EXCERPTS FROM A LETTER - Contributed by Mrs Argyle Faith

The four page letter found in the Tarpley Oldham Bible was written by the son, James Tapley Oldham, to relatives living in Barren Co., Ky. It was dated Jan 3, 1849, and place of residence given as Spice Woods, Daviess Co., Ky. (now McLean) Evidently, there was no Post Office there as he says, "When any of you write to me direct your letters to Croos Pond as it is nearer than Calhoun. People say this pond got its name two negroes drowned their master (a Mr. Crow) and hid him in it." .. Remarks re: the new environment - "I must say we are all very well pleased so far, I believe this to be the best poor man's Country I ever saw or perhaps heard of the land is good, the water is good, the timber is good and I believe the health as good or better than it is in old Barren. David Edwards says with 500 dollars he can get land here that he would not give for 5 such places and I believe he is half right. Prices high here, coffee is worth 15 cts and sugar is 13 pounds to the dollar, tobacco is 8 dollars priced and I am told there was some sold over the other side of Green river for 9.75 there is a great stir about another crop ... I believe the people is nearer square with the world than any place I ever saw they pay as they go in a great degree and it is a good place for selling goods .. the Croos land that you was hunting lies right here and is very valuable."

The following volumes of family history have been published by the author, and can be obtained at the address given below for $15.00 each, postage included. Residents of Texas add $.75 sales tax to the price of each volume. These genealogical works started as research on the author's ancestry. However, so much additional data and so many collateral lines were obtained in the course of that research, that the scope of the work was expanded into four volumes. They are hard-backed library binding books, are completely indexed with both given and surnames. Many of these families settled in Monroe and Barren Counties, Kentucky, although their descendants are listed in many states, and the origins of the families are in many states. Partial listings:

AMERICAN BEGINNINGS - (297 pp plus index) contains histories of the following families - Barnwell (Alamance Co N C); Dunlap (Iredell Co N C); Johnson (Greene Co Ga); King (Alamance Co N C); Lewis (Elbert Co Ga); Shaw (Ste Genevieve Co Mo); Shearman (Granville Co N C); Taylor (Greene Co Ga); Trimble (Georgia).
