THE PREZ SEZ

Is there anymore beautiful time of year than springtime? To me there is not. Everything seems to come to life. The birds begin to sing, the flowers begin to bloom, and the grass begins to furiously grow. Speaking of growing, our chapter has an addition of 3 new members as a result of the Spring Hand of Friendship Tea. We want to especially thank Iva Miller, Chairman, for inviting us to her lovely home for this event. Also, we owe a great deal of thanks to our membership chairman, Joann Rudolph, and her committee for the fine job that they did in sending out our tea invitations and personally contacting each prospective member. We wish to extend our Hand of Friendship to: Joan Hope, Maxine Strickland, and Ruth Reisz.

Our Perfect Attendance Dinner held April 4 at the REA Building was given in honor of the winning Perfect Attendance Team, the Ky. Colonel Six Shooters, headed by Iva Miller, by the losing teams. Sue Short, our Vice President and chairman for the event, did a great job as our hostess for the evening.

The Executive Board will meet Thursday evening, April 11, at Linda Sidebottom's home, 1707 Blake Avenue, at 7:15 p. m.

Our Boss-Night Dinner will be April 20 at Park Mammoth Resort, Park City, Kentucky. Please urge your Boss to be present this year because he just might be named our 1968-69 Boss of the Year and placed in the "Winner's Circle". Mr. William Goad, our 1967-68 Boss of the Year, will be present to give our Employer's Response.

It will be an honor this year to have our own Southeastern District Vice President, Jean Fulkerson,

Pat Potter is our chairman and Toastmistress this year. Our theme will be the "Winner's Circle" with empasis on the Kentucky Derby. If you have not made your reservations for Boss Night, please contact our treasurer, Orpha Eleson, as soon as possible.

Don't forget our dinner meeting this month! Our dinner meeting will be Tuesday night, April 23. Our guest speaker will be Mayor Bob Graham.

AT HEART AN OPISMIIST

This is a good world. We need not approve of all the items, nor of all the individuals in it; but the world itself is a friendly world. It has borne us; it has carried us onward; it has humanized us and guided our faltering footsteps throughout the long, slow advance; it has endowed us with strength and courage. It is full of tangle, of ups and downs. There is always enough to bite on, to sharpen wits on, to test our courage and manhood. It is indeed a world built for heroism, but also for beauty, tenderness, and mercy. I remain at heart an optimist.

HOT LINE

Nora spent the past week-end in Tennessee and the water almost kept her there I hear.

It seems that our President has plenty of help these days so she doesn't get into the WRONG DOOR.

Mary Lou is up and around again back at work - great going and we're sure glad to hear it.

Gladys and Mary Lou put in a worthwhile day with their Supervisor last week.

By-the-way Sue Short's smile will greet us at Castner-Knott from now on.

Joyce and Pat are spending a week in the Sun and Fun of Nassau

Ann Bays has been getting lots of exercise since her car was stolen - and right out of her drive way too.

Past year's

BOSS

in the

Winners Circle!"

It's Kentucky Colonel Chapter's Fifth Run for the Roses. The Gate time is 6:30p.m. Saturday, April 20, at Park Mammoth.

The prerace is a social hour for BOSSES and guests to be greeted and officially welcomed by our Chapter Officers, The Southeastern District Vice President, and the Past Boss of the Year.

Each BOSS will be eligible for our BOSS OF THE YEAR award, selected during the social hour by the drawing of a past Ky. Derby Winner's name which one of the BOSSES will be wearing.

A delightful meal is planned for your enjoyment and then while you relax you will hear from our Past Boss of the year, Mr. William Goad, Principal of Eleventh Street School, many of our own members, one especially the Southeastern District Vice President Miss Jean Fulkerson. This will all be topped off with vocal entertainment and our speaker for the evening, Mr. Al Smith, Editor of the Russellville News Democrat and co-editor of the Kennedy Report. A full evening of pleasure and information for YOU and YOUR BOSS. BE THERE!

O happy world today if we could know
 The message of that morning long ago!
 There is no dark despair that cannot be Evicted from the heart's Gethsemane;
 For faith is always more than unbelief,
 And vibrant courage triumphs over grief.

Mary E. McCullough

ETERNAL FACT

Easter not only happened;
 it happens. It is not only a past event to be celebrated with new hats and hallelujahs;
 it is an eternally present
 fact to be appropriated
 by faith and obedience.
