PURPOSE

The purpose of the American Business Women's Association shall be to evaluate the social and business standards of women in business by uniting them nationally for training designed to make them efficient, more considerate and more cooperative toward their work, their employer, and their employer's customers, thereby increasing their ability, success and happiness.

ABWA

REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in heaven's name, WORK for him. If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him; speak well of him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage-resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT!

The Spotlight is on Brenda Williams. Brenda has been with ABWA for seven years with perfect attendance. She has definitely been a busy girl during her association with ABWA.

Brenda is Secretary and Receptionist at Holderfield and Pinkerton, Inc. She has just moved to 1710 Glendale. Brenda's birthday is this month on October 11. She is a Methodist and attends church at First United in Scottsville.

Brenda has been President and Recording Secretary of our chapter, and has served chairmanship on the Bulletin Committee for two years, Educational Projects for two years, Membership Committee for two years, Program for one year, and Publicity for one year. She has also been on Auditing Committee two years, Nominating Committee three years, and Woman of the Year for one year, all of which she has served as chairman.

Brenda has received many recognitions including Woman of the Year in 1969, and the Merit Award. She was a delegate to the National Convention in Jacksonville, and to the District Convention in Louisville.

When asked about what she thought about ABWA, she said she has enjoyed herself with her affiliation with ABWA, and she has learned a lot from the experiences of others.

Brenda truly deserves being in the Spotlight, don't you agree?

WELCOME

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome Deloris Gaddie, who was installed at our September meeting.

Deloris who is a teacher at the Bowling Green Business College is sponsored by Pat Glasscock. She is the wife of Donald Gaddie. Deloris who has little time for hobbies, does like cooking and sewing. She lives at 431 Skyline Park. Her telephone number at home is 843-1514, and at school she can be reached at 842-6556. January 15th. is Deloris' birthday.

We were also happy to have Mary Fugate, a friend of Barbara Farley's, as a guest at our September meeting.

LITTLE MR. HILLTOPPER

The Little Mr. Hilltopper can only be called a great success. The support of the business firms and individuals have been outstanding.

I would also like to thank all the ABWA members that helped to make the contest so successful. The net profit was $337.22.

As chairman of the contest for next year, I am looking forward for even greater success.

WORKING TOGETHER

All have a share in the beauty,
All have a part in the plan.
What does it matter what duty
Falls to the lot of man?
Someone has blended the plaster,
And someone has carried the stone;
Neither the man nor the Master
Ever has build alone.
Making a roof from the weather,
Or building a house for the King
Only by working together
Have men accomplished a thing.

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

Fall is in the air and it is time for the National Convention in Anaheim, California. Anna Sue, Jean, and myself are making the trip, and wish all of you were coming along with us. We are planning a great time. Anna Sue will have a complete report at our next meeting.

We wish to welcome our new member, Deloris G. Gaddie, who was installed during our September meeting. Mary Fugate will be installed at the October meeting. Let's all give these new members a warm welcome!

Our perfect attendance starts this month, and we all should put forth a little extra effort to have 100% attendance. Remember the losers entertain the winners.

JoAn Stacker did a wonderful job with our "Little Mister Hilltopper", which was a big success. Our Financial Forum will be our next Ways and Means project, so let's all put our best foot forward and have another great project.

PERFECT ATTENDANCE CONTEST

Remember-the perfect attendance contest commences with the October dinner meeting!

The contest will be for three consecutive months-October, November, and December.

The chapter meeting consists of two equally important parts--the dinner meeting and the business meeting. To be counted present, members should attend both portions of the meeting.

Points are based on the following:

- | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 1. Present at monthly meeting | 5 |
| 2. On time at monthly meeting | 3 |
| 3. Wearing ABWA pin properly | 4 |
| 4. Sponsoring new member | 10 |
| 5. Reading "Women in Business" | 3 |
| 6. Chapter dues currently paid in advance | 5 |
| 7. Sitting next to a different person than at previous meeting | 5 |

Captains encourage your team members to meet the above qualifications. Team captains are reminded to select a name and emblem for your team before the October meeting. If you have any questions, please call me at 842-2411 or 842-8811. Let's have 100% Perfect Attendance!

BRICKBATS & BOUQUETS

Brickbats go to Maxine Strickland, she hasn't ordered that ABWA pin yet. Remember that red string on your left hand to remind you that you forgot.

Bonquets go to Pres. Florence Perkins, she got a keen new hairdo! Makes you think of Perky instead of Perkins. Believe you, what Pres-Says makes sense most of the time.

Brickbats go to Barbara Farley. I hear she works ABWA when the boss is away. When he comes in, she smiles and says, "I always did believe in pleasure before business".

Bonquets go to Pat Glasscock. She's going to be a mom in February. She has been so busy in ABWA, she absent-mindedly answered to a member who asked, "Pat when is the baby due?" Pat looked up and said, "Oh, next Tuesday night at the Holiday-Inn".

Brickbats go to Estelle Hollaway, she cuts up at our meeting. The members say she has missed her calling. She's a comic at heart. I hear Bob Hope is going to sign her up for his show. She can ad-lib with the best.

Bonquets go to all new members, until I get the scoop on you. This column is like Candid Camera, smile, you may be next!

COMMITTEE OF THE MONTH

Contact Committee

The Contact Committee Chairman shall call a meeting of her committee within two weeks after its appointment. It shall be the duty of this committee to contact all chapter members at least one week before each monthly meeting or social activity, notifying them of the time, place, and date of the meeting. This will be done either by postcard or individual telephone call, whichever method is desirable.

This committee shall work in co-operation with the Program Committee and the Social Committee in planning its activities.

The Contact Committee is a special committee and shall meet whenever its chairman deems it necessary. The Vice President shall be the sponsor of this committee.

INVOCATION

Lord, in the quiet of this evening hour,
We come to Thee for wisdom, and for power;
To view Thy world through only loved-filled
Eyes;
To grow in understanding; to be wise
And sure to see Thy guiding light; and thus
To know each other as Thou knowest us.

Amen

BENEDICATION

O Guiding Spirit, Guardian of our days,
Be with us as we go our separate ways,
Help us to feel those thoughts that lift
And bless,
To know a closer bond of friendliness;
To see Thy beauty always--every day,
Translated into living--this we pray.

Amen
