"The sun shines bright in My Old Kentucky Home" is sung, with nostalgia, throughout the world. To experience Federal Hill at Bardstown, Kentucky is to understand the emotions of another era.

The following extract of a letter from an old old gentleman named John Patton, a resident then of London, who had written to William Patton, of Charleston, to inquire after a son of his; and of whom William Patton made some inquiry, as to his uncle Cornelius; gives the family genealogy, which may be amusing to those of the same name.

"Dalston Rise, near London, 9th July 1828.

 "As to the Pattons, there are others - as Peyton, Payton, an Admiral Peyton, without arms. Patin, the Guy Patin, famous French Physician. Patton the Lancashire and Lincolnshire family, one many years ago Lord of the Manor of Stoke, Newington, and repaired the Church at his own expense. One within these few years was in Parliament, and afterwards as ten Bold. A daughter since has decease, married to an Italian ice, but not our family arms, motto different. The Pattons or Patons are originally Scotch, found wherever they are; there are two families - arms the same, one with the addition of a sword, motto to the same effect, one 'virtute adepta,' the other 'virtute Lau dando;' one from Kinaldy or Kincaldie, the other Ferrochie - crests, a sparrow hawk perching proper, with wings expanded." - Pout's Manuscript, or Nesbit, 41 & 247.
"The Pattons have been extended in my time, one was with Nelson in the battle of the Nile, afterwards an Admiral, and Lord of the Admiralty. I have not met or heard of your uncle Cornelius. I forgot to say, reading that the Dukes of Devonshire, were from the daughter of John Patton of Suffolk, Lord of Cavendish; and Roger de Gannon, who came over with William the Conqueror. I referred to the history of the peerage, and the spelling found different in the body and index; a reference to manuscript can only clear that up. His Lordship was a Patton or Patten. It would be desirable to see the arms of Cavendish at the time."

The relative who attended to the printing of this Narrative, (which is intended only for the family and a few friends) was desirous of adding a more extended list of each brother and sister's family, and wrote to several persons to procure it. Having failed to obtain more than the two which are annexed, he only gave a short account of the others, fearing he might not be accurate, if he attempted more.

The remains of James Patton are interred in the beautiful burial ground of the Presbyterian Church in the village of Asheville, N.C., which ground he had presented to the Church; and in the spot he had long before pointed out, which is marked with a plain marble, obelisk, bearing this inscription:

"In memory of JAMES PATTON, born 13th Feb 1756, in County Derry, Ireland; died at Asheville, N.C., 9th September 1845, in the 90th year of his age. He was the founder of his family in America; an honest and persevering man, accumulating much property without grinding the poor - prudently assisting his poor relations, as well as bringing forward in the world many deserving young men."

March 1982 - ADDENDUM -

We went to the church and did not find the headstones. We discovered they had been moved to Riverside Cemetery, Asheville. James Patton was born in February. Facing the stones Anne Patton's is on my right and reads: ANN PATTON, who departed this life Nov. the 25, 1827, in the 52nd year of her age. This stone is piously reared to her memory by her affectionate husband and dutiful children.

To my left is the stone of Barbary Patton. I had to clean it with styrofoam and flour in order to read it. It reads as follows:

In memory of Mrs. Barbary Patton native of Tamlaugh Parish County Derry, Ireland who departed this life July 1806, in the 78th year of her age - as a token of regard for the memory of this truly good woman her son James Patton has caused this monument to be erected.

The James Patton home was located at the corner of Chestnut and Charlotte Streets, Asheville in sight of the Presbyterian Church (From my reading in the Pack Library, Western N.C. Section.)

In the Summer 1984 issue of Traces, an article which consisted of a compilation of descendants of Ahija and Elizabeth (De Freese) Morris was inadvertently credited to the compiler of this effort. The compilation was forwarded to a member of the Society by me; however, it was prepared many years ago by the Mother and Aunt of Mrs. Frances Hayes of Winchester, Illinois. Mrs. Hayes kindly provided me with a copy of the compilation. Some additional details are now available.

Ahija Morris was born about 1801 and his place of birth was in what is today Adair County according to a note prepared about 1920 by Florence Morris Graves, a grand-daughter of Ahija. According to the same source, Ahija died in 1844. This is consistent with information from the Barren County census records. In the 1840 Barren census, Ahija and family are found at page 164, and in 1850, Elizabeth and the children are listed but not Ahija. The compiler would welcome any information concerning the burial place of Ahija. It is also noted that in the 1820 and 1810 Warren County censuses, Ahija W. Morris and family are listed. Both listings include a male of the approximate age of our Ahija but no confirmation of a relationship has been determined. In the 1850 census, Elizabeth is stated to have been born about 1805 in Tennessee. According to the notes of Florence Morris Graves, Elizabeth died in 1873.

During 1862 Elizabeth and at least seven of her eleven children moved from Kentucky to Morgan County, Illinois. Her eldest son, Hiram A., may have remained in Barren. He is found in the 1850 Barren census, age 26, the husband of Martha A., age 22, and the father of William P., age 1.

Ahija Rice Morris (2 September 1842 - 15 June 1899) was the eleventh and youngest of Ahija and Elizabeth. He was born in Barren County. At the age of 19 he came with his widowed mother to Illinois. Cass County adjoins Morgan County and in the former on 3 October 1867 Ahija was wed to Margaret Elizabeth Treadway (20 February 1852 - 16 August 1934), daughter of William Thomas & Mary (McHenry) Treadway. The Treadway Family of Cass County has been detailed in History of the Treadway Family by William Treadway (Pittsburg, Pa: Privately Printed, 1930) and in "Edward Treadway and His Descendants", an unpublished manuscript prepared by the late Oswald G. Treadway. A copy of the latter can be found at the Newberry Library, 60 W. Walton Street, Chicago, Ill 60610 and also in the collection of the Genealogical Society of Utah.

Ahija Rice and Margaret were the parents of Alice, Porter Edmund, William Edgar and Florence Mae. As noted in the compilation previously published in the Summer 1984 Traces, Florence married James Edward Graves but they were the parents of five, not four, children. The five were Elizabeth, Florence Louise, Morris, Dorothy Alice and John Robert. Louise was married on 19 August 1938 at St. Louis, Mo. to Herman Ordway Widmayer whose ancestry has been detailed by the compiler back to Markgroningen, Wuertemburg and into the 16th century. Louise and Herman lived in both Virginia (Cass) and Springfield (Sangamon) Illinois. Both died in Springfield, Herman in 1964 and Louise in 1976. Their only child, Carol, is married to the compiler. As a final note, the Graves family traces its ancestry back to the earliest days of Woodford County, Kentucky. Benjamin Graves (great grand-father of James Edward) married Sallie Cole, daughter of Richard Sr. & Ann (Hubbard) Cole. Richard C. Graves, son of Benjamin & Sallie, moved in 1828 from Woodford to Cass County, Illinois.

RENEWAL TIME FOR "TRACES" 1985. We are so happy that already a large number of our members have sent in their 1985 dues. Thank you so very much. We appreciate the fact that you like our quarterly well enough to continue being members.

We have included in this issue a renewal blank for those who have not renewed as yet. We suggest that if you have renewed already to give the membership form to some other non-member who might wish to receive our quarterly. Again, Thank you.

RECORDS IN TEXAS All my mother's ancestors were in the Warren Barren-Simpson area soon after that area opened to settlers. It was their children, grandchildren and neighbors that settled much of this North Texas area (around Dallas County). For the most part they came in the 1850s. John Huffhines (1800-1875) mar Elizabeth Wright (1805-1881) came to Dallas Co. Texas with their fourteen children, some married, in 1852 or 1853. Their son George Huffhines (1826-1863) b in Simpson Co Ky was killed at Battle of Chicamaqua mar Mary C. Wilson (1830-1885) b in Simpson Co. Ky died in Dallas Co Texas. Their son George Washington Huffhines (1859-1938) mar Mary E. Wright (1869-1894) b in Warren or Barren Co, d in Dallas Co soon after dau Mary Wright Huffhines's birth (my mother).

I shall be happy to check marriage records, cemetery records and the 'mug' books printed in the 1880s for members who are looking for those who might have gone to Texas. I go to the library practically every day and these references are well indexed. Everts E. Jackson, 311 S. Texas St., Richardson, Texas 75081

GENERAL INFORMATION

Membership is open to anyone interested in the history of the South Central Kentucky area, centering around Barren County. Annual dues are $8.00.

TRACES, the society's quarterly publication is received by all members. It is published seasonally: Spring, Summer, Fall, and Winter. Members joining during the year will receive the past issues of that year.

Contributions are earnestly solicited. Family genealogies, marriage, Bible, will and probate, cemetery, court and other records are all acceptable. You will be listed as the contributor on all material you submit.

Queries are accepted only from members, without limit, and will be published as space permits. Queries should be limited to about fifty words each.

Books to be reviewed in "Traces" must be sent with information as to the cost, including postage, and from whom the book may be obtained. Books become the property of the society library. Books should have some Kentucky interest. Reviews will be published as space permits.

Exchange of "TRACES" with other societies or publications is acceptable and welcome.

Meetings are held monthly, except December, at the Mary Wood Weldon Memorial Library, College Street, Glasgow, Ky. The meetings, held on the fourth Thursday, begin at 7:00 P.M. CST. Interesting and informative programs are planned for each meeting and your supportive attendance is always welcome.

Back Issues of the publication are available. Our supplies of the following issues are gone: Vol. 1, Nos. 1-4 (1973); Vol. 2, Nos. 1-4 (1974); Vol. 4, No. 4 (1976); Vol. 5, No. 1 (1977); Vol. 6, No. 2 (1978). All others may be purchased as long as the supply lasts at $2.00 each. Postage of 60¢ each is required unless mailed quarterly.

Correspondence of any type that requires a reply should always contain a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Address all mailings to the society to: South Central Kentucky Historical and Genealogical Society, Inc., P. O. Box 80, Glasgow, Ky. 42141-0080.

NEITHER "TRACES" NOR THE EDITOR ASSUMES RESPONSIBILITY FOR OPINIONS OR ERRORS OF FACTS OR JUDGEMENT EXPRESSED BY THE CONTRIBUTORS. ERRORS BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION WILL BE CORRECTED AS SPACE PERMITS.
