THE PREZ SEZ

Boss Night is now history but it was a memorable event and one to be long remembered. We extend our "thanks" to Pat Potter, Chairman, for the fine job that she and her committee did to make the event a success. We are indeed proud of our 1968 Boss of the Year, Mr. Basil Jones, Assistant Principal, Bowling Green High School.

To honor our scholarship recipients, the Executive Boards of the Kentucky Colonel and the Bowling Green Charter Chapters sponsored a Scholarship Reception at Holiday Inn, May 3. Sue Short, Chairman of the event, Kentucky Colonel Chapter and Margaret Minton, Co-Chairman, Bowling Green Charter Chapter, are to be commended for a job well done!"

Our dinner meeting this month will also be in keeping with the theme of May as ABWA Scholarship Month. Dr. Jerry Martin, Western Kentucky University, will be our guest speaker. Carol Graham and Marilyn Melton will be the vocational speakers. Our Scholarship recipients, Karen Davenport and Sharon Capps, will be special guest of the Chapter. HINTS FOR THE HEADACHY by

DR. THEODORE VAN DELLEN

Headaches are common among persons who are emotionally disturbed under stress, tired, allergic or addicted to alcohol or tobacco. We have long believed that nervous impulses produce painful spasm of the blood vessels of the brain or the muscles of the scapula and neck.

A number of years ago Dr. Raymond L. Hilsinger of Cincinnati compiled a list of common sense precepts which he recommended to his emotional patients who complained of headache. It would be difficult to improve on them.

1. Approve of yourself. You are as good as the next fellow. If you are given a compliment, take it and make use of it.

2. Do not be a slave to the clock. Work at your own pace. Trying to meet too many deadlines only creates tension.

3. Tolerance makes understanding of the other fellow easier.

4. This is not a perfect world. Perfection is rarely attained, so be satisfied with less.

5. Speak up if you want to. You cannot please everybody. Honesty and directness break down barriers and make friendships easier.

6. Be efficient, yes, but not to the extent that perfection becomes a burden.

7. You cannot please everybody, so stop trying.

8. Stop feeling guilty. We are all human and we all make errors. Give a little and you will get a lot, maybe even a reduction of that pain your head.

Some tension is necessary and cannot be avoided. When stress is extreme enough to interfere with efficiency and happiness, examine the situation and take stock of your activities. Life is too short to clutter it up with trivial worries.

Maybe you need a vacation? Plan to take time for yourself during your summer.

A MOTHER'S PRAYER

Father in Heaven, make me wise,
So that my gaze may never meet
A question in my children's eyes;
God keep me always kind and sweet,

And patient, too, before their need;
Let each vexation know its place,
Let gentleness be all my creed,
Let laughter live upon my face!

A Mother's day is very long,
There are so many things to do!
But never let me lose my song
Before the hardest day is through.
