Hi! Well, It's good to be back home. For the past three weeks I have been attending the Stamps-Blackwood School of Music at Murray, Kentucky. I was really impressed with the school.

Every morning to start the day we would gather in an Auditorium and have devotions. All of the time this would be directed by the Students. Then we would have theory class for one hour and a half. At eleven o'clock choral technique class. This is where everyone participates in singing.

In the afternoon we would have History of Gospel Music and Quartet training taught by J.D. Sumner. During History class we had such speakers as Brock Speer, James Blackwood, John T. Benson. The III Norma L. Boyd Exec. Secretary of G.M.A. Paper.

Every night we would have some form of entertainment. Such groups as the Stamps Quartet, Speer Family, Blackwood Brothers, and The Happy Goodman Family performed. We also had a talent contest, watermelon party, skit night, and many more activities.

Closing out the school was the banquet. The Speer Family performed along with the Stamps-Blackwood Ensemble which consist of approx. 15 vocals and a 12 piece orchestra. I also performed with the Ensemble. We sang Bless the Lord and Statue of Liberty arranged by Harold Lane and directed by Ron Calhoun. The Ensemble also plans to sing at the National Quartet Convention this October.

So far I have projected this school to be a fun time and it is. You get to meet people from everywhere. But it is also something much much more. The spiritual uplift I received was really worth it all. On Sunday morning Don Butler, vice-president of the school, would speak and share a few scriptures with us and we would end it up by singing. On Sunday night we would have wespers out on the back lawn of the campus. Everyone would form a circle and have a chance to share their testimony or a song. It was really great. All of the instructors were also.

If you would like further information of the school write: Jane Ann McCubbins, P.O. Box 477. Munfordville, Ky. 42765 or phone 524-9702.

GRAYSON SPRINGS SINGING JUBILEE

Despite torrid temperatures throughout this region, a crowd estimated at more than 3,000 gospel music fans gathered from far and wide beneath the trees in the park of the nearby resort Sunday (July 11) to attend the annual all-day, outdoor Grayson Springs Singing Jubilee. This was the largest attendance recorded in recent years.

A survey of the cars which filled the resort's main parking area leading to Grayson Springs Inn and the latter's North and East parking fields disclosed they were from Ohio, Indiana, Tennessee, South Carolina and 1- Kentucky counties. Grayson County, with by far the largest representation was followed in order by Hardin, Jefferson, Warren, Hart, Breckinridge, Edmonson, Daviess, Ohio, Oldham, Allen, Adair, Bullitt and Larue.

The Tomes Four of Louisville, entertained with a varied repertoire of gospel songs including many of their recorded numbers, all popular with the crowd. The Hays Brothers, of Bowling Green, brought applause with their lively bluegrass type of gospel singing, accompanied by guitar and "great fiddle." The Contenders, of Albany, Ky., mixed old and contemporary gospel stylings; and Wendell Allen, the gospel singing star, who also served as master of ceremonies, Sunday, and Helen Stout of near Bowling Green, presented a number of gospel favorites.

Charles R. Milam, of Leitchfield, who originally organized and managed the Grayson Springs Singing Jubilee for many years, and who is a veteran of the U.S. Air Force, conducted a military memorial service dedicated to Kentucky's war dead. He was assisted by Boy Scouts of Clarkson Troop 131; Greg Lyons, of Leitchfield, a senior in the Grayson County High School, and who is one of three musicians chosen from Kentucky to leave July 21st with the American Musical Ambassadors for a month's tour of Europe, played "taps." The Rev. Robert Winburn, newly-appointed pastor of the Clarkson Baptist Church, pronounced the invocation.

Wanted

Showman Pick Most Promising Gospel Group of 1976

This group showed more promise, excitement, and friendliness during the convention than any newly-formed group in years. With just 4½ months on the road as a fulltime group and a number of new faces in the group, Willie teamed up with Elmer Cole, is showing people across the country the reality of Gospel music and being a Christian.

During the past 4½ months the "Tennesseans" have hit songs on their first album on Heartwarming label, part of a new nationwide TV program, "Music City Special", and special guest on other programs and the credits could just keep on going on.

The experience of "Mr. Friendly" (Little Willie) and Elmer songwriting and the talent of Dave Harvel and Dave Maddox teamed with a great band that the "Tennesseans" have as back up you just got to have a great group.

So the next time you hear the "Tennesseans" are coming your way be sure you go out and see them and we believe you will have to agree that "Willie Wynn and The Tennesseans" are the most promising Gospel group for 1976.
