SUMMARY OF THE MEETING OF THE COUNCIL OF ACADEMIC DEANS

The Council of Academic Deans met in Dr. Cravens' office October 30, 1967. The following is a summary of the deliberations of the meeting:

- I. Dr. Cravens discussed the membership of the University curriculum committees and it was agreed that membership of the college curriculum committee would be elected annually and those who represent the academic council on the college curriculum committee would serve a two-year term.
- II. Dean Charles Keown discussed student social problems with the Deans and suggested that the Deans could assist his program by counseling faculty members who serve as advisors and chaperons.
- III. Faculty needs for the second semester should be submitted to Dr. Cravens by Wednesday, November 1.
- IV. Dr. Cravens suggested that the Deans study the problem relating to faculty members who will not return for the second year but want to teach in the summer session. This suggestion will be expanded upon at a later meeting.
- V. A report from the American Council on Education relating to the new selective service act was distributed and discussed briefly.
- VI. The establishment of leave policies were discussed at length and it was agreed that Dr. Cravens would request ten Professional Improvement Assignments budgeted at $4,400 each and with a stipend amounting to $4,000, and sabbatical leaves for 3% of the faculty.
- VII. The following items of business were continued until the next meeting which will be November 6:
