TRADITION

In the early colonial days there were two (some say three) of the Bates Brothers come from England to the American Colonies and settled in Massachusetts and Virginia. They were spoken of as Scotch-Irish descent. They came to this country in 1635 on the steamship Elizabeth and settled at Hingham, near Plymouth Rock, Massachusetts. This is the tradition of ex-Governor John L. Bates of Boston.

There were two brothers come from North England to America. One settled in Massachusetts, and the other in Virginia, in the early colonial days. This is the tradition as given by James Polk Bates of Phoenix, Arizona. Nearly all the Bates of this line are Methodist in belief and many Methodist ministers are in the list.

It is my purpose here to try and account for some of the Virginia line of Bates, and I shall first take up the "Tradition" which I have gathered from various ones (mostly from J. P. Bates of Phoenix, Ariz.) and harmonize the same as best I can. We will call our Great Grandfather William (or Thomas) Bates, as Generation No. 1. He was married to a widow lady named Duncan; her maiden name was Hubbard (and was from the parent stock of Virginia Hubbards, from which sprang ex-Governor Dick Hubbard of Texas). She had one son by her first husband, i.e., Bennett Duncan, who died (from suffocation) in the battle of Montemont in the Revolutionary War. There were born to William (or Thomas) Bates and Mrs. Duncan five sons and four daughters, which we call the Second Generation, to-wit: William, Thomas, Ruben, Lewis and James A. Bates. The girls we have not been able to trace. Except one of them married a Mr. Waterson of the District of Columbia, who is the mother of Colonel Henry Waterson of Louisville, Kentucky.

William Bates served through the Revolutionary War and remained at New York until the British evacuated the city and returned to his home in Virginia about 1783, where he raised a large family and died at a ripe old age, about 1838. Thomas Bates married into a North Carolina family, and with them went with Daniel Boone to Kentucky and settled on the Kentucky River, near Frankfort. Ruben Bates married a Miss Nancy Edmonds, whose father was a large slave holder and planter, and lived on the James River below Richmond, Va. Ruben Bates was an architect and Nancy Edmonds, born December 14, 1784, died November 25, 1867.

He married Nancy Edmonds in Virginia, November 15, 1801. He moved to Barren County, Kentucky, in 1820, and settled near old Rocky Hill. There were born to them the following children, which we call the Third Generation:

William Edmond Bates, Sr., was a Methodist preacher, and went with the M.E. Church (South) in the Cape May division of the church in 1845. Came to Texas in 1851, and joined the Trinity Conference, and was a pioneer circuit rider in Northwest Texas. Eugene T. Bates, his son, has spent his days in the itinerary since 1868, and is now a superannuate, living at Denton, Texas, and there has been about six other Methodist preachers in the line and nearly all have been and are now Methodists, hence you will find quite a number of "John Wesleys" namesakes.

This data has been compiled by the undersigned, and is as accurate as he could make it. The tradition of the Bates family I have found to agree very well on essentials but there is bound to have crept in some errors, as the time covered is about 150 years. I shall esteem it a great favor to me to hear from any one of the old Virginia line, giving as much of the history and tradition of their line of the family as they may have at their command. I shall publish 500 copies of this pamphlet for distribution among those interested, and would suggest that they be attached to the "Family Bible" for the benefit of future generations. And to those to whom this present may come, Greeting. This is my letter to you. Hoping that you may live and die a Christian and that we all shall "meet beyond the beautiful river" and "Rest under the shade of the trees."

Sincerely, Your Kinsman,

ED. F. BATES,
Denton, Texas.

COMMISSIONER'S REPORT - BELL'S WAREHOUSE

In obedience to an Order of Barren County Court bearing date May Term 1816, we have laid off two acres of land agreeably to the above plat for the purpose of a Tobacco warehouse on the lands of Sarah Bell, the whole of the two acres being out of the reach of any high water ever known from the river or creek.

December 16, 1816
/s/ Hardin Davis

The plat gave the location of the two acres in a triangle formed where Peter's Creeks empties into Big Barren River. The ground next to the river and creek was shown as low and flat, with a high bluff overlooking the waters. The warehouse was to be set back from the edge of the bluff, with the nearest road to the location being the old State road.

INSPECTOR'S REPORT

To the Worshipful Court of Barren County at their October term 1819. The Inspectors of Tobacco at Bell's warehouse beg leave to report: That the number of hogsheads received in the last year amount to about 150. And that they deem the following repairs and improvements indispensably necessary VIZ: One additional room about twenty feet square built on posts or forks with a floor of Puncheons or Slab for the purpose of Weighing & prizeing in.

The doors and roof of the present house must be repaired, it having a Common Cabbin roof is Subject to leak & from the quantity of leaves and trash fallen from the adjacent trees which have lodged on it is much more subject to danger from fire. We are of the opinion the buildings with these repairs will be sufficient for the reception of Tobacco for the present.

By the Act of Assembly approved 10th of February 1798, Section 7th, each Justice is Subject to a fine of $30. for failing or refusing to have the necessary repairs &C to all Publick Warehouses. Same Act Section 15th the Court is required to appoint Pickers of Tobacco (none have been heretofore appointed). The Act approved 22nd December 1803, Section 2 describes the necessary buildings, which in all cases requires the buildings to be covered with Shingles plank &C well nailed on. The Act of 1798 requires that the Court shall at least once a year appoint one or more of their body to examine the Scales & Weights.

John Benedict bought a 120 acre farm on Linnville Creek in what became Rockingham County, Virginia. He signed the deed from Michael and Catherine Warren the 21 November 1775. (Augusta Co, Va. Deeds Bk 21, page 222.)

Elijah Mansfield, a son of William and Mary Magdalen Mansfield was born in what became Rockingham County, Virginia, 13 June 1775. When Elijah was 4 years old, he was brought to Kentucky by his parents.

William Mansfield brought his family to Kentucky sometime during the late summer or early fall of 1779. Family tradition is that he had 7 sons. We can account for 5 - John, James, William, Elijah and Jesse. Tradition also is that all 7 sons did not come to Kentucky with William and Mary Magdalen. About 50 years later 2 other Mansfield families came to Kentucky and settled at Woodsonville in Hart County for a time at least. Isaac and John appear in the Hart County 1830 Census. A careful study of the 1830, 1840, 1850 and succeeding census records give strong evidence that these 2 men may be the other 2 sons. Several of the brothers named their sons Isaac and Jesse. And these names appear in succeeding generations. Isaac Mansfield left Hart County some time after 1830 and moved to Barren County, Kentucky where he made a will in 1840.

John Benedict was in the Battle of King's Mountain 1780. He next appears in Lincoln County, Kentucky where he is listed in the Lincoln County Militia.

John Benedict was in the Lincoln County Regiment commanded by Col. Benjamin Logan. The commanding officers of this regiment were Captain John Boyle and Major Sergeant Hugh McGary. They served in this regiment 18 July to 27 August 1782. The battle of the Blue Licks (the last battle of the Revolutionary War) was fought during this period of service. When this regiment was called on duty they were commanded to range the frontier from Carpenter's Bridge to Estill's Station.

Sometime between November 1783 and April 1789, William Mansfield died and his widow Mary Magdalen had married John Benedict. All our efforts to date have failed to locate their marriage bond.

In all probability the Mansfields and Benedicts had known each other in Virginia.

THE LINVILLE CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH
Some Interesting Abstracts
By: Marietta Mansfield

The Linvill Creek Baptist Church Records of Rockingham County, Virginia, 1756-1844 are on microfilm, Salt Lake City, Utah, by the Church of the Latter Day Saints. I read these records with the hope of finding further Benedict-Mansfield information. This hope was not realized, however, I want to share some interesting abstracts from these records. The Linvill Creek Baptist Church was located near the present village of Singer's Glen.

In a letter written by Henry W. Scarbough addressed to the Pennsylvania Genealogical Society, 1300 Locust St., Philadelphia, Pa., which he sent with the Church Record book are some interesting facts. Mr. Scarbough points out that the settlers from Virginia brought their own membership certificates with them, most of these certificates coming from Montgomery Baptist Church at Montgomery Township, then Philadelphia, now Montgomery County, Pennsylvania; the New Britain Township, Bucks Co., Pa., and Southampton Baptist Church in that township, Bucks County, Pa.

The Hart family became prominent in Rockingham County, Virginia. The Linvill Creek Church book states that it admitted several Quakers into its membership. The Allens and Bonds were Quakers.

Mr. Scarbough mentions the Henry Spear case vs John Craig. He also states that John Lincoln, an ancestor of Abraham Lincoln, settled on Linvill Creek. He further states that Mordecai Lincoln, the father of the Virginia Lincolns was buried at the Exter Monthly Meeting Burial Grounds in Berks Co., Pa. Also some of Mordecai Lincoln's children were married there.

Other names of interest in that record book include Jonathan Newman, Martha, Mary and Samuel Newman, Ozbon/Osburn- Elizabeth, Jeremiah, Josiah & Mary; Thomas- David, Evan, James, John and Elizabeth; Catherine and Timothy Warren.

The covenant was signed by: John Alderson and Jane Alderson, Samuel and Martha Newman at its first constitution; John Thomas was baptized before the said constitution, and his brother James Thomas the day after the constitution. Samuel Newman was called to be the deacon after the communion service.

Samuel Newman and his wife, being members of the Montgomery Church in the County of Montgomery, Pa., was the first member of any Baptist Church that settled here. John Harrison being convinced that he (Samuel Newman) was settled in that belief, Samuel Newman went to New York, Oyster Bay, for baptism by immersion.

The second member was Rees Thomas of Linvill Creek; and the next member was Mary Newman, the wife of Jonathan Newman, Southampton Baptist Church, Bucks Co., Pa.

Rev. John Alderson was the minister.

After the church celebrated its 8th Communion service at the end of the summer of 1759, Sept 22 [Saturday], their differences were settled in a meeting. Sunday the 23rd, they celebrated the Lord's Supper. Two new members were added - Jeremiah Ozbon and Mary Ozbon his wife. All members were present but 2, one was away, and 1 was defiant.

Because the small-pox raged, the church did not meet again until the 10th of August 1760.

The 4th Sabbath of May 1761 eight persons were baptized; among them John Ozbon & his wife Elizabeth; Sarah Thomas the wife of James Thomas.

1763 the male members subscribed 20 shillings for the work of the church. Widows and heads of families each 10 shillings, while others 12 pounds, five shillings.

Rev. David Thomas, a minister in Fauquier County, Virginia, became a part of the church.

20 April 1765, the church was called together to consult over it's affairs. And as Samuel Newman & his wife Martha were moving to farne parts of North or South Carolina, they sued for letters of dismisal, which were granted.

John Ozbon was called from trial of Ruling Elder to fill that office.

Bro. Jeremiah Ozburn was a delegate of the church to a meeting August 1773.

Mordecai Lincoln, The Old Quaker
And Some Of His Descendants

By: Marietta Mansfield

Mordecai Lincoln, referred to by Abraham Lincoln as the Old Quaker, is buried at the Exter Meeting House, Berks County, Penn. His son John Lincoln settled on Linvill Creek in what became Rockingham County, Virginia. He gave more than 200 acres of land in Virginia to his son Abraham. Abraham Lincoln sold the Virginia farm and moved to Kentucky 1784. He was killed by the Indians when his son Thomas was 9 years old.

Thomas Lincoln married Nancy Hanks 1806 at Harrodsburg, in Mercer County, Kentucky. They moved to Sinking Springs on Nolyn Creek near Hodgenville, Ky., where their son Abraham was born 12 February 1809. Thomas and Nancy Hanks Lincoln left their Sinking Springs home on Nolyn Creek 1813, and moved to Knob Creek. Abe was 4 and his sister Sarah was 2. They remained at their Knob Creek home 3½ years.

In 1816 Tom lost his farm and moved his family to Pidgen Creek, Indiana.

1818 Nancy Hanks Lincoln died of milk fever when Abe was 9. That year also Mary Ann Todd was born to Elizabeth Parker and Robert Todd, Lexington, Kentucky.

1819, Thomas Lincoln returned to Elizabethtown to marry his childhood friend Sarah Bush Johnston. Sarah had a great influence upon the young Abe, so much that he said to her, "All that I am, and all that I ever expect to be, I owe to my angel Mother."

1830, the Lincoln family moved from Indiana to settle on Sangamon River, Decatur, Illinois. Six years later Abe was licensed to practice law.

Nov 4, 1842, Abe and Mary Todd were married. Their son Robert was born the next year, 1843, in the month of August. He was their only son to reach adulthood. Robert married a girl named Mary. He died July 26, 1926.
