PURPOSE

The purpose of the American Business Women's Association shall be to elevate the social and business standards of women in business by uniting them nationally for training designed to make them more efficient, more considerate and more co-operative toward their work, their employers, and their employer's customers, thereby increasing their earning ability, success and happiness.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members:

How many of you recall two years ago on June 3? Yes, it was the birth of our Kentucky Colonel Chapter. All of you who are charter members should count your blessings. The accomplishments we have made toward elevating the educational standards of women in business have certainly been rewarding to each of us. I hope that each member will make a special effort to attend our June meeting to observe our Second Anniversary. Those to be recognized are charter members, perfect attendance for one or more years, past and present officers and women of the year.

Congratulations to our Boss Night Chairman Judy Faught and her committee for a memorable Boss Night. Also, Mary Thomas for the wonderful job as toastmistress and the selection of her boss, Howard Hagan, as our 1966 Boss of the Year.

We must not sit idle now but put forth effort, enthusiasm and determination toward higher goals in the future. We are business women and you and I must recognize that fact when we accept an office or chairmanship. We must perform our duty in a business manner. If you will visualize your chapter as a business firm and remember that each one of us must work and cooperate for our chapter to thrive then you will be able to visualize a successful one that meets these qualifications can only obtain success. The potential for ABWA members is here if we will only recognize that we must put "our nose to the grindstone" to reap the golden harvest.

Yours in ABWA
JEAN FULKERSON

"LUAU ABWA STYLE"

What an unforgettable evening! Yes, Boss's Night is now history but members, bosses; and guest alike can all agree it will not soon be forgotten. The enchantment of the isles filled the room as each member appeared wearing a colorful frock. Hawaiian dancing during the social, entertainment of "Little Hula Girls" and Folk singing following dinner added very much to the theme.

I don't believe that we shall soon forget the meaningful as well as entertaining speech that Coach John Oldham of Western Kentucky University presented.

Of course, the highlight of the evening was naming our 1966 Boss of the Year, Mr. Howard Hagan. Mr. Hagan was presented an abbey by our president, Jean Fulkerson, on behalf of the chapter. Jean, also, presented our 1966 Woman of the Year, Linda Sidebottom, an abbey. Guest speakers certificates were presented to Coach Oldham, Dr. W. R. McNeil, who gave the employer's response, and to Mr. Richard Ford, 1964 Boss of the Year. We were also very much delighted to have representatives from the Bowling Green Charter Chapter, All-American City Charter Chapter, and the O-Kain-Tuck Chapter in attendance.

As members, we would just like to say a great big "THANKS" to Judy Faught, Boss Night Chairman, for the fine job that she and her committee did. It was certainly an accomplishment that each of us can be proud of.

NOTE: The Bowling Green Charter Chapter extends an invitation to attend their Boss's Night, June 20, at Western Hills Restaurant. For reservations contact Mrs. Florence Perkins

1966 BOSS OF THE YEAR

MR. HOWARD HAGAN, the Kentucky Colonel Chapter's 1966 Boss of the Year, was born in Lexington, Kentucky in 1903. He received his primary education at St. Paul's Parochial school in Lexington. He attended St. Meinrad Seminary in Indiana, and the University of Kentucky in Lexington, Kentucky.

Mr. Hagan's first employment was with the Moore and Young Electric Company. In 1935 he was employed with the Kentucky-Tennessee Light and Power Company. He then became Gas Supervisor for the Owensboro Gas Company in Bowling Green, Kentucky, in 1943. In 1945 Owensboro Gas became a part of Western Kentucky Gas Company and he was made Division Manager of the Southern Division in 1950. Mr. Hagan presently holds this position with the company. In May, 1965 he was honored for thirty years of loyal service to the Company.

Mr. Hagan is married and has four daughters and one son. He takes an active interest in Civic and Industrial affairs. He is currently serving on the Bowling Green Industrial committee and Bowling Green Plant Manager Group. He is on the Board of the Chamber of Commerce and the United Givers Fund. He is former President and is a member of the Bowling Green Boy's Club. He belongs to the Loyal Council of the Knights of Columbus and is a member of St. Joseph Parrish.

As members of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter of the American Business Women's Association, we are honored to have Mr. Howard Hagan for our 1966 BOSS OF THE YEAR!

"The Little Red School House"

The Executive Board lays the foundation. Each committee chairman helps build the "Red School House" by completing an achievement that is required as Standard or Banner. Chairman please check with your sponsor to see if your requirement is complete. You only have three more months left.

The Executive Board will meet on Thursday, June 23 at 7:30 p.m. at Jean's to start construction on this project of building the school house. Committee Chairman will then be expected to perform their service.

Watch for the next issue of the Colonelette to see if the school house is completed!

COMING ATTRACTIONS

It's Anniversary Time!

I wish that each member would make a special effort to attend our next dinner meeting, June 28. We are also celebrating our second anniversary at this meeting. I think it would mean a lot to each member to be present. Last year I attended our Anniversary Party on June 3 and each member who had perfect attendance received their perfect attendance charm but since that I had missed one dinner meeting I did not receive a perfect attendance charm. To see the other members receive their charms made me wish that I had attended all of the meetings and so this year I will receive that perfect attendance award along with several other members. If you are not one of the members who has kept up perfect attendance, I do hope that you will make a special effort to have perfect attendance next year!

Chairman

Dear Miss Fulkerson:

"LET'S THINK IT OVER"

An unknown author had this to say on the subject: "My name is Gossip. I have no respect for justice; I ruin without killing; I tear down homes; I break hearts and wreck lives. I am wily, cunning, malicious, and I gather strength with age. I make my way where greed, mistrust, and dishonor are unknown. I feed on good and bad alike. My victims are as numerous as the sands of the sea, and often as innocent. I never forgive and seldom forget. MY NAME IS GOSSIP."

Many business men and women who hold important positions or professional men and women whose services are in great demand are able to maintain a high standard of attendance. Surely any member, barring illness, could do likewise. The plain truth appears to be that poor attendance is an indication of the value that we place on our membership.

"YOUR PERSONALITY AND YOU" by

Emma Jane Gollotte - Paducah Duchess Chapter

When you became a member of ABWA, did you complete your "Personalysis" form? If not, you have missed an interesting, exciting and beneficial experience.

Wouldn't you like to know the real you? All you have to do is fill out a form of how you evaluate yourself and mail it to National Headquarters. You then give five forms to your friends or business associates and let them evaluate you. They will mail these forms to National Headquarters. National Headquarters will check out your personality by comparing your opinion with the opinion of five other people that you have asked to evaluate you. This report enables you to "see yourself as others see you" - - to know whether you impress others as you impress yourself.

Since even one poorly developed personality trait may be depriving you of the popularity success, and happiness which you deserve, you are earnestly advised to send your personalysis form to National Headquarters, and if you rank other than high in any of them you owe to yourself the duty of paying special attention to the lectures and suggested readings covering such traits when they are discussed in WOMEN IN BUSINESS.

85% of one's success depends on Personality. Personality is hard to describe, difficult to explain, and with it, you can be everything - without it, it is difficult to be anything. If you are a member who has not completed your personalysis form, remember, it is important for a better personality, more popularity, success and happiness.

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

We are very sorry that the May issue of the bulletin could not be completed, however, it is necessary that we have all information from each committee chairman in order to compile the bulletin. I do hope that each of you will make a special effort to get this information to a member of the bulletin committee for our July issue. We do appreciate the efforts of those who contributed to the May issue.

CLOUD BURSTS

The bandits had tied and gagged the bank cashier. After they rifled the safe and were about to leave, the cashier made desperate noises through his gag. Moved by curiosity, one of the bandits loosened it. "Please," whispered the cashier, "take the books too! I'm $6,500 short."

A jet on a routine flight had run into a violent thunderstorm. An elderly lady appealed to the minister sitting next to her. "Please, she said, "I think we're going to crash. Can't you do something to save us?"

"I'm sorry," said the minister, "but there's not much I can do. I'm in sales, not management."

The reason so many of the modern girls wear hairdos that look like mops is because they don't know what a mop looks like.

We've finally figured out what doctors scribble on prescriptions to druggists. It is: "I've got my $5.00. Now he's all yours."
