Successful Singing School recently taught by Rev. Cosby Dobson

Rev. Cosby Dobson

The singing school that was held at the Hart Co. High School in March was very successful with approximately 50 to 60 people attending each evening.

Rev. Cosby Dobson (shown above) taught shape notes, timing and tone and other basics associated with gospel music. Gospel Reaching Out really appreciates the effort Bro. Dobson put forth and extends a warm welcome to him to come back to this area on other occasions.

We want to thank each one who helped to make the Singing School a success. We had hoped that many more would attend. If you should ask any of the 60 who attended each night, they would say it was well worth their time.

Your Officers, Board of Directors, Editorial Staff and other volunteers have been very busy these past weeks trying to get everything ready for the May Singing.

This years big 2 day event promises to be a great sing.

We are looking forward to meeting many of our old and new friends. I am sure you will want to hear many of the groups you have read about but have never been able to meet before. Free admission makes it possible for almost everyone to attend. Some chairs available. If you can bring your lawn chairs it will be of great help.

Hart County Singing Convention

The Hart Co. Singing Conv. will not be held in May because of the Annual Sing at Horse Cave Tobacco Warehouse May 6 & 7.

ROCK OF AGES
MONUMENTS

To The Editor

We'd like to take a moment of time to say hello to all of our friends, Brothers and Sisters

As President of the Grayson County Singing Convention, we'd like to mention our convention will meet the fourth Sunday in June for an all day singing at the Leitchfield Court House. This is an all day singing starting at 10:00 a.m. This is an open singing and all singers are welcome. The Harvesters of Louisville will be among the featured singers.

We almost forgot to tell you that my wife and I are Grandpa and grandma. Three times already. Our two oldest daughters were married in a double ceremony and oldest gave birth to twin girls and the other one has a girl. So our family is getting bigger and better.

We'd like to say again keep up the good work and we trust the Lord will continue to bless your family. Tell all hello, a Brother in Christ.

Charles Richards

Leitchfield, Ky. 42754

Even the little ones took part in Singing School

Above are Sheila and Shelly Waddle, (Twins) Tara Mc Cubbins and Shannon .

I hope this schedule reaches you in time to get in the paper this time. It seems I can't find time to get this out to you each month. If you do not hear from me before next month, just go ahead and use the June schedule shown on this sheet. If there are no changes, I will not recontact you.

We certainly enjoyed singing with you at the singing convention and hope to be able to work with you again soon.

Sincerely,
Johnnie Taylor

Cook Family Singers

The Cook Family Singers will hold a weekend of services at the local 761 IUE Union Hall at 5153 Poplar Level Road in Louisville, Ky. The dates and times are May 20th and 21st at 7:30 EST and May 22nd at 2:00 p.m. EST. There will be no admission fee.

SINGING IN THE DARK

Most of you have probably heard of The Singing in The Smokies and The Singing in The Ozark, but Saturday night, April 2nd at The Church of God of Prophecy in Westmoreland, Tennessee, we had a Singing in The Dark. The Mellotones from Kinston, North Carolina and The Jubilations from Westmoreland were the guest groups and there was a real good crowd at the church. The Mellotones were up first and were doing a fine job singing when all of a sudden it was completely dark in the church and no one knew why, but that didn't dampen the spirit, because we just kept the singing going. The Jubilations sang and then The Mellotones sang again and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Very few left, one person was saved and some made the remark that it was the best singing that they were ever in. So that just goes to show that it don't take lights, or a PA System to have a good singing, although it does help sometimes, but it takes the spirit of God.

THE SERVANTS

The Servants are having great times in the Lord these days. We have been singing to people anywhere and anytime we received an opportunity. We have found that anywhere you sing, people are just about the same. They want to hear good down to earth gospel singing in the Spirit. We are participating in some revivals this year and have found that we needed to be revived. For the Servants, we think it's fun being saved.

We are planning for our 12th Anniversary Sing this year, August 13 and 14. The Servants along with Willie Wynn and The Tennesseans. Also the Joymakers, Tribute-The Community Singers, The Bailey Family, The Good News Qt. and The Seekers. We are expecting a great weekend of Gospel Music in Campbellsville, August 13 and 14. Make plans to be with us. Remember The Servants in your prayers and let us hear from you this month.

The Servants-Big Ern, Charlie, Round Man, Jim, Mike, Wayne and Cotton.

Group from Lexington to attend Annual Sing

THE SEEKERS believe that God has great things for them during the month of May. We are excited about coming to Horse Cave and seeing many of our friends again and we are also having a Sunday afternoon gospel sing at the High School at Stanford on May 22 at 3 o'clock. We are looking forward to working with Rev. Baker and his people in Stanford. And if you are interested in seeing a truly beautiful church, come to our singing in Athens, Kentucky on May 14 with the Brooks. You'll enjoy this fantastic structure that God has given to the people there. On May Day we will be eating and singing with the people from the Revelation Church of God has given to the people there. On May Day we will be eating and singing with the people from the Revelation Church of God in Winchester. Just take a look at our schedule and come along for a truly great month of gospel singing with us.

Clara Gray and THE SEEKERS

Hinson Singers

The Hinson's Singing at the High School in Greensburg was a big success with a large crowd. Also the sing was Spirit Filled.

The Joymakers were also on the program and they also did a good job of singing.

The Singing Hinsons may be coming back to this area real soon.
