Vol. 7 No. 2 FEBRUARY 1979

Winter, snow, ice, cold temperatures, sometime get us down. But this could be a good time to invite some friends over for some good old fashion Christian fellowship. You could have a sing-along, or maybe some Bible study. Just counting our blessings can be a great source of joy and happiness in our lives.

Ever have a great idea about having a special singing? Then find out all the groups you were planning to use are already booked. There is a very simple solution. Planning early.

During these winter months when we are not quite as busy, we have time to prayerfully seek God's Will for guidance in planning revivals, Sunday school rallies, singings, youth rallies and other events.

May we use our time wisely. This is God's gift to us.

If we can be of assistance here at Gospel Reaching Out, feel free to call or write. May God bless each of you is our prayer. Continue to pray that we will be able to Reach Out to many more people in this another year.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Gospel Reaching Out,

There is my money for another year for the paper. My husband and I enjoy it each month reading about the Gospel Groups. We would like to have more singings around Louisville where we could go. We do go to some far away. But can't go to them all. That is what we look for in the paper first to see if there is any singing around Louisville. We do love good Gospel Singings and pray for the singers May they keep up the good works for the Lord. May the Lord Bless, is our Prayers.
Mr. & Mrs. C.E. Tarter    Louisville, Ky.

Dear Editor,

We read Gospel Reaching Out and was very impressed with it.

We are a husband and wife Evangelistic team. Our purpose is witnessing for Christ in song, His word and testimony.

Pray for us as we go about doing God's Will.

Your Friends in Christ,

Dear G.R.O.

I wish you could have a write up on the annual singing in the Smokies each year. I feel sure that a few subscribers to your paper attend this event. It is something out of this world.

Thank you. Keep up the good work. God bless you.

The Bracelet

(taken from Guideposts)

Jenny's birthday party had to be special this year. Her father was dead, and as her mother I wanted to make up the loss to her. So did friends and relatives. The gifts piled high. A tiny gold bracelet with "Ten Commandments" charms became her immediate favorite. She wore it as she and her cousins went out to play.

"You might lose it, Jenny," I warned. No more losses, God, I thought silently. We can't stand any more losses. Even small ones.

I joined my young sister and her husband in the living room. They sat close together, hands entwined and smiling. The way Dave and I used to do. Their intimacy seemed complete and exclusive. I felt stirrings of pain. They're ignoring the other guests, I thought irritably. And then another thought came.

It isn't fair that they're together and I'm alone. There it was. Envy. The words struck like a bolt of lightning.

"Mom," Jenny called running in. "The catch opened and I lost my bracelet. Help me find it, Mom."

Grateful for the chance to hide my face and feelings, I went outside and dug through leaves and flowers. We found the chain quickly, but one of the charms was missing. On my knees in the grass I hunted. At last a glimmer caught my eye. The tenth charm. I picked it up. Tiny engraved letters on gold: "Thou shalt not covet."

Everything became still. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's happiness, I thought. Or thy sister's joy. I walked slowly back into the living room and stood looking at them. I felt their love, and suddenly its warmth seemed to draw me in. Quickly I bent down and kissed my sister's cheek.

Greetings to all our friends and neighbors in Christ:

We pray you all had a nice Christmas and that the new year will bring much peace and happiness to each of you.

We were in a wonderful New Year's Eve service. God blessed in a great way and at 12:00 midnight we were all praying around the altar. We are so thankful for the year 1978. God blessed us in so many ways and as we look back we can see so many lessons the Lord taught us. The year 1978 was a very busy year for us. We are so thankful for all the new people we came in contact with.

We are already beginning to see our summer dates filled, so if you would like to have the Crites Family Gospel Travelers in your area, I would suggest you contact us as soon as you can. We would love to come your way.

On February 25, we are having a Gospel Singing at the Little Nashville Opry House on State Road No. 46 South of Nashville, Ind. The following groups will be there: The Gospel Light Singers from Indianapolis, Indiana; The Thrasher Brothers from Birmingham, Alabama; and The Crites Family Gospel Travelers from Bloomington, Indiana.

We have a special treat coming up for all you people who like Gospel Singing on a boat.

The following groups will be on the ship: The Pathways from Sandusky, Ohio; The Gospel Light Singers from Indianapolis, Indiana; and the Crites Family Gospel Travelers from Bloomington, Indiana.
