AMERICAN BUSINESS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION
KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER
Bowling Green, Kentucky

REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in Heaven's name, WORK for him. If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him; speak well of him; stand by him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage - resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why.

PREZ SEZ

"Soaring into '70" is still racing toward its goal with all systems check. All committee chairmen have been selected; they have their committees set up and things have been getting off to a real blast. Thanks to each of you who have been so helpful and cooperative in the blast off for 1970-71.

October begins our Perfect Attendance Contest. Please note your Captain and help her by making October, November, and December really bang-up attendance months.

October 16, 17, and 18 were big days for our Woman of the Year and delegate to the national convention, Ann Bays. She was accompanied by Anna Sue Jackson, alternate delegate and the following members: Jean Fulkerson, Florence Perkins, and Bobbie Cardwell.

Please keep this copy of your "Colonelette" in the top pigeon hole of your desk for reference in the future. It contains names of the Executive Board, Committee Chairmen, Lists of hostesses, and other information which you will want to refer to often.

We are happy to welcome Charlotte Adams, installed at our September meeting. Charlotte is sophomore English teacher at Bowling Green High School and was sponsored by our other newest member, her stepdaughter, Sally Parr. GREAT GOING SALLY!

By now all of you have seen our Boss Night picture in Women In Business. I hope many of you have acknowledged our appreciation to Mr. Bufton and Mrs. Barrett.

MISS JANE BARTON: OUTSTANDING MISS TEENAGER
OF AMERICA-----Guest Speaker this Month

Jane is one of the two "Outstanding Teenagers of America" selected in June of this year. She was recommended for the honor by faculty members at Middlesboro High School, Middlesboro, Kentucky. She was named "Outstanding Miss Teenager of Kentucky" in state competition, advancing into the national competition. From a field of more than 10,000 competitors, Jane became a national winner, receiving a $1,000 scholarship and a trophy from the Outstanding Americans Foundation.

Since her selection this summer, Jane has attended a UNESCO convention in San Francisco and has spent six weeks touring France, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, and Holland. Since Jane is a biology major, two weeks were allotted to biology studies in the European countries.

Bowling Green's Educational Outlook - Dr. James Graham,
Superintendent of the Bowling Green Public Schools
(Guest Speaker for the September Meeting)

In speaking to our chapter, Dr. Graham made the following remarks about education in our area.

Everyone agrees that education is the answer to our problems today. But the big question is, how do we make the course content pertinent to today's world? How do we make it interesting and related to everyday life NOW?

Since 60 percent of the students do not go to college, how are we going to help them work into America's labor force? According to Dr. Graham, vocational schools are steps in the right direction. Construction has begun on a vocational addition to the new high school on Rockingham Lane.

There is a very definite need for positive publicity or communication between the school community and the local community. Each side needs to tell one another of its needs. Also the schools need to make progress reports to the American people.
