December 19, 1927

Mr. George W. Cherry,
Wallowa, Oregon.

My dear Uncle:

This is to wish for you a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous year to come.

I sincerely trust this finds you and your family
all well and happy.

I had a very delightful visit with my uncle H. H. at Seattle, while he was in attendance at the National Educational Association. The old boy has changed considerably; but after talking with him a while, it seemed that I had found the same
H. H.

I guess we are all getting older, but we are having a lot of fun doing it. Life is rather a strange thing, but it isn't bad; and I believe a little saving sense of humor helps it out a little bit at times.

I wish it were so I could have a little visit with you, but I find that every time I leave the office I miss a good fee; and I can't afford to miss very many of them just at this time. All in all, this has been a fairly satisfactory year. It has not been a bonanza, but on the other hand, it has not been quite as lean as some of the years in the past.

Give my kindest regards to your good wife and family.
I wish for each and every one of you the greatest happiness and prosperity.

Very sincerely yours,

A. C. Cherry
