To The Editor

To the Editor:

Just received your magazine today. We enjoy it so much. Just wanted to say, we had spent a few wonderful weekends with The Tomes Four already this year. In Ky., Tenn., and Indpls.

We thank the Lord everyday for these wonderful Christian men.

It seems their service's just gets better and better. I wish everyone reading this could of been in Springfield, Tenn., with them. It almost turned into a revival.

We pray they continue to work for the Lord for many years to come.

We can see they know what they're singing about. They have helped us so much.

Yours In Christ
A. & J. Hannell
Indpls.

News from Evie

Evie Tornquist has changed the face of record charts throughout Europe for several years. Now she is becoming an even greater success in the United States.

From her special ability to transcend musical, national and age barriers comes Evie's latest recording, "A Little Song Of Joy For My Little Friends."

A collection of tunes especially designed to share with children, however the recording also provides entertainment for people of all ages. It showcases Evie lending her style to popular numbers that include "Step Into The Sunshine," "Jesus, I Believe That You Said," "Will The Circle Be Unbroken," "This Little Light Of Mine" and the classic christian lullaby "Into My Heart."

The release of "A Little Song Of Joy..." comes while Evie continues to dominate every major gospel chart in the country. In March, five of her releases made the national religious best-seller's top ten: "Mirror;" "Gentle Moments;" "Come On, Ring Those Bells;" "Evie" and "Evie Again."

In addition to making history on the best-seller charts, Evie won RECORD WORLD'S 1977 Gospel Award for top female inspirational vocalist and the Gospel Music Association's Dove Award for the best female gospel vocalist category. She also received a grammy nomination for her "Mirror" album.

A regular performer with the Billy Graham Crusades, Evie was recently credited by NEW DAWN magazine for "Infusing gospel music with new elements."

"A Little Song Of Joy..." further broadens Evie's popular appeal. As recently noted in the SATURDAY EVENING POST, "Evie Tornquist is shocking the world into realizing how 'Mainstream' a life of faith and love in Christ can be. Why, the spiritual life can be wholesome and happy!"

This year's Singing This year's singing was the most successful event of Gospel Reaching Out. Many groups participated this year making it a success. We the staff of GRO would like to thank everyone for the Donations, and work put into the event.

Thank You!

Crites Family on Belle of Louisville

Greetings in the name of the Lord to all brothers and sisters in Christ! The Lord has really been blessing us the last couple of weeks in our gospel singings. Souls have been finding the Lord and we praise God for this as we feel this is a part of our ministry.

On May 29th, we had a most enjoyable concert on the "Bell of Louisville" steamship. We boarded the ship at 12:30 p.m. there in Louisville, Kentucky and from there we started a four hour cruise down the Ohio River. We were guest of the Gospel Light Singers from Greenwood, Indiana which we have found to be fine Christian brothers and sisters in Christ. We thank them so much for the invite and we had a great time in the Lord and fellowshiping. Also on the cruise were the Britt Family Singers from Greenwood, Indiana, The Master's Quartet from Indianapolis, Indiana, and the Keens from Greenwood, Indiana. Words cannot tell how much we enjoyed being in fellowship with all these groups. They all were just great in every way. Again, thanks and God bless each of you, Gospel Light Singers for having us. It is always a pleasure to fellowship with your group.

On May 6, we traveled to the Faith Community Church in Mt. Vernon, Illinois where we had a great time in the Lord. We were guests of the New Christian Ministrials of Mt. Vernon, Ill. We have been close friends for a long time.

On June 22 at 7:30 p.m., we will be at the Little Nashville Opry House near Nashville, Indiana. There, we will have The Gospel Light Singers as our special guests along with the Hinsons from Nashville, Tenn., and Rev. J.D. Temples and The Harvesters from Gosport, Indiana. We are expecting a great time in the Lord. We are always glad to see all our Kentucky brothers and sisters and we extend a very special invitation to each of you to come to our singings when you can. Pray God will use us for His glory and that souls will be saved, uplifted and healed in our gospel singings. May God bless you all.

Bro. Curtis D. Aiken &
The Crites Family Gospel Travelers

McCubbins Family Buy Motor Home

With the Lord's help, last October, the McCubbins Family were able to buy a motor home. We believe that this will broaden our ministry for the Lord and we sincerely request the prayers of all of our Christian friends.

We also want to take this opportunity to thank each one of you that made this possible.

Yours In His Service,
The McCubbins Family
