PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

What a wonderful year this past one has been. As we embark upon our second year there is much waiting to be accomplished. These things call for work and cooperation. Leisure is a beautiful garment, but it will not do for constant wear.

A wonderful time was had by all those who attended the Anniversary Party. Our chairman, Brenda Williams, did a wonderful job. Awards were presented to those having perfect attendance. Our Vice President was recognized for having perfect attendance to meetings since enrolling in ABWA and also for perfect attendance to District and National Conventions since that time. Lucille Walton also has not missed a meeting since enrolling in ABWA. Both girls were charter members of the Bowling Green Charter Chapter.

Yours truly is very happy to have received the Merit Award. I feel that only with your support was it possible. Many times I have tried to express my thanks but there are not the words available so I'll just say "Thanks."

Big plans are in the process by the Ways and Means Committee. We voted to support their recommendation at the last meeting so let's get to work and see what we can do to help out.

Don't forget the white elephant sale at our June Meeting. Also dig out those good recipes for a dish or two for the July Pot Luck.

See you June 22.

Linda Sidebottom

Ways and Means Report

There will be a White Elephant Sale at the June Meeting. The packages are to be sold for $1.00 each, and they should be of that value. Bring something that you wouldn't mind buying for yourself.

TOBACCO BARN DANCE

The Kentucky Colonel Chapter (Ways & Means Committee) will sponsor a Tobacco Barn Dance Nov. 6, 1965. The dance will be at the A. J. Brannomon Tobacco Barn on the Lou. Rd. Sleepy Marlin and his band will perform. Sleepy can be seen on WLTV, Channel 13, each Friday night. Even though this event will be sponsored by the Ways and Means Committee, each member is expected to participate in order to make this a big success. This is to be our big project for the year.

ABWA "PIN FINE"

Beginning with the June meeting, if the ABWA pin isn't worn at the Dinner Meeting and in the proper place a fine of 10 cents will be placed on the member. This fine will be incurred each time the pin is not worn in the proper place.

As all members of ABWA should know, the pin is to be worn in the vicinity of the heart. Don't you be the one to be fined. Wear your pin to each meeting and wear it properly.

JULY DINNER MEETING

Our dinner meeting for July will be a Pot Luck Dinner at the home of Mrs. Ann Bays. The dinner will still be the usual $2.00 per member. We are having the Pot Luck rather than the regular dinner at Western Hills so that the entire $2.00 per member can go into our treasure as funds are getting rather low.

Ann and her committee will tell each member what she is to bring to the dinner. If you are unable to attend the meeting, please call some member of the contact committee.

Remember you are working for Perfect Attendance this year, and this Pot Luck Dinner is a regular monthly meeting, so make plans now not to miss.

ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Thanks to the chairman and her helpers, the Anniversary Party was a big success. Every member and guest present seemed to enjoy themselves.

Joan Rudolph, Master of Ceremonies, gave a run down of the past year's events. She also gave out the awards for Perfect Attendance and the Merit Award.

Those receiving perfect attendance awards were as follows:

Jean Fulkerson

Joyce Lewis

Ilma Love

Linda Sidebottom

Jo Ann Smith

Lucille Walton

Brenda Williams

The Party ended with all members holding hands in a circle of friendship around the Birthday cake and singing Happy Birthday.

NATIONAL CONVENTION

Our chapter will be represented at the National Convention at San Francisco in October by Jean Fulkerson; Vice President, as delegate and Ilma Love, Woman of the Year, at alternate.

We are sure that these two members will be proud to take our scrapbook to San Francisco with them. Who knows, they may come back with a National Winner! One thing we know for sure, they will come back with lots and lots of interesting things to tell us about the convention. Learn all you can girls, we will be waiting to hear a report from you when you return.

DUES!!

Have you paid your local dues up to date?

Remember, they are only 25¢ per month,

or $1.00 quarterly.
