IN MEMORY OF

GLADYS ILENE LEE AIKEN

BORN 3 MAY 1938
DIED 29 DECEMBER 1977

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord: and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's."

Romans 14:8

We are saddened to learn of the tragic death of Gladys Ilene (Lee) Aiken, which occurred in a one-car accident 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, December 29th, 1977, on the Kansas Turnpike two miles west of Bonner Springs, Kansas.

Gladys Ilene Lee was born May 3rd, 1938 at LaCygne, Miami County, Kansas, the second child of Bonnie Fay (Larkey) and Harvey Clayton Lee. On August 30th, 1957 she united in marriage with David Whitaker Aiken. To this union were born three sons - Ronald Eugene (June 7, 1958), Larry Wayne (June 10, 1960), and Gale Lee (February 28, 1963) Aiken, all of whom survive her. She is also survived by one brother, Lewis Nichols Lee, his wife Joann and their four children, Deborah Elaine, Mark Bradley, Randy Gene, and Rickey Joe Lee; and a sister Karen Jean Rhynerson, her husband and baby daughter De Anna Jean Rhynerson. The parents, brother and sister reside in LaCygne, Kansas. The husband and children of Gladys reside at 1019 West 29th Street, Lawrence, Kansas.

Gladys was a member of the Baptist Church of Drexel, Missouri, where her funeral services were held Sunday, January 1, 1978, with burial in the East Mt Zion Cemetery, with the Reverends Howard Curry and Jim Collins officiating. The casket bearers were Vick Phalen, Gary Phalen, Russell Lee, Harvey Lee, Gale Hildebrand, and Rolla Lee.

Gladys was a very competent genealogist and historian, being active in many genealogical and historical societies in the south and east, among them being her local society, of which she was co-founder and charter Chairman, editor, and filling other offices - The Douglas County Genealogical Society, Lawrence, Kansas. She was also a member and contributor of the Monroe County Historical and Genealogical Society, Tompkinsville, Ky, and a charter member and contributor of the South Central Kentucky Historical and Genealogical Society, Glasgow, Ky.

She became a professional researcher, tracing family histories for many people. We have heard her say many times that she hoped that the time and energy which she spent gladly and willingly while here on earth, would continue to be of benefit to others when she was gone.
and that all her records would be saved and preserved for the benefit of her family, descendants, and others. She need not to have been in any doubt about this, for as long as the past issues of any publications exist, to which she contributed, her name will be noted with gratitude for her efforts.

We have never known any other person who seemed to be gifted so generously with her faculty of knowledge or conviction gained by intuition. We know first hand, of many instances when her intuition fulfillment would cause us to tell her that we believed that someone "Upstairs" was giving her information, and she would reply that, at times, it seemed as if she had been reincarnated, that she would have a very strong, almost eerie feeling that she had been in these places before and had heard these names before - places and names that she had certainly never heard of before. As we are in the same family lines, and researched together, we had occasion to learn of this quality of hers, and to know that it was genuine. Her extrasensory perception was truly remarkable.

At the time of her death, Gladys was employed as cashier of a Howard Johnson Restaurant at Lawrence, Kansas, and had just been promoted to the position of assistant manager and was to have soon been in training for that position. Her husband Dave, is employed at the Sunflower Army Ammunition Plant in Lawrence, Kansas. Gladys had been also employed there from 1966 to 1971.

Although Gladys was a Kansan by birth, her paternal lines trace through Barren County, Ky. Her 4th great grandfather, Joseph Lee, was born before 1731 in Virginia and died in Barren County, where he had immigrated in the late 1700's or early 1800's. A child of Joseph's Henry Lee was born 1758 in Southampton County, Va., and died in Barren County, Ky. He had married Elizabeth Cox Maddox who was born 1787 in Maryland. Their son, Henry J Lee Jr was born 28 Sept 1815 in Kentucky and died in Barren Co Ky 9 Sept 1875. He had married Mary Thomas, born March 14, 1818, the daughter of Sarah E (Mullinnex) and Ephriam D Thomas. Thomas Jefferson Lee was a child of Henry J and Mary, who was born Nov 4, 1836 at Tracy, Barren Co Ky. He had married Phebe Williams, born Dec 31, 1834, the daughter of Rosea Lane and Benjamin Williams, also of Allen and Barren Counties. Thomas and Phebe were the parents of Joseph Lewis Lee, who with Barbara Wilmet Kimrey were the parents of Harvey Clayton Lee, the father of Gladys. The maternal line of Gladys runs through the following families: Larkey, Weir, Barber, Cooper, Stout, Jackson, Blackley and McClure, of Missouri, Illinois, Kansas Ohio, and Virginia.

Our society will be ever grateful for our association with Gladys, truly appreciating the many kind things she has done for us, one of the most recent being the indexing of all our quarterlies from 1973 to the present year. She was such a vibrant, active person deeply involved with her home as well as her many other activities. She had published several genealogical books which have been advertised by us. She never left any effort half done and lived her life to the fullest. She will be missed greatly by us, and we shall remember her with love.

Robert Pedigo (Peregoy) was born Ca 1726 in Maryland. His brother, Edward was born Ca 1730 in Maryland. They were the youngest sons of Henry Peregoy who died in Frederick County, Virginia in 1765. Only the descendants of Robert and Edward used the Pedigo version of the name.

Edward Pedigo and most of his children came to Barren County, Kentucky in the years between 1805 and 1810. Edward had lived in Patrick County, Virginia. Robert Pedigo lived in the north east part of Henry County where he owned much land. He died in Henry County, in late 1821 or 1822.

The subject of this paper is John Pedigo who was born October 14, 1788 in Va. John and his wife, Amy Neblett Pedigo, came to Barren County, Ky. in 1841. When he first paid tax in Barren County, he was referred to as Virginia John. From my observation of family charts, it appears that most researchers have listed John Pedigo as a son of Edward Pedigo the Revolutionary War Soldier.

My great grand mother, Ann Williams Pedigo, was the second child born to John and Amy. She married John Henry Norris, son of Samuel Norris and Elizabeth Pedigo. The descendants of John H. Norris and Ann Pedigo Norris have a different version of the history of John Pedigo. Our family charts list John as a son of Joseph Pedigo of Henry County, Virginia. Joseph was a son of Robert Pedigo. The intent of this paper is to show our reasons for believing that we are descendants of Robert Pedigo rather than Edward.

While family lore cannot be accepted as fact, it can be an excellent guide in looking for proof. The following would be classified as lore. John Calvin Norris, son of John Norris and Ann Pedigo Norris, removed from Kentucky to Texas in 1881. He did not marry until 1906 and he died in 1919. Following the death of John Calvin, his widow wrote to his relatives in Ky. and inquired about the heritage. Rosa Norris, wife of Virgil R. Norris, wrote to Helen Norris and related the information about Edward Pedigo. She said we could not join the patriotic societies as we did not descend from Edward. She said that John Pedigo was a grandson of Robert Pedigo. Rosa recalled the old folks talking and she believed John was a son of Joseph.

The youngest child of John and Amy Pedigo was Calvin Fountain. John gave his land to Calvin in return for Calvin looking after them in their old age. In 1953, I corresponded with an older daughter of Calvin's who lived in Indiana. She had many memories of her grandmother. She recalled hearing her grandmother say that the family came to Kentucky when their son Joseph Oliver was a toddler. She also informed me that John and Amy were buried on the back row of the Ford Cemetery in Metcalfe County. Their graves are near the graves of Calvin and his first wife.

Robert Pedigo owned large amounts of land on Leatherwood and Beaver Creeks in Henry County. He had sold some land but still had about 1700 acres when he died. There are a number of deeds in Henry County which name Robert's heirs. The deeds are in Deed Book 9 starting on page 299 and ending on page 308. I have selected one deed because it reveals the fact that the mother of the heirs was still living. The deed follows:

Henry County, Virginia - Deed Book 9, pages 300-301

This Indenture made this day of January eighteen hundred twenty-three between Robert Pedigo, Elijah Pedigo, Moses Pedigo, Henry Pedigo, Phoebe Watson, John Davis, Gabriel Murphy, William Parsley; Davis, Murphy and Parsley whose wives are daughters and legatees of Robert Pedigo deceased by their attorney Moses Pedigo; David Elkins and Mary his wife also legatee of the said Robert Pedigo deceased of the one part and Joseph Pedigo of the county of Henry and state of Virginia of the second part. The within deed from Robert Pedigo, Elijah Pedigo, Henry Pedigo, Moses Pedigo, Mary Elkins and Moses Pedigo attorney in fact for Phoebe Watson, John Davis, Gabriel Murphy and William Parsley all heirs at law of Robert Pedigo deceased unto Joseph Pedigo was acknowledged as the act and deed of the parties respectively and admitted to record. Testee: W. Redd, CHCC

The above deed has shown that Robert Pedigo did have a son named Joseph. Joseph was a Baptist Minister. In Henry County Court Order Book Vol. 6, page 178, there is an entry where Joseph obtained a license to perform marriages. This was in 1794. In later years, Joseph was identified as a Baptist Minister when he paid his taxes. Joseph gave his land to his children for love and affection and one dollar. One such deed in 1836 transferred land to his son John. The deed follows:

Henry County, Virginia - Deed Book 11, page 547:

Know all men by these presents that I Joseph Pedigo Sr. of the County of Henry and State of Virginia for and in consideration of the natural love and good will and affection I bear toward my beloved son John Pedigo and for the further consideration of one dollar to me in hand paid before the executing and delivery of these presents the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged to be given and granted and by these presents do give and grant unto the said John Pedigo his heirs, executors, administrators and assignees. To him the said John Pedigo his heirs, executors, administrators and assignees against the claim or claims of him the said Joseph Pedigo Sr. his executors, administrators or assignees or the claim or claims of all and every person or persons whatsoever and will warrant and forever defend the right and title by these presents. In witness whereof I have put my hand and seal this 12th day of June in the year of 1836.

"Joseph Pedigo produced in court his certificate of ordination and being in communion with the Baptist Society whereupon license is granted him to solemnize marriages and with Robert Stockton and Henry Clark his sureties entered into bond and acknowledged the same agreeable to ______ of assembly in that ____ is provided."

The above deed does show that Joseph had a son named John. In order to clear the title to land, there is a deed which names the heirs of Joseph Pedigo. His sons Lewis and Joseph Jr. remained in Henry County in 1850. His son William was in Montgomery County, Va. This deed follows:

Henry County, Virginia - Deed Book 12, page 198-

This Indenture made and entered into this 14th day of August in the year 1839, between Benjamin Barrow, John Pedigo, Joseph Pedigo, Lewis Pedigo, William B. Pedigo, Nancy Pedigo, Mary Pedigo and Michael Griggs of the first part and Elisha Arnold Jr. of the second part. Witnesseth that whereas John D. Arnold by deed duly admitted to record in Henry County Court Clerks office conveyed in trust to Benjamin Barrow a certain tract of land lying in Henry County containing by survey eighty acres be the same more or less and bounded as follows...Beginning on the main road where Elisha Arnold Sr.'s line crosses said road thence with the road south 64 west 68 poles thence south 45 west 18 poles to Morris' line on said road thence south 68 east 27 poles to a maple corner on the head of a branch thence down the branch as it meanders 38 east 50 poles to a sorrel wood corner thence south 70 east 26 poles to a branch thence south

Arnold in the penalty of one thousand dollars conditioned for the making a good title to the said land and the said Joseph Pedigo Sr. (without making said conveyance) departed this life in consequence of which the legal title to said land descended to and now rests in the said John Pedigo, Joseph Pedigo, Lewis Pedigo, William B. Pedigo, Nancy Pedigo, Mary Pedigo and Michael Griggs. Now therefore this indenture witnesseth that for and in consideration of the premises the said Benjamin Barrow, John Pedigo, Joseph Pedigo, Lewis Pedigo, William B. Pedigo, Nancy Pedigo, Mary Pedigo and Michael Griggs have given granted bargained and sold and by these presents do give grant bargain and sell unto the said Elisha Arnold Jr. his heirs and assigns forever the said above tract of land with the appurtenances and they the said John Pedigo, Joseph Pedigo, Lewis Pedigo, William B. John Pedigo first purchased land in Henry County in 1817. He lived alone in 1820. The census that year listed his age as between 26 and 45 years. In the 1820 Barren County, Ky. census, there was a John Pedigo Sr. whose age was given as over 45 years. John married Amy Neblett September 2, 1824 in Franklin County, Va. The Neblett family lived on Snow Creek in south east Franklin County which was near where the Robert Pedigo family lived. On April 14, 1841, John Pedigo and Amy his wife sold all of their land as one tract. Some of the boundaries are the same as the boundaries which were listed when Joseph gave land to John. The deed follows:

The foregoing deed of conveyance from John Pedigo to William Lester was acknowledged and admitted to record.

Teste: Anthony M. Dupuy, clerk

I do not question that Edward Pedigo had a son named John. I do believe that the John Pedigo Sr. of the 1820 Barren County census needs to be investigated. He may have been the John Pedigo who married Frances Hill in 1810. John and Frances Pedigo sold their Barren County land to Edward Pedigo in 1827. I have no further information on that John. Edward Pedigo who bought the land soon afterward moved to Des Moines County, Iowa.

With the above information, descendants of John and Amy Pedigo can study the other proofs given to them and make a choice for themselves as to how they wish to list their family line. I have been unable to locate those other proofs but some reader may have that information.

As a matter of interest, I am listing the will of Henry Perego of Virginia. This will contains no proof that Robert and Edward were sons of Henry.

One of Nemaha County's Historic Characters

Came to This State When the Foundation of its Civilization Was Being Laid and Was One of the Last of the Old Race of Pioneers

Peter Whitlow is dead. He was one of the last of a band of pioneers who helped to lay the foundation of Nebraska's civilization and his passing reminds us that the ranks of the old guard are thinning out very rapidly.

Peter Whitlow died at the home of his son, Charles Whitlow, on the old family farm, Saturday morning, January 7, 1905, aged 83 years, 2 months and 3 days. He was born in Barren county, Ky., Nov. 4, 1821 and in 1829 moved with his parents to Cass county, Ill. In 1843 he was married to Malinda Overton and moved to this county in 1854, settling on a farm across the Nemaha, the one now occupied by John Leeper, the right of which was purchased in early days by Samuel Leeper. After the sale of the right the deceased located on the farm on which he died. He moved with his wife to this city about twelve years ago.

Besides his wife, nine children, all living, forty five grandchildren survive him. The children are Mrs. Mary Reimers, Perry Whitlow, Mrs. Louise Bymm, Charles Whitlow, all of this city; Amos Whitlow of Yam Hill, Oregon; Theodore Whitlow of Angel's Camp, Cal.; Emma Durrell of Arcadia, Nev.; Alice McLaughlin of Angel's Camp, Cal.; and Dan Whitlow of this city, Mrs. Lillian Lockwood, another daughter died 21 years ago.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lutheran church in this city and was very largely attended. Rev. Dieffenbach preached a very eloquent and touching sermon. The interment was at Sheridan cemetery.

Peter Whitlow came of pioneer stock. His ancestors were among the first colonists of Virginia and when the nineteenth century was young they crossed the Allegheny mountains and helped to wrest Kentucky, "the dark and bloody ground" from the blood thirsty Indians. They fought side by side with Indian Bill Hardin, followed the fortunes of the new republic in the war of 1812, helped to put down Proctors redskins in the battle of the River Rasin, assisted in stamping out the Aaron Burr conspiracy and then gave to their native land in the war with Mexico. They were of sturdy blood and when Kentucky became a little crowded they blazed the trail that led to Illinois, crossed the Ohio into Illinois and finally on to Nebraska, when the Indian and the buffalo were almost the undisputed monarchs of all they surveyed.

Generations of pioneer blood flowed in Peter Whitlow's veins and he was the last of his line. Rough in his ways, given to the unconventionalities that characterized his boisterous, courageous sires, he possessed all their homely virtues. All the old settlers can remember his rough greeting, when he was in his prime, "My name is Peter Whitlow! I live across the Nemaha! My fighting weight is 145 pounds," a relic of the days when on Kentucky's old training grounds on general muster days a man had to show his physical worth by daring all comers to a rough and tumble fight for friendship's sake.

Peter Whitlow had no fine theories of religion. All who knew him said he was a fine neighbor and an honest man. He, when questioned during declining days, on matters of religion would declare: "I believe in the Saviour and I believe that all men will be saved."

To the last he was the same old, vital, unconquerable spirit that all his earlier friends knew. He was conscious up the moment that the messenger of peace came and passed away as calmly as a child going to sleep.

Peter Whitlow saw service in the Union army when the war broke out. He enlisted in the First Nebraska Cavalry serving in the army of the west and the campaign against the Sioux. He had his faults as all men have but they hurt no one as much as himself. Above all things else he was an honest man and this alone is a priceless heritage to leave his children.
