

1920

UA94/6/1 To Doctor Cherry

Carman

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/stu_alum_papers

Recommended Citation

Carman, "UA94/6/1 To Doctor Cherry" (1920). Student/Alumni Personal Papers. Paper 58.
http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/stu_alum_papers/58

This Poem is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in Student/Alumni Personal Papers by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.

TO DOCTOR CHERRY

(By Mrs. Garman)

It must be sweet at eventide
To see a day's work done,
But sweeter still to see the years
That through a lifetime run,
And see the deeds to others done
Of kindness and of cheer,
Which aided someone on his way,
And light'ned toil and care.

Oh, Normal! thou hast such a one,
Who givest all for thee,
That boys and girls from places far
May happy be and free -
Yes, free from sorrow and from care,
Prepared to lend a hand
To help another brother on,
And make a better land.

No trumpet's blast his vict'ries tell;
No marching feet make sound;
But better still within our hearts
Loving devotion 's found,
When earthly years have passed and gone,
The world will know him then;
And praise him with its silent
heart,
For making better men.

This man 's our noble President,
The active and the bold,
To all he gives his service good;
To us he gives his soul.
May life's road yet be long for him,
We need his service, sore;
And when he passes from our sight,
We'll love him more and more!