AMERICAN BUSINESS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION
KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER
Bowling Green, Kentucky

REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in Heaven's name, WORK for him. If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him; speak well of him; stand by him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage - resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why.

Many thanks to Judy Faught and her able committee in the successful "Little Miss Bowling Green Pageant". Special thanks, to Maxine Strickland for her art work for this project. It seems I'm always thanking you all for something fine you've done for the chapter, you have all been such good members, and I, as president of Kentucky Colonel Chapter do appreciate you.

Remember this is the month to start your perfect attendance. We are celebrating our Fifth Anniversary with one sad note - the serious illness of our Educational Projects Chairman - Jean Fulkerson, who is a patient at Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville. We miss you Jean and pray for your speedy recovery.

Until next time -
