Concerning Our Great Schools—Read Carefully—This Page Contains, in Condensed Form, the Leading Facts Contained in Our Handsome Illustrated Normal Catalogue.

Faculty.

If President Garfield's definition of a University is correct, namely, Mark Hopkins on one end of a log and a student on the other, the faculty of an institution is always of first importance. We are proud of this as our strongest point. Probably no other Normal in the South presents such an array of talent, experience, and reputation on its teaching staff as does the S. N. S. and B. G. B. C. We would be pleased to present the individual merits of each member, but feel that we speak volumes to those who know them by the mere presentation of their names. They are as follows:

H. H. CHERRY,
General Manager Southern Normal School, Bowling Green Business College, The National School of Telegraphy, Railroad, Civil, Service, and Express.
Civics, Parliamentary Law, and in Special Charge of Scientific Debating Societies.
T. C. CHERRY,
Will continue his studies in Harvard University until September, 1902, after which time he will be a regular member of our Faculty.
J. S. DICKEY,
Psychology, Teachers' Training, Grammar, Greek, Latin, and in Charge of the General Teachers' Debating Societies.
J. A. BABER,
Logic, Philosophy, Teachers' Training, Psychology and Mathematics.
J. R. ALEXANDER,
Mathematics and Natural Science.
MRS. EMMA DAILY BABER,
Greek, Rhetoric, Literature, Composition
N. H. GARDNER,
Algebra, U. S. History, Geography, Physiology, Arithmetic, Composition, Grammar, etc.
FRANCIS JOSEPH BROWN,
School of Oratory, Elocution, Physical Training.

MISS CORA JONES,
Musical Director and Teacher of Piano, Organ, and Vocal Music.
W. S. ASHBY
Book-Keeping, Business Practice, Commercial Law, Penmanship, and Free-hand Drawing.
J. LEWIE HARTMAN,
Shorthand, Typewriting, Spelling, Penmanship, and U. S. History.
T. L. KOLLOROH,
Superintendent Course of Instruction National School of Telegraphy, Railroad and Express. Instructor in Telegraphy.
JUDGE WM. L. DULANEY,
[Dean of Law Faculty]
Lecturer on Evidence and Real and Personal Property.
HON. C. U. McELROY,
Member of Law Faculty and Lecturer on Contracts and Parliamentary Law.
JUDGE JOHN B. GRIDER,
Member of Law Faculty and Lecturer on Pleading.
JUDGE JNO. E. DuBOSE,
Member of Law Faculty and Lecturer on Equity, Jurisprudence.
HON. JAS. C. SIMS,
Member of Law Faculty and Lecturer on Criminal Law and Evidence.
MRS. H. H. CHERRY,
Director of Social Features of the Institutions.
W. C. PAYNE,
Lecturer on Express Business and General Railroad Work.
MISS ELIZABETH McELHENY,
Office Stenographer.
CLINTON RIGSBY,
Office Clerk and Collector.
MRS. JOSEPHINE FAYNE,
Office Book-keeper.

Modern Methods Are Employed and the Courses of Instruction Are Thorough, Practical and Comprehensive.

INTERMEDIATE COURSE.

This course is arranged for those students who desire special work and plenty of time in the Common School branches. Students who prefer not to enter the more advanced classes of teachers can get what they want by entering this department. The course is intended for students who have not completed a full Common School course.

First Term.—Ten Weeks—Geography, Arithmetic, Grammar, Reading, Penmanship, Spelling.

Second Term.—Ten Weeks—Geography, Map Drawing, Arithmetic, Grammar, U. S. History, Penmanship, Spelling.
Third Term.—Ten Weeks—Physiology, Arithmetic, Grammar, U. S. History, Penmanship, Spelling.
Fourth Term.—Ten Weeks—Physiology, Arithmetic, Grammar, Composition, U. S. History, Penmanship Spelling.

SCIENTIFIC DEPARTMENT.

Preparatory Scientific Course.

First Term.—Ten Weeks—Arithmetic, Algebra, Rhetoric, History of Literature, Penmanship, Debating.
Second Term.—Ten Weeks—Higher Arithmetic, Algebra, Rhetoric, History of Literature, Penmanship, Debating.

Third Term.—Ten Weeks—Physics, Psychology, Beginning Latin, Algebra, Essays in U. S. History, Debating, Term Finals.

Fourth Term.—Ten Weeks—Physics, Psychology, Beginning Latin, Algebra, Essays on Current Topics, Debating, Term Finals.

Students who have already taken extensive work in this course may, if they desire, and if they can do the work, complete the course in twenty weeks.

Scientific Course.

There are many who come to us having already completed the work in the Preparatory Scientific Course. Such are advised to go at once into the Scientific Course. Students of advanced standing may enter this course after the beginning of the year and complete it at the close of the year, if their ability and scholarship prove to be sufficient.

First Term.—Ten Weeks—Universal History, Geometry, Caesar, Chemistry, Essays on French History, Debating, Term Orations.

Second Term.—Ten Weeks—Geometry, Universal History, Caesar, Chemistry, Study of Lowell, Longfellow and Milton, Essays on English History, Debating, Term Orations.

Third Term.—Ten Weeks—Trigonometry, Geology, Virgil, Study of Shakespeare, Essays in Roman History, Debating and Parliamentary Law, Term Orations.

Fourth Term.—Ten Weeks—Botany, Analytical Geometry or Surveying, Virgil, General Literature, Essays on Greek History, Debating and Parliamentary Law, Graduation Theses.

Fifth Term.—Six Weeks—Field Work in Botany and Geology, Surveying, or Astronomy or Calculus, Ovid, Essays and Debating.

Classic Course.

First Term.—Ten Weeks—Greek, Criticism, Cicero, Essays in Belles Letters, Public Orations, Debating, Term Finals.

Second Term.—Ten Weeks—Horace, Greek, Logic, Lectures on Mythology, Essays in History, Debating, Term Finals.

Third Term.—Ten Weeks—Xenophon, Tacitus, Political Economy, Essays in Political Economy, Debating, Term Finals.

Fourth Term.—Ten Weeks—Homer, Livy, Ethics, Essays on Shakespeare's Plays, Debating, Themes for Graduation.

Fifth Term.—Six Weeks—Law (elementary principles), Thucydides and Greek Testament, Psychology.

Department of Literature.

The Literature Course includes Rhetoric, the literary part of the Scientific Course, two terms of special work in Literature. It may be completed in one year of forty-eight weeks by those sufficiently advanced to enter upon the work. In addition to this literary work one must have completed Arithmetic, Algebra and Geometry, Physiology, Physics, United States History, Geography, Grammar, and taken some work in Debating, Extemporaneous Speaking, and Elocution. The completion of the above work entitles one to the degree of B. L.

Elocution and Oratory.

PROF. FRANCIS J. BROWN, Teacher.

The school teaches the art of expression as based on natural laws and gives a thorough and systematic training in the laws of delivery and of all forms of expression.

Prof. Brown, who has no superior in this country, will be in charge of the work, and many of his old students have already written that they will return and take up the work under him.

TEACHERS' COURSE.

Arranged for Forty Weeks.

First Term.—Ten Weeks—Spelling, Writing, Reading, Arithmetic, Grammar, Geography.

Second Term.—Ten Weeks—Spelling, Writing, Reading, Arithmetic, Grammar, Geography.

Third Term.—Ten Weeks—History, Grammar, Arithmetic, Physiology, Civil Government.

Fourth Term.—Ten Weeks—History, Grammar, Arithmetic, Civil Government, Physiology.

COUNTY TEACHERS' COURSE.

Arranged for Twenty Weeks.

First Term.—Ten Weeks—Arithmetic, U. S. History, Civil Government, Grammar, Composition, Spelling, Reading, Penmanship.

Second Term.—Ten Weeks—Arithmetic, Grammar, Physiology, Geography, Theory and Practice, Spelling and Reading.

As a rule students in this course have had much work in the different branches and pursue some of them as reviews and specialize on Arithmetic, Grammar, Civics, Theory and Practice, etc., or some special branch in which they need training.

STATE CERTIFICATE COURSE.

All who Take this Course and Successfully Pass the Kentucky State Examination will Have the Privilege of Teaching for Eight Years in Any County in the State Without Re-examination.

The Course of Study.

First Term.—Ten Weeks—Higher Arithmetic, Algebra, Psychology, History of Literature, Composition, Letter Writing and Debating.

Second Term.—Ten Weeks—Higher Arithmetic, Algebra, Psychology, History of Literature, Theory and Practice, Essays on Pedagogy, Debating.

Students pursuing the State Certificate course of study can take, at the same time, any of the Common School branches they may elect.

Notes.

Teachers who have had a part of the course can, if they desire, begin work with the second term and complete the course in ten weeks.

The course has been arranged to meet a strong demand for special training, that will prepare teachers for a higher grade of professional work.

It contemplates a thorough previous knowledge of those branches included in the Teachers' Course; however, the student can review the common school branches while pursuing the work.

The course offers a great opportunity to all who desire to push themselves into the front rank of their profession and secure better schools and salaries.

The large and constantly growing demand for trained teachers, with broad and liberal ideas, has made it necessary for us to provide the highest grade of instruction in each particular line of the teachers' work.

Conservatory of Music.

In the Conservatory of Music, instruction is given in Piano, Voice Culture, Violin, Harmony, Theory and Musical History. There is also a Special Department for teachers of music in the Public Schools. Students will have exceptional advantages for pursuing their studies in the several branches.

Miss Cora Jones, the musical director, is a specialist of much experience as teacher and singer.

Parties who will make a specialty of music should write us.

Positions For Graduates.

Applications for teachers of music are continually received, and every effort is made to secure positions for graduates and qualified students. The Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency will be able to get every worthy graduate of the Department of Music a good position.

Civil Service Course.

We have arranged special courses for parties preparing for the different Civil Service Examinations. The very best opportunities are offered students who want to prepare for Railway Mail Service, Carriers, etc., and for Government work in Shorthand, Typewriting and Book-keeping. Twelve thousand young men and women were appointed to Government positions during the last year, and the Government will need, during the next twelve months, twelve thousand new employees, all of whom will be selected entirely on the ground of fitness. Commence now and prepare yourself for a lucrative position.

Announcement.

We announce with great pleasure the connection of Professor and Mrs. J. A. Baber with our faculty and institution.

We appreciate them, and recognize in them two of the greatest teachers of the age, as is evidenced by the thousands of their students who are now holding high and most influential positions in all the avocations of life. Hundreds of their friends will follow them to Bowling Green that they may be under their tutelage, which reveals the master hand.

The officers, faculty and management of the Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College and National School of Telegraphy, Civil Service, Railroad and Express, have a prominent place in their organization for these two great educators, and a cordial welcome awaits their friends.

Private Board for 800 Students.

We are glad to announce that we can get excellent private board in good families, everything furnished, for 800 students at $10 per month.

The Teachers' Agency will make a special effort to place every worthy graduate of the Classic, Scientific, Elocution and Music Departments of the Southern Normal School.

BOWLING GREEN, KY., JULY 1901.

LECTURE COURSE

Again Arranged by Cherry Bros.
For Spring of 1902.

Includes the Most Famous Speakers on the American Stage--Ex-Gov. Bob Taylor,
Dwight Hillis, Geo. R. Wendling,
Thos. Dixon, Jr., and Others.

(From Times-Journal.)

Bowling Green was fortunate last season in the high-class entertainment and lectures given in Prof. Cherry's course, but the talent employed for the next season makes a far stronger and more interesting course. The very best and most famous speakers on the American platform have been engaged. We do not exaggerate when we say that there is no better talent on this continent than will appear from the following list of attractions.

Gov. "Bob" Taylor, assisted by a superb male quartette, has been engaged to present his new lecture on "The Old Plantation." It consists of plantation songs, negro dialect, Southern stories, wit and humor, pathos and poetry. The Governor has excelled all previous lectures in this one.

The world-renowned George R. Wendling, who in the first seven years of his platform work filled over thirteen hundred engagements, and who is conceded to be the peer of any American speaker, has been employed, though at a tremendous cost, to deliver one of his greatest lectures.

Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, on whose shoulders fell the mantles of Lyman and Beecher, and who is described as "marvelously eloquent," "one of the most noted men of this generation," "our pride and wonder," will also appear in the coming course.

Thomas Dixon, who is said to be "the greatest orator in America" needs no introduction to Bowling Green audiences. It is Dixon of whom Sam Jones, said: "I have heard all the lecturers in America and he is the greatest. He is a live wire. Before he gets through you will have to feel for your old penknife to identify yourself by."

Montaville Flowers, who in five seasons has appeared in two hundred and sixty-eight places and given five hundred and twenty-six recitals and who is recalled again and again to speak to the same audiences will be in the next course.

To the delight of the lovers of music Prof. Cherry has engaged the Woman's Music Club of our own city for one evening. This is a wise recognition of home talent that is equal to any that could be had elsewhere.

This is by all odds the finest course of entertainments ever offered to our people and we know they will be glad to avail themselves of it.

Capt. C. J. Vanmeter, Chancellor.

On the site occupied by the main college building, Capt. C. J. Vanmeter was born, to commemorate which fact, as well as in grateful recognition of his generous aid extended to, and kindly interest manifested in, these institutions, the Board of Directors of the Southern Educational Building Company have named the main building, including the Chapel, "Vannmeter Hall," and thus it will be hereafter designated and known.

The Southern Normal School and Business College, as a testimonial of their appreciation of the sterling worth of Capt. Vanmeter as a citizen and friend to these institutions, have elected him Chancellor, which position he has kindly agreed to accept.

Calendar For 1901-1902.

The school begins each year the first Tuesday in September. The first term will begin with the above date, and continue ten weeks.

Students who have not received full information relative to rates in our Commercial Schools should communicate with us.

The Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency

Incorporated Under the Laws of Kentucky, Secures Positions for Worthy Graduates.

Many Bright Young Men and Women Have Captured Places Through Its Influence.

The Demand Is Greater Than the Supply--Get Ready, and the Bureau Will Get You a Position.

EDUCATE YOURSELF, AND COMMAND A GOOD SALARY--NO POSITION FOR INCOMPETENTS

The Bureau invites correspondence with competent services seeking employment, for it has been unable to fill many fine places on account of the demand being greater than the supply.

The Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency was organized and incorporated under the laws of Kentucky. Its object is to place earnest, sober, willing, reliable, trustworthy and qualified men and women into good positions, and to especially secure lucrative employment for the worthy graduates of the Southern Normal School, Bowling Green Business College and National School of Telegraphy, Civil Service, Railroad and Express.

At the time the articles of incorporation were filed, the incorporators had no idea that the business of the Bureau and Agency would grow so rapidly and would become so valuable a factor in the conduct of our schools. The Bureau is organized on the same plan as those organized by the leading universities of this country. Its work will not be confined to the present and future graduates of the institutions, but, owing to the great demand for varied and extensive work, it has become necessary to go outside of the institutions in order to meet the demands made upon it. When all other things are equal, it will be the policy of the Bureau to give preference to the graduates of Cherry Bros' different schools.

Only competent, qualified and worthy men and women of unquestionable characters will be taken into its membership. No charges will be made for registering, and the member will be at no expense whatever, unless the Bureau secures a position the applicant would be willing to accept.

If the officers of the Bureau have a right to judge from past experience and present demands, there will not be any trouble whatever in securing every worthy graduate of our two Commercial Schools and the Scientific, Classic, and Elocution and Oratory and Music Departments of the Southern Normal School a fine position as soon as a course is completed. A special effort will be made to do this, and we feel sure that all who desire a good place will get it through this medium as soon as they are qualified.

Public school teachers, who are dissatisfied with their salaries and who will give themselves a business or literary education and apply themselves faithfully to a literary or commercial course until they are proficient, will have no trouble whatever in securing employment and in commanding a good salary ten and twelve months in the year.

At no time in the history of this country has the demand for competent service of every kind been so great as it is now, and if the thousands of young people who are dissatisfied with their surroundings and salaries would prepare themselves for good positions, they would most certainly get them. They would not only receive better salaries, but would widen their influence, become more useful to the world and more earnest in the pursuit of their duties.

Prof. W. S. Ashby, the Secretary of the Board, has done much more than any other man toward making the Bureau a success. He has pushed it from the beginning and has put into it his characteristic life and has already brought it to the attention of the public and has given it a prominent place.

H. H. Cherry is named as President of the Board, and Mrs. H. H. Cherry as a member of the Board.

EIGHT MISSISSIPPI STUDENTS AND PROF. W. S. ASHBY.

We give herewith a group containing the picture of eight Mississippi boys and Prof. W. S. Ashby. Five of these young men went through the Spanish war, saved their money while in service and used every spare moment in self-development, and as soon as they were mustered out, entered our institutions. The other three were friends of theirs, and joined them in special school work. All of this excellent body of young men, except one, is now in a fine position, making a good salary and delighted with the success they are having and the promises of the future. It is sad to chronicle the death of Mr. Cryer, one of the number.

IN FREIGHT DEPARTMENT.

Mr. J. H. Robertson has a position in the freight department of the G. & S. I. R. R. at Hattiesburg, Miss., and is doing his work in such a way as to gain promotion and the highest endorsement of the business world.

Mr. Powell Frye, when about fifteen years of age, came with his mother to Bowling Green. He entered our school and faithfully pursued the literary, shorthand and business course of training. After being in school for about two years, he was made our Private Secretary. He afterwards captured through the Employment Bureau a permanent, pleasant and paying position with the Lampton Bros., of Mississippi. We receive a fine letter from Powell every few months, and we greatly appreciate the sympathy and the interest he takes in us and the success of our schools. Mississippi has no better stenographer than Powell.

LAID THE FOUNDATION OF SUCCESS.

Mr. Chas. Burner is head clerk for one of the biggest mercantile establishments in the South. The Bureau secured his position for him several weeks before he left school. He has received rapid promotion from the time he entered upon the discharge of his duties.

Mr. Jim Morgan is one of the most promising young stenographers in the South. In fact, he holds quite a responsible and paying position at this time, and has been offered many flattering inducements by men seeking the services of a good stenographer. He is a Bowling Green boy and took the course in our schools on the suggestion of the Business Manager of the institutions. He has a bright future.

We give here with an excellent photograph of Mr. E. B. King, who was sent by the Bureau to take a position with the Rich Lumber Co., of Hattiesburg, Miss. In writing us he kindly says: "After the way I have been benefitted by your school, I feel that I should say something in its behalf. I took a course in your Business College, which thoroughly prepared me for a position, and a good one was secured for me with this company."

Mr. F. S. Henderson is at the topmost round in the stenographic profession. He does a high class work and never fails to please his employers. The Bureau placed him with the J. W. Lampton Bros., of Columbus, Miss., and he is perfectly delighted with his work, and we understand the company is equally well pleased with Mr. Henderson.

Mr. E. G. Soulier has not been out of a good position for one day since he completed his course in our School. He has a fine place in a bank at New Iberia, La. We are not surprised at his success, but knew he would succeed, for he was a faithful student and worker while in school.

A Bowling Green Boy Gone South

Mr. Jesse Newton, another Warren county boy, was told by our Schools that if he would prepare himself for a good position, he would get it. He entered our Business course and pursued it faithfully. A week before he completed his course he was placed by the Bureau in a position in Arcola, Miss., and is getting along splendidly, and is perfectly happy over his outlook.

Gets a Good Position.

There is not a man in the territory who is more anxious to succeed and more willing than Mr. M. G. Bailey, a graduate of our Business School. He has a fine position in Oklahoma, and is making a reputation and money very rapidly.

POSITION IN ST. LOUIS, MO.

Miss Dona Glenn took our shorthand and book-keeping courses last year and secured a fine position in St. Louis, Mo., as soon as she had finished her work. She writes that she is delighted with her position as well as stenography and her general work.

A Successful and Hustling Business Man.

We venture to say that A. M. Finley, who completed our shorthand and Business Courses and who is a first-class literary scholar, is one of the best business men, book-keepers and stenographers in the whole South. He took, in the beginning, a position that required much ability and skill to hold, yet he has filled the place to the entire satisfaction of his employers. He is connected with the Crowley Rice Milling Co., as stenographer and book-keeper.

More Positions Secured by Cherry Bros' Employment Bureau.

(From Evening Journal, Oct. 30, 1900.)

The Employment Department of Cherry Bros' Schools continues to meet with great success, and is placing many young men and women into good positions. The demand for competent labor in all the departments of business is large, but the demand for combined stenographers and book-keepers can not be supplied. The Cherry Bros' have just recently gone outside of the school in order to meet the demand.

A FINE STENOGRAPHER SECURES A GOOD POSITION.

Mr. Lewis Martin, a Warren county boy, entered our institutions and took up a business and shorthand course of training. He is now commanding a fine salary as stenographer with B. C. Garrall & Co., Humboldt, Tenn. There are no better stenographers in Tennessee than Mr. Martin. He was placed into his position by the Bureau.

A Classic, Scientific and Business Graduate Secures a Fine Position Through the Bureau.

Read the following from him:

The proprietors and faculty of the Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College have always been successful in securing from their students the most thorough and consistent work, and have made the work uniformly pleasant for the student; they have enforced the most rigid discipline, yet the student never feels that he is under restraint; by persistent, conscientious work, they have placed the schools in the front rank of Southern educational institutions, and hundreds of their graduates are among the most successful educators, professional and business men of the country.

Not content with what they had accomplished and were able to accomplish, they have lately organized the Continental Employment Bureau to be conducted under their supervision. They have already succeeded in placing a large number of teachers in honorable, useful and remunerative positions, and to my personal knowledge, have scores of important positions which they could fill but for a lack of competent, well-trained applicants. The Employment Bureau is and ought to be a great help to the teachers of the South in securing positions, and especially to the pupils and graduates of the S. N. S. and B. G. B. C. It will always afford me genuine pleasure to say whatever I can in behalf of these schools or any interests they may represent.

Very truly,
W. M. ALEXANDER.

A Good $125.00 Job.

Mr. A. C. Strode is every inch good metal. He is a Kentuckian, but is now at Hill, Mont., making a great success for himself.

He says in a letter:

"I most heartily recommend your school. My position as book-keeper at this point pays me one hundred dollars per month with board and laundry, which makes it a good $125 job. My labors are heavy, yet I enjoy them. Have grown to be quite stout since I left Kentucky, and I now run the scales above one hundred and sixty pounds."

A Classic, Scientific and Elocution Graduate.

Mr. J. D. Dodson attended the Southern Normal School for three years and completed the classic and oratory courses in June 1901. Two weeks before he graduated the Bureau had secured a good place for him. Mr. Dodson has kindly handed us the following statement.

"To Whom It May Concern:

After having attended the Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College, of Bowling Green, Ky., for the past three years, it affords me great pleasure to say that the instruction which I have received has been most thorough, and, in my judgment, anyone who desires an education and who is willing to pay the price, which is hard work, can make no mistake in attending the Cherry Bros' school, of Bowling Green. I also wish to say that I have been enabled to obtain a good position as principal of the Jena Seminary, of Louisiana, through the Bureau, which is under the management of Profs. H. H. Cherry and W. S. Ashby."

WILL TEACH.

Mr. O. C. Lasher took a position as Principal of the Commercial Department in the Bardstown Co-educational College and will also do a good deal of literary teaching in the same institution.

Mr. Lasher is a fine teacher and has a bright future. The Bureau secured the position for him.

Read the Following From Mr. J. M. Lawshe:

Having taken a five months' course in Business College, I feel that I obtained better instruction in your Book-keeping Department than I could have obtained elsewhere in the same length of time. I now have a good position as book-keeper with the firm of J. Trusty & Co., who do a very large business. I can recommend your College to one who is seeking a thorough business education. Last, but not least, I will always speak a word in behalf of the instructors' kindness shown me while in school."

gins Teaching Sept. 1, 1901.

Mr. W. M. Rush attended the Southern Normal School for several years, and completed the Scientific Course of study and did much extra work in other branches. The Bureau went to work for him, and within one month from the time registered he succeeded in placing him at the head of the Eddyville (Ky.) school at a handsome salary. He was offered several other positions through the influence of the Bureau about the time he was elected to the above place.

The Bureau secured a fine position for Mr. W. S. Hart in the Lone Star State. He will commence his work the 1st of October 1901. A more earnest student and teacher cannot be found in this country. He is a graduate of our Scientific and Law departments.

STATEMENT FROM W. S. ASHBY, Secretary Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency.

This is to say that I have repeatedly called on Prof. H. H. Cherry, General Manager of the Schools, and asked him to recommend proficient labor for different positions that the Employment Bureau was called upon to fill, and in many instances he has been unable to make a recommendation for the want of enough proficient labor, and because the demand for prepared men is greater than the supply. I have often been forced to go elsewhere, and outside of the school and Bowling Green, in order to find men to fill the different positions, and even then, in many cases, failed to find suitable parties.

W. S. ASHBY,
Secretary Employment Bureau.

OUR FORMER STUDENTS.

IF space and expense would permit, we would have much pleasure in mentioning about one hundred of our former students who have distinguished themselves by becoming all-round lawyers; we would have something to say of possibly one hundred and fifty or more who are skilled and promising physicians, many of whom have already made for themselves a reputation and a large financial income; we would speak of a few who are City and County Judges, and of hundreds of merchants, financiers, leading book-keepers, stenographers, telegraph operators, railroad agents, bankers, mail clerks, etc., etc.; we would make special mention of twenty-five or more legislators, and twenty-five or more who are ministers of the Gospel, and who are doing holy work for the cause of humanity. We especially regret being unable to mention many of our former students who are at the head of colleges, graded schools, and more of public school teachers who are now training the youth, and with better education, better certificates, better schools, enlarged influence, how earnest and persistent they are in the great work they are doing. Our people have gone into almost every avocation of life and have been universally successful. We invite the public to judge of the tree by its fruit and to watch our boys who are now acting as stenographers, moving up to managers, who are legislators, gaining power and influence, who are public school teachers becoming presidents of colleges, railroad clerks capturing the presidency of railroads, etc. Every inch of the majority of the people who attend our institutions is good material and we are proud of them and the record they are making.

We found that it would be utterly impossible to mention all of our former students, and consequently decided to confine this announcement to the host of young people who are just entering upon the realities of life and who have recently accepted positions through the Bureau and are courageously discharging their duties.

Won Over Nine Contestants.

We present a picture of Mr. Charles Roemer, who won the West Point cadetship over eight other contestants in a recent examination held in the city of Bowling Green.

The highest grade was sought by representatives from nine institutions, but Mr. Roemer who, had been in our Schools for eighteen months, led by eight points over the best of his competitors. He has a great opportunity and will use it.

With the L. & N. R. R.

Mr. Fred McConnell came to us from Barren county and entered our Business department. A more faithful student never matriculated at our institutions. We were called upon by the L. & N. R. R. Company to recommend a man for a good position in Paris, Tenn. Mr. McConnell captured the place and has been promoted several times since leaving us. He is now happily married.

Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, Office of Master Mechanic.

To Whom It May Concern:

I attended Cherry Bros' Business College in '99, and am glad to speak a word in its behalf. If I had all of my school days to go over I would spend just as many as possible with "Cherry Bros." It fits a boy up for actual business. So many young men say I would go to some college if I could get a position after I had completed a course. Well that is the very question that bothered me so much, but I finally made up my mind to try Cherry Bros' Business College, and I no longer have any doubt about their getting any one a position if you will start in and finish some course and finish it right. Yours truly,

F. L. MCCONNELL.
Paris, Tenn., Aug. 7, 1901.

With a Commercial School.

Mr. R. A. Rigsby entered our school and completed a business course, then acted as first assistant in the Book-keeping department for one year, and is now directly connected with the commercial college at Tampa, Florida, and is making a great success of his work.

Mr. Wilber Hendricks

Is another one of the Bowling Green boys who asked the General Manager if there were any positions open to stenographers and was told he would be able to secure a good position if he should take a thorough course. He was recommended to take up the work and assured that it was only a question of getting ready. Mr. Hendricks is now an all-round stenographer and book-keeper and making a fine salary with a railroad company at Memphis, Tenn.

Book-Keeper In Citizens' National Bank.

Bowling Green, Ky., Aug. 6, 1901.

Messrs. Cherry Bros., Bowling Green, Ky., Gentlemen: It gives me pleasure to state that after finishing a course in the Bowling Green Business College and Southern Normal School, I accepted a position with the Warren Deposit Bank of this city, and when this institution was succeeded by The Citizens' National Bank, I accepted a position with the new institution, which place I still hold.

I have had no trouble in keeping up with my work though it has been heavy from the start, having been called upon, after I had been in the service only a few days, to keep a heavy set of books.

Anyone who will apply himself and master the course you prescribe, will have no trouble in securing a position, keeping it and steadily advancing.

You are doubtless aware that each of the other banks of the city employs graduates of your School and the responsible positions they fill speak volumes in testimony of the fine work you are doing.

For one I shall ever feel grateful for your many kindnesses.

Very truly yours,
A. C. CHERRY.

She Goes To Kansas To Take a Responsible Position.

I take pleasure in recommending to the public the Southern Normal School and Bowling Green Business College. It is a thorough Business College and ranks second to none in the country in the thoroughness of instruction. I have just finished a commercial course in the institution, and have secured a lucrative position through the Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency. I heartily recommend the Bowling Business College to all young men and women who desire to acquire a commercial education.

Respectfully,
MAYME THOMPSON.

Will begin her work September 1, 1901.

Mr. Robt. Young, book-keeper for W. J. Fell, manufacturer of staves and lumber and general merchant, of Salt Lick, Ky., secured his position as soon as he had completed his course in our school. Mr. Young is a fine book-keeper and a young man whose qualification, character and energy guarantee for him promotion and continued success.

Mr. R. H. Hankins entered our School for the business and shorthand courses and faithfully pursued same. Before he had completed the course, he was recommended to the Hartford, (Ky.) College as principal of the Commercial Department. He was elected to the position and has been making a great success of his work and a good salary.

From War Department.

Salary $1,800 per year.

Washington, D. C.

Messrs. Cherry Bros., Bowling Green, Ky., Dear Sirs: After graduating in stenography, etc., at your School, I entered a law office, and found myself well equipped for the work I had to do. I did general law reporting and office work for several years, then passed the U. S. Civil Service examination and received an appointment in the War Department, this city, which position I now hold.

It gives me pleasure to testify to the high standing and business methods of the Bowling Green Business College.

Very respectfully,
P. BISHOP PARROTT.

Secured Him a Position In the Maddox Female College, Little Rock. Will Begin Work September 1, 1901.

Mr. W. L. Hughes was placed into a fine position as principal of the Commercial Department of the Maddox Female College, of Little Rock by the Bureau within a week from the time he registered. He will be heard from as one of the leading Commercial Educators of the South for he has all the elements and the qualification necessary to make a great teacher. He was an enthusiastic student in our Commercial Departments.

If we had space we would print a letter from him that we greatly appreciate.

Has a Fine Railroad Position.

James Hopson came to us from Logan county, Ky., and faithfully pursued the business and shorthand courses of training. He is now acting as general stenographer and book keeper with the Chattanooga & Nashville R. R. Co., at Nashville, Tenn. He is much appreciated by the company, and his services have been recognized by promotion.

Mr. S. L. Knight went through the Spanish war, saved his money and studied hard, and entered our school immediately on being mustered out. He has a fine position with Marks, Rothenberg & Co., Meridian, Miss.

Read the following from Col. T. J. Smith, formerly of the Third Kentucky Regiment, U. S. V.:

Gentlemen: It gives me pleasure to commend your institution to the public as one of the best schools in the South. Your Commercial and Shorthand Courses are thorough and eminently practical. I am very much pleased with the progress my two sons made in the special courses they took in your School, and judging from the advancement they made, your instruction must be of a high grade. It gives me pleasure to say this.

Very truly,
THOMAS J. SMITH.

Space will permit us to make mention of only a small number of the hundreds of the foer students who are now actively engaged in business and professional life.

LOGGING DEPARTMENT.

O. N. Rosseau, Supt.

Lumberton, Miss., July 4, 1901.
Prof. H. H. Cherry, Prop. Bowling Green
Business College, Bowling Green, Ky.:

Dear Prof.: Referring to your letter to me under date of May 16th. Having taken a course in the Commercial Department of your College, I am pleased to state that I found same to be modern, thorough, and practical, meeting all the requirements of business. Application on the part of the student is all that is required to fit him for the duties of life.

I am grateful to you and your able Faculty for the high-grade work and proficiency which you exacted, and I am glad to know that you are continuing on the same lines.

With best wishes for your continued prosperity, and holding myself in readiness to serve you at any time, I remain your friend and former student,

ENOS W. LEIGH.

Mr. Leigh just recently secured his position through the Bureau.

He Gets $100 Per Month.

New Orleans, La.

Messrs. Cherry Bros., Bowling Green, Ky.:

Dear friends: I am gratified that you have at last offered me an opportunity of expressing my opinion as to the advantages of your School. Whatever success I may have attained in the business community I owe it all to the invaluable course I took at your School three years ago. I cordially and freely offer myself as a reference, and trust that you will always consider me as one of your staunchest friends, and whenever a word of commendation is wanting you will use me. Your old student and friend.

EVERY THEALL.

Mr. Luther Hill is making for himself a fine name with the Williamsburg Lumber Company of Mississippi. He attends to business and is always accurate, yet dispatches his work with rapidity.

Mr. Stein is with Goldman & Son., Wholesale Grocers, Getting $100 Per Month.

Mr. Caesar Stein, who formerly lived in Mississippi, but now of Paris, Texas, writes:

Your favor of recent date to hand, and in reply will say, that I attended your School and was much pleased with the course of instruction and with the treatment received. I am now head book-keeper for the above firm at a salary of $100 per month. I take pleasure in recommending your school, and do not hesitate to state that I owe the above to the thorough business training received at your hands. Trusting that your well-deserved success will continue, I remain, etc.

Placed By the Bureau.

Messrs. Cherry Bros., Bowling Green, Ky.:

Dear Messrs. Cherry: As an ex-student of the Bowling Green Business College, I am glad to enroll myself among its host of admirers. Will say that I am far from regretting the time spent with you last year, among the great band of earnest, energetic and enthusiastic young men and women who were under your care and guidance. The instruction given is eminently thorough and practical; and to get a glimpse at real intense life one needs only to look in at the doors of this great School. The position secured for me is very satisfactory, and, in my opinion, the zeal manifested in securing good positions for your graduates, as well as the kindly interest taken in their welfare while in school, goes far toward making this School what it is, viz.: The greatest institution of the kind in the South. Wishing you continued success, I am, yours very truly,

O. L. PRICE.

Mayfield, Ky., Aug. 1, 1901.

Read This.

We cannot refrain from taking the following from a letter received from Miss Amelia Briedenbach, a graduate of our shorthand department, who is making $1,200 per year.

"I am indeed glad to hear of your great prosperity, and trust it will continue. The pupils who have attended your School in the past, with whom I am acquainted, speak enthusiastically of the successful methods employed by your School in training men and women for business life. Mr. C. C. Newman, who is an ex-pupil of yours, is a very successful attorney in this city. Mr. Rochester, the assistant state treasurer, also informs me that he was a student of yours, and you have in him a great admirer. There are other former students in Montana, whom I have not met personally. Ex-Senator Ed Norris, of Montana, being one of them. There are illustrations of what the Southern School and Bowling Green Business College is able to do for any one who is fortunate enough to take advantage of its educational facilities.

"Let me say for myself, which might be of some interest to you, that I am now in the office of the attorney general, and I get a salary of $100 per month. My position is good for four years any way that being the time for which the attorney general is appointed in this State. I have always been successful with my work here in Helena, and think with great pleasure of the many pleasant, as well as profitable, days passed in your School, when I was going through my initiation in shorthand. Thanking you for your interest, and wishing you unbounded success."

Refused a $75 Position.

Mr. Thomas Reynolds is one of the leading combined book-keepers and stenographers in the South. He was placed in his present position by the Bureau, and on Tuesday, August 3, 1901, the Bureau offered him another position at $75 per month, but he refused, preferring to remain in his present position. He was one of our best students.

Another Good Man In a Good Position.

Mr. Chas. Burner came to us from Louisiana, and even before he had thoroughly completed his course, he was placed with W. O. Aldrich, merchant, Estill, Miss. He has been promoted rapidly since taking his place. He writes us in a most interesting manner relative to his work.

Statement From L. L. Lampton, General Manager of the Lampton Lumber, Mercantile and Banking Companies.

This Company has employed during the past year seven of our graduates, all of whom are now working for this great Company.

We give below the letter:

The Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency, Bowling Green, Ky.

Dear Sir: I want a young man with some business experience as stenographer and typewriter. We have quite a number of applicants, but before making our selection we desire you to write us whether you have a man you think would fill the place. The seven young men you sent us and are now working for us, are giving entire satisfaction.

Awaiting an early reply, we are,

L. L. LAMPTON.

Mr. H. C. Whitney came to us from Allen county, Ky., and took up a combined commercial course. He pursued his work faithfully. The Potter-Matlock & Co., bankers, of Bowling Green, called on the Business Manager of the School for a young man to work in the bank. Mr. Whitney was recommended, and is now faithfully discharging the duties of his position, and is striving manfully to command the respect and endorsement of the commercial world by making himself an all-round man.

Goes to San Antonio, Texas.

Miss Mattye Reid, who is one of this country's greatest teachers, attended our school and graduated in the Scientific, Oratory, Elocution and Physical Training Departments. One month before she had completed her course she had been placed by the Bureau into a fine and lucrative position in the West Texas Military Academy of San Antonio, Tex.

Mr. Dan Howell is one of the home boys. He was raised about twelve miles from Bowling Green, and came in to see the business manager of our school one Saturday afternoon in January, 1901. Dan wanted to take telegraphy and railroad business. He was told that if he would get ready that the Bureau would secure him a place, and before he was thoroughly prepared for a heavy office he was called to a most desirable place in the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley Railroad office at Lula, Miss. Dan succeeded in getting one of the best positions the Employment Bureau has been able to offer the telegraphy students.

Mr. Charles O. Perryman came to us from Butler county, Ky., and entered our School for a five months' course. He was placed by the Bureau a few weeks ago into a large mercantile house in Mississippi. He is getting along splendidly and has a fine outlook. He writes in a most interested and grateful manner about his school days and the excellent course of training which he received.

"I Was Notified of 10 Vacancies."

Lewisburg, Ky., August 2, 1901.

To Whom It May Concern:

Eight weeks ago I became a member of the Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency, and with pleasure, I recommend it to all who are looking for employment. It not only notifies their members of vacancies, but it takes pleasure in aiding them in every way possible. During the first month of my membership with it I was notified of ten vacancies, and had soon secured a position in Defiance College, Defiance, Ohio, as teacher of shorthand and typewriting, and assistant teacher of book-keeping. Already I have been compelled to turn down several positions, having secured the place I desired. The members of the above named Bureau and Agency do not only secure fine positions, but they have the privilege to select from several, thus giving themselves an excellent chance to be well pleased. Any person seeking employment will make no mistake in joining the Continental Employment Bureau and Teachers' Agency. I heartily recommend it to your careful consideration.

Very respectfully,

A. C. GUFFY.

Mr. Guffy will begin work Sept. 1, 1901.

Mr. W. N. McReynolds entered our School and pursued a literary course for about one year, then took up a course in shorthand and book-keeping in the Bowling Green Business College.

He was placed by the Bureau the 1st of August, 1901, with the Crowley Rice Milling Company, of Crowley, Louisiana. Mr. McReynolds is well qualified for the work he has entered upon and will delight any firm, for he is honest, earnest, energetic and means to succeed.

J. W. Mitchell, who came to us from Russell county for two terms and faithfully pursued the Business and Shorthand courses, has accepted a fine position with A. R. Humble & Son, as book-keeper and stenographer, at a good salary. We predict rapid promotion and much success for this worthy, energetic, qualified man.

Prof. and Mrs. J. A. Baber.

Former president and vice president of the Southern Normal University will be connected with our faculty beginning September 1, 1901.

and a faculty composed of men and women of the highest type of character and learning, place your Schools seed to none in the country.

Thanking you for the many favors which you have bestowed upon me and wishing for you the success you so richly deserve, I remain, Truly your friend,

CARRIE WELBORN.

The following statement is from a Telegraphy student, who left a few days ago to accept a position which was secured by the bureau. The following statement is from our good friend, Mr. John H. Blane:

"Bowling Green, Ky., August 3, 1901. I have attended the Cherry Bros. School of Telegraphy for the past four months, and to-day I leave to take a position which they secured for me with the L. & N. R. R. Co. I give the National School of Telegraphy my hearty endorsement, and recommend it to any individual who wants thorough training in Telegraphy. Prof. Kollorob's teacher, is an able instructor in all branches. Besides, he is an experienced operator and train dispatcher. It is a great pleasure to say this."

Mr. C. S. Scott will begin work the 1st of September, 1901, in Pine Bluff, Ark. He will take charge of the general literary work connected with the commercial college at that place. He is a graduate of the Scientific Course and one of the finest students who has ever attended our Schools. He was recommended to the place by the Bureau.

Mr. A. D. Buskill was placed just recently with Garr, Scott & Co., of Louisiana. He is delighted with his work and writes us in a most entertaining manner about the way he is getting along and how happy he is in his new position.

We learn just as we go to press that Mr. E. C. Hardin, of Livingston county and Mr. H. Belcher, of Butler county, Ky., two of our boys secure excellent positions in Louisiana and California.

Mr. Chas. D. Kimball, who was with us last spring, has a fine position in the Citizens' National Bank, of Lake Charles, Louisiana.

W. B. East has a fine position with the L. & N. R. R. Co., at Paris, Tennessee. He is acting as combined stenographer and telegraph operator. The company is much pleased with his valuable services.

The Law School.

The attendance in the Law School promises to be exceptionally large and interesting during the coming year. The course can be completed in ten months. The teaching is done by an able faculty. It will pay all parties who expect to take a law course to communicate with us before going elsewhere.

The New Normal Catalogue.

Our friends tell us that the New Normal Catalogue, which we have just published, is complete in every point and an interesting publication.

Hattiesburg, Miss., July 25, 1901
Messrs. Cherry Bros., Bowling Green, Ky.:

Gentlemen: It affords me great pleasure to speak a word in behalf of your noble institution of learning to which I owe my present success.

I entered your Business College on January 4, 1899, completing my course there July 12, of the same year. I have been employed the greater portion of the time since then, but on May 4 of this year, I secured through your Employment Bureau the most excellent position which I am now holding with ex-Chancellor Hill, one of the leading and prominent men of the South.

I sincerely commend your School to any young man or woman wishing to enter upon a business career. Your magnificent college building and well equipped boarding homes,
