Telethon nets Phelps School over $14,000

Members of the local Eagles and the Civitan clubs reported today that they received $14,700 in pledges during their eighth annual telethon to benefit the Civitan School for Exceptional Children on Phelps Avenue.

Officials noted that bad weather kept workers from conducting road blocks, which were scheduled as part of the weekend fund raising.

But officials say they received permission to set up the road blocks next weekend and expect that proceeds from that will bring the this year's total to the $16,000 raised last year.

A special feature of the telethon — conducted at Christian County Middle School and broadcast on cable TV Channel 12 and radio station WHOP — was the cut-a-thon conducted by members of the Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association. The haircuts brought in more than $1,000.

Phelps Avenue School is operated by Christian County Board of Education under the financial sponsorship of the two civic clubs.

STUDENTS FROM Phelps Avenue School for Exceptional Children are led in song by Teacher Marion Adams (holding microphone) as they perform during the Civitans' and Eagles' annual "telethon" this weekend. Nearly $15,000 was raised during the 24-hour effort.

KENTUCKY CONGRESS OF PARENTS AND TEACHERS

My Tribute
(Tune, My Maryland)

Within my heart sweet strains I hear,
Mother mine, oh Mother mine.
Your accents low and sweet and clear,
Mother mine, oh Mother mine.
The prayers you said, the songs you sung,
The tales you told when I was young,
Inspire my life, my heart, my tongue,
Mother mine, oh Mother mine.

The sterner virtues that you taught,
Father mine, oh Father mine.
The vict'ries won--the battles fought,
Father mine, oh Father mine.
Your courage gave and made me strong,
To shield the weak, put down the wrong,
To upward lead the eager throng,
Father mine, oh Father mine.

When knowledge came with treasure rare,
Teacher mine, oh Teacher mine.
You taught me how the boon to share,
Teacher mine, oh Teacher mine.
You led me on in wisdom's ways,
Through pleasant paths and tangled mazes,
You cleared the way, dispelled the haze,
Teacher mine, oh Teacher mine.

The home, the school, the church combine,
Mother, Father, Teacher mine.
To touch the soul with life divine,
Mother, Father, Teacher mine.
Oh grant us this--our heart's desire
To fill our souls with living fire
Till each shall others' lives inspire,
Mother, Father, Teacher mine.
