BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY

Mr. Redford C. Cherry,

Bardstown, Kentucky.

My dear Brother R. C.:

Mother was here only a few days before going to Brother Jerry's. She is now with Brother Jerry at Elkton, Kentucky. I think she will be here for several weeks after she returns from Elkton. I am sorry I have not further information I can give you concerning the Superintendent's place at Bardstown. Glad to know you are to be with us sometime in the Summer. We are going to claim a visit at the Bungalow. We are going out to the Bungalow in about two weeks. I shall leave here tonight with a special train of Western Kentucky Farmers who are going to visit farms in central Kentucky. I shall go the whole trip with these people. There will be about 500 farmers in the party. I congratulate you upon the splendid victory you won in the Court of Appeals. I am sure that you feel good over the results.

Fraternally yours,

HHC.S.
