Weapons God Uses

OTIS C. SKAGGS

Over the years of my pastoral and evangelistic work, many times, I have been amazed at the strange weapons the Lord has used to accomplish His purpose. He uses strong men, weak men, educated and uneducated men.

Samson took a jaw bone of an ass and God permitted him to slay one thousand Philistines. Judges 15:15-16. Gideon had thirty two thousand men, but God said that is too many. Later, He took three hundred men and got the job done.

It was only a smooth stone from David's sling-shot and Goliath, the Philistine Giant fell dead. I Samuel 17:49-51. Also, God opened the mouth of Balaam's ass or mule, and the old mule told Balaam the message that God had for him.

King Hezekiah was sick unto death- II Kings 20:56. He used the weapon of prayer, and God heard him, saw his tears, healed his body, and added fifteen years to his life.

Two of my deacons went out one night and used the weapon of witnessing. They found a lost-hungry-hell deserving-convicted soul, told her about Jesus, and she was saved. A week later a relative found her body, but the real person had moved out to be with the Lord.

One hot-sunny day, when I was a seventeen year old boy plowing corn on a little rocky hill side, the Lord called me to preach the Gospel. Over the years, as I have preached the Old Time Gospel, it has been my privilege to see many precious souls saved. Yes, God uses the weapon of preaching to save those that believe.

Last, but not least, the Lord uses the Weapon-Gospel Singing, to convict lost sinners and edify the saints. Only eternity will reveal all the blessings Gospel Singing has brought to our churches and individual hearts. As a Pastor, of many years, I have always tried to be a friend to Gospel Singing. Never have I felt that preaching and singing are in competition, but are mighty weapons in the hands of our God. Let us pray, sing, and preach until the Lord comes, for Jesus said, "Occupy till I come."

In Memory Of Mike Durham

When one we loved has passed away
Don't worry, fret, or cry
For We will meet him again someday
I know we all hated to see him go.
Because we loved him so dear
But if you loved him as I did
You will feel he is always near
He was a very young boy
The age of seven
The Things he did here on earth
In words cannot be said
But we will always remember
Then and now that he is dead
He was such a nice boy so gentle and kind
Another boy to take his place you could never find
I think we all can say Mike how we hate to part for we all loved you so
From the deepest of our hearts
