This diary was prepared and presented by J G Haley, Christmas, 1942. Filmed by the Historical Commission, SBC, November 16, 1967. This copy by courtesy of Allen Haley, 262 Tomahawk Trail, Cedar Rapids, Ia.

When I was about 2 or 3 years old, my parents William A Haley and Elizabeth Haley, moved from Virginia to Kentucky. They moved from near Richmond, in Henrico County. I was too small to recollect much or anything about it. I do seem to have an indistinct recollection of some things that occurred on the journey. But it would seem trivial to mention them. Bellied horses for instance and some sickness on the way of my mother and the baby (John Haley) which occasioned some alarm. The trip, made, I should say, about 1835, was made by wagons. There was no other way that it could have been made at that time. No railroads, then.

My father first settled in Green Co Ky near Green River. He afterwards settled in Barren County. Near Lafayette, a little town in said county. He was pretty well off when he moved out to Kentucky, but seems not to have been at all successful in business after getting to Ky. He engaged with some parties in mercantile business and lost by them and never recovered from the losses he sustained. He afterwards ran a little farm and in that way made a living.

He had two children by a former marriage, and four by my mother. My mother was an Allen - sister of Rev. L W Allen - and from the time that I knew her, she was a very delicate woman. She had been, I have always been told, very beautiful. The names of her four children were William Austin Haley, Littleberry J Haley, John M Haley, and Joseph N Haley. Joseph the youngest died when about six or eight years old. Rather he was killed. He got a grain of corn lodged in his throat and some doctors undertook to cut it out and killed him. He was a sweet and beautiful little boy. How distinctly I remember him! And how distinctly I remember the wretched day, when they took him from playing with us in the yard and laid him upon the table and held him down and cut his throat! Our parents were then dead and little Joseph was living with Uncle Rev. Reuben Allen. I shall never forget that day, I suppose I was 12 years old.

My father died first. He died of paralysis. He had two strokes, at some distance apart. When the second one came upon him, he was from home. He was at a village in the neighborhood known as Lafayette. He was sitting down at the time and the stroke came upon him and he sunk down and died. How well do I remember when the messenger came to our house and said, he was dead. It was a sad day. My mother, almost abed, with ill health and we left in the world without our Father. He was a good father. A quiet, honest, amiable, pious loving father as any child ever had. How I remember his kind and gentle and loving devotion to us his children. But God saw fit to take him and permitted him to die an easy and quiet death. He was prepared to go. For he was an humble, quiet, consistent Christian. None ever more so. His body was brought home and buried at the place where we were then living, in Barren County, Ky. I do hope to be able to visit the graves of my parents some of these days. My father must have died sometime about 1840-3. He was about 50 years old when he died.
Between 47 and 50. My mother lived only a short time after his death.
Her health failed rapidly and she was soon laid by his side in the graveyard, that was made on the place where we lived. She was much younger than he.

After the death of my parents we were broken up. Everything was sold out and utterly poor, we boys were taken by our uncles on our mother's side. Uncle Austin Allen took me and Uncle Reuben Allen took William and Joseph, and John was taken by Uncle John Allen. This breaking up must have occurred about 1841 or 2 or 3. I lived with Uncle Austin until the spring of '47 when we disagreed and I left him. I then had a half-brother in Louisville, Ky., engaged in the tobacco business, Thomas Haley. He was the surviving child of my father's first marriage.

After leaving my Uncle Austin, with the help of my Uncle Reuben
Allen, I made my way to my brother Thomas' and was received by him with great cordiality. I spent several months with him and worked in his factory. He was very kind to me. William was also living with him and William and myself were quite happy together for the few months I was in Louisville. My brother Thomas, however, had some correspondence with my Uncle Littleberry Allen, who lived in Virginia in regard to me and as the result, it was agreed that I should be shipped to my uncle in Virginia. Accordingly, in the month of July 1847 as well as I can now remember, I was put on board a steamboat on the Ohio River at the wharf at Louisville, in charge of some persons traveling East, and who were friends of my brother Thomas, and started on my journey to Richmond, Virginia. I was then about 14 years old, in my 15th. Well do I remember that trip up the Ohio.
We were on a nice boat. She traveled slow and it took us nearly two days and one night to reach Wheeling. We however had a good time.
Nothing worth relating here occurred. Of course every scene and place was new and the curiosity was ever on the alert with the thought, What next? A trip on one of those Western rivers, in a magnificent steamer such as we traveled on, is well worth taking.

We kept to the steamboat until we reached Wheeling, a large and flourishing town on the Ohio, but a very dingy and smoke bedimmed town. Here we spent the night. The next morning, our party having secured a stage for the party, set out across the country to a town called Cumberland on the line of Pennsylvania and Maryland. Which place as well as I can remember we reached on the evening of the 2nd day after we set out from Wheeling. We crossed a country grand in its mountain scenery and as we had no occasion to be in a great hurry, we enjoyed the scenery no little. I remember one of the most beautiful scenes we had was the sunset from the top of a very lofty peak of the Alleghany. It was truly grand and made quite an impression on my youthful fancy. I have never seen anything since that was so grand

We got to Cumberland about night and think we spent the night there, and the next morning we boarded a train of cars and started for Baltimore. Two things struck my attention at Cumberland. One, the vast quantities of chestnuts on the streets, and most of all the railroad. It was the first time I had ever seen a railroad and the first time I ever saw a train of cars. It was the Baltimore R R running to Cumberland, Maryland. Since it has become the Baltimore and Ohio R R, and is one of the institutions of the land.

From Cumberland we came on to Baltimore. At a place called the Relay House, my company and myself separated. They went on to Baltimore and they sent me on to Washington. I wish I could know those kind friends now. They were just as good as they could be and I would give so much if some coincidence would bring us together again. But never I presume will it be. How sad and lonely I felt at our parting and for the first time perhaps certainly more sensibly than ever before I felt myself alone in the wide world.

I went or rather was carried to Washington, thence through the city in an omnibus to the Potomac landing, where I took the boat for Aquia Creek. There the boat connected with the cars on the R.F. & P. Railroad, and embarking on them I landed in due course of time in the city of Richmond. I went to the Washington Hotel (then kept by Mr. John Talman) and there for the first time in my life I met with my uncle L. W. Allen. He was there to meet with me. This as well as I can remember was in the month of July or August. I think it was August. Nothing is worthy any special notice connected with my meeting with my uncle in Richmond. He was a remarkably fine-looking, handsome person. Indeed he was one of the finest-looking persons I ever saw. I on the other hand, it hurts me to say it, must have struck him as a very indifferent and uncouth specimen of a Kentucky boy. Nature had never done much for me and her indifference to my person and makeup and attractions had been rendered the more painful and conspicuous by my want of the refinements and cultivations of good society and education. I do not remember to have heard my uncle ever to express any opinion of my appearance on my first introduction to him, or as to the impression made on his mind on the occasion referred to. But I suspect he secretly harbored the thought that if he made anything of that boy, he would have a hard time, that his undertaking would be somewhat similar to what has always been considered the task impossible of extracting the crimson fluid from the vegetable known as "the White Flat Dutch". However I may do myself the justice to say that I had never felt any strong disposition to any irregularities, and apart from having a strong inclination to amusement and fun, I was very generally and very properly, I think, regarded as a well-disposed, amiable and decent boy.

After spending a night and perhaps a day in Richmond, we set out for the home of my uncle. At that time he was living near Gloucester C.H. in Gloucester County, Virginia. We went down the James, the noble James. We landed on the river at a place known as the "Grove landing". Then by steps to Yorktown. At which place we crossed the York River and thence, by private conveyance as well as I remember to his home in Gloucester.

In December, about the 20th we moved from Gloucester to Caroline County. My uncle and family coming straight from G. to Richmond. I was sent around by the Chesapeake Bay from Wares landing in G. to Norfolk, in a sail boat, with the household goods, on the Bay all night, the weather being very calm. On the next day about night as well as I can remember we landed in Norfolk. Our goods were transferred to a James River steamer and I followed them to Richmond. My uncle who was sergeant-at-arms in the Virginia Senate (1847) met me at Hockets. He was boarding on Broad St. North side, opposite the Old Theatre, 7th St., with an excellent old lady named Mrs. Nichols. I remained in Richmond several days attending to the transfer of our goods from the boat to the R.F.P.R.R. In the meantime Aunt Anne and the children joined us. When everything was ready, we left Richmond and landed in Caroline County at the Chesterfield Depot, now Ruther Glenn, R.F.P.

Thence we went to a place in Caroline known as Jericho, on North Anna River, Jericho Mills. We remained at J. until the spring of '43. Then we moved to Applewood. In May 1849 there was a very good eating at County Line Church, a number professed religion and joined the church. I among them. I made my profession on the 15th day of May and was baptised on the 19th, 1849. I was then in my 16th year. I was ordained at County Line Church on the 2nd Sunday in August 1856. B. Manly, Jr., R. Ryland, D.D., E. Darin, and L. W. Allen were the presbytery.

OFFICERS AND MEN IN LORD DUNMORE'S WAR OF 1774

7300 Deep Run, Birmingham, Mich.

AMERICA'S FRONTIER, LTD, of Bolar, Virginia, winner of a Freedom Foundation award for its work during the Bicentennial, is now begining a certified index of the officers and men of the SOUTHERN DIVISION, under the command of Colonel Andrew Lewis during Lord Dunmore's War of 1774. It was part of this Division which fought and won the Battle of Point Pleasant on October 10th of that year, at the junction of the Ohio and Kanawha Rivers in the present State of West Virginia. This battle has been officially recognized as the first battle of the American Revolution.

In the summer of 1774, the troops were called out by Virginia's Governor, the 4th Earl of Dunmore, to combat the threat of an Indian war on the frontier. His lordship took personal command of the NORTH-ERN DIVISION. Colonel Andrew Lewis, regarded as the foremost military man in Virginia, was named Commander-in-Chief of the SOUTHERN DIVISION.
On October 10th, Lewis' forces won the battle at "The Point." It was later highly suspected that the Indians were serving as allies of the British. The reports of the officers were never filed in Williamsburg.
Instead, they were retained by them as their personal papers.

It was 1840 when the first of these official reports came to light down in Pontotoc, Mississippi. Lyman Copeland Draper made the discovery and then spent the balance of his life adding to these records.
He died in 1891 and left his invaluable accumulation to the State Historical Society of Wisconsin. It is from these original documents that AMERICA'S FRONTIER, LTD, is now compiling the list of officers and men who took part in the military campaign of 1774.

The three regiments and four independent companies which made up the SOUTHERN DIVISION are as follows: AUGUSTA COUNTY REGIMENT: BOT-E-TOURT COUNTY REGIMENT: FINCASTLE COUNTY REGIMENT: CULPEPER TROOPS:
BEDFORD COUNTY VOLUNTEERS: DUNMORE COUNTY VOLUNTEERS: AND CAPTAIN HARROD'S PARTY from KENTUCKY.

Work has now begun on the AUGUSTA COUNTY REGIMENT which was comprised of thirteen companies under the command of Colonel Charles Lewis.
They are listed immediately after the Field Officers.

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL NOTICE

A reminder that this issue is the last issue of your payment for 1976 membership quarterlies. Many of our members have already sent in their 1977 renewals, for which we are very grateful. We were fearful that we might have to increase our dues, but we decided that we would try to keep expenses down, and still have the membership dues $5.00, as they have been. Needless to say, at that price, we are not able financially to send out renewal notices by separate mail. Our members have always been very understanding about this. Thank you.

JUST NOW, BEFORE YOU FORGET IT, PLEASE SEND US YOUR RENEWAL

NEWS-NOTES-NOTICES
LOCKE FAMILY ASSOCIATION

We are printing this letter just as we received it, as we know it will be of great interest to many. (Editor)

1 November 1976

Dear Mrs Wilson:

After receiving your letter in which you asked if there was a Locke Family Association I got busy getting one organized. Instead of a newsletter or quarterly, we are going to use a traveling notebook to share our individually gathered Locke research information.

Briefly, the notebook will work like this. Each member submits information to the editor who arranges the material in a notebook. Each person may keep the notebook for two weeks, add any new material and then send it on to the next name on the membership list. All types of information ranging from original records, published records, queries, advice, and ancestor charts will be included in the notebook. There are no dues; the only cost involved is in mailing the book.

At present we have about twenty members, but expect to have many more by the time the notebook goes into circulation on February 1, 1977. I will include information about The Biography of Elder Jacob Locke and your Society. I would appreciate your mentioning the Locke Family Association in your quarterly.

Any of your members who are interested in joining us are asked to send a SASE for complete details to me at the address below. Will also be happy to send details to anyone wishing to start another surname notebook.

We are trying to attract as many members as we can. The more members and information we can include in the notebook, the more each of us will benefit.

I have enjoyed reading the little book about Jacob Locke. So often we are so eager to gather names that we overlook the way of life of our ancestors. We forget their struggles just to live day to day.

I thank you for any "boost" you can give our Locke Family Association.

Sincerely - Linda Locke Tiller

We are grieved to announce the death of one of our members who has added much enjoyment to our quarterly by his writings.

READY DAVIS HOLDER, born 29 September 1900, died 4 September 1976. Mr Holder had been principal of the Gamaliel, Kentucky High School for two years, and taught in the Monroe County Kentucky schools for many years, he was a member of the Kentucky Livestock Improvement Organization; he was an early developer of purebred Angus beef cattle, and was an early producer of hybrid seed corn in Kentucky. He had a vast store of historical and genealogical information of the area in which he lived, and enjoyed being helpful to anyone in tracing their ancestry. Survivors include his wife Nell, two sons Bennie and Sammie, and a daughter Mrs Ruth Chapman, and grandchildren.
Marcela Childs, 2309 21st Street, Lubbock, Texas, now publishes a column entitled "Kin Searching" which appears in the Deep East Texas Pioneer Regional Weekly (published in Nacogdoches), and also in the Friday edition of the West Texas Times (published in Lubbock). She will receive and publish queries free of charge, with no limit on the length. Genealogical material is not limited to Texas. She has already published some abstracts of Guilford Co N Carolina wills. Her future plans include such items as tombstone inscriptions from Logan Co Ark, and abstracts from Abbeville and Edgefield Co's S Carolina. Bible records, court records, county records, etc. are also welcomed as is notification of new publications and family reunions. She will also publish a review of your books if you will submit a complimentary copy. She says that her column has already drawn responses from many other states besides Texas.

Our charter member, Mrs Lucy Ward, will celebrate her 105th birthday anniversary this month, February 12th. Up until just a few months ago she was fairly active, attending her church each Sunday, and able to take care of herself. Unfortunately, she is now in a nursing home for therapy due to a broken hip, for which surgery was performed, and her recovery has been marvelous. She is now able to be up most of the day in a wheelchair, and is able to walk again. She has been a very faithful member of the Church of Christ for many years.

Lucy A Nichols was born 12 February 1872, the daughter of Miss Scynthia A Tolle and Byrd W Nichols who were united in marriage in Barren County, Kentucky on the 29th day of October 1863 at the home of Mary Tolle, by the Rev. James Brooks, in the presence of Samuel H Tolle, John J Tolle, and others. The rites of matrimony between Miss Lucy A Nichols and W Sewell Ward were performed in Barren County, Kentucky on the 8th day of December 1897 with the attendants Miss C M Barley, and Mr Willie Dougherty; Dora Dougherty and Hattie Depp signed their marriage certificates as witnesses. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J W Reneau.

W Sewell Ward was born 7 February 1871 in Metcalfe (?) County, Ky, and died 27 October 1964, in Barren County, and is buried in the Bowles Cemetery, near Eighty Eight, Barren County Ky. He was the son of Decrillion and Alma (Pickering) Ward; their other children were: Gus, Duff, Elrod, Cora, and Lydia. The children of Byrd W and Scynthia A (Tolle) Nichols were Sue, Mandy, Mary, Harvey, Scynthia, William, Jim, and Lucy A Nichols.

Lucy A (Nichols) and W Sewell Ward's children are: Bruce Orville, Ruby Opal, Otto Artemis, Earl Engleman, Lucy May, William Morris "Bill" Christie Edith, Lewin Chester, and Gladys Carol Ward.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU LUCY A NICHOLS WARD - MAY GOD BLESS YOU ALWAYS

NOTE - An addition is in the process of being compiled for our quarterlies - an index for each year's issues. Our good member Gladys Aiken, is now working on this much needed item, which will add much to the usefulness of our quarterlies. We shall give you the details and prices of each year in our next issue.
GILLOCK & RELATED LINES - Am compiling Gillock family lines data in order to publish them in a book - would appreciate your sending me your family of Gillocks and related lines. This is an extensive area.
