AMERICAN BUSINESS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION
KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER
Bowling Green, Kentucky

REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in Heaven's name, WORK for him. If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him; speak well of him; stand by him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage - resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why.

- Elbert Hubbard

PREZ SEZ

The Kentucky Colonel limited has completed the first half of the journey on tract '69, with success, due to the interest and cooperation of its passengers. May we complete the journey with the same enthusiasm and good luck.

Congratulations to Miss Brenda Williams, our 1969 Woman of the Year. She is deserving of this honor and an asset to the chapter.

The Perfect Attendance Contest came to an end with Jay Krum's Col-etts winning. So girls, we are looking forward to a good meal from the losers.

Till then -----

Your President,

Sue Short

Letter from Judith King, Scholarship Recipient

February 7, 1969

Miss Jean Fulkerson, Chairman
Educational Projects Committee
Kentucky Colonel Chapter, ABWA
Bowling Green, Kentucky

Dear Miss Fulkerson:

I want to thank you very much for all the help and consideration which you gave me when choosing me to receive the $450.00 Outright Grant from the Stephen Bufton Memorial Educational Fund. I certainly will be able to use the Grant which will enable me to attend Western Kentucky University for the spring semester 1969.

I also want to thank the Kentucky Colonel Chapter for helping me. I appreciate everything you have done for me and if there is ever anything that I can do to help your chapter, please let me know and I will do everything that I can.

Once again let me express my appreciation to you, Miss Fulkerson, and to each member of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter for selecting me as the recipient of the $450.00 Outright Grant.

Sincerely,

Judith King

ANNOUNCEMENTS (Cont'd.)

As all of you know, District Meeting time is here.

We are very proud to have two of our members in the Inner Circle. They are Jean Fulkerson and Florence Perkins. To be a member of the Inner Circle means that they have sponsored eleven or more new members in ABWA.

Recently, Jean and Florence received an Inner Circle Ribbon to be worn during the District Meeting weekend. All members of this select group will be seated at a special table reserved for them at the Sunday Morning Brunch.

Congratulations Jean and Florence for the good work.

Let's all try harder and see if we can't have more members in the Inner Circle.

PROGRAM FOR MARCH DINNER MEETING

The Guest Speaker for the March Dinner Meeting will be Floyd Hays Ellis of Rockfield. Mr. Ellis is State Senator from the 32nd District which includes Breckinridge, Edmonson, Grayson, Ohio and Warren Counties. He is seeking his second term fro the Democratic nomination.

The Vocational Speaker will be Sue Eicher, Secretary-Receptionist for Dr. Begley.

Hostess for the meeting are Jean Fulkerson and Estelle Holloway.

COLONELETTE
THE MONTH

1969 -- WOMAN OF THE YEAR

MISS BRENDA FAYE WILLIAMS

Brenda was born October 11, 1943, in Scottsville, Kentucky. She graduated from the Scottsville Elementary and High Schools. She received the Underwood Merit Award as "Outstanding Secretarial Student" and was active in many school clubs during her high school years.

She attended two years in the Community College program at Western Kentucky University in the Secretarial Science field.

Brenda has been employed by Holderfield and Pinkerton, as secretary and receptionist, since December, 1963. She holds the title of "Assistant Secretary to the Corporation".

She has been very active in church work. She began teaching Sunday School in 1959.

Brenda is a charter member of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter; ABWA. She is Past President, and has also served as Recording Secretary. She has served as Chairman of many committees. She was also Delegate to the 1968 National Convention in Jacksonville, Florida.

Brenda received a Kentucky Colonel Commission from Governor Louie B. Nunn in 1968.

Our congratulations go to you BRENDA, for receiving this honor.
