This past month has been a difficult one as far as stagings are concerned. Several groups have had to cancel their appointments and some have endangered their lives by trying to get to their churches or places where the songs were planned.

We can't express our thanks enough for all our friends and fans who have stood by all the groups in this Association.

Let us stress that we all need one another's prayers and continued support from each of you.

Remember our Singing School starting on March 21 at Hart County High School. All groups and everyone is invited to come and learn more music in order to serve the Lord better in the future.

GOSPEL MUSIC'S FIRST COUPLE: EVA MAE AND URIAS LEFEVRE

Taken from The Singing News.

By Eva Mae LeFevre

It seems just yesterday that I walked down a long aisle, dressed in a handmade white satin gown with a beautiful lace veil to say "I Do" to the man I love more than anyone on this earth, Urias LeFevre. It was a large church in Greenville, South Carolina, that seated over two thousand people and it was packed to capacity; they were also standing in the yards as far as you could see out the windows. The time - 9:00 p.m. on a Sunday night, September 9, 1934.

On that night, I joined the group (The LeFevres) to sing and play piano. My husband thought I was very talented, so he spent much of his time promoting me. After several years, I became M.C. for the group; and today, 42 years later, I am still singing, playing piano and doing the M.C. work for The LeFevres.

Urias and Alphus (the two men that started this group) have retired and seem to be so happy in retirement. They both have excellent health; however, I am 59 years old and still going strong. I have no plans for retirement as long as my husband and I stay well; although any time my husband needs me, I shall be by his side.

In my 42 years of work in this group, the personnel has changed from time to time, but I have never worked with a better group than the one we have now. Each one seems to be dedicated to do his or her part for the Lord through gospel singing and playing.

When Urias retired as manager and owner, he turned the business over to our bass singer who has been with us 19 years. Rex Nelon sings the greatest bass; also, he is a good manager and leader. There is no greater person in gospel music today than Rex Nelon. His style of bass singing will always be remembered.

Before I joined this group, I traveled with my father to help in his ministry. When I was 13 years old, I was a good driver so I was a great help to daddy in many ways - singing, playing the piano, and driving at night while Daddy slept after a hard day. I also helped Mama with the housework, as I was the oldest of nine children. This meant getting up at 6:00 a.m. so I could clean the entire house before leaving for school. My mom and dad are devout Christians and we had family prayer morning, noon, and night. What a heritage, worth more than millions of dollars to me. I thank God that He has let me keep Mom and Dad a long time. They are precious.

When I met my husband, my daddy had the LeFevre Quartet to come to our church to sing; and I was only eight years old. Urias was sixteen, but he told Alphus that night that he had met his wife, meaning me. He waited for me to grow up and we married when I was only 17 years old (Urias 25). To our marriage came five children, three boys and two girls. Pierce is 40 years old; Meurice 39, Andrea 38, Mylon 32, and Monteia 21. We

Jim Hamill Rejoins Kingsmen

Jim Hamill, lauded by many as the best emcee and lead singer in the business, is returning to the Kingsmen Quartet. Jim first joined The Kingsmen about five years ago. Prior to that, he has sung with such great groups as The Rebels, and The Oak Ridge Boys. The Kingsmen have been one of the top Southern Gospel groups for several years. Their zeal in performance and their sincerity have endeared them with thousands of gospel fans across the nation. Members of the group have won several awards. Their fine tenor, Johnny Parrack, won the Fan Award for Favorite Tenor this year and of course, Squire Parsons is a great gospel songwriter. For a long time the group teased about never winning a "buzzard". However, in 1974, their great live album, "Big and Live" was honored with a Dove Award from the Gospel Music Association for the Best Gospel Album of the year.

Earlier this year, when Jim left The Kingsmen, he returned to Memphis, Tennessee, where his father is the pastor of a large Assembly of God church. Jim worked for a while with a church in one of the outlying suburbs of Memphis as Minister of Music. While in Memphis, Hamill teamed up with The Senators, Ray Shelton's fine group, and skyrocketed them into national prominence almost overnight. Fans at The National Quartet convention were treated to a preview of the reunion when Jim joined The Kingsmen on stage for an encore of "When I Wake Up"--What else??

The Kingsmen have just signed a new recording contract with Heart Warming Records. Manager Eldridge Fox also told me that Jim McCauley has returned to pick bass with the group. Bobby Connelly, who was hired when Mac left, will stay on the team to pick rhythm and lead guitar.

Hart County Singing Convention

I have enjoyed my year as the secretary of Hart County Singing Convention and look forward to another good year.

We had large crowds and great guest singers each month.

Next month the Hart County Singing Convention will meet at Mt. Pisgah near Bonnieville and the special guests are "The Regals" from Scottsville. Let's have a great year in Gospel Singing in 1977!

have watched them grow up to become fine men and women, and we thank God for them and their place in this world. We love them so much, mistakes and all.

I have mentioned my being thankful for several things in this article and here it is again - Thanksgiving time. I am so thankful to be a Christian; also to be born in the "good ole USA" to Christian parents. I could go on and on about the many things I have to be thankful for, but let me mention just one more thing. Our children are all gone from home and sometimes it is a little lonely, just the two of us; but when my husband says, "Darling, what do you want for breakfast, and I'll even serve it in bed if you want me to," then I know down deep in my heart that I have everything to be thankful for. I try to treat him like a king and I know I'm his queen.

From The Editor

If your paper is late, please have patience with us. We are trying hard to get them to you as soon as possible. Sometimes it isn't our fault. Everyone seems to have problems with their mail once in a while. I'm sure the Post Man is also doing all he can to bring every letter and paper your way. The weather is bad and we are all doing well to survive. Let's thank the Lord for our blessings and try not to criticize until we have walked the same path of the person we think is in the wrong. 1976 has been a real good year. We are looking forward to this new one.

Ronnie Hutchins Joins Tennesseans

Willie Wynn, manager of Willie Wynn and The Tennesseans has announced that Ronnie Hutchins, formerly of The Inspirations and The LeFevres, will join The Tennesseans to replace Elmer Cole. Elmer, one of gospel music's greatest song writers, has decided to stay home and write songs during 1977. Elmer has written such gospel giants as "Ten Thousand Years" and "What A Day (Our First Day In Heaven)."

Ronnie Hutchins started as one of the original founders of The Inspirations of Bryson City, N.C. where he sang lead for many years. For the last three years, he has been singing with The LeFevres from Atlanta, G a. Ronnie is known and loved by thousands of fans across America. The Tennesseans who not only have one of the finest tenors in America in Willie, have recently made changes at other positions. The group now consists of Willie, Ronnie, Woody Wright, baritone and Hovie Walker at bass. These fine Christian men will minister to you and bless you with their singing. Be sure to go out to see them whenever they are in your area.

MARIJOHN WILKIN'S PRAISE BECOMES SONGS

Taken from The Singing News.

Marijohn: "For the first time in my life, I can write at the utmost of my ability."

By Darryl Hicks

Opening the door to a brand-new, powder blue Cadillac, she emerged wearing a full-length mink coat worn over tailored cowgirl clothing, lizard skin boots, and shimmering with gobs of turquoise jewelry. The startled pastor pushed the church office door ajar for the elegantly dressed lady to enter, detecting a distressed look.

"What's your problem?" he asked. She replied without hesitation. "I have every kind of problem imaginable!" Surveying the car and clothing, the minister groped for words. "Umm ... you, uh, you look healthy!"

"I am."

"Well, umm ... you look like your business is good, whatever you do."

He could see the pain behind the prosperity, so he began to minister. "Well, first of all: it's not so much your problems, it's how you are reacting to them. Why don't we thank God for your problems and let Him begin to handle them."

"I'll try."

After a heart-rending time, the lady drove, sat down at the piano, and started praying for God to handle her problems.

"Thank you, Lord ... I think! You need to help me to make it through today."

She began playing, singing a simple prayer, and a song began to emerge.

"I, only human, I'm just a woman; Help me believe in what I could be and all that I am.

Show me the stairway I have to climb Lord, for my sake, teach me to take One Day At A Time.

One Day At A Time, sweet Jesus — That's all I'm asking from you; Just give me the strength to do every day what I have to do.

Yesterday's gone, sweet Jesus And tomorrow may never be mine; Lord help me today, show me the way One Day At A Time.

To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Since I became a member of the Barren River Boys, four or five months ago, I have been getting Gospel Reaching Out through the quartet and I want to take the time to subscribe for it to come direct to my address so I would be able to get a day or so sooner. I am enclosing a check to two other friends and kindred so that they may enjoy the paper as much as I have.

I have met so many nice people that I already seemed to know through reading about them in the paper.

To the editor's staff, I would like to extend my thanks for the service you render to all of us. I am enjoying the Barren River Boys and our family have a lot of good times together-Thanks!
