RAINBOW INN or HALL PLACE

In January 1852 three lots at the corner of Green and College Streets were bought by Christopher Tompkins and this house was built on the center lot. He deeded this property to his daughter, Theodosia Tompkins Hall, and her husband, James Hall, the son of Michael Hall.

In 1853 after Mr. Hall's death the family moved from Glasgow. The home was later known as Rainbow Inn. It was also the home of Mrs. V. H. Jones of Glasgow. Mrs. Jones' son, Howard Malcolm Jones, now owns the home which is used as an antique shop.

INFORMATION NEEDED ON CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS

Local historian, W. S. Terry, IV, is presently in the process of compiling short biographies of Barren County's Confederate soldiers. The biographies will be printed in the Barren County Progress, one of our county's two newspapers. If you had a Confederate ancestor and have information on him (or them), please make an effort to help in this project.

Such things as date of birth, death and marriage and names of children and spouses would be appreciated. Any other information and especially any Civil War stories about these people would be most interesting and helpful.

The following list is arranged alphabetically and in two different sections. It will begin on page one of this publication.

Please send any information to: W. S. Terry, IV, Route 1, Box 272A, Cave City, KY 42127.

THE POWELL FAMILY IN BARREN COUNTY, KENTUCKY

Contributed by Martha Powell Reneau, Rt. # 1, Box 285, Glasgow, Ky.
(Told by John E. Powell 1876-1972) as it was told to him when he was a small boy - with explanations and corrections.)

The Powells, Harrisons, and Britts came to Barren County, Kentucky, from Amherst County, Virginia, in the early 1800's. Isaac D. Powell (grandfather of John E. Powell) was a boy of about ten years of age. (In the Houchens family record, it is stated that the Houchenses, Powells, and Britts came to southern Barren County from Albemarle County, Virginia, in the early part of the 19th century. According to Bailey F. Davis, historian in Amherst County, Virginia, they came from what is now Amherst Co., but was cut from Albemarle in 1761, and records are in both counties. Also, Obediah Britt, son of Obediah and Ann (Thomson) Britt married Sarah Wheeler, daughter of Micajah Wheeler in Albemarle County and came to Kentucky in 1819. This was probably in the same party as above, as the names and dates coincide.)

The Powells either left land in Lynchburg, and money in the bank there, or a rich relative died and left land to them, because years later one of them gave power of attorney to Smith Curd to try to recover the land and money in Amherst County. Robert Whitehead, banker at that time, and said that during or shortly after the Civil War, someone drew the money from the bank and a town or part of a town now stands on the land. (According to Bailey F. Davis, this land is now the Madison Heights section of Lynchburg, on the Amherst side of the James River. The land was probably sold for taxes. Personally, I think this probably referred to property left to Thomas Powell by the will of his father Richard Powell, Jr.)

Pross Powell was an early settler in Barren County. He brought his money to Kentucky while others left theirs in Virginia. He was very wealthy and often gave picnics, parties and barbecues on the old Nelson Brit (now Lois Holder) place near Austin, Ky. As far as we know, he was never married. Richard Pross Powell was named for him. (In all records in Amherst County, Pross Powell was known as Prosser Powell. He was a brother to Thomas Powell, father of Isaac D. Powell. I have never found a record to show that he was in Barren County. This narrative by John E. Powell is the only indication; however, it would appear that Prosser was a kindly soul who went to Kentucky and then returned to Amherst County. His mother mentions him in her will as "Dutiful, affectionate and attentive in my old age -- has left his home and taken his property to live with me." He died in Amherst County; his will probated February, 1857. He was presumably unmarried, as no females are mentioned.)

THE POWELL FAMILY IN AMHERST COUNTY, VIRGINIA
Researched by Bailey F. Davis, Amherst, Virginia, July, 1968.

The first Powell of whom we find record is Richard Powell, who died in 1774, leaving a will dated January 25, 1766, and probated April 4, 1774. Witnesses were Thomas and Amy Powell and Jacob Smith. He gave son Edward, the Buffalo tract; son Wiatt, the Thrasher Ole tract, "where I formerly lived"; son Thomas, 245 acres near Lynch's ferry, bought from Micajah Moorman; wife, Elizabeth, 217 acres "where I now live"; names son Richard; grandson James, son of James Powell, five years of school; daughter Winneford, when married; daughter Rhoda, same; Clary Woodroof, Rhoda, when fourteen, gets horse. My children: Wiatt, Thomas, Richard, Winney and Rhoda. Executors, Carul. Thomas, Richard Shelton, son Wiatt Powell.

Richard Powell, Jr., born about 1745, son of the above, and Elizabeth Moffitt (daughter of Joseph Crews Jr.) widow of Thomas Moffitt, were married February 1, 1780, in Amherst County, Virginia. She had two daughters, Mary and Ann, by Thomas Moffitt. His will, dated November 11, 1778, probated May 3, 1779, gives his wife Elizabeth the "Mansion House" and names his two daughters. There is data too, on a Nancy as his orphan, but it is probably Ann, as Nancy seemed to be a nickname for Ann, or visa versa.

Thomas Moffitt was a controversial soul. He was arrested for stirring up inhabitants against the government, in other words, he was a Tory.

Richard Powell was loyal. At Amherst Court, 1776, he was paid L2-1-8 for 250 pounds of beef. "AMHERST COUNTY, VIRGINIA, IN THE "REVOLUTION" by Lenora H. Sweeney, states: "August Court, 1780, Richard Powell, 2nd Lieutenant". He was a member of the Revolutionary Committee of Amherst County, 1775, and his line is accepted by the D A R and listed in the D A R Patriot Index.

Richard Powell's will is dated November 11, 1815, and probated December 18, 1815. Prosser was a witness and Richard, Jr. qualified. He gave his wife Elizabeth 210 acres "where I live", son Richard and heirs; my four children: Prosser, Thomas, George and Nancy Lee.

On May 6, 1816, Prosser gives account of land sold on Creek, $2806.40 to each heir, viz: James Lee, Prosser, Thomas, and George. Prosser later gave account of George's estate, Aug 15, 1832; land of Elizabeth Powell, January 2, 1821; Thomas Powell and George Powell's estate for plantation rent and Dr. Powell's medical bill; and administration of the estate of Richard, Jr. Feb 21, 1835.

Elizabeth's division of the estate of Richard Powell says: "___slaves held by widow, prefers to hold some, but others to go to the heirs--James Lee for wife; Prosser Powell; Thomas Powell; George Powell, and Richard Powell, Jr. (James Lee was the husband of Nancy Powell.)

Elizabeth's will is dated August 31, 1835, and probated May 18, 1840. Witnesses: William Knight, Winston Woodroof; William W. Harrison. Prosser Powell qualified July 20, 1840. She states that "Son Prosser has been dutiful, affectionate, and attentive in my old age -- has left his home and taken his property to live with me. My other children to have the slaves bought at the estate sale of my son Richard. Prosser is his administrator and is to be mine."

On February 7, 1803, Thomas Powell married Asenath Tinsley, daughter of Isaac Tinsley. Securities and witnesses were: Thomas Tinsley, Samuel Garland, Thomas Woodroof, and Richard Tinsley.

Thomas and Esseneth (as she signed her name when signing for the marriage of her daughter, Esseneth, to Spencer D. Eaton in Barren County, Kentucky, September, 1841.) were the first Powells to come to Barren County. They came about 1818-1819 with a party of Britts and Houchenses, or possibly as early as 1814, as in that year Robert Mouchens and Frances Britt, daughter of Obediah Britt, were married in Barren County. Thomas Powell died in 1828. At one time, he must have been quite well-to-do, but at his death he had little. There are several transactions on record at the Barren County Court House, showing that he sold or mortgaged land, slaves and even personal property.

AMHERST COUNTY, VIRGINIA, MARRIAGES

Richard Powell to Elizabeth Muffett, widow, Feb. 1, 1780.

James Lee to Nancy Powell, Feb. 20, 1792. Consent of her father Richard Powell. (Elizabeth was either not the mother of Ann (Nancy) as she and Richard were only married twelve years at this time, or Ann was her daughter by Thomas Moffitt and had been adopted by Richard Powell after his marriage to Elizabeth. Nothing is known of the second daughter, Mary Moffitt.)

DESCENDANTS OF THOMAS POWELL AND ESSENETH (TINSLEY) POWELL

Thomas Powell was born about 1784, probably in Amherst Co., Va. He died ca 1828 in Barren County, Kentucky. He was a farmer.

IX. JOSIAH POWELL - married 1848, Barren County, Kentucky to Virgin Mary Bradshaw. They were divorced ca 1856 on grounds that he had deserted her.
These nine children are all we have been able to establish as children of Thomas and Esseneth Powell. We find no further record to indicate that they did have others, but it is probable that some died in infancy, and it is possible that we have not located some of the children who lived to maturity. It is safe to say, however, that Thomas and Esseneth Powell were the progenitors of all the Powell families in Barren County, Kentucky.

She came home from work at Frankfort (where she was employed in the Legal Division of the State Highway Dept.) on March 11, 1954 to have an operation for cancer. Her death is mourned by many people who knew and loved her. She inherited many of the fine qualities of her ancestors and lived a full, useful life until she was taken ill March 11, 1954. She seemed to have discovered the secret of youth and was always young at heart. She loved to have young people around her and was interested in the activities of the young.
  At the age of 45, she went back to college (Cumberland) and received her law degree. Later she was appointed to serve as Assistant Attorney General of Kentucky. She was the first woman to hold this office, and up to 1964 the only woman to serve in this capacity.

GOODE BIBLE RECORDS

I discovered my Great Great Grandfather John Collier Goode's Bible records in the DAR Library in Washington some years ago. The transcript had been sent to the Library in 1933 by Miss Stella Pickett Hardy of Batesville, Arkansas. The Bible, she said, was then in the possession of Mrs. W. C. Cooksey of Bowling Green, Kentucky. Several years later, actually only recently, I found the Bible in the possession of Mrs. Roy G. Cooksey, Sr. of Bowling Green. Her husband, now deceased, was a descendant of John Collier Goode.

Imagine my thrill in examining the old Bible which was published in Philadelphia in 1810. Proof that it actually was John C.'s Bible is the fact that he used the personal possessive "my" in several entries referring to his children and to a brother, Samuel. Unfortunately it has been necessary sometime in the past to trace over some of the faded entries. In one instance, I am sure the retraced word was done incorrectly making what was probably the "fortieth" year of Samuel Goode's life the "twentieth".

I feel that the style of penmanship was very similar to mine, now four generations later. The following are family data copied from John Collier Goode's Bible:
First Page

John C. Goode was born the 20th of Nov. 1765.

Dolly Venable, wife of the aforesaid, was born the 15th of June (the year undecipherable). They were married the 15th of July 1790.

Samuel V. Goode was born the 29th of May 1791.

Elizabeth P. Goode was born the 21st of May 1802. (Date does not agree with the death entry; retracing may have been incorrect.)

Robert Goode was born the 28th of January 1795.

Sally Goode was born January 5, 1797.

Patsy Davis Goode was born December 18, 1798. (Date does not agree with death entry.)

John G. Goode was born July 27, 1801.

William Jones Goode was born the 16th of April 1804.

Henry Wilson Goode was born the 21st of October 1807.

Louisa Ann Goode was born the 25th of December 1809.

Thomas Henry Goode, son of John C. Goode and his wife Ann Goode, was born the 27th of June 1835.

Harriet Goode, daughter of the aforesaid, was born October 7th 1836. (The last two entries apparently were made at a later time at the bottom of the first page out of sequence with the other births resulting from the second marriage, which appeared on the second page.)

Second Page

Robert Goode, father of John C. Goode, was born in the year 1746 and departed this life August 17th 1804, the 58th year of his age.

May 5, 1820 brother Samuel Goode died at Robert Goode's in the 20th year of his age. (Must be in error, possibly in tracing over the faded writing; probably 40th year.)
My daughter Elizabeth P. Goode died on the 20th of June 1820 aged 27 years, 5 months and 7 days.

Patsy Davis Goode died on Monday morning 17th of July 1820 we judged about 9 o'clock in the morning in the 20th year of her age.

John G. Goode departed this life on Monday the 26th of Dec. 1825.

Dolly Goode died on Monday 23rd of January 1826.

Sally C. Goode departed this life on Tuesday morning the 19th of September 1820.

Louisa Ann Goode died on the 12th of February 1827.

John C. Goode was married to Ann Jones daughter of William Jones and his wife Nancy on the 14th day of February 1831 and have issue as follows viz:

    Ebenezer Goode born the 21st of Feb. 1832.

    Joseph Goode born on the 23rd of July 1833.

    Thomas H. Goode born June 27th 1835.

John C. Goode departed this life April 26th 1844.

Excerpted from another page further over in Bible:

Samuel Venable Goode departed this life March the 8th, 1862.

The Bible probably passed to the oldest son, Samuel Venable Goode because later pages contain entries for his family as follows:

    Samuel V. Goode born May 29, 1791
    Elizabeth Taylor - wife - born September 10, 1803

Their children--
    Sarah Ann Goode born August 2, 1830
    William A. Goode born December 20, 1831
    Mary Ann Goode born October 15, 1833
    Louisa V. Goode born September 18, 1834
THE JOSEPH GOODE BIBLE

I have in my possession my Great Grandfather Joseph Goode's Bible. He was the second child of John Collier Goode's marriage to Ann Jones. This Bible and the one belonging to his father provide excellent primary data on the Goode family of South Central Kentucky. John Collier Goode came to Warren County from Prince Edward County, Virginia in about 1810. Joseph Goode went with his mother and brothers and sister to Barren County after John Collier Goode's death in 1844. As in the case of my great great grandfather's handwriting, I feel that mine is similar to Great Grandfather Joseph's.

The family data taken from Joseph Goode's Bible are as follows:

Joseph Goode was born July the 23, 1833.
Mary A. Goode was born January the 4th, 1831.
Joseph William Goode was born Dec. the 2nd, 1862.
Jacob Samuel Goode was born June the 19, 1866.
Mary Catharine Goode was born Nov. the 10, 1870.

*These three children may not have lived to maturity because Perrin's history indicates Henry as the fifth child and Samuel V. Jr. as the sixth.
Joseph Goode and Mary A. Sherfey Goode were married
Sept. the 5th, 1861.

Jacob S. Goode and Sarah A. Combs were married Oct.
25th, 1889.

Joseph W. Goode and Evie S. Gramblin were married

LETTERS TO THE SOCIETY

Due to the fact that so many of our distant members are not able to attend our meetings, and because we have received several letters that we feel should be shared with ALL our members, we are printing the following excerpts from some of our correspondence.

From Maurie McCoun Kliracheck, 168 Lawrence Avenue, Watsonville, CA. 95076:

May I ask for a bit of help from members? I have here a quote from "Edwards" - "A Tobacco Factory was built in Horse Cave, Ky., by J. J. Burch, W. M. Wilson, and W.S.C. White. Wilson was a son of one of the early settlers near the 'horse cave'. When his mother, Elizabeth Wilson, died, and the land of his father had been divided, Wilson received the section which included what is now a portion of downtown Horse Cave. About 1850 he and his partners, Burch and White, built a 'large tobacco factory about 30-40 yards from the depot.'" The factory was soon destroyed by fire. The location would have been somewhere between the railroad, Main St., Water St., and the old depot site. Mr. Edwards (quoted above) recalls that the manager was a R. M. Sanderson who lived at the old Wilson homestead on what is now Church St.

I haven't had much success in finding out more about this factory and the principals involved. I just feel certain that the three, White, Wilson, and Burch, were all connected by marriage to our McCouns. Mr. gr-gr-gr-grandfather's sister married a Wilson; my gr-gr-grandmother, Jane McCoun McKitrick was a next-door-neighbor to Dr. Wm. White in Barren Co. in 1850; and Jane McCoun McKitrick sold her property (that which was in the name of her former husband, Robert McCoun) in Barren Co. on Sept. 17, 1855 to none other than James J. Burch. In 1877, my gr-grandfather, Ferdinand McCoun, took his wife and two children, including my grandfather, back to Kentucky, and I feel certain, from what my grandfather told me as a child, that they had something to do with tobacco. Ferdinand was also a leather merchant. (Buck's Wholesale Boots and Leathers, later Buck and McCoun).

I'm rather confused about the division of counties: Barren, Hardin, Hart, and Edmunson. My great-grandfather was born in 1836 in Edmundson Co. My great-uncle was born in 1878 in Horse Cave, Hart Co. (But our County Book here says Hart Co. wasn't formed until 1819!) We know Robert and Jane lived in Barren Co. I'm at a loss to know if they actually moved, or if the county lines did change? I would like very much to know a little more about the history of that tobacco factory and the partnership and the relationship of Wilson, White, and Burch! Do you have any biographical sketches for any of the three? Would, perhaps, any of your members be working on these lines? I am waiting for more court records from Barren Co. to arrive before requesting more, as they ask that we send in only one request at a time. I'm rather a novice genealogist, so I call upon your expertise and the generosity of your members to help me...or advise me on how to go about finding out more about this part of our family history.

I am interested in these three men and their genealogies (I just feel they are our family) and the history of their tobacco
If you could pass this along to any of your members, I'd appreciate it. And be assured that I will gladly share any information that I have been able to document. Thank you.

From Hazel S. Kinslow (Mrs. Marvin W.), 1316 Miller Lane, New Albany, Ind. 47150:

I was very sorry to see that I had made an error on the article I wrote which was printed in the March, 1982, Vol. 10, Issue 1, issue of TRACES, and I hope you will be able to make a correction in the next issue.

On page 8, in the second paragraph, I said Permelia Ann Kinslow was the daughter of Aaron and Mary Kinslow. I certainly knew better and do not know how I happened to make this mistake. Here is the correct information which I would like for you to include in the next issue:

Permelia Ann Kinslow was a daughter of Adam Kinslow and his second wife, Louisa Pickett. Aaron Kinslow (who appeared in the Oct. 1980 magazine) was apparently a son of Adam Kinslow and his first wife, Charlotte Drake. Mary Kinslow, who married this Aaron Kinslow, (born 1812) was a daughter of Ambrose Kinslow, Sr. and his first wife, Barbara Coleman. However, Permelia Ann and Aaron Smith Kinslow were cousins.

I have worked on the KINSLOW family history for quite a few years and I have typed about 55 or 60 pages on the Kinslows, most of it pertaining to Conrad and Rachel Kinslow, who moved to Barren County in the early 1800's with their 11 children. I know I may have errors and omissions, but, to the best of my knowledge, I have listed a total of 90 grandchildren of Conrad and Rachel. I am sure there were more but the descendants of two or three of Conrad's sons did not keep very good records and it has been impossible to trace all the children of these sons.

From Marian Smith Posey, 12709 Dorina Place, Granada Hills, CA. 91344:

First, thank you for finally printing the items I sent in about my paternal g-g-gf, Greenup Smith, born in Barren Co., Ky. 27 Nov. 1806. And I am sending additional information for your 'files' on Greenup's older brother, Hugh Smith. They married sisters. We are hoping to find their siblings and their parents. All we know is the printed item stating that Greenup Smith's father came from Germany and supposedly was a "John Smith"!

Also to add to the information on Greenup Smith, my grt-grt-gf: "I do not have positive proof that Greenup Smith born 27 Nov. 1806 nor his brother, Hugh Smith, born 1804 were actually born in Barren Co., Ky. In the "Portrait & Biographical Album of Jefferson & Van Buren Counties, Iowa" published 1890, Lake City Publishing Company, Chicago, Illinois, Pages 526, 527:

"a reference is made to Greenup Smith having been born near Cumberland Gap"... also having been married there. We have the date of his marriage on 27 Aug. 1829 to Miss Sarah Ann Johnson.

We do not know where he was born nor where his brother Hugh was born and hope to find someone with same interest to help solve this.

From Mrs. Jay Newman, P. O. Drawer C, Buckhannon, WV 26201:

In the current issue of the "Traces" there is an ad on page 21 called - LEAVES FROM A GREEN TREE by Jena Green Hopwood. This book to be ordered from Spectator Books, Inc., Moweaqua, IL 62550. A gen. correspondent searching the Green family ordered this book last year when it first appeared in the quarterly. I passed the information along to them. As of May 3, 1982 they had not received this book, and with further checking, the publishing company is no longer located at this address, cashed my friends check without sending the book, and closed the account at the bank. This is very upsetting to me since I had passed the information along to this person in the first place, and he is out $22.95.

Is there any way the Society can make inquiries on this company, or any way to contact this woman? In fact, the Post Office Dept. will undoubtedly be notified of this situation. You might want to check into this from the Society also, and this friend is reluctantly going to try and trace them. Thanks so much.

From Bobbie H. O'Brien, 515 Smith Street, Hartford, Ky. 42347:

I was in Bowling Green recently and among the materials I searched were the journals of this society. There was some information on the counties of Kentucky and the situation with their records. On page 35 there was Ohio County with this date: 20 December 1864 and this notation "Old records destroyed."

Having worked with the records of Ohio County for several years now, I can give you some information on them. At NO TIME have the records ever been burned. During the Civil War when they burned the courthouse, the officials were allowed to preserve the records.

Marriage records are fairly well complete from 1800 forward. The original bonds, licenses, and consents are still on file. At the present time, I am involved in a gratis project for the clerk's office. I am taking the papers pertaining to one marriage, placing them in an envelope, and marking on the outside the names of the bride and groom with the date of marriage. This will permit office personnel and others to search for a particular marriage without handling all of the little bits and pieces of papers that are still intact after over one hundred years. These records are cross-indexed and a very good job of it. Some few, of course, were incorrectly indexed or left out completely. Some of the original papers have disappeared through the years.

Deeds are complete from the beginning of the county and are indexed quite well with index books for the Grantees and the Grantors, alphabetically and then chronologically within a given name or letter. Estate papers are indexed and original papers are still on file.

Wills are complete from the beginning and are indexed.
Guardianship books begin with about 1848 and continue forward. And in the Circuit Court Clerk’s office: Equity and Ordinary suits are on file from the beginning with all papers pertaining to each suit stapled together and placed in a large brown envelope and filed by Suit number as well as alphabetically (Plaintiff). Suits are indexed with separate index books for Plaintiffs and Defendants. I have been in a dozen or more of the courthouses in this state, and I have never found the records to be in better order than in Ohio County. And everyone who has had any dealings with the county clerk’s office here comments favorably on the treatment they receive from the clerk and the assistants. This I cannot do about many of the offices that I have been in. I have recently published a book on the 1860 census of Ohio County with marriage records for those living here at that time. It is a comprehensive study of the 1860 and 1850 censuses as well as some study of the 1870. I have a couple more books started on Ohio County, but it will be Fall of 1982 I am afraid before either one will start to shape up enough to consider publication.

It would be nice if each county could be reported on by Genealogists of that area rather than working from someone’s printed material. Someday I plan an article for some genealogical quarterly on "Courthouse Manners for ALL Genealogical Researchers." If you ever need research done in this area, my rates are available on request and SASE.

From Mrs. Rex C. Wagoner, 1219 Fair Ave., Gainesville, Texas 76240:

I was in Glasgow, Barren Co., Ky. in March of this year and although I did not find the burial place of the Duffs, I did locate the Goodnight Family Cemetery in Warren County off of Cole's Bend Road. To my surprise I found the broken gravestone of James Goodnight, born 26 May 1809 and died 9 January 1839. This grave is not recorded in any cemetery records which I have researched and I am wondering why since the stone is easily read.

I also want to report to any Goodnight relatives or interested descendants of Isaac Goodnight, born 1 January 1782 and died in 1869 that the Goodnight cemetery is almost destroyed as the fences are down and cattle are breaking the grave stones. I hope some interested people will start a fund immediately to restore as much of this "Old" cemetery as it is possible to restore to prevent complete destruction. I would be willing to contribute to a fund for that purpose. Thank you for any consideration.
