The Council of Academic Deans
October 28, 1968

The Council of Academic Deans met in Dr. Cravens' office at 1:30 p.m., Monday, October 28, 1968. All deans were present.

The following items of business were considered:

I. Dr. Cravens announced that the Attorney General's opinion on the Western-Kentucky Southern agreement had been received, and called attention to President Thompson's press statement.

II. Composition of University Committees: Dr. Cravens asked about student participation on the committees. Dr. Jenkins reported that student reaction in the College of Commerce was most enthusiastic. Dr. Cravens asked the other deans to keep the Council informed as to reaction. Next Dr. Cravens asked the deans for their advice on appointments to the University-wide committees of the Academic Council. The following choices were agreed upon:

- Arts and Sciences Curriculum Committee: Dr. Donald Bailey and Dr. Kenneth Clarke
- Special Studies Curriculum Committee: Dr. Donald Wendt and Dr. William Stroube
- Teacher Education Committee: Dr. Arvin Blome (Dr. Blome was also designated as a choice for the Graduate Council.)
- Terminal Studies Committee: Dr. Hollie Sharpe and Dr. Doug Humphrey

Dr. Cravens indicated that he would ask that the name of this committee be changed to Associate Degree Curriculum Committee. Dr. Hourigan suggested that a representative from the College of Liberal Arts be added and there being no objections this was approved.

It was agreed to consider revision of the membership of the Teacher Education Committee at the next meeting.

III. Composition of ad hoc committees of the Academic Council: The following membership was agreed to for these committees:
