THE MUHLENBERG COURTY HER ITAGE

The Heritage is a publication of the Muhlenberg County Genealogical Society. It is published quarterly. The first issue was published December 1978. Dues are 36.00 per year. We do have back issues for sale for 4 issues for 36.00.

The Heritage is dedicated to research of Pioneer families who settled in Muhlenberg County, many before it was Muhlenberg County. We welcome any information from subscribers about these Pioneers and their many descendants. However, when writing us and expecting a return, please enclose a self- addressed-stamped-envelope, S.A.S.E.

We meet each month, on the 1st Thursday night, in the basement of the Hargin Memorial Library at Greenville. We welcome any and all.

Queries are free to subscribers.

ROBERTSON = DAVID and ROBERT

An article on the Robertson Family, which originally appeared in the Muhlenberg Sentinel, Sep. 2, 1910, signed "Rondo" and was copied in Vol. 3 No. 1 page 7 of the Heritage has a lot of people claiming the wrong ancest-ors. I do not know where "Rondo" got his information and I'm sure he wrote what he did in good faith that it was all correct, BUT he was wrong in the wives of the Robertson brothers. He has Robert married to Rachel Dennis and David married to Mary Dennis. Records show it was the other way around. He was correct in the fact that both Mary and Rachel were daughters of Pioneer John Dennis. They were both born in Georgia and I think now that Robert and Mary probably were married there before they came to Kentucky. John Dennis first came to Muhlenberg about September or October of 1785 with the Henry Rhoads party. Just exactly when he brought his family here is not known by me at this time. David and Robert were both listed for Taxes in Muhlenberg in June 1799. This tells us two things: They had been citizens of the County for at least one year and they were both born prior to 1779. David Robertson served on the first Petite Jury and Robert Robertson served on the first Grand Jury which were impaneled in March term of 1803.

One may be confused in tracing these for you will find them listed as Robertson=Robinson=Roberson. 1810 Muhlenberg Co. Census puts them both in 26-45 age group and 1820 Census they are over 45. David died 1823, and Robert is listed in 60-70 age group. He died about 1843. Both were farmers.

I found a marriage record for David Robertson to Rachel Dennis in Logan Co., 15 May 1798. Because of the above mentioned article, I assumed it had been a double wedding and thus mixed up. But because of Wills, Estate settlements and other court records I believe Robert and Mary (probably, the older of each family) were married before moving to Muhlenberg. Robert's son "Jackson" states he was born in South Carolina before coming to Kentucky, and that he moved here about 1810. I am not convinced that is correct. The 1850 Muhlenberg Co. Census gives his (Jackson's) age as 44, so he was born about 1806 and Robert is mentioned in too many court records from 1799 through 1810 not to have been a resident of the County.

I will begin with David and Rachel's children. This was hard to come by, but I think I am pretty close to right. And if I am not, I'm sure someone out there will surely let me know. You may also add something I have missed. David left no will and probably died unexpectedly. There was an awful lot in the Order Books about the Estate. Thomas Salesbury was Adm-inistrator of the estate. Thomas was married to Rachel's sister Rebecca 31 Dec. 1896 in Logan County. Because there was no will, everything they had was sold and the children were farmed out to different ones and Rachel had to pay room and board for them.

Using the Estate settlement, Rachel's will and some cemetery records, I came up with the following:

- Elizabeth Robertson, b. ca. 1800, m. in Oct. 1819 to John Simmons. I found no other Muhlenberg County records for them so they prob- ably did move to Missouri and die there as "Rondo" reported. William Robertson, b. ca. 1803, m. 18 Sep. 1828 in Muhlenberg to Permelia Campbell. The 1850 Muhl. Co. Census list the following 2. children:

a. Robert M., Simmons b. ca. 1831 b. America R. Simmons b. ca 1834 d. Mary E. Simmons, b. ca 1839 c. David T. Simmons, b. ca. 1837 e. James W. Simmons, b. ca 1844 "Rondo" says they moved to Texas, where william was killed by horses running away with him.

- running away with him.
 3. Rebecca Robertson, b. 19 Jan. 1805, d. 12 Aug. 1878 in Muhl. Co.
 27 Aug. 1824, she married Anselem Bell, s/o Judge William Bell. He was born 22 Aug. 1802, d. 12 Apr. 1844. They are buried in the George Fohl Cemetery in South Muhlenberg. Their children were:

 a. David Bell, b. before 1830
 d. before 1850

 b. Isaphene F. Bell, b. ca 1831, m. 31 June 1851 to Jacob Cobb. 1870 Muhlenberg Co. Census lists the following children: Wiley H., 1856; Jacob A., 1859; Mary E., 1862; Elizabeth, 1865; not named f., 1867; not named f., 1869.
 c. Sarah F. Bell, b. ca. 1838 m. George Fohl, 22 Nov. 1879. George and "Cyntha" were listed in 1880 Muhl. Census. Sarah was living with them, but no children yet.
 e. Mary Emily Bell, b. ca 1842, m. Harve Jackson. In 1880 Muhl. Census; H.K. Jackson, 42, Mary E., 38; Claybon, 12; Wannie B.,

 - Census; H.H. Jackson, 42, Mary E., 38; Claybon, 12; Wannie B.,

- 9; Beatrice, 5; Fannie M., 3; and W.E., 1:
 4. Jane Robertson, b. 23 Sep. 1808, d. 23 Sep. 1866, m. 13 Dec. 1827 to Hiram H. Luckett, b. 13 May 1802, d. 22 Aug. 1874. In 1850 Muhl. Census they were listed: H.H. Luckett, 48; b. Va.; Jane, 42; John 21; David, 18; Mary J., 16; Alfred, 10; William, 6; Margaret, 4; and Ann, 1;
 5. Isaphene Robertson, b. 15 Feb. 1811, d. 19 Apr. 1881, m. 20 Jan. 1823 to Wiley S. Hay, who was b. 3 Feb. 1806, d. 1 Oct. 1886. Wiley was s/o Kinnard Hay, a school teacher in "Old Liberty" neighborhood. Rothert's History has quite a lot of information on the Hay family. Wiley represented the county in the Legislature 1845/1846. And later served as State Senator. He supported the Union cause in the later served as State Senator. He supported the Union cause in the Civil War, even though he was a large slave holder and two sons supported the Confederate cause. Their children were:
 - a. Mortimer D. Hay, twice married, (1) Elizebeth T., 16 Apr. 1867. she was born 5 Nov. 1840, d. 11 Jan. 1865. and beside her is a son Charley E., b. 2 July 1860, d. 12 June 1862. (2) Georgina Christian. In 1880 Census, a Georgie Hay was living with her
 - Christian. In 1880 Census, a Georgie Hay was living with her mother, Mary Christian. Two Hay children are listed, Lucian B., age 11 and Malisia D. age 6. Mr. Rothert says M.D. Hay was a brilliant young lawyer, whose career was terminated by an untimely death. He served in the House of Representatives 1867/1869. I found no Cemetery record for him.
 Marcellus C. Hay, b. 17 Jan. 1839, d. 25 Mar. 1890, his wife was Sally M., b. 6 Dec. 1844, d. 6 Sep. 1904. They had two daughters; Annie L., b. 23 Oct. 1867, d. 3 May 1934 and Mamie B., b. 17 May 1873, d. 9 Dec. 1944. Apparently neither of them married. M.C. Hay was also a lawyer. He joined the Southern cause in the Civil War. He was in the Orphan Brigade, was wounded and captured at Shiloh. M.C. Hay and Lewis Reno organized the First Mational Bank in Greenville. It was in the "Old Brick Bank Building" on the courthouse square. Brick Bank Building" on the courthouse square.

 c. David Hay, joined the Southern Army and was killed in action.
 d. Margaret A. Hay, b. 9 Sep. 1843, d. 1 Oct. 1930, m. 25 Oct. 1866 to Robert W. Casebier, b. 5 Mar. 1841, d. 19 Oct. 1927. The 1880 Muhl. Co. Census list their children as:
 Lilla M. Casebier, b. 25 Dec. 1867, d. 7 May 1900 Claudius Casebier, b. ca. 1872 Wiley Casebier, b. ca. 1874 Albin Casebier, 1877-1956
 e. Belle Hay died in early womanhood.
 f. Wiley Mangum Hay, b. ca. 1879 moved to Arkansas.

 - e. Belle Hay died in early womanhood. f. Wiley Mangum Hay, b. ca. 1879 moved to Arkansas. Alney McLean Robertson, m. (1) Eudoria Smith, d/o Aaron and Judith (Stum) Smith. They were m. 10 Sep. 1837. Eudoria, b. 12 Nov. 1815 d. 27 Sep. 1839. (2) m. on 8 June 1842 to Parthena (Fanny) Tooley, d/o John Tooley. I don't think either of them bore him children. Later, Fanny m. Greenberry Roll, Sr. as his 2nd wife. "Rondo" says A.M. went to Ca. in the '49 Gold Rush. I found no other Muhlenberg County record of him after that. 6.
 - 7. Amanda Robertson, m. Alexander Campbell, s/o James Campbell, no children were born to Amanda and Alex.
 - Margaret Robertson, m. Matthew Willis, they moved to Arkansas and died there. Two children buried at Myers Chapel could have been theirs, but not sure. Matthew H. Willis, d. Aug. 1835 and Eliz-abeth T. Willis, d. 15 Mar. 1837. David Robertson, youngest son of David and Rachel went to Ca. in the '49 Gold Rush and never returned.
 - 9.

After David Robertson, Sr. died, Rachel m. James S. Smith as his 2nd wife. That must have ended in divorce before 1830, for they were listed in separate households in that Census. Machel Smith made a will on 6 Jan. 1837. Will Book 3 pg. 35, which read: "I Rachel Smith... being of sound mind and memory, and aware of the uncertainity of life, and wishing to make a disposition of my property different from the course it might otherwise go.. She gives everything to daughter Margaret and son David, and names son-in-law, Wiley S. Hay as her executor. There is no cemetery record for either David or Rachel. Rachel was not listed in 1840 Census as for as I can tell.

Thus ends my information of David and Rachel (Dennis) Robertson and their children. If you can add to this or correct any mis-information, I surely would appreciate hearing from you. I will do the Robert Robertson and Mary Dennis story next issue.

Betty Evans Boone, 4375 Loma Riviera Court, San Diego, Ca. 92110-5504, wrote us a very nice letter and sent the following CORRECTION to the Article we did on the BELL BROTHERS.

She says; "the article contains this statement;

"Mary Bell, d/o Judge Bell, married David Willis, a s/o Britton

Willis,; they moved to Arkansas where they lived and died." Mary Bell, called "Polly", married on 17 Aug. 1820, in Muhlenberg Co., Kentucky to a man named DAVID MILLER. The handwritten marriage record is hard to read and someone unfamiliar with the family could easily read MILLER as WILLIS. In the 1930's members of the Kentucky Historical Soc-iety undertook a massive task of compiling the Kentucky Marriage Records. When the marriage records of Muhlenberg County were published in the Society's REGISTER it reported that Mary Bell had married David Willis. In 1983 the Genealogical Publishing Company reprinted the Kentucky Marriage records from the Register. The reprint also carries the report that Mary Bell married David Willis. A computerized report from "Hunting for Bears" came to me in 1984 carrying the report of the marriage of Mary (Polly) Bell to David Willis. I spent considerable time unraveling the compounded error since I am and for some years have been researching the BRITTON WILLIS line, and was aware that the 1820 marriage of David Willis did not fit.

David G. Willis, s/o Britton Willis, was born in 1799 and moved to Mublenberg County, with his family around 1805 from South Carolina. David G. Willis did indeed marry a woman named Mary, who was called Polly. He married on 29 Dec. 1823 in Logan County, Ky. (Marriage Book #1 p. 14) to Polly Bailey. Polly was a daughter of William and Elixabeth Hendry (also written as Henry) of Logan County. This was a second marriage for Polly. Her marriage on 27 Kov. 1820 in Logan Co., to Charles Bailey is recorded in Logan Co., Marriage Book 1, p. 23, Entry #59. By Bailey, Polly had one child, a son "harles W.H. Bailey. David G. Willis brought his bride and his step-son to live in Muhlenberg Co. Whether Polly was widowed or divorced from Bailey I do not know. from Bailey I do not know.

Mary (Polly) Hendry's father's will of 24 July 1311 was proved in Logan County on 18 Oct. 1811 (Will Book 1, p. 203). Her mother's will of 25 Aug. 1828 was proved in Logan County 1 Dec. 1828. In the latter will Mary is called "Mary Willis". David G. Willis was appointed by the Logan Computer and of Flizabeth Co. court as administrator with the will annexed of the will of Elizabeth Hendry.

Mary (Polly) Hendry Bailey Willis died sometime in the fall of 1830. survived by David G. Willis, her husband, by her son Charles William Hendry Bailey, b. ca. 1821, and by her 5 children of the marriage to David G. Willis:

James H. Willis, b. 22 Apr. 1826 Margaret A. Willis, b. bet. 1825-1830 Winifred Catherine Willis, b. 26 June 1828 Elixabeth J. Willis, b. ca. 1829 Marcus Lafayette Willis, b. Fall 1830

As is reported in the Muhlenberg County Heritage, Vol. 7 #1, pg. 12 David G. Willis was appointed by the Muhl. Co. Court on 27 Dec. 1830 as the gdn to CHARIES W.H. BAILEY, "orph. of Mary Bailey, dec'd"

In the early 1830's there was litigation brought by John Henry and Charles A. Bailey against David G. Willis involving his administration of Charles A. Balley against David G. Willis involving his administration of the guardianship of Charles W.H. Bailey, a minor, and ultimately the court removed Willis as guardian. Then sometime around the summer of 1835 Charles W.H. Bailey d. in Muhlenberg Co. and David G. Willis was appointed adm. of his estate (See his reported in Muhl. Co. Heritage, Vol. 7, #4 p. 46).
And on March 20, 1836 David G. Willis was appointed gdn to his own five minor children. (Also reported in Muhlenberg Co. Heritage, Vo. 7, #4. p. 46).
(((Please note, all these references to the Heritage are from our exerpts by Mrs. Hammers of the Court Order Books, "Editor")))

It was necessary to probate the estate of Charles W.H. Bailey because he had inherited from his deceased mother an interest in the slave Celia and several other slaves. These slaves had come to Mary "Polly" Kenry Bailey Willis from her father, subject to a life estate in her mother. It was also necessary to set up the guardianship for the Willis children to administer their interest in their mother's inheritance. The Willis guardianship continued well into the 1840's until the Willis children attained their adulthood, or in the case of the girls, until their marriages.

By August 1836 David G. Willis had taken all of his children (with perhaps the exception of his youngest daughter Elizabeth) and removed to Marshall Co. Ms., settling on the Marshall County-Lafayette County Line. It appears from the 1850 census of Muhl. Co. that Elizabeth Jane remained behind in the household of Thomas Bell, for she was with the Bells in 1850. In 1851 Elizabeth married James Gwinn Myers in Muhl. Co..

When David G. Willis arrived in Marshall Co., Ms., he was joined there by his oldest brother James Willis (b. 1783) and Jamps' family. It was in 1836 that Marshall Co. Ms., was opened up to white settlement. (The area had been ceded by the Chickasaws that year).

David G. Willis never lived in Arkansas. Le lived out his days there in Marshall Co., Ms., where he died. His will of 15 Apr. 1869 was admitted to probate in Marshall Co., Ms. in August 1869 (Probate Court Records Book 19, p. 74)

The reference in THE BELL BROTHERS article to David Willis having moved to Arkansas probably stems from the fact that his brother Matthew G. Willis removed to Johnson Co., Arkansas shortly after May 1840. It was on 18 May 1840 that Matthew G. Willis and his wife Sarah (Rice) Willis sold their homeplace on the waters of the Clifty (Deed Book 9, p. 467). Eatthew G. Willis died in Johnson Co. Ark. on 17 Oct. 1844, survived by Sarah and his 7 children.

 Thank you Betty for all this good information; But it also makes me uneasy that the article I have just done on Robertsons is also incorrect in the marriage of Matthew Willis and Margaret Robertson, d/o David and Rachel Robertson. Perhaps you can shed some light on that one too. Editor.
