Southern Education

EDUCATE THE WHOLE MAN, WITH ALL HIS FACULTIES, FOR ALL PURPOSES.

Volume V.

BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY, APRIL, 1901.

Number IV.

ELOCUTION AND ORATORY.

The work in this department gives the pupil a thorough training in the Laws of Delivery. Special attention is given to Voice Culture and to the preparation of students to become public speakers and readers as well as teachers of elocution.

All education tends to the concentration of time and energy rather than diffuseness, so in the course the student is led to investigate for himself and apply the principles underlying all forms of expression. He must be able to give a reason for what he does. In this way the pupil does not follow blindly by imitation, nor is he governed by set rules; but by the individual application of general principles. The knowledge thus acquired is original and not as is too often the case borrowed from the conclusions of doubtful authorities. By this method more real progress is made in the course of a few weeks than by months under the old methods.

The work is so adapted by class and private lessons as to meet the individual want of each student. Every one can thus get complete classification and devote their entire time to whatever work they wish to pursue.

County Teacher's Course

The Teachers' Course is a distinctive feature of the school. A "colony" of teachers is in this department every year. We have large classes of enthusiastic teachers in all common school branches. The object sought in this department is the best preparation of teachers for the work of the school room.

While we strive to give our teachers such information as will prepare them for the examinations for county certificates, yet we do not overlook that a masterly grasp upon the principles that underlie the right organization and management of a school, is needed. Neither do we give a smattering knowledge of the subject matter, but the student is given a thorough training in the principles of the subject taught.

Our work in Pedagogics and Pedagogy is intended to develop more capable and conscientious men and women as teachers for all the departments of education.

The Next Year's Lecture Course.

We have employed the following noted lecturers, entertainers and musicians to give the different programmes of the Lecture Association during the coming year:

Dr. Thomas Dixon, Jr.
Ex-Governor Bob Taylor.
George R. Wendling.
Montaville Flowers.
Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis.
Bowling Green Woman's Music Club.
Excelsior Concert Co.
We promise to offer only the highest class programmes and secure the best talent that money and energy will employ.

HON. JOHN BURKE.

The Visit of This Distinguished Educator to the Schools of Our City.

[From Times-Journal, April 11, 1901.]

Hon. John Burke, now and for many years the Superintendent of the public schools of Newport, Ky., spent Friday and Saturday in our city. He visited the public schools on Friday, and after dismissal he addressed the teachers and the Normal Class of Prof. Dickey on professional topics. The lecture was greatly enjoyed by all present. On Saturday he visited the Normal School. At night he lectured there on Robert Burns. Prof. Burke is himself of Scotch descent, and his rendition of the selections was enjoyed by all. Before and after the lecture Miss Jones, the vocal teacher, rendered several pieces of old-fashioned Scotch music in a most

THE LAW DEPARTMENT

A Great Success—Large Enthusiastic Classes.

The phenomenal success of the recently created Law Department has been very gratifying. Its students, coming from all over the South, promise to do credit to the institution. Already eight of them have taken the required examination, received their diplomas and been sworn in the Circuit Court as members of this bar, and a larger number will take the examination next month. Besides the lecturers from the regular faculty, a number of distinguished lawyers have lectured before the classes.

T. Everett Butler, of Salem, Ky., has been elected Valedictorian; T. A. Perry, of Marion, Ky., Salutatorian, and L. W.

INSTRUMENTAL AND VOCAL MUSIC.

The Course of Study.

It is the aim of the department to hold up high ideals and, in the cultivation of such an art as music, to teach only the best and truest methods for broad music culture. By studying the works of those who have thrilled the world with their inspired compositions, life is broadened and deepened. It is the effort of Miss Jones to sustain the high standard of music in this department and to encourage young music students to aspire to a noble degree of excellence.

In the private vocal lessons especial care is given to correct breathing, which is regarded as the foundation of good singing and beauty and purity of tone. In the instrumental work, especial at-

EX-GOVERNOR TAYLOR

Delights a Large Audience Last Night At the Normal School Auditorium.

[From Times-Journal.]

The Normal School Auditorium was crowded last night with our city's best people to hear the brilliant and ever pleasing and popular ex-Gov. Bob Taylor lecture on "Sentiment." If there is anything that the gifted Tennessean knows more about than anything else it is sentiment, and his lecture last night was a great delight to his audience from beginning to end. There was not one present who was not more than pleased with the lecture.

Every Teacher in Kentucky.

We are sending a copy of this issue of THE EDUCATOR to every teacher in Kentucky, besides thousands of teachers in other Southern States. We ask a critical examination of our work and the teaching we are doing. The teachers of the South can help us in the great educational work we are doing by recommending our schools to their friends, who will enter school somewhere, by sending us their names and addresses, and by handing this EDUCATOR, after it is read, to some one who is interested.

Elocution and Oratory.

The department of Elocution, Oratory and Physical Training, under Prof. Francis J. Brown, continues to grow in popularity and public favor. The programs given by this department during the present spring have been skillfully rendered and reflect great credit upon Prof. Brown and his class. The big auditorium is always crowded with an appreciative and intellectual audience when these recitals are given.

H. V. MCCHESNEY

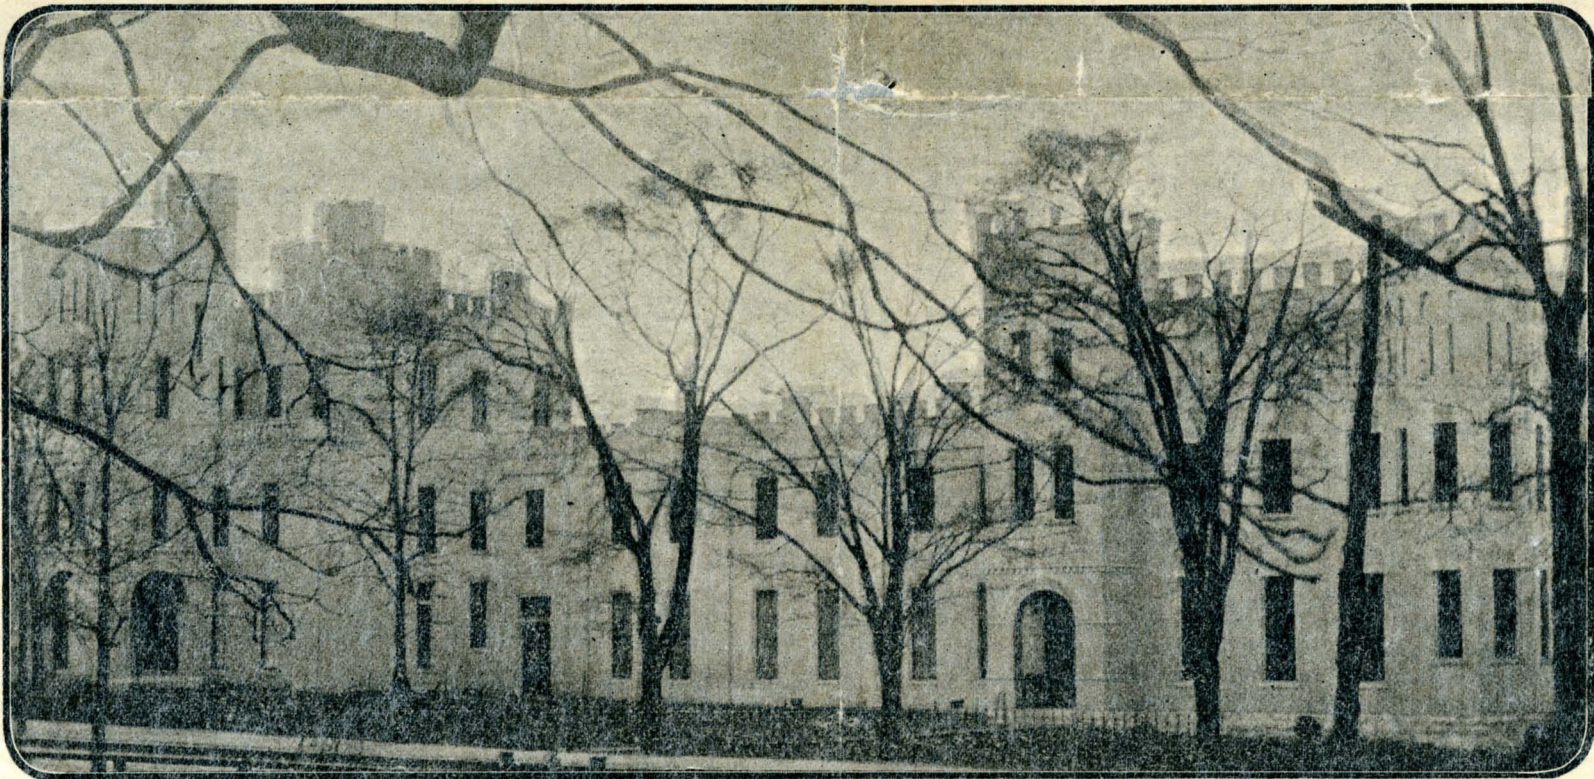

State Superintendent, and Chief Clerk Watt Visited the Normal School and Addressed the Students.

[From News, March 9, 1901.]

Superintendent of Public Instruction McChesney, with Ben Watt, Chief Clerk, is in the city today and both visited the Southern Normal School and Business College this morning and were shown through the building and addressed the students. Supt. McChesney complimented the school in the highest terms and was delighted with it in every way. He delivered an able and earnest lecture to the students, which was received enthusiastically, and has done much good. Supt. McChesney is the guest of Prof. and Mrs. Cherry, who will give a reception this afternoon from 5 to 7:30 o'clock.

Do You Receive Two Educators?

artistic fashion. She has a voice of unusual sweetness and flexibility.

Prof. Burke made a very favorable impression on our school people, and he will have a welcome here at any time.

Statement from W. S. Ashby, Secretary Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency.

This is to say that I have repeatedly called on Prof. H. H. Cherry, General Manager of the schools, and asked him to recommend proficient labor for different positions that the Employment Bureau was called upon to fill, and in many instances he has been unable to make a recommendation for the want of enough proficient labor and because the demand for prepared men is greater than the supply. I have often been forced to go elsewhere and outside of the school and Bowling Green in order to find men to fill the different positions, and even then, in many cases, failed to find suitable parties.

W. S. ASHBY, Sec'y
Employment Bureau.

Gen. Gordon and Gov. St. John.

Ex-Governor St. John will be with us and deliver a lecture on the evening of May 2, 1901.

Gen. Gordon will deliver his famous lecture on the "Last Days of the Confederacy" on the evening of June 6, 1901.

Guthrie, of Hopkinsville, Ky., as President of the class.

The commencement exercises will be held on May 25, and an address will be made by one of the most distinguished lawyers of Kentucky, with short addresses from several of the class. The prospect for a large increase in the attendance at the next session is assured.

More Good Positions Secured.

The following students have secured fine positions through the Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency during the past few weeks: A. D. Buskill, O. R. S. Pool, John Hibbitt, E. B. King, E. D. Grover, Enos Leigh, T. P. Reynolds, Dempsey Cole, S. M. Shrader, W. L. Hughes, Cosby Smith. We expect to push the Bureau and will be able to place every worthy graduate of our school in a good position.

Our School of Business Training.

Is under the superintendency of an experienced educator and accountant, who knows what the student needs and what is required to be an all-round business man. The course of training which is given is comprehensive and thorough in all points.

tention is paid to position, touch, fingering, expression and phrasing.

The drill class in vocal music, which is free to all students of the school, meets daily. The object of the class is to give the pupils a thorough knowledge of the rudiments of music, sight-reading, etc.

During the past year, forty-two music students were enrolled and the department of voice and piano will be second to none in the city.

Excursions.

The annual excursion down the Big Barren river will leave the wharf at 8 a. m. on the morning of May 11, 1901, and return at 9:30 p. m. The steamer Crescent City has been chartered for the occasion. The annual excursion to the Mammoth Cave will leave the city on the 9:20 a. m. train May 13, 1901. We will be glad to have any of the friends of the schools to join the excursions and get advantage of the low rates. A general invitation is extended to all former students.

Senator Tillman Last Night.

Senator B. R. Tillman lectured to a good audience last night at the Normal School Auditorium on the Dispensary Law of South Carolina. Those in attendance gained a great deal of information on a subject of which they knew very little.

THE NATIONAL SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY, RAILROADING AND EXPRESS.

THE ONLY SCHOOL OF ITS KIND IN THE SOUTH.

Railroad Officials Indorse the Work It Does, and Offer Their Co-operation and Support.

AN EXPERIENCED DISPATCHER FROM R.R. OFFICE EMPLOYED.

A Great Demand for the Special Training It Offers---A Good Position for Every Worthy Graduate.

Incorporated Under the Laws of Kentucky, and Has Power to Grant Diplomas

H. H. CHERRY, GENERAL MANAGER.

It gives us great pleasure to announce that the organization of the National School of Telegraphy, Railroading and Express has been completed and that the school has a large number of earnest young men and women enrolled for a thorough course of training. The students who matriculated in the Telegraphy Department of the Bowling Green Business College are received as regular students in the new school, and the Department of Telegraphy has been merged into the National School of Telegraphy, Railroading and Express. It is a source of great gratification to be able to announce that we have employed Prof. T. L. Kollorohs, of Michigan, and that he is with us at this time. He will have the general superintendency of the courses of instruction in the National School of Telegraphy, Railroading and Express.

Mr. Kollorohs is an experienced train dispatcher, railroad and express man, and knows exactly what the student needs in order to prepare for a lucrative position. Read the following statement relative to Mr. Kollorohs:

OFFICE OF M. B. H. & C. R. R. Co.,
BENTON HARBOR, Dec. 17, 1900.

To Whom It May Concern:

The bearer, Mr. T. L. Kollorohs, has been employed for the past three years by this company as Train Dispatcher and Agent. He is a man of exceptional ability in his profession, being very careful and thorough in details, and we regret his departure. His record here has been continuous in faithful and efficient service, and he has my unqualified endorsement as a man competent to fill a position with any company fortunate enough to secure him, his habits and deportment being all that could be desired.

GEORGE NOBLE, C. T. Disp'r.

Our School of Telegraphy occupies elegant quarters in the handsome new college building, and new equipments have been added. One can see in the telegraphy school a miniature of the telegraphy and railroading world.

(From Times-Journal, February 20, 1902).

Cherry Bros., proprietors of the Bowling Green Business College and Southern Normal School are nothing if not enterprising and wide-awake at all times and under all circumstances. Their two schools, the Business College and Normal School, are separate and distinct institutions, organized under separate charters, and now they have applied for a charter for the National School of Telegraphy, Railroading and Express, which will make their third separate and distinct school. The object of this school will be to teach telegraphy, everything pertaining to clerical work in the railroad service and the express business as well. They have had a school of telegraphy but railroading and express are entirely new features. The former department of telegraphy will be merged into the National School of Telegraphy. The new school will be under the management of Prof. Kollorohs, of Michigan, a regular practical train dispatcher, who is thoroughly well qualified for the duties he will assume. The charter will be received in a day or two and the school is ready to receive pupils at any time. It will afford young men opportunities for practical education in those branches of trade which are always demanding good men at handsome salaries. If you want to learn railroading, telegraphy or the express business you can not do better than enter this school at once.

While this school will be a separate and independent institution still it will be in same building as the others and under the general supervision of the Cherry Bros.

Special Mention of School of Telegraphy

All students who enter the National School of Telegraphy, Railroading and Express will have the privilege of entering the Bowling Green Business College and taking Penmanship, Spelling, Business, Correspondence Commercial Law and Business Arithmetic without extra charges. They will also have the privilege of entering the Southern Normal School and taking grammar, arithmetic, and, in fact, any literary branch or branches taught without extra charges. Students can select such branches as they need most and prefer to take.

No profession offers finer opportunities for promotion than Telegraphy and the Railroad and Express business. Many of the railroad officials and presidents started in life as telegraph operators. There are in this country 30,699 railroad agents, 78,603 station men, 22,488 operators and dispatchers for the railroads. Many of these men are promoted every year and new offices created, and new lines extended make a great demand for skilled and worthy young women and men who are prepared for the business.

Operators work up to be train dispatchers, some with only two or three years experience. Dispatchers are promoted to train masters and to assistant division superintendents, train masters follow in the same line. Assistant superintendent, to division superintendent, and so on up to general manager of railroads, some of which draw a larger salary than the President of the United States.

The Western Union Telegraph Co., the Postal Telegraph Co., and other telegraph companies of minor importance, have over 56,000 offices in the United States, and there are many other private lines that require operators. All these lines are branching out each year and the demand is greater than ever for skilled labor of this kind. If you get ready we can place you in a good position, as there is always room for the right kind of a man.

Any person, young or old, can learn telegraphy and become a good operator, but as a rule the best time to learn is between the ages of fifteen and thirty-five.

Operation of telegraph is not, as many people suppose, a complicated or a difficult thing to understand. The instruments used are quite simple, and easily understood. The great extension of railroads and commercial telegraph lines, throughout the United States is creating employment for thousands of operators each year, in addition to those already in the service.

The salary paid an operator averages from thirty to one hundred and fifty dollars per month, which depends on his or her skill and the kind of office.

To become an operator, is to learn to transmit the "Morse Alphabet," and read the same by sound, which can be learned in from four to five months in such a way the student by applying himself, will be able to hold a small office and from that follows advancement, according to the ability and interest shown in the company's business. A good operator need never be out of employment.

TERMS.

We will, until the first of September, 1901, sell a full and unlimited scholarship in Telegraphy for thirty-five dollars, but the rate will be forty-five dollars after that date.

Address

MR. M'ELROY ON ROME.

Graphic History of that Gentleman's Sojourn in the Everlasting City.

[Times-Journal, Bowling Green, Ky.]

The opening exercises at Cherry Bros' great Normal School are proving intensely interesting and are attracting large audiences. This forenoon's exercises were furnished in a very fine and graphic history of Hon. C. U. McElroy's sojourn in Rome, embracing a charming story of the coliseum, pantheon, catacombs and of St. Peter's. Sandwiched as the address was, between two exquisite solos by Miss Jones, the accomplished head of the musical department of the Normal School, who is possessed of a voice of singular sweetness and culture, the occasion was one of charming interest and was the subject of distinguished compliment by those present.

The Cherry Brother's Bowling Green Normal School, with its more than seven hundred students and unsurpassed corps of teachers, stands at the very head of all normal school institutions in the entire country, as The Times-Journal sincerely predicts.

Our School of Short-hand and Typewriting

Is under the able management of an experienced teacher and reporter, who gives the student much actual work in typewriting and reporting before the course is completed. Each student who desires will have the opportunity of doing one month's actual work in the school office assisting in doing the general correspondence of the institutions.

Gov. "Bob" Taylor, of Tennessee, Mr. Ralph Parlette, of Ohio, Prof. A. W. Hawkes, of Maryland, Senator Ben Tillman, of South Carolina, and Dr. Carter Helm Jones, of Kentucky, have delighted our people with magnificent lectures. Gov. St. John will lecture May 2. Gen. Jno. B. Gordon, of Georgia, will close the series, for this season, in his unsurpassed lecture on "The Last Days of the Confederacy." He will be with us on June 6.

The Lecture Course has already proved a great success. Students and citizens alike are availing themselves of this most excellent means of culture and are expressing their hearty appreciation of such a rare opportunity to hear the best speakers of America.

Scientific Course.

This is one of the strongest and most important features of our work. The purpose of this course of study develops the best that is in the student, and thoroughly acquaints him with his powers and possibilities. No course of study could be more effective and practical.

This course is not intended for teachers alone, but rather to impart the elements of a sound, practical education to young people, irrespective of previous training or future intentions of life. The sons and daughters of rich and poor alike will be benefited by study in this course. If the individual is unable to go further he has a substantial preparation for business or the study of a profession. In the latter case he can accomplish much more than others from the superior training our methods afford. In fact, a number of our young people who have attended courses of lectures elsewhere, after completing this course have carried off the highest honors in their classes. The literary drill alone in this department is worth the entire cost of the year. Persons completing the studies of this course are expected to be able to assume the management of an important position for which their qualifications may fit them; also to take charge of schools of a higher order. Graduates in this course are now earning salaries ranging from $75.00 to $200 per month, and the demand for them is greater than we can supply.

Send Us the Names of Your Friends.

You can help us in the great educational work we are doing by sending us an accurate and complete list of the names and addresses of your friends who will enter school.

We earnestly request the co-operation of the readers of the Southern Educator in extending the influence and usefulness of the schools by aiding us in sending our literature where it will do the most good.

The literary and debating societies have been unusually enthusiastic this year. The "Scientific Society," the "Sophomore and Junior Scientific Society," the "Cherry Literary Society," and the Law Class have made and are making enviable records in forensic exercises. The interest in this line of study has suffered no abatement whatever, but every society is ablaze with enthusiasm.

Hon. C. U. McElroy, who has recently returned from a tour of Europe, is delivering a series of lectures on his travels, to the school at the Chapel exercises. He is always enthusiastically applauded. He holds the individual attention of his audience from start to finish.

TEXT BOOKS USED

In Southern Normal School---Bring With You All the Text Books You Have.

Harvey's Grammar, Seventy Lessons in Spelling, Page's Theory and Practice, McGuffey's Sixth Reader, Raub's Literature, Roark's Psychology, Wentworth's Algebra, Gage's Physics, Collar and Daniel's First Latin Book, Ray's Third Arithmetic, Rays Higher Arithmetic, Hill's Rhetoric, White's Beginning Greek, Walker's Political Economy, Hill's Logic, Williams' Chemistry, Dana's Geology, Bergen's Botany, Wentworth's Geometry, Wentworth's Trigonometry, Wentworth's Analytics, Myer's General History, Shoemaker's Practical Elocution--Brown's Key to Expression.

Instrumental and Vocal Music.

Miss Cora Jones, who has charge of the instrumental and vocal music work is without question one of the finest musicians in the South, and the department of instrumental and vocal music has had a marvelous growth under her able management, and is now one of the most popular departments of the big schools.

Classic Course.

This is the crowning effort, on the part of the pupil, of four years' faithful study, here or elsewhere; and the very fact that he is able to prosecute it is the highest evidence that he has studied well. The curriculum consists, essentially, of a vigorous drill and discipline in the ancient languages and the higher studies of literature. The best efforts and appliances of the entire school are brought to bear in this department. The tendency of the training is to liberalize the ideas and sentiments of the members and to prepare them, in the very highest sense, to appreciate all that is most elevating and refining in science, literature and art. The pupil's training in this department will be put in intelligent sympathy with the best thought, not only of the past but the present time. He is expected to acquire the habit-power of interpreting notable features of the world's work. He learns to form and express an intelligent opinion upon the social, religious and political phases of current history. He also learns to prepare a formal lecture upon any given topic, and to present it clearly and forcibly to an audience. To this end the members of the Classic Class are allowed to prepare addresses upon various subjects, and to present them in lecture form before the assembled school and other friends. This exercise develops a great deal of original ability, and serves as well as to fix permanently the facts acquired through years of study.

The Fall Session

Opens September 3, 1901.

SOUTHERN NORMAL SCHOOL.

Great Independent Normal Training School of the South.

Its Right to Claim the Lead Is No Longer Questioned.

It would be not only futile but foolish for us to boast. To do this, there is not the slightest disposition on our part. On the contrary, we feel our weakness almost painfully. We want to confine ourselves to cold facts only, and with these we are content. Those who know us best will be last to charge us with boasting. We trust, therefore, that we may be permitted to speak plainly, yet modestly, when we say that if there ever existed a doubt as to our claim that the Southern Normal School is The Great Independent Normal of the South, certainly that doubt is now completely and permanently dispelled. Institutions, like individuals, must pass through periods of drudgery, disappointment, strain and suffering, before entering upon the higher plane of certainty and success. We are happy to announce to friends of the School that it has passed this first experience and is now enjoying the clear sunlight of certainty. Our magnificent new building is completed and we are in it. Our faculty is organized as never before. Our equipment in way of furniture is new and elegant. New students are coming almost every day. Prospective students are writing us by every mail. But while the institution is now enjoying the fruit of many years' labor, we are determined that it shall take no step backward. We buoyantly turn our faces to a future altogether bright, altogether inviting.

PROF. BURKE

Compliments Our Schools in Terms of the Very Highest Praise.

[From Times-Journal, April 11, 1901].

Prof. John Burke, Superintendent of the Newport city schools, spent two days of last week in visiting the public schools and the Normal college of this city.

Prof. Burke has devoted his life to school work and his opinion as to the efficiency of the public schools will be read with interest by the citizens of this vicinity. He said: "I was not only pleased with all I saw but was really surprised at some of the work I saw done in the public schools. I have been in public school work for over thirty years, and never saw classes of the same grade of pupils more efficient in the essential branches of school instruction than the schools of Bowling Green.

In a contest among the schools of the country as to the excellence in reading spelling, arithmetic, etc, the schools of Bowling Green would stand near the head of the contestants, if not there. I certainly know of no schools where better work is done. Great credit is certainly due to Superintendent Taylor and his excellent corps of teachers.

The order and discipline also pleased me highly. The school accommodations are excellent, showing a progressive spirit among the people.

"I also greatly enjoyed my visit to the Normal School and Business College. There is a spirit of enthusiasm manifest by the faculty and students that is highly commendable. There is a splendid opportunity here for young ladies and young gentlemen to get a business or professional education, and it is cheering, indeed to see so many taking advantage of it. Prof. Cherry has the energy, the enthusiasm, and the earnestness to run such an institution and, assisted by an able faculty, he is making a grand success."

Mammoth Cave.

Bowling Green is located within a short distance of Mammoth Cave, which is one of nature's greatest wonders. No student of geology or of nature, or any one who has an appreciation of the sublime and beautiful, should fail to see this caprice of subterranean creation. The schools arrange for cheap excursions which are run under our personal management and are a source of pleasure and profit to the pupil. The Geology Class makes an annual trip to the Mammoth and Colossal Caves.

Our School of Penmanship

Is ably handled by two penmen who acknowledge no superiors and but few equals. The student can get anything he wants in the pen art line. We put special emphasis on practical business writing.

THE SUMMER TERM

We take the following letter from our stenographer's note book. Read it carefully:

"ESTERED FRIEND:—Yours here. We will issue to you a 20 weeks' scholarship in the Southern Normal School for $18. This is only 90 cents per week. Excellent table board would cost you $1.50 per week. This would make your tuition, table board, and furnished room cost you only $56.00 for a five months' term in the Southern Normal School. During the season of the year when you do not burn coal, your incidental expenses will be 10 cents per week, and when you burn coal, the incidental expenses will be 25 cents per week. Allowing the expenses for coal for ten weeks, or one-half of the time, at 25 cents per week, would make $2.50, and ten weeks at 10 cents per week would amount to $1.00. So the incidental expenses would aggregate $3.50 for a five months' term, and this amount added to $56.00 would make your total expenses for board and tuition—everything furnished—only $59.50 for an entire term of five months. This certainly puts the rate of board and tuition within the reach of every individual. If you prefer private board we guarantee we can get you the same in the best families—everything furnished—for $2.50 per week. At this rate your board would cost you $50.00 for five months, and your tuition $18.00 for the same length of time, would make your total expenses for private board, everything furnished, and tuition, only $68.00 for the entire term of five months.

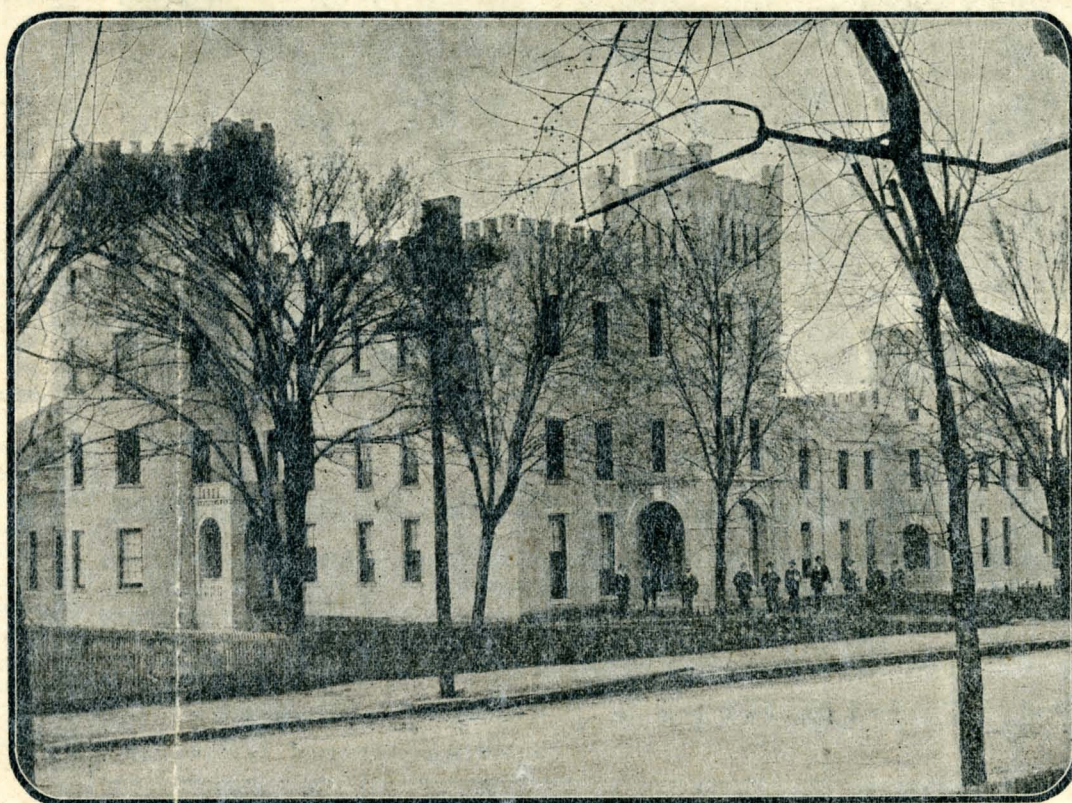

Very truly yours,

CHERRY BROTHERS,
Per H. H. CHERRY.

Bowling Green Business College.

We give more and charge less than any Business College in the South.

The following low rates are the standard charges of the B. G. B. C., and we will not make a "cut" of any kind for anyone. Do not ask us for a reduction. We charge all our pupils the same. Considering the high grade work we do and the thorough instruction given, we could not afford to make a cheaper rate:

Rates of Tuition.

Tuition in Business Course, three months.....	$30 00
Tuition in Business Course, five months.....	45 00
Tuition in Business Course, ten months.....	60 00
Full course in Typewriting.....	10 00
Tuition in Shorthand, same as in the Business Course.

Rates For Two or More Commercial Courses.

Tuition for any two of the Commercial Courses, three months.....	$45 00
Tuition for any three Commercial Courses, three months.....	50 00
Tuition for any two of the Commercial Courses, five months.....	55 00
Tuition for any three of the Commercial Courses, five months.....	60 00

Tuition for any two of the Commercial Courses, ten months.... 65 00
Tuition for three or all of the Commercial Courses, except Typewriting, twelve months..... 70 00

Special Offer.

Tuition for a full course in Telegraphy will cost only $35.00.

Two Months' Tuition Free.

You will notice that the regular rate of tuition for any Commercial Course is FORTY-FIVE DOLLARS for five months, and this is a reasonable rate. However, WE WILL GIVE TWO MONTHS' TUITION FREE to every student who pays for the five months' scholarship at the time of entering.

In other words, we will issue a seven months' scholarship instead of a five months' scholarship.

Students who enter on two or more Commercial Courses for five months are also entitled to TWO MONTHS' TUITION FREE.

The $70.00 Scholarship.

We have offered this scholarship to meet a popular demand for a Combined Commercial Course. It gives the holder full right and privilege to all the departments except Typewriting. If he enters on this scholarship he will have the advantage of all the branches taught in the Business College for ONE YEAR. The $70 scholarship is the lowest rate of tuition ever offered by a school. The different courses included in the $70 scholarship would aggregate, at the regular rate of tuition, about $210, but we are making you a rate of $70, and at the same time furnish free railroad fare, cave fare, and hotel fare to and from Mammoth Cave.

Free Trip to Mammoth Cave.

All students who enter our school on a $70 scholarship and pay for the same at the time of entering will be given a free trip to and from Mammoth Cave. We will pay all necessary expenses connected with the trip.

Free Tuition in Southern Normal.

All the Business College students can take any of the literary branches taught in the Southern Normal School without extra cost.

The offer to give two months' tuition free is considered a very liberal one, and our students universally take advantage of it.

Attend the Big Summer Business Training School. The Business College is in session the entire year. No vacation.

"Very truly yours,
"C. W. B. HILL,
"Rector Christ's Episcopal Church."

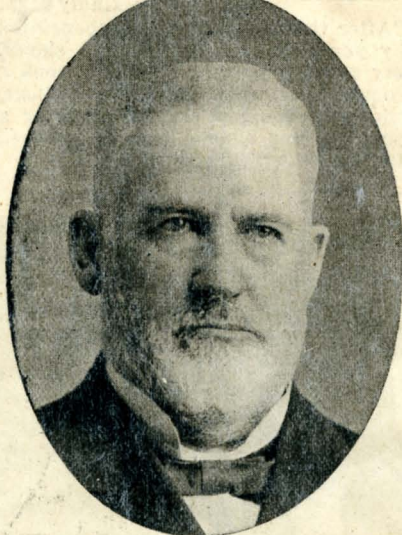

J. WHIT POTTER.

We have, for a number of years, watched with great interest the work being done by the Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College of this city. The growth of this institution has been marvelous, and we regard it the greatest college in its line in the South. We dare say there is not a better corps of teachers in any school in this section of the country. Their work is thorough, and they are constantly turning out young men and women well equipped for the school room and other business pursuits. The curriculum in this institution is thorough, and we say freely to any young man or woman who desires an education in the lines taught in this institution that they could do no better than to matriculate in this college. Yours truly,

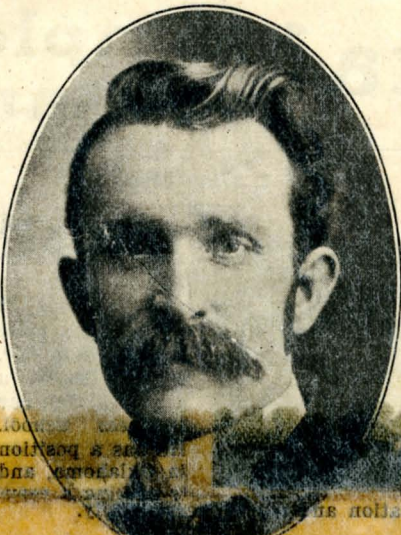

Dr. Wm. Irvine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, says: "The Bowling Green Normal and Business School, under the management of the Messrs. Cherry Bros., merits the highest commendation. I have watched the progress and conduct of their students for five years, and am prepared to say that I have never met a more serious, earnest and thoughtful set of young people. They are quiet, orderly, and purposeful, doing with their might what their hands find to do. The faculty are well equipped and in hearty sympathy with their work. The discipline is exceptionally good."

DR. W. T. FERGUSON.

Dr. W. T. Ferguson, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Bowling Green, Ky., says: "I have known Prof. H. H. Cherry, President of the Normal and Business College, for several years, and take great pleasure in commending him as a Christian gentleman and thoroughly competent for the management of such a school as he has. The school is thoroughly up-to-date, and second to none in the South."

"The citizens of Bowling Green are greatly proud of the Normal College located in their midst. As an educational institution it ranks with the very best of its kind. The Cherry Bros. have shown signal ability in building up and maintaining with so marked success such an institution. The large number of ambitious students, male and female, who have come here for a purpose, is the splendid testimonial to the efficiency of the able body of teachers."

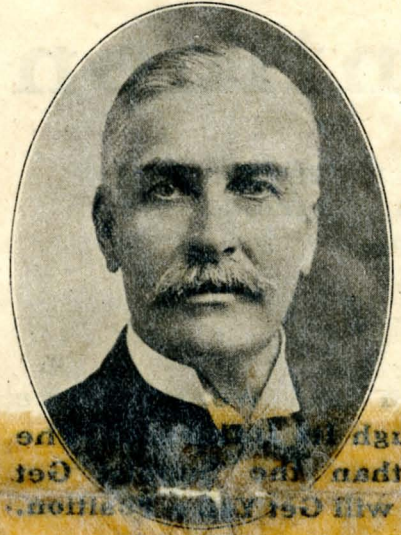

J. H. EARLY, D. D.

Cherry Bros.' Normal College of Bowling Green is an ideal school. The faculty is alive and up-to-date in modern methods of instruction. They strive not simply for good results, but the best.

J. H. EARLY, D. D.,
Pastor State Street Methodist Church.

Claude Bowen, Shorthand class of '91, is stenographer for John McGrath & Sons, cotton buyers and merchants, Brookhaven, Miss. Mr. Bowen has been with the above firm since 1891.

It affords us much pleasure to state that we have known Messrs. Cherry Bros., of this city, for many years, and our long acquaintance with them warrants us in the belief that they are gentlemen of integrity, sobriety, industry, and splendidly qualified for their chosen profession. Several graduates of their Business College are now working in our bank, and we have pleasure in saying that they show an excellent training, and always accurate, reliable and trustworthy. We commend their school to those seeking a first-class institution of learning. Very respectfully,
P. J. POTTER & Co., Bankers.

DR. WM. LUNSFORD.

Dr. William Lunsford, pastor First Baptist church, Bowling Green, Ky., says:

"I greatly indorse the schools of the Cherry Bros. in Bowling Green. They reflect great credit on their enterprise and ability, and are an honor to the city."

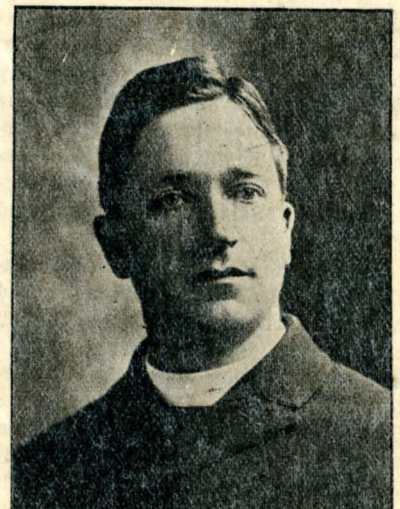

F. S. Brown has a fine position in White Castle, La. He keeps a very heavy set of books and is delighting his employers.

COL. THOS. J. SMITH.

Col. Thomas J. Smith, President of the Citizens' National Bank of Bowling Green, says:

"Gentlemen: It gives me pleasure to commend your institutions to the public. The courses of study are thorough and eminently practical. I am very much pleased with the progress my children have made in your institutions. If I can say or do anything that will help you in the work you are doing, it will be a pleasure to me. The citizens of Bowling Green are proud of your institutions."

REV. THOS. J. HAYES.

With pleasure do I add my name to the list of those who indorse the splendid work that is being done at the Southern Normal School, of Bowling Green. On various occasions I have met and conversed with a large number of its students, and, in expressing themselves on the educational advantages that the college offers, without a dissenting voice they pronounced it a first-class institution, in every way thoroughly equipped and up-to-date in meeting the needs of its scholars.

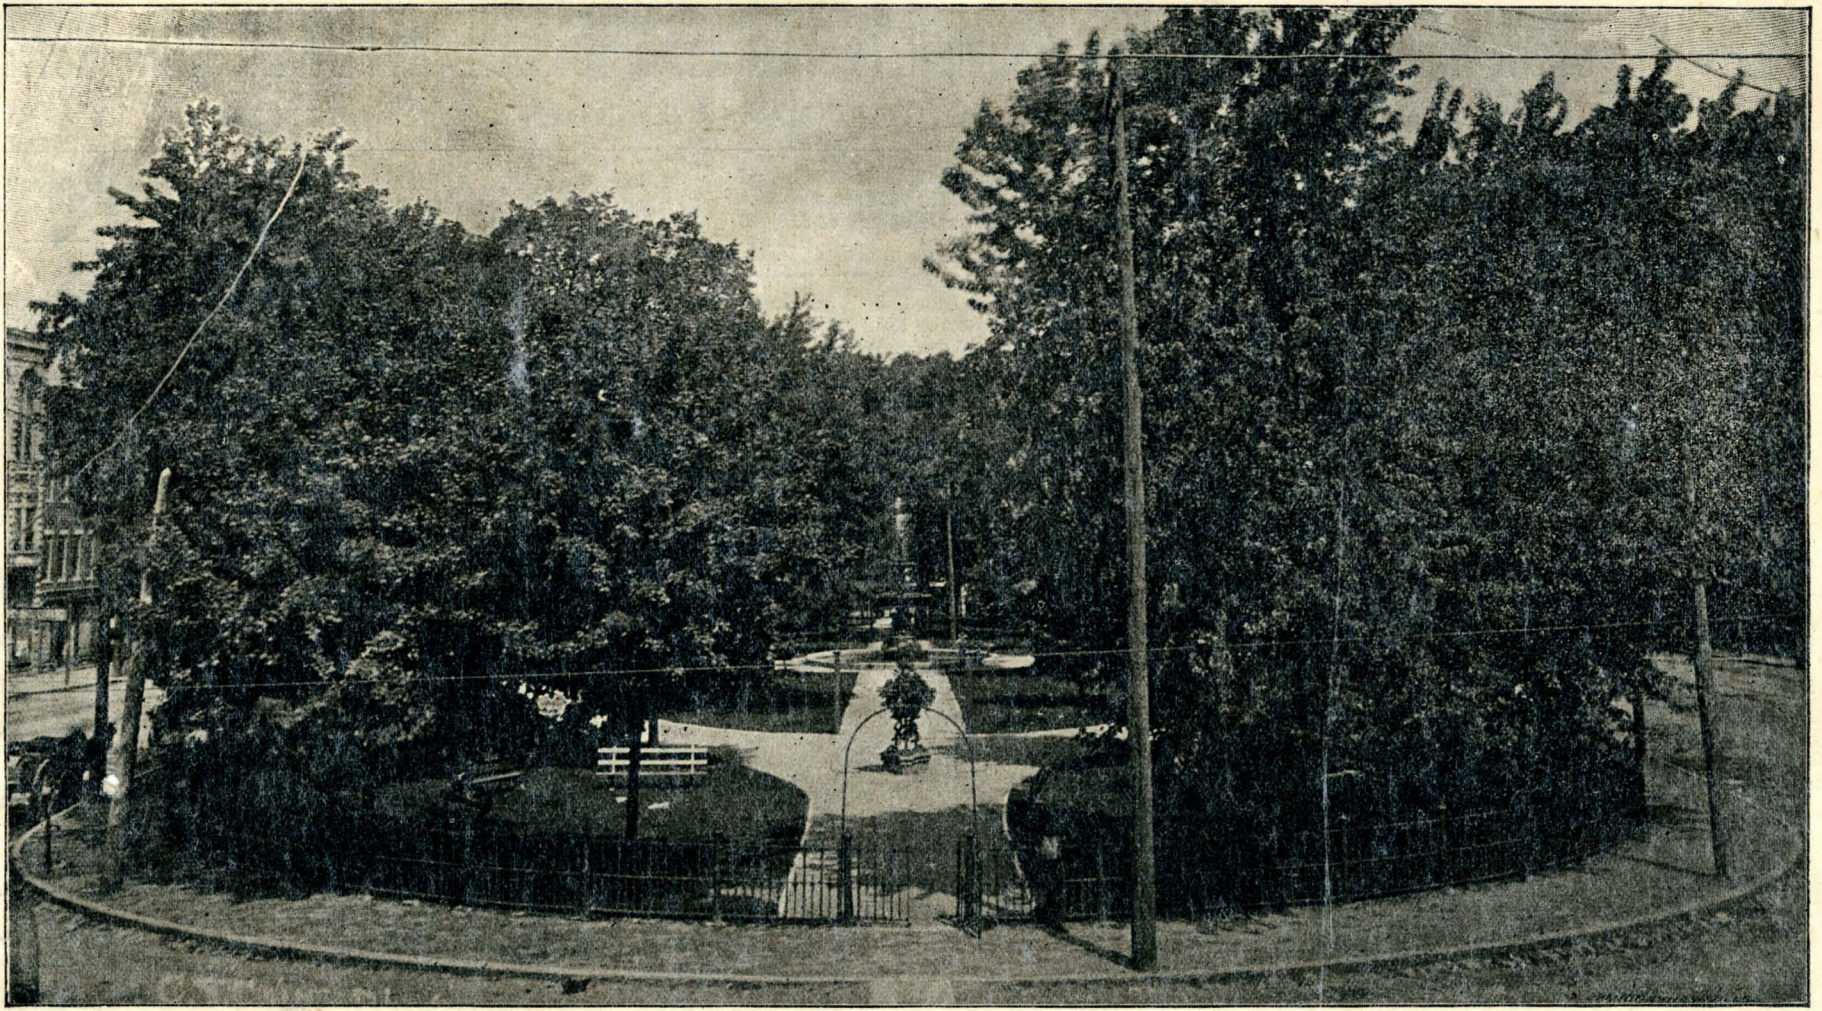

The verdict of the students, I take it, is one of the best and most reliable tests of merit that any college can produce.

Respectfully,

THOS. J. HAYES,

Pastor St. Joseph's Church.

CITY PARK, BOWLING GREEN.

The Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency.

INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF KENTUCKY, SECURES POSITIONS FOR WORTHY GRADUATES.

Many Bright Young Men and Women Have Captured Places Through Its Influence. The Positions They Have Secured Are Far Better Than They Could Have Secured in Any Other Way.

EDUCATE YOURSELF AND COMMAND A GOOD SALARY.—NO POSITIONS FOR INCOMPETENTS.

The Bureau invites correspondence with competent services seeking employment, for it has been unable to fill many fine places on account of the demands being greater than the supply.

The Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency was organized and incorporated under the laws of Kentucky. Its object is to place earnest, sober, willing, reliable, trustworthy and qualified men and women into good positions, and to especially secure lucrative employment for the worthy graduates of the Southern Normal School, Bowling Green Business College and National School of Telegraphy, Civil Service, Railroading and Express.

At the time the articles of incorporation were filed, the incorporators had no idea that the business of the Bureau and Agency would grow so rapidly and would become so valuable a factor in the conduct of our schools. The Bureau is organized on the same plan as those organized by the leading universities of this country. Its work will not be confined to the present and future graduates of the institutions, but, owing to the great demand for varied and extensive work, it has become necessary to go outside of the institutions in order to meet the demands made upon it. When all other things are equal, it will be the policy of the Bureau to give preference to the graduates of Cherry Bros' different schools.

Only competent, qualified and worthy men and women of unquestionable characters will be taken into its membership. No charges will be made for registering, and the member will be at no expense whatever, unless the Bureau secures a position the applicant would be willing to accept.

If the officers of the Bureau have a right to judge from past experience and present demands, there will not be any trouble whatever in securing every worthy graduate of our two Commercial Schools and the Scientific, Classic, and Elocution and Oratory and Music Departments of the Southern Normal School a fine position as soon as a course is completed. A special effort will be made to do this, and we feel sure that all who desire a good place will get it through this medium as soon as they are qualified.

Public school teachers, who are dissatisfied with their salaries and who will give themselves a business or literary education and apply themselves faithfully to a literary or commercial course until they are proficient, will have no trouble whatever in securing employment and in commanding a good salary ten or twelve months in the year.

At no time in the history of this country has the demand for competent service of every kind been so great as it is now, and if the thousands of young people who are dissatisfied with their surroundings and salaries would prepare themselves for good positions, they would most certainly get them. They would not only receive better salaries, but would widen their influence, become more useful to the world and more earnest in the pursuit of their duties.

Prof. W. S. Ashby, the Secretary of the Board, has done much more than any other man toward making the Bureau a success. He has pushed it from the beginning and has put it into its characteristic life and has already brought it to the attention of the public and has given it a prominent place.

H. H. Cherry is named as President of the Board, and Mrs. H. H. Cherry as a member of the Board.

Gets A Good Position.

There is not a man in the Territory who is more anxious to succeed and more willing than Mr. M. G. Bailey, a graduate of our Business School. He has a position in Oklahoma and is very successful.

Mr. N. O. Curry attended our school and took the State Certificate course. He took the examination and captured the certificate. Mr. Curry has recently completed a Business course.

His brother is now in our school.

Mr. Leon Farque entered our school and faithfully completed the Business course of study. After completing the course he accepted a fine position in his native State of Louisiana. His

Mr. Robert Young, bookkeeper for W. J. Fell, manufacturer of staves and lumber, and general merchant, of Salt Lick, Ky., secured his position as soon as he had completed his course in our school. Mr. Young is a fine bookkeeper and a very successful man.

J. H. BLANKENSHIP. Principal Commercial department Bardstown, Ky., College.

Charles Harris is a Graves county boy. He entered our school on the $70.00 scholarship and is now stenographer and bookkeeper for the Hattiesburg Lumber Co., Hattiesburg, Miss.

Married People.

Many married people enter our schools, and usually bring their families with them and keep house while here.

We give here with an excellent photograph of Mr. E. B. King, who was sent by the Bureau to take a position with the Rich Lumber Co., of Hattiesburg, Miss. In writing us he kindly says:

"After the way I have been benefitted by your school, I feel that I should say something in its behalf. I took a course in your Business College, which thoroughly prepared me for a position, and a good one was secured for me with this company."

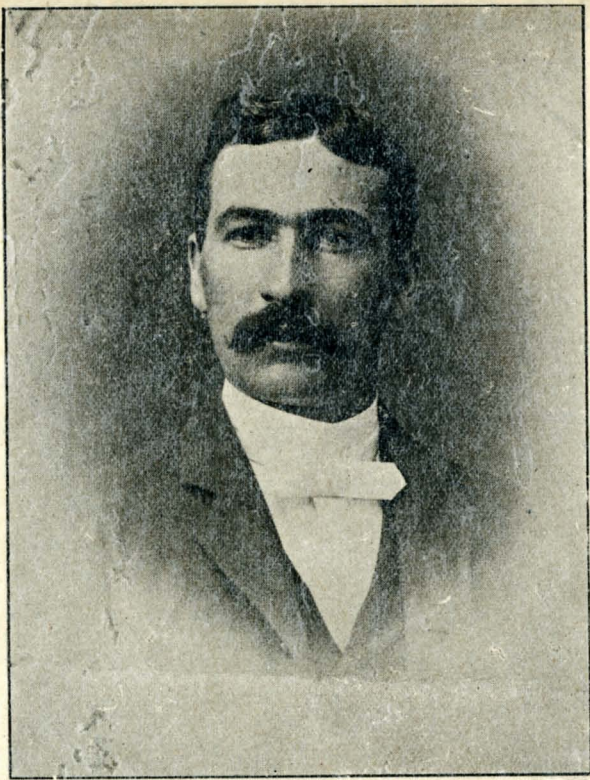

Rooms.

Unfurnished rooms, suitable for housekeeping, can be rented all the way from $4.00 to $6.00 per month.

Members of the Magnet Debating Society, who gave an Entertainment Representing the Colonial and English Spirit just before the Revolution. Each Student on the Evening of the Entertainment was dressed in Appropriate Costume.

CAPT. C. J. VANMETER.

On the site occupied by the main college building, Capt. C. J. Vanmeter was born, to commemorate which fact, as well as in grateful recognition of his generous aid extended to, and kindly interest manifested in, these institutions, the Board of Directors of the Southern Educational Building Company have named the main building, including the Chapel, "Vanmeter Hall," and thus it will be hereafter designated and known.

The Southern Normal School and Business College, as a testimonial of their appreciation of the sterling worth of Capt. Vanmeter as a citizen and friend to these institutions, have elected him Chancellor, which position he has kindly agreed to accept.

The Young Men's Christian Association extends a hearty welcome to all students of our schools.

R. J. Spriggs is a graduate of the Scientific, Law and Shorthand departments, and was just recently placed by the Bureau in a good permanent position. He will act as general stenographer. He says:

"Having spent several terms in your schools, I can sincerely recommend them as being the kind of institutions that our country demands, because they develop in the student freedom of thought, native talent, and an ability to cope successfully with the practical affairs of life."

W. H. Neagle, of Thornton, Ark., has a good position with a lumber company and has been married three years.

Mr. J. S. Aucoin is one of Louisiana's best teachers. He attended our institutions for several terms. After leaving us he accepted a fine position as book-keeper, and continued in this field of labor until recently. He has accepted the position as Principal of the Public Schools at Amelia, La. He is getting along splendidly, and doing a great work for the cause of education in his State.

Mr. W. C. Franklin graduated in our Law School during the first year of its existence. He did fine work, both in law and a few special branches which he pursued. He now holds a fine position in the Census Department at Washington, D. C. He recently graduated in the Columbia Law School. He was given a credit of one year in that college for the work he had done in our institutions.

Won Over Nine Contestants.

We present a picture of Mr. Charles Roemer, who won the West Point cadetship over eight other contestants in a recent examination held in the city of Bowling Green. The highest grade was sought by representatives from nine institutions, but Mr. Roemer, who had been in our schools for eighteen months led by eight points over the best of his competitors. He has a great opportunity and will use it.

WE MOST RESPECTFULLY INVITE A CAREFUL EXAMINATION OF THE WORK THAT IS BEING DONE BY OUR LAW SCHOOL.

County Superintendents.

Few of the Former Students Who Were Elected During the Recent Campaign.

Joel H. Pile, an earnest, conscientious and successful teacher of Glendean, Breckinridge county, was elected County Superintendent. In a recent letter he says having to leave his school is the only sad thing connected with his becoming Superintendent. We take the following extract from his letter: "I am delighted to learn of your growing success. For it to be commensurate with your deserts it must continue till still more commodious buildings will have been erected. Your work is one of Kentucky's felt powers."

Mr. H. C. Miller attended our school during the spring and summer of 1901. He was thoroughly alive, and stood in the first rank of the different Normal Training classes. He was the nominee for County Superintendent of Hardin county, and passed a most creditable Superintendent's examination, and was elected to the office. Mr. Miller will render valuable and faithful service to the people of his county, for he is progressive, and desperately in earnest.

Miss Nellie Bedford was elected County Superintendent of Bourbon county. She kindly says: "I desire to say that I spent six weeks in the Cherry Brothers Normal School, during the summer of 1901, preparing for the examination of County Superintendent. I found the school to be in every way as represented. The faculty efficient, patient and painstaking. It is with pleasure that I recommended this as the school for those preparing to teach."

Very respectfully,
NELLIE B. BEDFORD.

Mr. T. T. Gardner was re-elected Superintendent of the schools of Warren county during the recent campaign. Mr. Gardner has done a great work for the schools of Warren county, and the people appreciate his labors. He is a B. S. graduate of the Southern Normal School.

Mr. W. B. Arnold received the nomination in his county for County Superintendent. He entered our school during the spring and summer of 1901 to prepare for the County Superintendent's examination and to give himself special training for the discharge of duties of the office of Superintendent. He passed a very creditable examination, and was elected County Superintendent of Meade county, Kentucky. In a letter he kindly says: "I regard the Southern Normal School as the best institution in the South. Students wishing to prepare themselves for the battles of life can not do better than take a course in this institution."

Miss Dora M. Smith attended our schools about five years ago. She received the nomination for County Superintendent in her county, and entered our institution again during the spring and summer of 1901. She took the County Superintendent's examination and was elected County Superintendent of the schools of Fulton county, Kentucky. She is thoroughly fitted for the duties of her office, and will make an efficient Superintendent. In a letter which we have just received from her, she says: "I am watching with interest the splendid work that is being done by the Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College. I know from experience that it deserves all the praise that is bestowed upon it, and especially do I urge those who expect to teach to attend this institution."

Mr. Ernest Lewellyn, who was elected Superintendent of Carroll county recently writes: "It gives me pleasure to say that the Southern Normal is just what it is represented to be, the grandest school of the South. I can recommend the work to any young man or woman."

Yours truly,
"ERNEST LEWELLYN."

Miss Lizzie Graham was elected Superintendent of Schools of Green county. She is well qualified for the place and will render a high-class service to the people of Green county. She took a course in the S. N. S. in the spring of 1899.

Kelley J. Day attended our schools for two different terms. He was elected Superintendent of Knott county. He is one of the S. N.'s warmest friends, and writes enthusiastically about the great work it is doing for the cause of education.

Miss Mattie Bedford, who attended our school during the spring and summer of 1901 and took the State Certificate and County School Superintendent Course, was elected Superintendent of Nicholas county. She took the examination and captured a State Certificate.

Miss Nannie Jones attended our schools in 1897 and took the State Certificate course. She passed the examination and captured the State Certificate. Shortly after leaving school she was elected County Superintendent of Muhlenberg, and was recently re-elected to the same position.

Mr. W. C. Turner, one of the leading school men of the State, attended the S. N. S. during its early history. Mr. Turner was recently chosen by the people of Barren county to fill the position of County Superintendent.

Mr. John B. Parrish is another former student who has been meeting with much success since leaving our institutions. He says, in a recent letter: "My stay in your school was of material benefit to me. I shall ever be grateful to you for the generous manner in which I was treated by you. Accept my best wishes for your continued success."

Mr. Alfred Cunningham attended our school in 1897 and was elected County School Superintendent after leaving school. He has served the State faithfully. He was re-elected at the recent election.

Another one of our former students who has turned life to the best account is Mr. George McCombs. He was recently elected Superintendent of Edmonson county. Mr. McCombs speaks enthusiastically of his high admiration for the work that is being done by our institutions.

Another County Superintendent.

Mrs. J. S. Lewis, a woman of fine training, was elected recently to the office of County Superintendent of Allen county, Ky. She is a former student of our schools, and is especially prepared for the duties of the office. She will make a fine Superintendent.

BOWLING GREEN BUSINESS COLLEGE.

The Great Business Training School of the South.

It Does a High-Grade Business College Work. Hundreds of Positions are Open for Competent Services and Thousands of Our Graduates are Now Holding Fine Positions.

This School uses the famous Budget System of Bookkeeping which has the distinct reputation of being the very best system for imparting a practical knowledge of bookkeeping and of office practice that was ever published. We also give our students a great deal of original work, which is prepared by our teachers, who are specialists and expert accountants. We do not have you copy a few pages out of an old-time text-book, and then tell you that you understand bookkeeping.

Instead, the morning you enter School you are given a position as bookkeeper for a business man, and proceed at once to keep his books, handling all the business papers, such as notes, drafts, receipts, bills, orders, and cash, just as you would in a business house. From these business papers received and issued, you make your entries in a regular set of books, from which you will take monthly trial, make out balance sheets, close the ledger, and in every particular perform the same work that you would as a bookkeeper in an ordinary business house or counting room. You write up and prepare all kinds of business papers and business documents, such as articles of agreement, leases, etc., in addition to the ordinary business.

The Practical Plan.

It is well understood among educators that actual illustration goes very far toward impressing any fact upon the mind. To that we have fitted up a complete line of offices, in which all the departments of business are actually carried on. Suitable currency is employed. Goods are bought and sold, invoiced and marked for sale; freights are charged and collected; notes, drafts, checks, mortgages, liens, deeds, and bonds are actually given and taken; exchange is bought and sold; interest and discounts are computed; partnerships, associations, and stock companies are formed, charters secured, and are dissolved by the students themselves.

County Attorney.

Mr. D. H. Kincheloe is a B. S. graduate. He was recently elected County Attorney of McLean county, Kentucky. He will take the oath of office the first of January, 1902. He has a bright future before him.

Holds State Certificate.

Miss Pearl Eblin, of Robards, Ky., entered our school last spring and pursued the State Certificate course. She was one of the many successful applicants. In a recent letter she says: "I speak words of praise for the Southern Normal School. Having taken a course of training, I know something of the work done, and the courses of study offered. I most heartily and enthusiastically endorse the great work that is being done by your institutions."

Captured State Certificate.

Miss Addie Moore was one of the members of the State Certificate class last spring. She was always faithful in the discharge of her school duties. We take the following from a letter she wrote us recently: "I consider the time spent in the Southern Normal School the most pleasant and profitable of my life."

I Get a Salary of $100 per Month.

HELENA, MONT.

We can not refrain from taking the following from a letter received from Miss Amelia Briedenbach, a graduate of our shorthand department, who is making $1,200 per year:

"I am indeed glad to hear of your great prosperity and trust it will continue. The pupils who have attended your school in the past, with whom I am acquainted, speak enthusiastically of the successful methods employed by your school in training men and women for business life. Mr. C. C. Newman, who is an ex-pupil of yours, is a very successful attorney in this city. Mr. Rochester, the assistant State Treasurer, also informs me that he was a student of yours, and you have in him a great admirer. There are other former students in Montana, whom I have met personally, ex-Senator Ed Norris, of Montana, being one of them. They are illustrations of what the Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College is able to do for any one who is fortunate enough to take advantage of its educational facilities."

"Let me say for myself, which might be of some interest to you, that I am now in the office of the Attorney-General, and I get a salary of $100 per month. My position is good for four years any way, that being the time for which the Attorney-General is appointed in this State. I have always been successful with my work here in Helena, and think with great pleasure of the many pleasant, as well as profitable, days passed in your School, when I was going through my initiation in shorthand. Thanking you for your interest, and wishing you unbounded success, etc."

Three More Successful Members.

Holds a fine position in Arkansas.

MR. R. J. CRABTREE

Secured position through the Bureau. He is in Fernwood, La.

VIEW ONE END OF MAMMOTH CAVE HOTEL.

Bowling Green is located within a short distance of Mammoth Cave, which is one of Nature's greatest wonders. No student of geology or of Nature, or any who has an appreciation of the sublime and beautiful, should fail to see this caprice of subterranean creation. The schools arrange for cheap excursions which are run under our personal management and are a source of pleasure and profit to the pupil. The Geology Class makes an annual trip to Mammoth and Colossal Caves.

Mr. F. O. Putnam, teacher of Penmanship and Drawing in the Graded Public Schools of Bowling Green, Ky., was put into his present position by the Continental Employment Bureau. He is giving universal satisfaction, and doing a great work for the Public Schools of Bowling Green. In a recent statement he says: "I owe my present excellent position to the untiring efforts of your Bureau."

Mr. W. N. McReynolds entered our school and pursued a literary course for about one year, then took up a course in shorthand and bookkeeping in the Bowling Green Business College. He was placed by the Bureau the 1st of August, 1901, with the Crowley, Rice Milling Company, of Crowley, Louisiana. Mr. McReynolds is well qualified for the work he has entered upon and will delight any firm, for he is honest, earnest, energetic and means to succeed.

Instrumental and Vocal Music.—Special Mention.

The Music Department is under the direction of a specialist who has studied under some of the greatest teachers in America, and who keeps in touch with the broad, thoughtful and music-loving people of the city. It is the purpose of this department to hold up before the students only the highest standards and ideals, with no sacrificing of "musical conscience." The effort is made to cultivate thought and earnest purpose and to crush out all superficial striving on the part of a few who do not realize the length and breadth of the art! That music ennobles and enriches life is a fact beyond dispute, and we encourage its study in all who can possibly take the course—too many music students take up the study as mere amateurs, rarely bringing to it the necessary intellectual culture or conception of what music and its lofty purposes are. So many practice music who bear in their hearts little or no sensibility to what is truly beautiful and grand; they look upon music merely as an ornament for entertainments. We would call the attention of our readers to the course of study indicated in this catalogue, and trust that many will avail themselves of the opportunity of having a thorough and advanced course of study, which is offered to our students for a very little expenditure of money. What we do earnestly require is thoughtful application of the pupils, and in return they receive all the benefits of an enthusiastic and able instructor. The music department is under the direction of Miss Cora Jones, whose music study, together with her wide experience as a teacher, has well equipped her for the work, and we hope to raise the music school to a height second to none in the country.

E. S. COOPER.

Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency, Bowling Green, Kentucky.

Gentlemen:

Two weeks after joining your Bureau I secured a first-class position in this city as stenographer and bookkeeper. I take pleasure in recommending your Bureau to all persons out of employment, or those seeking better positions. Very truly yours,

E. C. COUTY.

Bowling Green, Ky., April 23, 1902. After attending the Southern Normal School for several terms, and spending one year in the Bowling Green Business College, it gives me no little pleasure to recommend these schools to all young men and women who desire an all-round education; such as will fit them for life's work.

Upon the completion of my course, I was placed in a good position. In fact, I was offered a place before I was prepared to take same. The Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency has no trouble in securing employment for all students who are competent to render efficient services. I am sure no one can make a mistake in attending these schools.

CLAY HAYNES.

Is With Enoch P. others, Manufacturers.

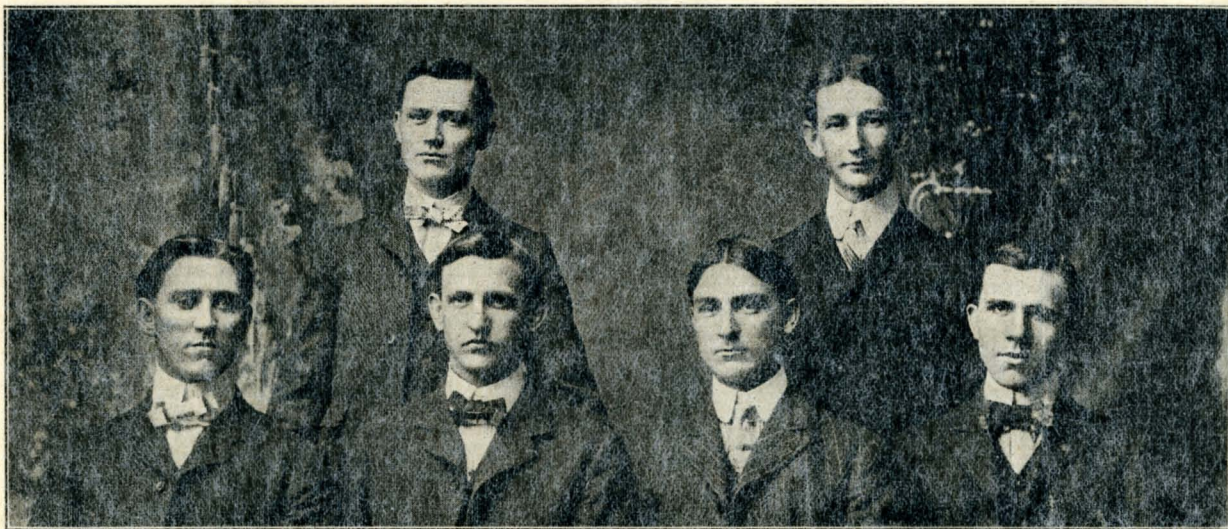

Fernwood, Miss., June 18, 1902.

After taking a thorough training in this school, I secured a good position, and have had no difficulty in holding same.

To any one desiring an education, and an education should be the highest ambition of every young man and woman, I heartily recommend the S. N. S. and B. G. B. C., where you will be filled with an enthusiasm to make a useful man and woman.

Very truly yours,

A. L. SIDEBOTTOM.

Morgantown, Ky., July 17, 1902.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that, having joined the Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency, I received, within less than one month, notification of eleven vacancies, and to my choice of these I made application and have secured an excellent position in the Davis Shorthand School of Erie, Penn. Since accepting the position, I have been tendered four other different places.

I commend the Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency to all reliable, competent young men and women who are seeking employment, either as teachers or accountants. The untiring energy and the great public confidence reposed in Prof. W. S. Ashby, the Secretary of the Bureau, avails much in aiding and securing for worthy people lucrative and pleasant employment. Yours truly,

JAS. T. AUSTIN.

I Was Notified of Ten Vacancies.

Lewisburg, Ky., August 2, 1901.

To Whom It May Concern:

Eight weeks ago I became a member of the Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency, and with pleasure, I recommend it to all who are looking for employment. It not only notifies their members of vacancies, but it takes pleasure in aiding them in every way possible. During the first month of my membership with it I was notified of ten vacancies, and had soon secured a position as principal of the shorthand department of American Business College, Allentown, Pa. Already I have been compelled to turn down several positions, having secured the place I desired. The members of the above named Bureau and Agency do not only secure fine positions, but they have the privilege to select from several, thus giving themselves an excellent chance to be well pleased. Any person seeking employment will make no mistake in joining the Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency. I heartily recommend it to your careful consideration.

Very respectfully,

A. C. GUFFY.

Mr. W. S. Ashby,

Bowling Green, Ky.

My Dear Sir:

I have just closed negotiations for next season's work at a highly gratifying increase over my present salary, and placing exceedingly desirable opportunities in my way for further advancement, which I could not otherwise have secured without the valuable and timely information which you have put at my disposal.

I was somewhat uncertain at first about placing my application in your hands, not being familiar with the work which you are accomplishing, but I assure you that your efforts in my behalf have been so satisfactory that I now have the highest confidence in your enterprising methods. You have given me a very wide range of country to select from and put me in touch with the very best institutions of their class, so that I have not only had little difficulty in securing a first-class position, but have had several fine offers to decline.

Kindly accept my sincere thanks for the untiring interest which you have manifested in my behalf.

Yours very truly,

W. N. CURRIER.

Blackford, Ky., May 30, 1902.

The Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency, Bowling Green, Ky.

Gentlemen:

It is indeed a pleasure to say that shortly after registering with your Agency I secured a good position in the North Georgia Baptist College, Morganton, Georgia.

Accept my thanks for your faithfulness in my behalf, and permit me to recommend your Agency to any one desirous to be helped to a good position. No worthy young man or woman need be out of a position long if they register with your Agency. Very truly yours,

C. O. SIMPSON.

To Whom It May Concern:

Be it known that I, having taken membership in the B. G. Bureau of Employment, have accepted a nice, paying position.

I feel safe in recommending this institution to all who desire good positions. Also, knowing Prof. Ashby, General Manager, personally, and having been under his instruction, I feel safe to say to those desiring competent clerks, bookkeepers, stenographer, teachers, etc., that they can do no better than give Prof. Ashby a chance to fill vacancies. I am,

Very truly,

J. E. HOLLAND.

Secured a Fine Position Through The Bureau.

After several months of pleasant work in the Southern Normal, I completed the Scientific Course in the summer of 1899. I learned enough about the work of the Bowling Green Business College, and the success of its graduates, to desire the training it gives, so I returned in January last and took the combined Bookkeeping and Shorthand Course. I have recently secured, through the Employment Bureau and the influence of the schools, a place as commercial teacher that is in every way most desirable. It gives me pleasure to say that these schools are first-class, and do much for their deserving graduates.

J. L. FOUST.

Neponset, Ill., Feb. 11, 1902.

Mr. W. S. Ashby,

Secretary C. E. Bureau, Bowling Green, Ky.

My Dear Sir:

Since my name was placed on your list last July you have shown me every courtesy that could be asked. You have more than fulfilled your part of the agreement, for you have placed me in touch with some of the best schools in our land, with positions open at splendid salaries. My relations with these schools were very pleasant, indeed, proving to me that you must have the confidence of a great many of the foremost educators of the present day. Frequently, it has been true of Employment Agencies that they do not have, and too often do not merit, the confidence of those who are employers, but from personal experience, I would say that the opposite must be true in regard to the Continental.

Your terms with your applicants are certainly very liberal; your agreement is kept "not only in the spirit, but in the letter also," and I am positive no one can enter just complaint. To any teacher out of employment or desirous of work in another section of the country, or to those wishing better positions, I most heartily recommend your Agency. Yours very truly,

CHAS. CREIGHTON PORTER.

Santa Rosa, Cal., June 1, 1902.

To Whom It May Concern:

I take great pleasure in recommending the Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency to those who are desirous of obtaining good positions promptly. In less than three weeks from the time I became a member I had secured the position I now hold, as principal of the Shorthand and Typewriting Department of the Santa Rosa Business College.

Respectfully,

H. BELCHER.

Bowling Green, Ky., May 20, 1902.

To the Public:

I take pleasure in recommending the Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency to teachers, bookkeepers, stenographers, etc. I am intimately acquainted with the gentlemen composing this Agency, and know that they are thoroughly reliable and trustworthy. I was elected to a desirable position as principal of a high school in a few weeks after registering with this Bureau. Very truly,

S. G. BOYD.

Stanley's Business College.

Thomasville, Ga., April 24, 1902.

Mr. W. S. Ashby, Manager Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency, Bowling Green, Ky.

Dear Sir:

I take this opportunity of expressing to you my appreciation of the services rendered me by your Bureau. I do not hesitate to say, that while I have business dealings with some of the best teachers' agencies of the United States, I consider that your Bureau stands at the top, and shows that you are in touch with the best schools of the country. The information given me from time to time I have noticed to be of the highest class, and such schools that it would be a credit to any teacher to work for, and the names of the schools alone was satisfactory proof that salary would not stand in the way of the right person for the place.

I have no doubt but what your Bureau will be largely rewarded for the great work it is doing, and I take pleasure in commending it to any and all teachers that are seeking employment in first-class schools, as one of the best and most reliable Bureaus for getting located, and at the highest possible salary. I unhesitatingly say that no Bureau in this country will render more efficient services for the benefit and promotion of those entrusted to its care.

Again thanking you for the many kindnesses tendered me, and wishing you the abundant success which you richly deserve, I am, yours very truly,

W. W. MERRIMAN.

OUR SHORTHAND SCHOOL

Is turning out many Stenographers who universally succeed in getting the very best positions that are offered.

A Thorough Course of Instruction and Practical Work Guarantees a Fine Position for Every Worthy Graduate.

WE NEVER FAIL TO SECURE POSITIONS, and could secure more, if we had the People to Recommend.

The Famous GREGG, PITTMAN and LONGLEY Systems of SHORTHAND are Taught.

OUR SHORTHAND SCHOOL is under the instruction of Mr. J. Lewis Harman, an experienced man who has taught and reported for the past ten years. He gave himself the advantage of a first-class literary education, and besides, taught literary branches before making a specialty of shorthand and typewriting. The training and experience he has had especially equip him for the position as superintendent of our courses of shorthand, typewriting, business correspondence, etc. He is a sympathetic, painstaking, earnest instructor, and always has an abiding interest in his students. In addition to the above, the extensive experience he has had in business life gives him practical information and qualifies him to do a work that will especially fit the student for business life. His great aim is to give the student a course of training that will not only enlarge the mental vision, but train the student so that he can hold a good position which will be offered to him as soon as he is ready.

Cashier Express Company.

Mr. Everett Skaggs is a Warren county boy. He entered our school to take a Shorthand course when only fifteen years of age. After completing his course of study, he accepted a position with an express company at Jacksonville, Fla. He has been with this company ever since. He has received several promotions since his engagement with the company. We knew that Everett would succeed, for he is business material, and has the elements of success in him, and a determination to climb.

A Lumber Dealer.

Mr. Ben L. VanCleave attended our schools and completed the Business and Shorthand courses. Immediately after completing his work, he accepted a fine position in Kansas City, Mo., with the Long, Bell Lumber Company. He remained with this company for several years and learned the business thoroughly. He always received a good salary, and was popular with his employers. Mr. VanCleave owns one-half interest in the VanCleave Lumber Company of St. Louis, Mo. He is succeeding abundantly, and is a recognized financier in the commercial world.

Mr. Ira Savells was placed by the Bureau with the Robinson Land & Lumber Company of Chicora, Miss. In a letter to us he has the following to say: "I had been a member of your Bureau for only a short while when it secured me the position I now hold. I was offered several other places through the Bureau before accepting this one. I shall always be under obligations to your institutions and to the Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency for what they have done for me."

Mr. R. H. Hankins entered our school for the business and shorthand courses and faithfully pursued same. Before he had completed the course he was recommended to the Hartford (Ky.) College as principal of the Commercial Department. He was elected to the position and has been making a great success of his work and gets a good salary.

C. H. Shively, Shorthand and Literary Course of '97, has gone to Jacksonville, Fla., where he accepted a fine position in the Southern Express office.

Mr. J. H. O'Quinn came to us from Louisiana during the spring of 1901. He was a faithful student, and completed our Business course of Training. He was placed by the Bureau with W. O. Aldridge, dealer in general merchandise, Estelle, Miss. He writes us that he is delighted with his position, and getting along splendidly. His sister is now in our institution pursuing a combined Business and Shorthand course.

In Potter's Bank.

Mr. R. E. Harris was recommended to his present position as bookkeeper with P. J. Potter's Son's Bank by the General Manager of our institutions. His employers are delighted with his services. Mr. Harris attends strictly to business, and possesses those elements that will make his life a grand success.

Mr. C. W. Barron, one of our Commercial graduates, is now head bookkeeper for the Sand Spur Lumber Company, of Sand Spur, La. We take the following from a recent letter which we received: "I was with you only five months, as you will remember, and on my return home was given a position, and have had the position ever since. I have not lost a day since beginning work, one week after arriving home. I am now getting $75 per month, with good chances for promotion. I am delighted with my position and shall do all I can for the company."

Mr. F. L. McConathy was placed by the Bureau with the L. & N. R. R. Co. at Paris, Tenn. We take the following from a recent letter: "So many young men say, 'I would go to some college if I could get a position after I had completed the course.' Well, that is the very question that bothered me so much, but I finally made up my mind to attend your school, and I no longer have any doubt about your course of study, or your ability to help your students secure lucrative employment."

Mr. W. W. Welsh came to us from Louisiana and completed the Shorthand and Business courses. He was always faithful in the performance of his school duties and brought his work up in the best shape. Immediately upon completing his courses of study he accepted a position with the National Bank, of Lake Charles, La., which position he has held ever since. We understand that Mr. Welsh is extremely popular with his employers, and is gaining promotion rapidly.

In a Bank.

Mr. W. W. Welsh came to us from Louisiana and completed the Shorthand and Business courses. He was always faithful in the performance of his school duties and brought his work up in the best shape. Immediately upon completing his courses of study he accepted a position with the National Bank, of Lake Charles, La., which position he has held ever since. We understand that Mr. Welsh is extremely popular with his employers, and is gaining promotion rapidly.

loyalty and devotion to the institutions.

Mr. F. P. Stum is a Scientific graduate. He is now cashier of the Mayfield Bank. He has been succeeding abundantly since he left our schools, and frequently writes us, expressing his

A Successful and Hustling Business Man.

We venture to say that A. M. Finley, who completed our Business Courses, and who is a first-class literary scholar, is one of the best business men, bookkeepers, and stenographers in the whole South. He took, in the beginning, a position that required much ability and skill to hold, yet he has filled the place to the entire satisfaction of his employers. He is connected with the Crowley-Rice Milling Co., as stenographer and bookkeeper.

A Fine Position.

Mr. J. H. Hicks came to us from Meade county, Ky., and pursued a literary course for five months, and then taught school for a term of five months; he then returned to our school and took a course in Shorthand and Bookkeeping, and by the time he had thoroughly completed his course, he was offered a good position in Crowley, La. He is now working for the Green, Shoemaker Company. We predict great success for this worthy young man, who is desperately in earnest and intends to succeed.

Mr. H. C. Whitney came to us from Allen county, Kentucky, and took up a combined commercial course. He pursued his work faithfully. Messrs. Potter-Matlock & Co., bankers, of Bowling Green, called on the Business Manager of the School for a young man to work in the bank. Mr. Whitney was recommended, and is now faithfully discharging the duties of his position, and is striving manfully to command the respect and endorsement of the commercial world by making himself an all-round man.

Position in St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Dona Glenn took our shorthand and bookkeeping courses last year and secured a fine position in St. Louis, Mo., as soon as she had finished her work. She writes that she is delighted with her position as well as stenography and her general work.

Mr. Chas. Burner is head clerk for one of the biggest mercantile establishments in the South. The Bureau secured his position for him several weeks before he left school. He has received rapid promotion from the time he entered upon the discharge of his duties.

Mr. F. S. Henderson is at the topmost round in the stenographic profession. He does a high-class work and never fails to please his employers. The Bureau placed him with the J. W. Lampton Bros., of Columbus, Miss., and he is perfectly delighted with his work, and we understand the company is equally well pleased with Mr. Henderson.

Laid the Foundation of Success.

ceiving promotion.

S. M. Shrader, Stenographer and Book-keeper for the Lampton Co., Kentwood, La., was placed in his position by the Bureau and he is giving entire satisfaction and receiving promotion.

Mr. Jim Morgan is one of the most promising young stenographers in the South. In fact, he holds quite a responsible and paying position at this time, and has been offered many flattering inducements by men seeking the services of a good stenographer. He is a Bowling Green boy and took the course in our schools on the suggestion of the Business Manager of the institutions. He has a bright future.

Mr. A. G. Braswell is one of the brightest boys who ever attended our institutions. In a contest where there were many applicants he took the medal for excellency in bookkeeping. He now has charge of the Commercial Department of the Hartsville, Tenn., Commercial College. He says: "I attended your schools for ten months, and I know they are all they are represented to be."

Mr. John Hibbett came to us from Tennessee and was placed in position with a drug company within four months from the time he entered our school.

More Positions Filled by Cherry Bros.' Employment Bureau.

(From Evening Journal, Oct. 30, 1900). The Employment Department of Cherry Bros.' Schools continues to meet with great success, and is placing many young men and women into good positions.

The demand for competent labor in all the departments of business is large, but the demand for combined stenographers and bookkeepers can not be supplied. The Cherry Bros. have just recently gone outside of the school in order to meet the demand.

A Fine Stenographer Secures a Good Position.

Mr. Lewis Martin, a Warren county boy, entered our institutions and took up a business and shorthand course of training. He is now commanding a fine salary as stenographer with B. C. Garrell & Co., Humboldt, Tenn. There are no better stenographers in Tennessee than Mr. Martin. He was placed into his position by the Bureau.

Hundreds of broadly educated and zealous teachers are wanted. There is a better salary and better position for all the public school teachers who will educate themselves.

Chas. Andrus, bookkeeper, Crowley, La.

Denny P. Smith, attorney, Cadiz, Ky.

W. A. Hammer, inventor, Clinton, Ky.

T. L. Karns, attorney, Owensboro, Ky.

C. K. Marshall, cashier bank Greenville, Miss.

W. J. Davis, member of Normal faculty, Dickson, Tenn.

Prof. J. M. Gilliam, high school Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. Bettie Lee Murphy, editorial and general literary work, Dallas, Texas.

The above picture represents the second term Business College graduates of 1900, and the synopsis below shows the remarkable success of the class. Almost all of them are holding places of responsibility and honor at fine salaries. There are 12 Bookkeepers, 10 Business College Instructors, 1 Traveling Salesman, 1 Commission Merchant, 1 Operator, 3 Combined Stenographers and Bookkeeper, 1 County Court Clerk, 1 Merchant Tailor, 1 Lumberman, 1 Business College Owner, 1 Combined Operator and Stenographer, and 2 are now in our school.

The National School of Telegraphy, Civil Service, Railroading and Express.

The Telegraphy School reminds one of a Large Central City Telegraph Office, where Work is Dispatched with Rapidity and Accuracy, and One Sees a Miniature Telegraph World.

COMMERCIAL WORK, in all its branches, is taught. This consists of receiving and sending messages, handling number sheets, check sheets, etc.; in fact, everything will be handled as it is in actual business. This is done in order to get the student ready for actual work and to turn out good operators.

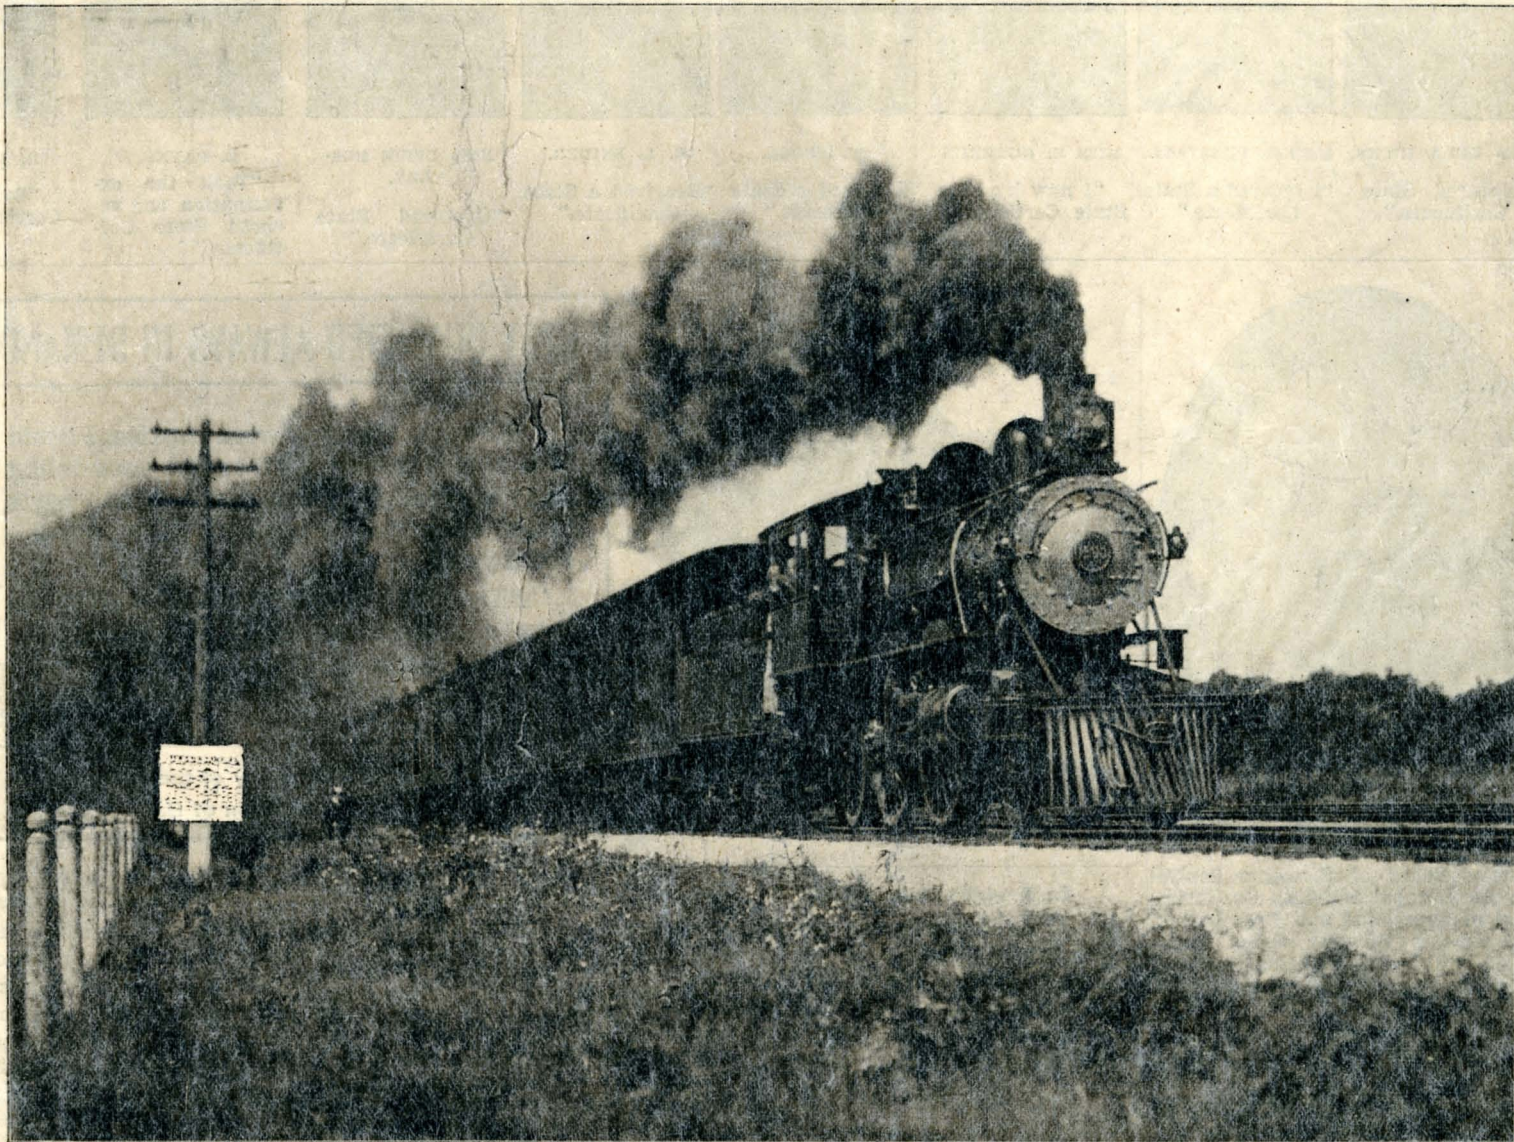

A PART OF THE DAY'S WORK will be devoted to market reports, sending and receiving all messages, train orders, press, etc. The last twenty or thirty minutes of each day will be devoted to railroad and commercial rules and the general discussion of all details connected with every well regulated office.

THE STUDENT IS TAUGHT the construction of batteries, lines, the use of the switch board, the handling of ground wires, the manipulation of the different kinds of instruments; in fact it is the intention of the school to teach the student so that he will be prepared for any emergency and handle the difficult questions that might come up any time, as well as attend skillfully to the general routine of the office.

IT WOULD TAKE TWO YEARS OF UNSATISFACTORY WORK AND MUCH LOST TIME for any student to learn as much about telegraphy and general railroad business as could be learned with us in four or five months. We make this statement carefully and after considering it, and we know that it is correct. We have had students with us who have been in the railroad business for quite a long time, and we have had many who were never in the railroad office, and this has given us an opportunity to learn the best methods for any individual who expects to enter the profession.

WE HAVE ENTERED ARRANGEMENTS AND FORMULATED A PLAN by which we will be able to place every graduate of our telegraphy school into a good position. Every member of the last year's class, who has completed the course, and who desires a place will be in an office with the promise of promotion ahead of him, when the correspondent reads this circular.

MEMBERS OF OUR TELEGRAPHY SCHOOL enjoy many privileges that students of other schools do not enjoy. For example, we allow all who desire, and without any extra cost to them, to take advantage of our classes in Business Correspondence, practical instruction in Penmanship, Arithmetic, Spelling, Commercial Law, and any literary branch or branches taught in the Normal College, as well as many other privileges, and all this is offered to the student free.

The above picture made by the Photographer of the University of Chicago, while the train was running at the rate of 71 miles per hour.

Dan Howell is a Warren county boy, and was placed in the Yazoo and Mississippi railroad office as soon as he completed his course. Eight weeks after entering the railroad office he was promoted from time to time, and now has charge of important work. He secured a position six months after entering our school. You will hear from Dan again in the future, for every inch of him is a part of a man.

Mr. R. Wetterhan, who is now in the office of the L. & N. R. R., writes: "I was in your School of Telegraphy for four months. All persons desiring to obtain a thorough, practical course in telegraphy should put themselves under the instructions of your able and earnest teacher, Prof. Kollorohs, for I can speak from personal experience when I say he is an expert operator and a noble teacher."

G. H. Whitesides is doing telegraphy work in the office of the Chief Dispatcher, Southern Railway, Knoxville, Tenn. He has a fine position. He writes:

"Nothing pleases me more than to hear of the success of your schools. I shall ever feel grateful to you and your schools for what you have done for me. My brother is with you and is delighted with his work."

Mr. H. I. Percy writes: "It will always be a great pleasure to heartily recommend your school of Telegraphy to all my friends who desire to enter school."

Part of Mr. Dungan's Letter.

YAZOO & MISS. VALLEY RAILROAD CO.
ARNOLD, MISS.

I can assure you that I will always feel grateful to you for the interest you took in pushing me along.

I am working as agent and operator here, and have been here since March 1st; am making $50.00 to $60.00 per month. I got an agency right off, and I am expecting something better a little later on.

W. F. DUNGAN.

Bowling Green, Ky., June 18, 1902.
To Whom It May Concern:

I will say to those expecting to take telegraphy at any time, that they can not do any better than to enter the NATIONAL SCHOOL OF TELEGRAPHY. After being here seven months, I leave to-night, June 18th, to accept a position of $50.00 per month.

Prof. Kollorohs, the teacher in this department, is thorough and practical, that is, everything he tells you in regard to anything pertaining to railroading and telegraphy may be depended upon.

I most highly commend the school to any one expecting to make a profession of railroading in any shape, and especially to those expecting to study telegraphy. Very truly,

T. H. HARPER.

Notes and Clippings.

HENRY CONWAY

Louis, Mo.
Has accepted position as helper in chief train dispatcher's office, and expects to have a place as regular operator in near future.

J. W. MARSHALL,
Calvert, Texas.

Accepted position with Postal Telegraph Co. as operator, at a salary of $35.00 per month and commission not to exceed $60.00. Postal Telegraph Company is opening up offices nearly every day, and operators are very scarce in that State.

JNO. H. BLAINE,
Pembroke, Ky.

One of 1901 class, now regular operator at above place at $45.00 per month. Mr. Blaine was placed at Guthrie as helper; after six weeks was taken on as relief operator, and is making his way up in railroad business.

T. D. HOWELL,
Lula, Miss.

One of 1901 class, now regular operator at above place at a salary of $40.00 per month. Mr. Howell is with Yazoo & Mississippi Valley R. R. Operators are very scarce on that line and in great demand.

I. H. PERCY,
New Orleans, La.

One of our 1901 class, now commercial operator for the W. U. Telegraph Co., at a good salary.

T. H. HARPER,
Elizabeth, Miss.

Accepted position as operator and clerk with Y. & M. V. R. R. Co., at $50.00 per month. Attended school seven months.

W. F. DUNGAN,
Arnold, Miss.

Has accepted position with Y. & M. V. R. R. Co. as agent and operator, salary $50.00 to $60.00 per month.

F. O. LOFT,
Gibson, Tenn.

Left before he had thoroughly completed his course to accept a position with L. & N. R. R., during fruit shipping season. Is pursuing his studies at the office at his spare moments. Mr. Loft was a good student.

L. T. WILSON,
Clarksville, Tenn.

One of 1901 class, located at above place as operator and stenographer, at a good salary.

Mr. Ovey Broussard, a telegraphy student, in writing us says: "I unhesitatingly commend your school of Telegraphy to any young man or lady who desires to prepare for a good position."

Wilmore, Minn.

"Operators are very scarce on this division of the Great Northern Railway. Need ten good men."

Vicksburg, Miss.

"Operators and agents are very scarce on both divisions between Memphis and New Orleans. Need five on Memphis, and seven on New Orleans division."

"Every railroad is making the same cry. Good men are in demand and very scarce."

"Many railroad extensions will be opened up during the next year, and will need nearly a thousand men to fill the places."

"I. C. Railroad has increased the salary of operators and agents 10 per cent., taking effect July 1st. Many other lines have done likewise on account of the scarcity of this class."

Mr. B. S. Harris, of 1901 class, is now employed as operator on the N. C. & St. L. R. R. in Tennessee.

V. V. Boatner, class of 1901, is employed in his home State, Mississippi, as operator and stenographer.

James Hopson came to us from Logan county, Ky., and faithfully pursued the business and shorthand courses of training. He is now acting as general stenographer and bookkeeper with the Chattanooga & Nashville R. R. Co., at Nashville, Tenn. He is much appreciated by the company, and his services have been recognized by promotion.

Bowling Green, Ky., July 12, 1902.

As one of the members of the graduating class of 1902 in the National School of Telegraphy, it affords me great pleasure to express my appreciation of the faithful and untiring efforts of Prof. Kollorohs.

He is strictly impartial and thorough in his instruction. I know him to be thoroughly proficient in his line of work, and as an instructor he has few equals and no superiors. There is always demand for his students as soon as they complete the course, and at present this school can not supply the demand. Prof. Kollorohs is an operator of wide experience in all branches of railroading.

In behalf of this school I wish to say that any one desiring to attend a school of Telegraphy, that the instruction given in this institution can not be surpassed. The instruction given is thorough, up-to-date, and in every way practical.

WE GIVE BELOW A FEW STATEMENTS

FROM A FEW OF OUR STUDENTS FROM LOUISIANA WHO ARE NOW IN SCHOOL.

I recommend the Southern Normal Business College as one of the best in the South. I am now in school and shall stay until I complete my course.—A. J. Rybiski, Donaldsonville, La.

Is In School.

I have been in the B. G. B. C. about six months, and am pleased to say that the school is modern in every way. I am well pleased with the school and expect to return to it next year if possible. Any one entering this school will do well and never regret same. Respectfully,
G. B. SELF.

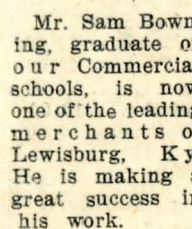

The Elementary courses of instruction of the Southern Normal School are of the very highest order. No one desiring to prepare for higher work can afford to miss the opportunities offered by this school. I am so deeply impressed with the earnestness and zeal of the faculty, and the hospitality of the people of the town that I shall remain in school for some time.
RUDOLPH LEBLANC,
Vermilion Parish, Abbeville, La.

I have just completed a ten months course in the S. N. B. C., and can only speak in the highest terms of the school.

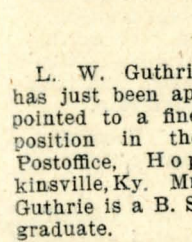

Mr. Burton is now Deputy Sheriff of Barren county, Ky. No man has more friends than Mr. Burton. He has a bright future.

Mr. Sam Bowning, graduate of our Commercial schools, is now one of the leading merchants of Lewisburg, Ky. He is making a great success in his work.

Clarence Schooling has a good position with the Insurance Company, Dallas, Texas. He writes that he is delighted with his position and the city.

L. W. Guthrie has just been appointed to a fine position in the Postoffice, Hopkinsville, Ky. Mr. Guthrie is a B. S. graduate.

Mr. A. C. Cherry has just accepted the position of head bookkeeper for the Lampton Lumber Co., of Fernwood, Miss. He has a fine position and gets a handsome salary. He resigned his position as bookkeeper in the Citizens' Bank of Bowling Green. He secured his position through the Bureau.

I am now taking a combined course in bookkeeping and shorthand in the Bowling Green Business College. It is with pleasure that I say to all who desire a good business education that you can not do better than attend this school.

ZELLA O'QUIN.

In School.

I have been a student of the Southern Normal School for several months, and am well pleased with it. I heartily recommend the work to any young man or woman.—Valery L. Duffel, Donaldsonville, La.

In School.

I have been attending the Bowling Green Business College for nearly a year, and have every reason to believe it is the best in the South. My stay here has been the most profitable as well as the most pleasant I have ever experienced, and I feel sure that any one will get value received for their money if invested in this way.

I sincerely and heartily recommend the B. G. B. C. to any one desiring to secure a most thorough business and literary training.

Read What Mr. Morris of Texas Says.

I have been attending the Bowling Green Business College and Southern Normal for the past ten weeks, taking shorthand and typewriting, and can now write one hundred words per minute in new matter. I would recommend this school for any one seeking first-class training, at lowest rates possible.

Respectfully,
JNO. A. MATTHIS.

Judge Thomas Hunt is now in Oklahoma Territory. He was in our school in 1896. He has made a fortune in the Territory, is one of the most influential citizens of the West. In writing us he says: "Long may the banner of the Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College wave in peace and prosperity."

To Whom It May Concern:

Having attended the Bowling Green Business College and completed my course in bookkeeping, it gives me great pleasure to recommend this college to all desiring a thorough, practical business education.

Yours truly,
MYRON J. BABIN.
Tompkinsville, Ky., Aug. 22, 1902.

Cherry Brothers,

Bowling Green, Ky.

Gentlemen: It affords me pleasure to state that whatever degree of official and financial success I have attained, I owe, in a very great measure, much of it to the very efficient and careful training I received in your institution. I should most heartily advise all young men and women before entering upon the active duties of a busy life, to avail themselves of just such training as your institution offers.

Very truly yours,
R. G. RILEY,
Clerk Monroe Circuit Court.

Fall Term.

The fall term opens September 2, 1902.

I entered the business college on the 8th of January, and I am glad to say that I am perfectly satisfied with the school, and think any one who enters this school will find it to be as recommended.

Respectfully,
F. B. GODWIN.

I have been in your school for nearly one year. I consider your instruction of the highest class; your teachers thoroughly alive and competent, and the courses of instruction complete in all points.—Alphee LeBlanc, Abbeville, La.

Will Remain Three Years.

I have been a student of the Southern Normal School for six months, and shall remain for three years, and it gives me much pleasure to speak in its behalf. The faculty, the thoroughness of its training is proven by the success that attends those who take advantage of the opportunities it offers.

One coming in contact with the educational spirit that dominates the school, and the elevating influence of the place, can not help being inspired to higher ideals.

Will Be in School Several Years.

With pleasure do I add my name with those who speak in behalf of the thorough, systematic, and splendid work being done at the Southern Normal School.—Adam Broussard.

I was a student of the Bowling Green Business College for a number of months, and it is indeed a great pleasure to recommend it to any young person desiring a thorough and practical knowledge of the theory of bookkeeping and shorthand. It is modern and up-to-date in every respect.

J. L. FARQUE.

Is Now in School.

I have found the training received in your college to be one of inestimable value to me, and can cheerfully commend it to any one desiring thorough and practical work.—A. W. Grillet, Baldwin, La.

J. G. Broussard is Now Canvassing For Our Institution.

"I came to Bowling Green in 1899 to enter Cherry Bros' school with the purpose of staying only five months, but somehow the influence of the school inspired me with a desire to turn life to the best account. To this end I have remained in school, completing the Scientific Course, and am now pursuing the Classic Course. I expect to be in school for several years. I recommend this school to all who are desiring a thorough and practical education."

Normal Catalogue.

If you are aiming to enter a literary school, and have not received our Normal catalogue, it will pay you to write for one before entering elsewhere.

Includes the Most Famous Speakers On the American Stage.

Bowling Green was fortunate last season in the high class entertainments and lectures by the Lecture Association, but the talent employed for the next season makes even a more interesting course.

The very best and most famous speakers on the American platform have been engaged. We do not exaggerate when we say that there is no better talent on this continent than will appear in the next year's course. The Lecture Association will offer a special rate to all students of our schools. All the lectures and entertainments will be given in Vanmeter's Hall, and under the direction of the general manager of our schools. We give below a partial list of the talent employed:

Gov. "Bob" Taylor, of Tennessee; Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of New York; Dr. — Conwell, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Dr. — Headley, of Ohio; Dr. Hawley Smith, author of "Evolution of Dodd," and Alonzo Taft, the famous artist.

Southern Educator.
We regret that it becomes necessary, on account of a recent decision of the Third Postmaster General, to announce to the thousands of readers of the SOUTHERN EDUCATOR that the paper will, for the present, be suspended. The school will not be inconvenienced or injured as a result of this decision. We have employed three traveling representatives who will be given work in the field most of the year, and, in addition to the above we are sending out the heaviest mail in the history of the institutions. We make the announcement relative to the SOUTHERN EDUCATOR in order to assign to many of the former students the reason for its absence.

Winter Term.
The winter term will begin January 20, 1903.

The Law School—From Members of Local Bar.

A few men as well qualified as John B. Rhodes to make a successful instructor. He is careful, painstaking and conscientious in the discharge of his duties, and is a thoroughly equipped lawyer. A combination of these elements make his administration a success which will increase with every succeeding year.

C. U. McELROY,
Attorney at Law.

I have known Hon. John B. Rhodes intimately since he has been a member of the Bowling Green bar, and take great pleasure in saying that I know him to be an excellent lawyer, well fitted and equipped in his profession to fill the position of Dean of the Law Department of the Southern Normal School with credit to himself and with entire satisfaction to said institution.

JAMES C. SIMS,
Attorney at Law.

Bowling Green, Ky., April 22, 1902.
Messrs. Cherry, Bowling Green, Ky.:
Gentlemen—In common with all the citizens of Bowling Green, I feel a just pride in the high standing and extraordinary success of the Southern Normal School and Business College, of which you are the managers. I have observed with especial interest the work of the Law Department of said institution, and as many of its students have been admitted to the bar in my courts, I have had frequent opportunities of ascertaining the nature and extent of the legal training given by your law instructors.

You are doubtless aware that admissions to the bar in my court are not allowed without written examinations, all questions and answers being returned in open court, with the report of the committee appointed to conduct the examination. You are fortunate in having at the head of your law department Mr. Jno. B. Rhodes, of the Bowling Green bar, a lawyer of recognized ability and fine character, admirably equipped for the work of instruction. Rhodes is a graduate of the law department of the University of Virginia, and though actively engaged in the practice of his profession, he devotes much of his time to legal study and investigation, thereby retaining his high hold upon the elementary principles that underlie the law, and at the same time keeping in touch with the modern trend of legal thought as well as the decisions of the courts. His methods of instruction are simple, direct, forceful, well calculated to impart knowledge, and at the same time excite inquiry upon the part of the student.

It gives me pleasure to thus commend your law school, and I predict for it an abundant measure of success in its future work.

Yours truly,
W. E. SETTLE,
Judge 8th Judicial Dist., Ky.

Louisville, Ky., April 21, 1902.
Prof. H. H. Cherry,
Bowling Green, Ky.

Dear Professor: It gives me great pleasure to speak a word in behalf of the B. G. B. C., to which I owe my success. The course of training given is thorough and practical. Your method of training young men for actual business could not be improved upon. I am at present holding a position as head bookkeeper in the buying department with W. B. Belknap & Co., this city.

Trusting that your well-deserved success will continue, and thanking you for past favors, I remain, yours very truly,

J. W. NORRIS.

Fall Opening.

The fall session will open Tuesday, September 2, 1902.

Mr. Powell Frye, when about fifteen years of age, came with his mother to Bowling Green, Ky., and faithfully pursued the literary, shorthand and business course of training. After being in school for about two years, he was made our Private Secretary. He afterwards captured through the Employment Bureau a permanent, pleasant and paying position with the Lampton Bros., of Mississippi. We receive a fine letter from Powell every few months, and we greatly appreciate the sympathy and the interest he takes in us and the success of our schools. Mississippi has no better stenographer than Powell.

Southern Educator.

We regret that it becomes necessary, on account of a recent decision of the Third Postmaster General, to announce to the thousands of readers of the Southern Educator that the paper will, for the present, be suspended. The school will not be inconvenienced or injured as a result of this decision. We have employed three traveling representatives who will be given work in the field most of the year, and, in addition to the above, we are sending out the heaviest mail in the history of the institutions. We make the announcement relative to the Southern Educator in order to assign to many of the former students the reason for its absence.

A student can enter our School at any time and get excellent classification.

County Teachers.

Persons who want to teach and want a first-class county certificate will be offered a great opportunity in the Southern Normal. We make a specialty of the teachers' work. Our classes of teachers are large, interesting and enthusiastic.

Be sure and mention course wanted. Address H. H. Cherry, General Manager, Bowling Green, Ky.

L. W. ALLEN.
Placed by the Bureau in an excellent position in the South.

J. B. NEIGHBORS.
