ANNUAL SING DRAWING NEAR

"Jesus Is Mine" *****

Have you ever wanted to meet a songwriter? Well let me introduce you to Nell Stout Cook of Portland, Tennessee. She is the author of the popular song, "Jesus Is Mine", recorded by many professional artists.

As I talked with Nell I could truly see

Bethlehem Revival

A revival will begin at the Bethlehem Baptist Church May 12. with Rev. Gary Irvin, Rev. David South and Rev. Eddie Hubbard.

The McCubbins Family will be singing. The church is located in Green Co. Everyone is cordially invited to come and participate.

A wonderful revival was reported there last fall and another one is expected this spring.

See you May 12th at Bethlehem.
Annette McCubbins
Editor of G.R.O.

how and why she wrote "Jesus Is Mine". When Nell was 16 years old she and Walley Fowler wrote this song. The first group to record it was Dac Utley and the Smile A While Quartet. At that time the song did not become popular. Thirty years later it suddenly became a hit and is now a favorite of many.

Nell has been around Gospel Music all of her life. She began at an early age of three. Her family has a history of music. She also began playing the piano for a family group at an early age. Nell also works at the newspaper office at Portland and loves her work. (I should have gotten her to write this article).

Nell and her family are active in the church. They attend the Hollis Chapel Baptist Church where Nell is the church pianist and her husband serves as a deacon.

"Jesus Is Mine" is the only song Nell has written. It is amazing to me because this one is so great it only seems natural that she should have written more. Nell said that when she and Walley wrote "Jesus Is Mine" that is just how she felt, that Jesus was hers, a true and personal friend.

First Annual Sing For Tributes

The Tributes will celebrate their First Annual Gospel Sing on June 3rd and 4th at Russell Springs, Ky. for more information see Tributes on page 8.

Are you ready for the 6th Annual Sing? This year a lot of plans and work has gone into this event.

The Sixth Annual Gospel Singing will be held at the Horse Cave Tobacco Warehouse No. II on May 5th and 6th. This is sponsored by the Hart Co. Gospel Music Association.

Several talented groups are scheduled to participate. As many as there is coming, one of them will surely be your favorite group.

Some of the groups to attend are The Inspirational IV, The Mellotones, The Cave Landers, Barren River Boys, Dorsey Family, Bill Textor, Gospel Three, Spiritual Five, Gospel Tones, McCubbins Family, Earl & Lorene Norris, The Happy Tones, Healing Waters, Barry Clardy Trio, The Seekers, Edmonton Quartet, Christian Sound, Shipleyaires, Evangels, Bowman Bros, The Waddle Twins, The Boiling Springs Quartet, Harmony Echoes, Victory, and The Tributes. (Refreshments will be served by the Caverna Athletic Club.)

The singing will get underway on Friday May 5th at 7:00 on Saturday May 6th it will begin at 3:00 in the afternoon. A number of door prizes will be given away.

There are plenty of motel and restaurant facilities near by.

There will be no admission charge but a offering will be taken to help pay the expenses of the singing.

If you miss this singing you will have lost out on an opportunity to meet some warm, friendly people.

See you at the May Sing. Bring lawn chairs.

"AN INSPIRATIONAL GOOD FRIDAY"

It certainly was a "good Friday" when the Inspirations dropped by on Good Friday to pay a visit to the folks at Canaanland Music. A good time was had by all as it was a delightful day to sit in the yard and enjoy the fresh spring weather and share the many blessings of the season.

Ronn Huff, arranger and orchestrator of the best selling collection "Alleluia", brings together the music of Stuart Hamblen, Chuck Girard, the Gaithers, Gary S. Paxton and others to create a new recording, "The Eclectic Light Singers."

Just released by Paragon Records, "Eclectic Light" features Huff arrangements performed by some of the West Coast's finest studio singers. The group is backed by superb orchestral work that was arranged and conducted by Huff.

The songs--from the traditional "When We All Get To Heaven" and "Jesus Paid It All" to the contemporary "Sometimes 'Alleluia'" and "Joy Comes In The Morning"--cover a kaleidoscopic spectrum of music. Gary Whitlock

A Weekend With The McCubbins Family

It began on Saturday night when I attended the Hart County Singing Convention. Four local groups were featured with the McCubbins Family as the guest group. After a very enjoyable evening of gospel singing, I spent the night with relatives.

Early the next morning, we began what would be a very long and tiring but spiritually uplifting day.

Our first singing was at Oak Grove Baptist Church, south of Cadiz, Kentucky for the morning worship service. Immediately after the service, we were on our way to Kentucky State Penitentiary, Eddyville.

I thought it was unusual that many of the prisoners we met were christians. You could tell that they were sincere and we were uplifted and encouraged because of the experience.

The prison had a young man that sang and played the guitar. He had written several songs. They also had a group of men that had formed a gospel quartet and they sang for us. They were really good!

Our last stop for the day was with Reverend and Mrs. Marvin Dennison, former residents of Hart County, at Trinity Methodist Church, Princeton, Kentucky. The crowd was not large but there was a very good spirit there that I enjoyed very much.

After the singing, we took down the P.A. System and headed for home. My day ended at 12:00 when I arrived at my home in Bowling Green, Kentucky. The McCubbins Family, however, still had to travel 50 miles before they reached their home in Hart County.

I was tired physically and looking forward to the next couple of days to rest. I knew that the McCubbins Family were not going to get much rest though, because they had to start a revival at Tompkinsville on Monday night.

I didn't really understand what gospel singers went through and I was grateful for the trip and experience and I hope God will continue to bless the McCubbins Family.

To The Editor *****

Dear Gospel Reaching Out.

I enjoy your paper so very much also appreciate the opportunity of having the paper to pass on to others.

Think you are doing a wonderful job in your work and for all the singing groups.

We have had a very bad winter and haven't made many places to sing. We enjoy Gospel singing more than anything. We have a forty-five minute program on WKYR (Burkesville) every Sunday morning. We have a lot of listeners and many are not born again people. Pray for us that we could lead lost souls to Christ.

We hope to have several places to go this summer and look forward to seeing each group of Gospel Reaching Out.

Yours in Christ
Edith Moons and The Gospel Three

Dear Sirs,

I would like to share with you a wonderful experience that I had this weekend.

The Tributes came to the Virginia area this weekend and presented two Spirit filled concerts. I have always held a high opinion of these young men, but this time God used them in a stronger way than I have ever experienced before. The last two times they attempted to come bad weather caused cancellations. This time when they did get here one of their members had to stay home due to illness. Even through these trials the Tributes, with their never ending trust in God, came on faith.

Through the Tributes the Lord gave me a blessing that I never dreamed possible. I just thank Him for this fine group. I know that everyone who hears this group will receive a blessing as I have.

I feel certain that the Lord is going to continue to strive within this group as they are truly striving to serve Him.

God Bless You Eternally,
T.C. Craig

To the Editor,

On March 25, we received our "Reaching Out". Had it not been for this edition, we would have missed a singing with the warm people of Oak Ridge General Baptist, Morgantown.

We had temporarily misplaced our date book and realized when reading our schedule in "Reaching Out", we had only 3 hours to contact the other 7 members and be on the road to Morgantown.

Thanks to you, "Reaching Out", we were on time for this wonderful, spirit-filled service.

May the Lord Bless and keep this paper in print.

The Lincolnaires

"Welcome back to Virginia"

We are looking forward to the weekend of May 6th & 7th. The Servants will be coming to Virginia for a weekend of singing and praising the Lord. The people here in Virginia love the Servants and always welcome this Gospel Group to our State. We thank the Lord for allowing us to be Christian friends of the Servants.

Dear Friends in Christ:

The Lord has been really blessing in our concerts. Many souls are finding the Lord so real to their souls.

We are sorry we will be missing the great Kentucky State Singing in Horse Cave, but we had already booked for Mt. Vernon, Ill. before we knew when the date of the convention. We do hope our group can attend next year. Please forgive us this time. We hope and will be praying that you all will have a wondrousul singing convention. We pray the Lord will bless greatly.

We hope to become more aquainted with our brothers and sisters in the Kentucky area. We would be glad to come down your way sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Crites (our Manager and wife) have moved into a lovely new duplex apartment recently. They like it real well.

We hope to see all our Kentucky friends when we are in the Louisville area. You all come out and see us when you can. We would also like to call your attention that we do have a new address.

May God bless each of you is our sincerer prayers.

Pray for us that we will always be in the will of God.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
The Crite's Family
Gospel Travelers.

Tomes Four Report

We the Tomes Four are glad to report the Lord is blessing in a great way. Since the winter months are behind us the Tomes Four have been to Virginia, Indianapolis, Georgia, and lower part of Tennessee. The services we have been having are very encouraging for us. Clifton and Junior are writing some truly inspiring songs. We still are singing in parts of Kentucky this summer for several homecomings. Pray for us that God will continue to bless, and if and when we are in your area come out and be in service with us.

The Tomes Four will sing at the Morgantown Elementary school on June 3rd at 7:30 p.m. Free admission. Everyone invited to attend.

Warren Co. Sing Conv.

Bowman's Record Album

The Bowman Bro's. have been singing as a quartet for about 8 years now and we have been blessed by the Lord.

Our group has met and made many friends in this length of time.

Its been our priviledge to sing to all faiths and the Lord has richly blessed our efforts. We are all brothers and sisters in Christ. Recently we recorded an album at Joel Ray Sprowles Lincoln Village Show Barn Sound Studio.

Some of your favorite songs have been recorded on this album.

Next month we'll have more information on when it will be released and the songs included.

Watch Gospel Reaching Out for more details when available.

SUBSTITUTE DRUMMER FOR THE JUBILATIONS

On March 18, The Jubilations had a singing near Scottsville, Ky., and their regular drummer, Jeff Graves, wasn't going to be able to make it, so they had to call in their substitute, who is Jeff's younger brother, Stacey. Stacey is only 12 years old, but he was very eager to take his brother's place that night and he did a real fine job.

Hart County Singing Convention

The Hart County Singing Convention will be held in conjunction with the 6th Annual Singing at the Horse Cave Tobacco Warehouse No. II sponsored by the Hart Co. Gospel Music Assoc. Everyone is invited to come and bring some one. Also bring lawn chairs.
