Again, our cover picture was sketched by a young artist, Davie Reneau, who is the daughter of our Society Secretary, Martha Powell Reneau and David Reneau. Davie is an art student at Western Kentucky University in Bowling Green. We are all very proud of her talent.

This little log house is located on the property of Mr and Mrs Sidney J Wheeler, Rt 1, Fountain Run, Ky, which is in Allen county, but is equally distant from both Barren and Monroe counties. It is on a private narrow gravel road which branches off Highway 98, NE of Fountain Run. The last house on this road is the residence of the Wheelers - a large two-story white frame house, built in 1883 by my grand-father John B Benedict, who owned the large farm then.

About a quarter mile before reaching the end of the road, this little log house sits proudly perched upon the brow of a high and broad elevation, the deeply cut gravel road-bed winding in front, and the house overlooking a deep ravine plunging almost vertically down to a small branch, named Benedict's Branch, which very quickly flows into Big Barren River. The hillside is densely cloaked with many kinds of scrub trees and underbrush, and no doubt inhabited with various undisturbed snakes and varmints. Their occupancy undisputed!

The Wheelers have a very deep affection for this house of log, for many years refusing a standing offer for it's sale. It is kept padlocked and is posted against trespassers and loiterers; the roof is kept tight from the ravages of rain and snow - and it sits there alone, but I believe, not lonely. Many memories keep it company. It still has a useful life, being used for tobacco stripping and storage.

I do not know exactly when this log house was "raised", but knowing that it has been called "the old Celsor place", it must have been there long before 1856, when it's probable owner and builder, Harden Celsor, died. At his death, he was possessed of a great amount of land and lived in a much larger and finer home not too far distant. Harden Celsor (ca 1787-1856) and his wife Elizabeth Berry (1785-between 1830-38), my great great grandparents, came to this area, then Barren county, from Virginia in 1808.

My mother, Elizabeth "Lizzie" May Dyson (1889-1911) was born here. She was the daughter of George Samuel "Sammie" Franklin Dyson (1857-1898) and wife Mary Virginia Benedict (1860-1917). She married my father John Garfield Benedict (1879-1960), son of John B Benedict (1838-1906) and wife Louisa Ann Lee (1846-1907), builders of the Wheeler home.

This log house contains many memories - the sounds of living. The laughter of loving, the sighs of the dying, the wails of the grief-stricken widow left alone with small children to raise, the deep never-healing wounds of families divided in their loyalties during the Civil War, the cries of birth - babies entering this world, some to live, but many fated to early death, family gatherings with fine food and frivolity, home prayer meetings, family and friends gathered together to talk and pray for the salvation of their loved ones. Weddings and funerals. The sounds of my people - precious to me.

1982 has been a right good year for your Society. There have been a number of achievements, some problems, some clearing of objectives, and some new plans and directions.

On 10 April '82 we hosted a Genealogical Workshop for the Historical Confederation of Kentucky. This was a very successful program, and had one of the largest groups in attendance of any of the Confederation workshops. I believe the only one with better participation was the one hosted by The Filson Club in Louisville. Cecil Goode, co-editor of Barren County Heritage, and past president of our Society, has served the past two years as President of the Confederation. Cecil also serves as a Director of the Commonwealth Preservation Council and the newly formed Friends of Kentucky Archives.

Frances Young Jones (Mrs Howard M), of Glasgow, was elected a Regional Chairman for the Confederation at its annual meeting in November, in Elizabethtown. Frances also serves as a Regional Chairman for the Commonwealth Preservation Council. She is one of the good reasons our Society is healthy and growing - one of our real workers and contributors. She has headed the program of carrying out a comprehensive survey of historic properties in Barren County. This was made possible by a matching grant in the amount of $5000. from the Federal Historic Preservation Fund. The survey documented over 400 sites, and on 14 September, our "Multiple Resources Area Nominations", and our "Individual Nomination", went before the Kentucky Historic Preservation Board in Frankfort, Kentucky. We are expecting to have a National Registry and Kentucky Landmark presentation award ceremony in Barren County before the middle of 1983.

Frances Jones also prepared the complicated application for IRS that resulted in granting us tax deductible status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. We have also been granted eligibility for government surplus property handled by the Kentucky Department of Education. These two steps will help us now as we move toward permanent spaces for our historical and genealogical materials. A real, immediate need is to get all of our materials in a central location, so that those interested can have ready access to these now-scattered materials. We are working locally to accomplish this. At the same time, we are collecting additional materials for reference.

In November we dedicated a Kentucky Historic Marker identifying the former home in Glasgow, of Pulitzer Prize winner, Arthur Krock. Cecil Goode and Vivian Rousseau serve on the state committee on historic markers. Vivian also serves on the most distinguished Kentucky Oral History Commission.

Our reprinted hard-bound "Gorin" and "Edwards" books have sold well, and we re-ordered 400 copies of "Barren County Heritage" - the 2500 copies ordered originally, having been sold. They are still available at the original cost of $19, with $2 more for postage and handling. And we are working now on two new books.

One other interesting reference to books, is that quite by accident, we discovered Vol. 2 of "Record of the Proceeding of the Trustees of the Town of Glasgow - Commencing January 1840." This is 180 pages of notes and minutes that cover about fifteen years of our early history. It is not yet indexed, and is full of interesting information.

As most of you are aware, we have had problems this year with getting your Quarterly out. Marjorie Ralston worked hard for a long time to get the book to you, but has felt obliged to give up the editorship. We appreciate what she has done for the Quarterly.

Gladys Wilson agreed to help get out the last two issues of 1982. Several people pitched in to help, and here is the final volume of the year.

It has been my feeling that only two of our local members were qualified, by former experience, to edit the Quarterly. Both turned down my initial request to take over from Marjorie. But one reconsidered, and with the best interest of the Society in mind, agreed to get the book out for us. Bless her heart - this one is Gladys Wilson, who with Eva Peden, got the Quarterly out for many years in our early history. Gladys asked though for help, and that has been arranged. The first bit of help came from W S Terry IV, who agreed to get out the first two issues of 1983, while Gladys adjusted her work load to accomodate editing our Quarterly, and until "Sammy" returned to University in late summer. We can expect good things from our book with Sammy and Gladys and their committee working for us. I understand that Sammy already has materials ready for the next two issues, and that the first issue will be at the printers within a week or two.

I want you to know that we do appreciate the continued support of our members - without your renewals, year by year, we could not exist. We try to give you the best genealogical and historical data, according to our abilities. By continuing to work together, we hope to give to you the very best Quarterly that you deserve.

Most sincerely,

Brice T Leech

"Enclosed are some clippings that you may be interested in publishing. These were among my Grandmother Anna Belle (Stout) Matthews possessions. She kept them in a small yellow tin, folded many times, and crowded together like sardines. They were hard to unfold without crumbling." "The 'Daniel Boone Stout' mentioned was her brother. The 'The Fighting Parson' Carlos Matthews was her son (my Dad Carlie Matthews) twin brother. The Capt. S C Stout was her Dad's brother. The genealogy is:

1. Ephraim Stout & Joicye Reed (Buckley) Stout had among others:
   A. Daniel James (1832-1912) mar Mary E Pursley: had among others:
      1. Sarah (Anna) Belle 1865-1930 mar James Homer Matthews, had -
         a. Carlie Harrison Matthews (my Dad) 1889-1960
         b. Carlos Morton Matthews 1889-1939
B. Joshua Perry (1834-1910) mar Mary Jane Williamson
C. Samuel Carter (1837-1921) mar Algerine S Simpson

Also enclosed is some genealogy I found in an old book. I do not know where it came from, who wrote it, or anything about these families - but hated to see it go to waste in case it meant something to someone out there looking for Campbells or Thompsons."

CAPT. S C STOUT - Glasgow, Barren County, Kentucky

A man of more than ordinary prominence passed away Monday, when death claimed Capt. Sam C Stout, who died at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Rev. and Mrs F V Harwood on East Main St., Capt. Stout served through the Civil War and was very popular and prominent among his associate Federal soldiers. There are probably not more than 8 or 10 left in the County. He would have been eighty four years old next April. He retained his usual vigor until very recently when he complained some, but the end came very suddenly and unexpectedly. He was a member of the Methodist Church, very devoted and was held in the highest esteem by his people where-ever he was known. His wife died several years ago and afterward he moved from his farm on Fallen Timber (Creek) and has since lived with Mrs Harwood. He leaves one son and four daughters; Mr J J Stout of Xenie, Ohio, Mrs Harwood, Mrs Yancy Matthews, Mrs Wood Stringfield, and Mrs Henry Garrett, all of this county. The burial was in the family cemetery on the old home place, yesterday, after funeral services by Rev J W Caughron, of Tompkinsville.

LIZZIE HARWOOD - Barren County, Ky -

Death, with remorseless touch, has again touched this community and torn from the embrace of a father and mother their only daughter little Lizzie, the youngest child of Rev F V & Mrs Lula Harwood. She was born December 15, 1901 and departed this life February 27, 1904 after a brief but painful illness... point to her two little brothers the necessity of a pious life if they would finally go to where little Lizzie is. Her remains were interred the following day at the family burying ground at the home of her grandfather Mr S C Stout on Fallen Timber, Rev J D Gilliam conducting the funeral services.

IN MEMORIAM - WM WELLS was born the 27th of May 1818, and departed this life December 21, 1894, aged seventy-six years, six months, and twenty-four days. Mr Wells was born in Barren county (Ky.) and spent his long life in his native county. In early life he was very poor, but by industry, economy and good business talents he amassed a very handsome fortune. He was a ..... citizen, honest in all his dealings ..... strictly to his own business ..... (the balance of the clipping was gone, torn away).

formally held a charge at Rhinelander, Wis., and went to Camp Grant as special athletic director in the cantonment Y.M.C.A. from the Olivet Memorial Presbyterian Church of Chicago. "These boys know how to fight and pray - these sturdy, game soldiers can certainly give the kaiserites who attack them more than they will receive", Rev Mr Wedge says". (During WW I)

MRS MARY DANIEL STOUT - died last Wednesday night after an illness of only eight days - she was the wife of Mr J D Stout Sr., and was about sixty-two years of age. She had been a constant member of the Baptist Church and no better woman ever lived than "Aunt Mary". (There was no date on the clipping.)

AN OLD MAN GONE - MR JOHN L WELLS died at the home of his son-in-law Mr H A Underwood near Temple Hill (Barren Co., Ky.), Sunday morning at 3 o'clock, aged eighty-five years. He had been an exceedingly stout and hearty man, and on the Sunday before his death was at church in his usual health. Monday he was taken with a chill and was at once prostrated and required lifting bodily on the bed. His wife died several years ago. He is survived by three sons and three daughters; Mr Joshua Wells of Summer Shade; Mrs H A Underwood of Temple Hill; Mrs J E Oliver of Freedom; Mrs Spillman Jones; Mr Hua B Wells, and Mr J Tom Wells, the latter three of whom live in the west. Mr Wells was a devoted member of the Baptist church, attentive to his duties and had the confidence of all who knew him. A landmark has indeed gone from that community. The funeral was held Monday at Poplar Log (Cemetery, Barren Co., Ky.)

INFANT OF MR & MRS BOON STOUT - Eleven months old infant dies of consumption at their home in Glasgow Junction (now Park City, Barren Co., Ky.). The remains were brought through here Tuesday, and taken to Oleoak for interment. (No dates).

MRS BOONE STOUT DEAD - Mrs Belle Lindsey Stout, wife of Mr Daniel Boone Stout, the well-known hotel keeper of Glasgow Junction, died at that place Monday night of last week, after a lingering illness of consumption. She was thirty-five years old and is survived by her husband and two daughters. Mrs Tom Bewley of Bowling Green, is a sister. Mrs Stout was, before her marriage, Miss Belle Lindsey and was reared in the Fallen Timber country. She was a member of the Methodist Church and was deservedly very popular and held in the highest esteem among all her acquaintances. The body was brought through this place and interred in the family burying ground in the Oleoak section.

MRS NANCY J BARBER died at her home in the Oleoak section last Saturday night, at the ripe old age of eighty years. She leaves eight children-all long since grown- and these are: Messrs. George Barber, of Oklahoma, Link, Hawkins, W J, U s, J J, and Joshua, and Mrs J W Peden, also of this county, and all respected and esteemed.
by all. The remains were interred in the family burying ground at home Sunday last. (Jan 2, 1831 - Nov 12, 1911- Peden Cem. Bk.)

MR PERRY STOUT died at his home on Boyd's Creek (Barren Co Ky) last Saturday night of general infirmities, he being 76 years old. Mr Stout was known as the greatest hunter in Barren County, and more game had fallen before his rifle than probably any dozen other men in the county. Mr Stout leaves a wife and nine children, the latter all grown and all residents of this county except Mr Travis Stout, who lives in Bowling Green. He was the brother of Mr Sam Stout of the Fallen Timber country, and Mr Dan Stout of Glasgow Junction. He was a member of the Methouist church and a clever quiet citizen, well liked by all. The remains were interred in the Stout family burying ground near Poplar Spring. (No dates)

[*The expression so often used in these olden days "bed & furniture" or "kitchen furniture" meant the furnishings of the bed, such as mattresses, feather beds, quilts, blankets, sheets, pillows, etc;
and the furnishings of the kitchen, such as ordinary pots and pans, dishes, stools, andirons, cranes, etc. I once saw the expression
"horse and furniture" - meaning the horse and it's particular harness, saddle, etc. Editor.]

McCOUN CORRECTION

Submitted by Maurie McCoun Klimcheck, 168 Lawrence Avenue, Watsonville, CA 95076. Correction of "McCoun Genealogical Line and Notes" found in Volume 10, Issue 3, page 79 of this publication.

IV. Robert McCoun, my great, great grandfather, was NOT the son of Samuel McCoun (Maccoun). True, Samuel McCoun did have a son, Robert B. McCoun, who is mentioned in a number of Mercer County, Kentucky, Court records pertaining to the settlement of the estate of Samuel in 1849 and 1850.

My great, great grandfather, Robert McCoun, was born in 1840. A great deal of confusion resulted over these two Roberts and a third Robert McCoun, who was the son of John S. McCoun and Nancy Slaughter McCoun; due to an incredible paralleling of circumstances for all three.

In the months that have gone by since I submitted those notes I forgot I had sent them to you and therefore did not enter a correction, once we had established the error. Please accept my apologies.
WILLIAM D HARLOW

When visiting the Kentucky Library in Bowling Green, Ky., this past week-end I noted in BIBLE RECORDS FAMILIES OF BARREN CO., KY, compiled by Mrs Ruby Page Redford, the Bible records of WILLIAM D HARLOW.

I have been engaged in research for Trinity Episcopal Church, Florence, Alabama, trying to construct biographies and obtaining pictures of the past rectors. One of our rectors (1858-59) was William Davis Harlow. After checking the other information I had, although our William Davis Harlow was born in Ky., I don't think it the same person due to names of wives, etc - however, I wondered if you might know if this William Davis Harlow, Episcopal minister, born and served (much of his time) in Kentucky, was one of your Barren County Harlows.

My reason for writing is to let you have this biography I have constructed for any use you might have for it, and if he is known in your area, I would like to know the rest of his story, where he died, etc - and would like especially to have a picture of him, as I have most of our rector's pictures now assembled in our parish hall. Anyway, hope this helps someone in Barren County.

Barren County Kentucky was created by an Act of Legislature of the Commonwealth of Kentucky on December 20, 1798, to be effective May 10, 1799. The county was formed from parts of Warren and Green counties; however, the greater area was taken from Warren county, which was created two years earlier from Logan county. Green county was created in 1792 from Lincoln and Nelson counties.

In an effort to help our members determine the time and area in which their ancestors settled, we shall start in this issue of our publication of "TRACES", abstracting the deeds of Barren County, Ky.

Our first Deed Book is designated "AA", or "A" before "A", and starts at page 4. The first three pages are missing. We do not know the reason for designating the book as "AA", but assume that the book was lost at the time of the numbering, and the oldest book that could be found was numbered "A"; later the older book was found and rather than change all of the records, the easiest and most sensible method was used, namely, "A" before "A", or double "A" - "AA". The letters of the alphabet were used until "Z" was reached, then numerals were started, and continue until now.
