GOOD NEWS!!! For those many people who have wanted the 1850 Census of Muhlenberg County and Vols. 1 and 2 of the cemetery records, we are delighted to report that they are now again available. Write to Mrs. Marian G. Hammers, 651 So. Scott St., Madisonville, Ky. 42431 for additional information.

Scattered through this issue you will find a few more undated, and no source, obituaries from the collection supplied by Carol Brown. They do have family names and so may be of help.

Mrs. Malvina Holmes

Mrs. Malvina Holmes, 71 years old, died at her home at Luzerne Sunday. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Harry M. Davis, pastor of the Greenville Christian Church, of which Mrs. Holmes was a member. Burial was in the cemetery at Depoy.

Surviving Mrs. Holmes are the husband, E. A. Holmes, two sons, Guy Holmes and R. H. Holmes, of Louisville; one daughter, Mrs. Bill Thompson; three brothers, Arthur, Wayne and John Baker; three sisters, Mrs. Lewis Leasure, Mrs. Fred Hall and Mrs. Jim Ament, and 16 grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes were married in 1882.

George W. Chappell

George Washington Chappell, age 78, died at his home in the Green's Chapel neighborhood Monday afternoon, September 9, of pneumonia. Funeral Services were held at Green's Chapel, the Rev. Charles Polley in charge, and burial was in the chapel cemetery.

Mr. Chappell was married June 21, 1899, to Martha Jane Richardson, to which union there was born one son, Simon.

Surviving are his wife, son, Simon, and two grand sons; two brothers, J. H. and A. T. Chappell; one sister, Mrs. Havilla Wells.

Abraham L. McLevain

Abraham Lewis McLevain, 86 years old, died at his home in the Bancroft community at 6:10 o'clock Monday morning, of infirmities incident to his advanced age. A funeral service, conducted by the Rev. A. J. Higgins, was held at Duvall Chapel church at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and burial was in the cemetery at Nebo church. Surviving are the widow, and several children by a former marriage. Mr. McLevain served in the union army in the War Between the States.

A. C. HOCKER

A. C. Hocker, 71 years old, died at his home at South Carrollton at 12:45 o'clock last Sunday morning of a complication of diseases. He is survived by his widow, Mrs.
Fannie Hocker; four sons, William D. Hocker, of South Carrollton; Horace Hocker, of Detroit, Mich.; Russell Hocker, of Lexington; Joseph Norton Hocker, of Norman, Okla.;
three daughters, Margaret Hocker, of South Carrollton; Ruth Hocker, of Wichita, Kan., and Mrs. L. H. Stiles, of Hazard.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church at South Carrollton at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon by the Rev. J. R. Marrs, pastor of the Woodlawn Methodist church, Owensboro, and the Rev. Ivan Allen, of Sacramento. Burial was at South Carrollton.

Mrs. Mary E. McPherson

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth McPherson died at her home in the Carter's Creek section, December 27. Funeral services, conducted by Gus Stovall, of Greenville, were held last Saturday at Carter's Creek church. Surviving are her husband, John McPherson, and nine children.

 We continue herewith the list of area deaths as kept by Mr. W. F. Hunter and supplied to us by Mrs. Carol Brown. The first part ended on Page 11, of Vol. 5, No. 1.
