Letter from National

October 30

Dear Doris:

Thank you for sending your October iss of the Colonelette to me. I enjoy your news and especially your account of the National Convention--real timely and will expect to read it more in detail in your November issue.

I hope your Barn Dance proves to be a success and I'm sure it eill with your group of enthusiastic member.

It is good to hear a chaper as young as yours keeping in step and gaining ground as is shown between the lines of your bulletin.

Will be anxious to hear how the dance turns out.

Give my regards to your president Jean and all members of your chapter.

Sincerely,

Ruth Hofman,
National Secretary-treasurer

Dear Members,

Swing your partner, "do-ces-oo, promenade! Yes! That's what we did! We swung open the door with a net profit of over $350.00. This gives us an achievement toward Binner status for '60.

I want to thank all those who worked so dilligently in making the preparation and the support of being at our TOBACCO FARM DANCE to help serve in any capacity where needed. These girls are to be commended because we now have money for one or more $100.00 scholarships.

If you were one of those who did not participate now is the time to turn over a new leaf and support your organization.

This Thanksgiving, lets all count our blessings and be thankful that we have ABBA to bring us together to elevate our social and business standards for women.

Looking forward to seeing each one of you at our dinner meeting.

Yours, in ABBA

Joan Fulkerson, President

WHY ABWA?

Need

When one considers that there are over twenty-four million American women now employed it is logical that a new type organization devoted to the advancement of women in business should have come into being. This organization is the American Business Women's Association, with National Headquarters located in Kansas City, Missouri. This Association, which is non-union, non-political, and non-sectarian, was founded September 22, 1949, and is one of the fastest growing organizations of its type in the United States today. It is not a sorority or a civic club (although it includes many of the worthwhile features of both.) It is an EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION with its major aims and purposes devoted to improving employer-employee relations, to keeping business women up-to-date on business techniques, and to the advancement of women in business through more efficient service to business. Too, it affords its members social opportunities

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HUMAN RELATIONS

1. Speak to people. There is nothing as nice as a cheerful word of greeting.
2. Smile at people. It takes 72 muscles to frown, only 14 to smile.
3. Call people by name. The sweetest music to anyone's ears is the sound of his own name.
4. Be friendly and helpful. If you want to have friends, be friendly.
5. Be cordial. Speak and act as if everything you do were a genuine pleasure.
6. Be genuinely interested in people. You can like everybody if you try.
7. Be generous with praise, but be cautious with criticism.
8. Be considerate of the feelings of others.
9. Be thoughtful of the opinions of others. There are three sides to a story--yours--the other fellow's and the right one.
10. Be alert and give service. What counts most in life is what we do for others.

THE COG'S TOOTH

Many a girl is searching for a man with strong will--made out to her.

Have you heard about the crosseyed school teacher who couldn't control her pupils.

Antique: An object which has made a round trip to the attic.
