EARLY SETTLERS SOUTH CENTRAL KENTUCKY

1792 - 1993

Kentucky's BICENTENNIAL means 200 years since Kentucky achieved her statehood and was recognized as the 15th state to be admitted to the Union on 1 June 1792.

Created in 1796 from a portion of Logan County, Warren County was the state's 24th county and was named for Dr. Joseph Warren, a hero of the Battle of Bunker Hill.

The City of Bowling Green itself was officially established 1 Jan 1798 by Order of Warren County Court which met in the home of Robert Moore. The name comes from a sport the Moore brothers provided for the early settlers and travelers, "bowling on the green."

Little can be found regarding the earliest explorers in Warren County, but we do know that a group of "LONG HUNTERS" camped along Barren River in the early summer of 1775 and carved their names and date on a couple of large trees. Four years later, the region south of Green River opened to Virginia's Revolutionary War soldiers and land hungry settlers from the eastern seaboard poured into the area. Many of the new residents held land warrants that granted acreage in payment for military service. Others purchased these warrants or land from the veterans. Some held squatter's rights.

The following brief biographical sketches give interesting facts concerning some of Warren County's first settlers and shows the direct lineage down to their descendants still residing two hundred years later in Warren County and celebrating the BICEN-TENNIAL of Kentucky's statehood.

THOMAS HINES SETTLED IN VIRGINIA IN 1740,
HIS SON HENRY HINES WAS THE FATHER OF THOSE WHO SETTLED
IN WARREN COUNTY BY 1803-1820

THOMAS HINES was of Irish descent. His ancestors moved from North Ireland to England in the 17th century. He was a farmer who in 1740 came to America with his wife and two children: HENRY and Philip (b. 1734; d. in Revoutionary War). They settled in Campbell Co., Va. THOMAS died three years after coming to America.

HENRY HINES, SR., the father of the Hines family which settled in Warren and Butler counties Ky between 1803 and 1820, was born 18 December 1732, Campbell Co. Va and died in Charlotte Co. Va Oct 1810. He served in the Revolutionary War, was a prosperous planter, and married first DORCAS KELLY, also of Campbell Co. Va. This union produced six sons and three daughters. After her death, he married Elizabeth Harvey, moved to Charlotte Co. Va and had two sons and two daughters.

All the children of the first marriage settled in the western part of Warren Co. Ky except two of the daughters. All the sons were above average in height, most of them over six feet; all had a good English education. The descendants of these thirteen children are now scattered throughout many states and number many hundreds.

EARLY SETTLERS OF SOUTH CENTRAL KENTUCKY, Cont'd

The first child of the first marriage was JOHN HINES (b. 21 Oct. 1771 Campbell Co. Va., d. 30 July 1853 Warren Co. Ky), married first in Charlotte Co. Va on 19 Mar. 1795 to SARAH DAVIS (b. ca 1779 Campbell Co. Va; d. 1819). JOHN, the first of the family to migrate to Ky, came with his family in 1803 through Cumberland Gap over the Old Wilderness Road and settled on the waters of Gasper River, 13 miles west of Bowling Green, Ky. He lived a number of years in this locality, eventually moving to what is now known as the Ches Wiley Place on the east bank of Gasper River, where he built a saw and gristmill, known as Hines Mill. He prospered greatly, was unusually successful and accumulated a large fortune. He was sheriff of Warren County for several years and was a large tobacco planter with about 3000 acres of land and over 100 slaves. He wrote an excellent hand; and the deeds, contracts, and other legal papers that have been preserved show that he was a man much above the average in business attainments and a member of the Methodist church. He served as a major in the War of 1812 and was transferred from the 61st Regiment, 20th Brigade to the 25th Regt. on January 16, 1815. Many said that he was a facsimile of Gen. George Washington. Their daughter,

MARTHA CAROLINE HINES (b. 21 Sept 1815, d. 18 Nov 1846) married 11 July 1831 PHINEAS DEWALT HAMPTON (b. 7 Mar 1806, d. 9 Sept 1874). Both are buried in Fairview Cemetery, Bowling Green Ky. Their daughter,

MARTHA C. HAMPTON (b. 16 Jan 1836, d. 21 Oct 1912) married 14 June 1853 DR. SAMUEL WILLIAM COOMBS, III (b. 9 August 1830, d. 16 Oct 1882). Both are buried in Fairview Cemetery. Martha was a pretty and industrious woman, retaining the freshness and beauty of youth. Dr. Coombs was a nephew of Gov. Charles Morehead, of Ky. Their son,

CHARLES MOREHEAD COOMBS (b. 16 Oct 1856, d. 1931) married 27 Nov. 1878 MARY VAM PRADELLE ROCHESTER (b.29 Dec 1858, d. 1934). Charles M. Coombs was connected for some time with the Green River Navigation Company and was the business manager of the Bowling Green Gazette, the newspaper published from 1853 - 1860. In 1888 he served with his brother-in-law Elvis Potter in the Post Office. Mary Rochester Coombs was a lady of uncommon beauty, a member of the church choir with a sweet voice. She was a tidy housekeeper and a good cook, who entertained royally. She was neat with children and always busy. Both are buried in Fairview Cemetery. Their daughter,

CHARLOTTE VAM PRADELLE COOMBS (b. 12 Mar 1900, d. 16 July 1983) Bowling Green, KY) married 25 Oct 1921 JOHN BOWMAN MOORE, SR. (b. 30 Aug 1888, Harrodsburg, KY, d. 18 Nov 1968). Both are buried in Fairview Cemetery. Their son, DR. JOHN BOWMAN MOORE, JR. (b. 26 Sept. 1930, Owensboro, KY) married 21 Dec 1957 JANET ELLEN LONG, (b. 21 Oct 1931, d. 27 July 1988 and buried in Fairview Cemetery). Dr. Moore is past president of District #4 Ky Assoc Chiropractors, Ky Soc SAR, Chas. Duncan Chapter SAR, Warren Co. Historical Society, Noon Lions Club, and the American Legion Post #23. For his service in the U.S.Marine Corps during the Korean War, he was awarded the Purple Heart and Bronze Star with Combat "V". He attended Ky Military Institute, University of Ky, and Lincoln Chiropractic College.

THE HUDNALLS FROM VIRGINIA TO KENTUCKY

Rene Chastain and his wife Martha Isham. The Chastains were French Huguenots. James and Rhoda, who came to Warren Co Ky about 1814 as a result of a Land Grant to 200 acres on Swan Creek, were some of the early settlers of Richardsville. The Green River Union Church was organized in their home and James and Rhoda are buried in the Hudnall Cemetery on this farm where they lived. Their son,

Rev. JOHN WESLEY HUDNALL, (b. 16 July 1808 near McMinnville, Tn, d. 14 Aug 1891 Warren Co. Ky) M. 3 Feb 1830 Rachel Upton (b. 14 Feb 1814 in Tn, d. 20 Jan 1873 Warren Co. Ky), daughter of Elijah Upton and his wife Elizabeth Ford. Elijah Upton, who fought in the War of 1812 and was distinguished for his service in the Battle of the Thames on Lake Erie, 5 Oct 1813, was granted at least four grants of land totaling some 350 acres between Green and Barren Rivers (Warren Co. Ky. Court Records). Elijah was the founder of the Masonic Lodge in Richardsville and is buried along with Elizabeth on the old Taylor farm near Richardsville. John Wesley Hudnall came to Warren Co KY when a small child and became a successful farmer. Being an uncompromising Republican, he took a strong stand in favor of the Federal Government during the Civil War. He was a minister of the Methodist Episcopal faith for forty years and was buried along with Rachel in the Mt. Pisgah Cemetery. Their son,

JAMES THOMAS HUDNALL, (b. 9 Feb 1842 Warren Co. Ky, d. 22 Mar 1923 Warren Co. Ky) M. 11 Feb 1873 Judith Frances Cole (b. 28 Sept 1855 Warren Co. Ky, d. 13 Jan 1892 Warren Co. Ky), daughter of William Alfred Cole (b. 15 May 1806 in KY, d. 5 Feb 1866 Warren Co. Ky) and Nancy Maxey (b. 5 Nov 1809 Warren Co. Ky, d. 1 Aug 1879 Warren Co. Ky). William Alfred Cole and his wife Nancy are buried in the Cole's Chapel Church Cemetery on Ridge Road in Warren County about 18 miles N.W. of Bowling Green. The church building was moved in 1884 to the hill where it now stands, near Riverside and the name was changed to Mt. Pisgah Methodist Church. James served as a private soldier in Company A, Eleventh Kentucky Volunteer Infantry in 1861 and was engaged in the battles of Shiloh, Perryville, Stone River, Siege of Knoxville, and on the campaign through Georgia from Dalton to the sight of Atlanta. Both James and Judith were buried at Mt. Pisgah Cemetery. Their son,

BENJAMIN HARRISON HUDNALL (b. 11 Sept 1888 Warren Co. Ky, d. 1 Apr 1944 Warren Co. Ky) M. 25 Feb. 1916 Mernie Milam (b. 1 Feb 1896 Warren Co. Ky, d. 20 July 1943 Warren Co. Ky), daughter of John Milam and his wife Mesouri Morgan. Ben was a graduate of Cumberland Law School in Lebanon, Tn. and practiced law from his roll-top desk in his home, mostly writing wills and deeds. Undoubtly, he was a great orator from the stories told of his impromptu preaching of funerals due to the failure of the arrival of the minister. He continued to farm the land granted to his grandfather John Wesley Hudnall; and due to his work with livestock, he contracted undulant (milk) fever causing his untimely death at age 55. Both Ben and Mernie were born and lived their entire lives in Riverside, being buried at Mt. Pisgah Cemetery. Their son,

Gale is now a retired farmer, owning many acres that the Milam and Hudnall families have lived on and farmed since the mid 1800s. PETER STEPHENS AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

Cultured people are usually interested in the origin of their families; but it is also a matter of common knowledge that people in general are indifferent or too preoccupied with everyday living to spend quality time in researching or capturing data to be passed on to posterity.

The most interesting thing about the study of genealogy which is found in fragments here and there throughout the official history of our country is the romance, drama, and tragedy surrounding the lives of our ancestors. These stories are found in the deeds, wills, and court actions as well as in the transfers and sale of property. In the case of PETER STEPHENS it includes the period of settlement and development of our country from east to west.

The period from the birth of PETER STEPHENS in 1690 to the present Bicentennial Year of 1992 covers a span of more than 300 years. There are not many continuous family records of this extent leading down to a family residing in our own Warren County, Ky.

In 1732 when PETER STEPHENS arrived in the Shenandoah Valley with Jost Hite's colony of 16 families, there were no settlements except along the seaboard. This little colony comprised the first white men to settle west of the Blue Ridge Mountains in Virginia. They opened up the second frontier of America. During the next two centuries the Stephenses migrated up the Shenandoah Valley, crossed through the Cumberland Gap into Tennessee and Kentucky. From there they spread on westward into every state and territory.

PETER STEPHENS SR (ca 1690 - 1757) m. (2) Maria Christina Rittenhouse of Germantown, Pa. He was founder of Stephensburg, now Stephens City, Frederick Co., Va. Their son

LAWRENCE STEPHENS (ca 1722 - 1776) m. (2) ca 1752 Emma Maria (Mary) Bowman (b. Frederick Co. Va 9 Nov 1735; d. Frederick Co. Va Jan 1820), daughter of George Bowman and Mary Hite (granddaughter of Joist Hite). Their son

ISAAC STEPHENS (b. ca 1763 Shenandoah Co. Va; d. 1831 Warren Co. Ky) m. 12 May 1788 in Cumberland Co Va. Mary Wright (b. 13 July 1767 Cumberland Co. Va; d. 13 Aug 1802), daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (McGeehee) Wright. Isaac and Mary first settled in Bardstown, then later in Warren Co. Ky on Barren River where he owned nearly 4000 acres, including the land grants of 40 acres and another tract of 1400 acres. Isaac and Mary are buried on the farm where they made their home. In his will dated 3 Jan 1831, he leaves to his widow his silver spoons, which seems to have been a custom of this branch of the Stephens family. Their son

THOMAS LAWRENCE STEPHENS (b 19 Feb 1790 Warren Co. Ky; d 18 Apr 1870) m. 17 Sept 1817 Charlotte "Charloty" Briggs (b.2 Dec 1795 Warren Co. Ky; d. 18 Mar 18--), daughter of David and Margaret (Crawley) Briggs. He is listed as a private in Ky Detached Militia along with his cousin, Daniel Boone, who later visited at the Stephens home and hunted wild turkey with the Stephens men. Thomas made seventeen trips to New Orleans in flatboats to sell produce and was on a flatboat on the Mississippi River when Reelfoot Lake was formed by an earthquake in the early 1800s. Each time he walked the return trip as the flatboats were sold for lumber in New Orleans, walking from Nashville Tn to Bowling Green Ky, a distance of 66 miles, in one day. Thomas was a Government Contractor on Brown's Lock and one of Warren County's largest land owners. He built a three-room log house on part of the Isaac Stephens farm and is buried in the cemetery on his farm, which was part of the Military Land Grant on which his father Isaac settled. Their son

Ky), daughter of Fidella Franklin Lucas and his wife Susan Cunningham Lucas. He made a trip to California in 1849, via South America; and returning home through Death Valley, the party was so hungry they killed a pack mule and ate it. He was very wealthy but crippled from an injury to his leg. He made his home on the farm where he was born and is buried in Fairview Cemetery, Bowling Green, Ky. Their daughter

Her painting, "The Road Our Savior Trod", which hung in the Barren River Baptist Church for many years was lost in the recent fire that destroyed the church. She was born and died in the ancestral Stephens home, Rural Retreat. Charles G. Davenport, educated at Ogden College, Bowling Green, was one of the largest real estate and farm owners in Warren Co. and was a contractor, farmer, and raised horses. In 1919 he leased some land to an oil company and was the first to have an oil well in this section; the Davenport Oil Pool in Warren County bears his name. He was a member of the Barren River Baptist Church, serving as a Deacon and Church Clerk for 54 years. Charles and Ora Susan lived to celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary in the same house in which they were married. Their daughter

He was a member of the Kentucky Bar Association, the Prestonsburg Methodist Episcopal church South, the Masons and the Shrine. For 17 years he served Ky), son of Clarence Henry Nicholls and his wife Maude Cook. He was educated in Owensboro City Schools and Bethel College, Russellville. He was employed for some years as a Civil Engineer with the Ky State Highway Dept and was a land appraiser for the Chesapeake and Ohio and Southern Railroad. Ora Colista was named after both grandmothers; in Spanish Ora means gold and Colista, beautiful. Ora Colista was educated in Warren County schools, Bowling Green High School, Western State Teachers College, and University of Kentucky. She taught school in Prestonsburg Graduate School. Ora Colista Nicholls still resides in this Bicentennial Year 1992 in her ancestral home, "Rural Retreat", occupied by seven generations and built on the land originally granted to her ancestors.

A BIOGRAPHY OF THE DOUGLASS FAMILY

By Thomas Claiborne Douglass (77), who was born in 1813 and died in 1892.

March 15, 1886

I have often been asked by my children and relatives to write a short biography of our family, beginning with your Great Grand Parents. It will necessarily be imperfect in some respects as I will have to write entirely from memory, and the length of time since many of them lived dating back over a century.

My Grand Father on the Douglass side, was named Edward; Grand Mother, Elizabeth George. Their children: John (2), William (3), Elmore (5), Ezekiel (7), Edward (4), our father James (9), and Reuben (10). The Girls, Elizabeth (6) and Sallie (8).

John (2) was killed by the British and Tories in the Revolutionary War. He was carrying a message from Gen. Fitz (Henry) Lee, called Light Horse Harry Lee, came upon a company of horsemen and had to run for his life. Coming to a steep bluff, he had to dismount, leap down and run on foot. He had one companion with him. In jumping, (his companion) sprained his ankle and hid under the bluff, which saved his life. Uncle John ran on for a little farther and came meeting another company of Tories. He knew the leader, saw he had no chance to escape, raised his gun, shot him down and was in turn shot down.

Uncle William (3) was a Captain of a company and the British and Tories were very anxious to catch him. They learned somehow that Aunt (Peggy) his wife, had some powder about the house and ordered her to get it. She refused. They began a search and found it hidden in a large gourd in her chest. They commenced to taunt her and being a very resolute and determined woman, she watched her chance, jerked the gourd out of their hands and before they could stop her, she had emptied the whole of it on the ground. Oh, how they cursed and abused her.

Papa (9), I shall hereafter write that way, as we all called him so, and Mother moved to Tennessee in the year 1788 or '89, though it was not a State at that time, being yet North Carolina. They settled in what was afterwards Sumner County, four miles north of Gallatin, lived and died on the place they first settled. I shall speak of the family hereafter ---

Shortly after my Papa and Mother moved, Grandpa and Grandma Douglass, with all their children followed also. Grandpa and Grandma Douglass settled the place we all knew as the Uncle Reuben Douglass Place, on West Station Camp Creek.

Grandpa Collier did not remain long, but went to Louisiana. He lived and died there. His children; Isaac, Robert, Benjamin, Edmund, Vinas Lucas - our Mother Katherine, - Lucy, or Patsey as she was called, who married a Scurlock, and Mabry, I have forgotten her given name. Uncle Vinas's wife was a Keithly. The other uncles, I have forgotten their wives' names. I had forgotten another Aunt. I think her name was Elizabeth (Collier), she married a Rice.

Now to go back to my Uncles on my Papa's side, so far as I recall, and their families:

Uncle John (2) never married.

Uncle William (3) married but have forgotten who, they had three children, John (11), Alfred (17), and I think Louisia (?), perhaps others.

Uncle Edward (4) married Elizabeth Howard, their children; Harry (19), Delia (21), Patsy (20), Howard (18), Norval (23) and Elmore (22).

Harry (19) married an Allcorn. Their children; William (108) and Priscilla (107).

Delia (21) married my brother Edward (70), own cousins. They had two children, one died an infant, the other, Howard (117) married near Shreveport, Louisiana. He died, or was killed during the War Between the States. His widow and two children are living there yet.

Patsy (20) married John Hall, lawyer, and brother of General William Hall, the father of Cousin Mary Cassidy of Waco, Texas. Cousin Patsy's children; Cornelia (112), Delia or Cordelia (113), William (110), Edward (116) and John (114).

Cornelia (112) married Judge Guion of Mississippi.

Delia (113) married a Mr. Hicks.

The boys, I never knew their wives.

Howard (18) married Sallie Edwards. Their children; Henry (101), Elizabeth (102), Sarah (104), William (103), Cullen (105), and Robert (106).

Henry (101) married General William Hall's daughter Mary, they had one daughter, Henrietta who lives in Louisville, Ky. After Henry's death, Mary married Cassidy, who died in Waco, Texas. She is living there (now).

Elizabeth (102) married (James) Mitchell, who died in Austin, Texas. His widow, your Cousin Bet, as we all called her, is living there now.

William (103) never married, died in Austin, Texas.

Cullen (105) married a Miss Bains, they had eight or nine children and his wife died. He married a Miss Gains (Estes). How many children they had I don't know, some eight or ten. Cullen said he was bound to have over twenty. I think he has about filled the bill.

Sarah (104) married Doctor Glass, they moved to Mississippi. Had no children. She only lived a few years.

Robert (106) never married, died in Sumner County, Tenn.

Howard (18) and Sallie, father and mother of the above, died in Sumner County, Tennessee.

Elmore (22), or Doctor Douglass, as we called him, married Elizabeth Fulton. Their children; Edward (118), David (119), Kittie (122), Bettie (123), Cynthia (124), and John (George) Ball (121). It appears a little singular about the deaths of several of the above. Elizabeth (Fulton), the mother, was killed by a flash of lightning while walking through the house carrying a bunch of keys in her hand. In a few days Edward (118) her oldest son was drowned and two of the sisters died with the colera in a few hours of each other. David (119), Bettie (123), and George Ball (121) went to California.

David (119) married, but I don't remember who.

Bettie married Judge Read.

George Ball (121) never married.

Doctor Douglass married again, the widow (divorced wife) of General Sam Houston, and they had three children; Martha (128), Louisa (129) and Susie (130).

Martha (128) married Doctor Haggard, they had one child. Martha died, then Louisa and in a short time Susie died. They all died with Scrofula, I believe. It looked as if some fate was still passing the family.

Norval (23), the youngest of Uncle Edward's children, married Priscilla Cage (230), daughter of Cousin Wilson Cage (38). They moved to Mississippi and settled near Jackson, and raised a large family. I don't know their names.

Aunt Bettie Douglass (6) married old Col. Cage. I forget his given name, I believe it was William. Their children; William (40), James (42), Reuben (39), Lofton (45), Wilson (38), Jesse (46) and Priscilla (37).

William (40), I have forgotten who he married. Their children; Marie (245), Marcus (249), Corina (253), James (246) and Rufas (251).

Marie (245) married a Crutcher and had two girls, one married Mannie, a lawyer of Nashville, Tennessee. The other daughter married David Yandell of Louisville, Kentucky.

Marcus (249) and Corina (253), I don't know who they married.

Rufas (251) married Elizabeth Boddie and is living in Houston, Texas.

Cousin James Cage (246) never married.

Reuben Cage (39), I don't recollect his wife, the children;

Orville (238) married your Uncle Isaac's Louisa (345).

Elizabeth (243) married Doctor Jack Franklin. They had two or three children. I don't remember their names.

Lofton Cage (45), don't recollect his wife, has four children.

Eliza (281) married a Coleman.

Selina (282) married an Elliott.

Albert (283) and Fannie (284). I don't know who they married.

Cousin Jesse Cage (46) married a Gillispie. Their children were William (286), John (287), Bettie (285), Sophia (288) and Jane (289).

William (286) married Julia Franklin.

Bettie (285) married Smith Franklin.

John (287) married your Aunt Mary Cantrell, their children; Jesse (724), Mary (Polly) (726), Fannie (727), Louisa (730), Walter (729) and Jack (731).

Your Uncle Jack (287), as he was called, died in Sumner County, Tennessee, of a disease, softening of the brain.

Jesse (724) married Sallie Douglass (762).

Mary (726) married Frank Douglass (761), brother of Jesse's wife.

Louisa (730) married her cousin, Wm. Diannaks (Dismukes).

Fannie, Walter and Jack never married. Walter (729) died in Waco, Texas in 1885 and his death caused your Aunt Puss and all her children to move back to Tennessee.

Your Cousin Sophia Cage (288) and James Cage (289) never married. Both died about the time they were grown.

Cousin Wilson Cage (38), I don't remember his wife. Children; Leroy (226), Priscilla (230), William (234), James (?), Thomas (?) and Overton (228).

Overton (228) married Sarah Robb. They had a good many children.

Leroy (226) was a Methodist Preacher, don't know who he married.

Priscilla (230) married Norval Douglass (23), they moved to Mississippi. They were second cousins and had a good many children.

Your Grandpa (James) Douglass's three (two) sisters - Aunt Bettie (6) married Col. Cage.

Aunt Sallie (8) married Thomas Blakemore. Their children; Edward (60), James (53), Reuben (55), Wesley (64) and Albert (66). The girls names I have forgotten. They raised large families.

Aunt Carr (41), I have forgotten her given name, think it was Martha, or Patsey as she was called, her children; Sewell (259), Cage (256), James (257) and Sallie (265). All have large families.

Uncle Reuben Douglass (10), I have forgotten his wife's name. His children; Wylie (79), Bennett (84), William (85), Evaline (82), Patsey (86), Malissa (83) and Elizabeth (81).

William (Wylie) (79) married a Watkins.

Evaline (82) married Wm. Franklin.

The others, I believe, never married.

Uncle Elmore Douglas (5), I don't know his wife's name. Children; Burchett (31), Asa (36), Ily (34), Ennis (32), who married.

Burchett (31) was elected to the Tennessee Legislature from Wilson County several times and would have been elected Governor but his eyes failed and he never recovered his sight.

Uncle Ezekiel Douglass (7), I don't know who he married now. Don't recollect but three of his children; John (47), George (50) and James (48).

James (48), Black James, as he was called, married a Hunt. Their children; Patsey (303), Margarena (304), Robert (305), Albert (306), Clinton (309), Evaline (307) and Sallie (308)

Patsey (303) never married.

Mary (304) married an Abston. Jennie (752), Sallie (753), Virginia (754), Charles (748), Annie (750) and Kimmie (749) were her children.

Robert (305) married Delia Anne Mitchell. Their children; Ellen (758), Sallie (762), Frank (761), James (765), Clinton (763), Jennie (759) and Henry (764).

Albert (306) married Dorothea Turner, their children; Seaton (768) and some others, but don't remember their names.

Clinton (309) married Ramey (Maney) and had a good many children.

Evaline (307) married Charles Boddie.

Now I come to my father James Douglass (9). He was born in Virginia near the line of North Carolina (sic), the 15th of March 1762. He married my mother Catherine Collier in 1789. They moved, as I have said before, to the Western part of North Carolina and settled in what was afterwards Sumner County, Tennessee, shortly after their marriage, where they lived until their death in 1851. My Father died on my Mother's birthday, 28th of March 1851. My Mother died about six weeks after.

They raised eleven children, nine boys and two girls. The oldest: Alfred Hire (68), Matilda Golden (69), Edward Lightfoot (Lucas) (70), Isaac Collier (71), James Sewell (72), Harry Clinton (73), Young Norval (74), Robert George (75), William Cage (76), Thomas Clayborne (77) and Louisa Frances (78) Douglass.

My brother Alfred (68) married in Louisiana, his cousin Louisa Scurlock. They had three children; James (332), Caroline (334) and Alexander (333).

James (332) married Caroline Mills, had two children; Astinian (824) and Annette (825).

Doctor Stin (824) as we called him, married and lives in Hill County, Texas.

Annette (825) lives in Mississippi.

Caroline (334) married Thomas Miller, and moved to southern Texas. They have several children. I never saw but one of their children. Caroline was a very sprightly girl. I think she is living in northern Texas.

Alexander (333) never married.
