubhouse is also located in Russell County.

Located in Jamestown is Kentucky's newest off-track betting facility. Thoroughbred racing is featured over 300 days a year from Keeneland, Churchill Downs, Turfway Park, and Ellis Park.
