Poetry not by a poet.

No 2.

Look on past the horizon and there;
rest your eyes then.

But alas, this place you cannot see,
but you feel it

from your core, tis what you seek,
surely there;

indeed, yes, that is where it rests;

but "it" is not, and "where" is never
near nor far,

for you forget in onlook as you seek,

the thing that lies beneath

Your feet

A dwelling place

Of peace

unfound.
