June 1, 1916.

Mr. R. C. Cherry,
Bardstown, Ky.

My dear Brother R. C.:

Superintendent Spears is not available. I inclose herein a letter which explains itself. I am just back home from a ten days trip in the State, where I have been delivering commencement addresses. I know of no one I can recommend this afternoon. I might get some information by tonight or tomorrow. Am intensely interested. I have heard of a man who may be available, if so, he will be ideal and will be a success from every standpoint. Will write you within a day or two.

Fraternally yours,

HHC:F
