RELIGION IN KENTUCKY

We know little of the religious beliefs of the Native Americans who lived for thousands of years in what is now Kentucky. However, according to archaeological studies they did believe in supernatural powers and an afterlife. In the latter part of the eighteenth century when European settlers began to settle in Kentucky they brought traditional religious forms with them. The first known Christian worship service in Kentucky, conducted by Anglican minister John Lyth, took place in Boonesborough on Sunday, May 28, 1775. During that service, conducted under an old elm tree, England's "most gracious sovereign Lord King George" was remembered in prayer.

After the Revolutionary War, migration into the western outpost of Virginia was intensified and the earliest leaders of the three largest faiths in the frontier era, Baptists, Methodists, and Presbyterians, moved into the Bluegrass area. Also, settling in the area, predominantly around Bardstown, were Episcopalians and Roman Catholics.

In 1781 the largest early migration of Baptists, led by Rev. Lewis Craig and known as the Traveling Church, came from Spotsylvania, Virginia to Kentucky. Kentucky's first Presbyterian services, 1780, were conducted by Terah Templin, but David Rice was the outstanding frontier clergyman of that denomination. He was instrumental in establishing Transylvania University as the state's earliest center of learning. The first Methodist minister, Francis Clark, came to Kentucky in 1783.

When the early congregations gathered for services, in cabins or in the open air, they were often seated so that males and females were separated. Sermons were typically at least ninety minutes long and decorum was not always maintained. According to a quotation from James Robertson, Jr., in "Revelry and Religion in Frontier Kentucky" one early minister lamented a congregation consisting of "forty-five babies and seventy-five dogs with only sixty adults to police the mob."

After the turn of the century, in Logan County, in 1800, Presbyterian minister James McGready began a series of emotional revival meetings that resulted in very emotional outbursts by those in attendance. Another Presbyterian minister, Barton Warren Stone, after seeing the intensity of religious life in Logan County arranged for an August, 1801 revival at Cane Ridge in Bourbon County. Thousands attended these services and many religious conversions occurred.

Immediate results of the Kentucky revivals were evident in the number of conversions, but there were long-term results, as well. After the revival, church memberships in Kentucky multiplied. Both the Baptists and Methodists tripled in their numbers within a three-year period. After the New Madrid earthquakes, 1811-12, there was another surge of revivals and conversions. They set a pattern for southern religious revivalism in the United States and, also, brought about new division and diversity in Kentucky religion. The Cumberland Presbyterians, the Christian Church, and the Disciples of Christ sprang from this era.

The first historical record of Baptist Christians in Kentucky is in April, 1776 when William Hickman from Virginia preached a sermon in Harrodstown (Harrodsburg). Hickman returned to Virginia and there was no Baptist congregation until June 1781, when the Severns Valley settlement was established. The Salem Baptist Association formed in 1785 consisted of the early congregations around the Elizabethtown - Bardstown area. In central Kentucky the Elkhorn Association was made up of Baptist immigrants from Virginia and included the preachers of the Craig family: Lewis, pastor of the Traveling Church, Elijah, and Joseph. The Baptist settlers were fairly well-to-do, and many owned slaves. Included among them were John Taylor, John Gano, Ambrose Dudley, and James Garrard (governor of Kentucky 1796 - 1804).

During the latter part of the eighteenth century the Baptist congregations were scattered and small. Most of them met once a month for preaching services. Church buildings were made of log, brick, or stone and had balconies or galleries for the slaves of the members of the congregations. Although the Great Revival was conducted mostly by Methodists and Presbyterians, the excitement and enthusiasm were felt in the Baptist churches. In Kentucky between 1800 and 1803 the number of Baptist churches doubled and the number of Baptists tripled. As many of the new converts were from the less affluent new arrivals in the state, the need for church discipline was increased. Many records of the early churches contain references to members, including slaves, who were expelled for a wide variety of offenses.

On the following pages are brief histories and names of members of some of the earliest Baptist churches formed in the Warren County area. The histories and lists of names are, by no means, complete, but, hopefully, they may help in your genealogical research.

OLD MULKEY MEETING-HOUSE — MONROE COUNTY

Two miles from Tompkinsville. Erected in 1798. Constructed of half-hewn logs and chinked, it has twelve corners, symbolic of the twelve tribes of Israel.

In 1778 Phillip Mulkey and a group of Baptists from North and South Carolina settled here. They erected a rough log cabin for a church, but soon outgrew it and the present one was put up and has been in good repair since 1798.

OLD UNION MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH
WARREN COUNTY, KENTUCKY
1795-1996

In 1795 the Kentucky Legislature passed an act by which a preemption right to two hundred acres of land was secured to each actual settler in the Green River country. This brought about a large influx of settlers to the that region. By the end of 1795, there was a settlement of people along the waters of Drakes Creek, in what is now Allen and Warren Counties. These people were mostly from the Carolinas and among them were some Baptists and some Baptist preachers.

In 1796 (some records say 1795) the first church in the part of Kentucky lying south of the Green River was formed. Known as Union (Old Union), the church was located near the West Fork of Drakes Creek in Warren County. Three of the preachers among the early settlers in the region were John Hightower, Alexander Devin, and Joseph Logan. It is believed that they were instrumental in the gathering of this church.

There are no records available showing how many members were involved in the establishment of this church. According to a history published in 1813, we know that in 1812 John Hightower was still pastor of the church and there were 63 members.

The first house of worship was a log building, and as was common in those days, it was shared with other denominations. In 1875 the records state that Cumberland Presbyterians and Baptists were the only ones worshipping at this location, and by the early part of the twentieth century the Baptists were the only people worshipping in the present building.

The first pastor of Union Church was John Hightower, who served from 1795 - 1813. He was followed by Richard Owings who was born in Bourbon County, Kentucky, about 1787. As a boy he moved with his parents to Simpson County. He was married to Minnie Holcomb, daughter of Jonathan Holcomb, of Simpson County. After preaching here he moved to Missouri where he labored until 1858, at which time he passed away while on a return trip to Kentucky to visit friends.

Orson Holland Morrow served as pastor of Union Church from 1839 until 1880. He was born in Rutherford County, North Carolina on November 10, 1800. He and his parents moved to Simpson County, Kentucky in 1807. On March 1, 1821 he married Sally, daughter of Col. James Hambright. Eight daughters were born to this union. Elder Morrow was ordained on September 13, 1833 by Sulphur Springs Baptist Church in Simpson County, Kentucky. He came to the Old Union community in 1839. He died in 1890 at the age of 90 years.

Other early pastors of Old Union Missionary Baptist Church include V. K. Witt, 1880 - 1886; Mordecai F. Ham, 1886 - 1890; John Bass Shelton, 1891 - 1892; L. H. Voyles, 1892 - 1894; A. N. Whittinghill, 1895 - 1896; Rawleigh Wright, 1897 - 1900; and Tobias J. Ham, son of Mordecai F. Ham, 1897 - 1900.

Ministers ordained to the ministry by Old Union Church include Elder Joseph Skaggs and Elder J. M. Garland on January 19, 1842. Elder Wesley Wright and Elder John M. Billingsley were ordained to the full work of the gospel ministry by Old Union August 16, 1851. Listed as early deacons of Old Union and the dates of their ordination are: E. M. Halsell and Silas H. Clark, 1847; M. Clark and Alfred Simmons, 1856; Levi Clark and James C. Potter, 1869; C. E. Matlock, M. C. Potter, and S. O. Harris, 1880; Stanford Chapman, W. C. Kelly, C. C. McCool, 1897.

The Old Union Cemetery is located a few yards away from the church. According to the records there are over 500 marked graves in the cemetery. A complete listing is not available, but the information on some of the stones is as follows:

In Memory of Reverend Joseph Franceway, Born - 1795, Died - Dec. 16, 1834, Age 39 years.

In Memory of Mariah Jane Consort of James L. Blewett, Born Dec. 3, 1803, Made profession of the Christian religion at a Camp Meeting at Union October 9, 1820. Married Aug. 2, 1821, Died Sept. 15, 1845.

Charles E. Taylor, Born Oct. 2, 1890, Died April 29, 1965.

Lou C. Taylor, Born Dec. 31, 1892, Died Dec. 7, 1964.

Excerpt from Old Union Church records: August 28, 1852 - A protracted meeting began with Brethren Morrow, Gardner, Durham, Wright and Billingsley. Continued 23 days, with some 75 conversions.

SINKING CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH

Sinking Creek United Baptist Church was located in Warren County, north of the Hayes community, on the old Moses Gage place. Sinking Creek was constituted in 1798 and was probably gathered by Alexander Davidson who was the only preacher known to have lived in that vicinity. He became pastor the 2nd Saturday in June 1800 and probably remained until 1817 when Jacob Locke became pastor.

Some of the early members of Sinking Creek Church were: Benjamin Steward, Thomas Wright, Wm. Lance, Hardin Camp, Wm. Lowe, Smith Greer, James Doughty, ? Doss, ? Wallace, Wm. Clayton, Peter Chasteen, and Orson Flowers.

Alexander Davidson, the first pastor of Sinking Creek, was born Jan. 3, 1744 in Gloucester Co., Virginia. His first marriage was to Ann Bridges, a Baptist. At first he refused to have anything to do with that denomination, but was later converted and united with the Baptists. After the death of his first wife, he married Sarah Ellis, the daughter of Jacob Ellis. Alexander and Sarah's children were born in Rutherford County, North Carolina. Jacob Ellis moved to Hartsville, Tennessee in the late 1790's. Davidson probably moved at the same time. In 1799 he represented Warren County in the convention that formed the second constitution of Kentucky. According to records he worked among the churches of Warren and Barren counties as late as 1823.

According to Baptist Association records the following were listed as Messengers during the early years of Sinking Creek Baptist Church: Thomas, Crawford, Daniel Green, Aaron Gage, John Wilson, William Gardner, James Walker, John Smith, George Wright, John Foydsden, John Bolston, J. Chasteen, Wm. Mitchell, and Augustin Clayton.

PROVIDENCE BAPTIST CHURCH

Providence Baptist Church was organized in September, 1804 by Elders Hightower and Martin. There were nine members. Jesse Boyce was chosen as deacon and John Martin as pastor. By February 1812 there was a membership of twenty-six. At that time three committees were sent to Union, Zion, and Smith's Grove churches to settle difficulties and Deacon Boyce was dismissed from office because his wife was not a member. In September 1813, Elder Martin was appointed to supply the place of pastor, Edward Turner, who, along with his son, was drafted to fight the English. On May 13, 1815, John May was excluded for being a Free Mason. June 1820, deacon Wm. Still and wife were received as members. Sept. 26, 1821, after debating the question of feet washing, it was voted out. Of the 150 members at that time 50 were black.

IVY BAPTIST CHURCH

The Ivy Baptist Church, constituted in 1812, was located in the northern part of Warren County near the Sand Hill Community. According to available records, it seems that Ivy Church was organized as an arm of Providence Baptist Church. An 1812 entry in the Providence Church Book states:

"...ordered pastor and committee to go into forks of the river to receive and baptize members and Joseph Taylor and wife were baptized." (Edward Turner was pastor of Providence)

There are conflicting reports as to the identity of the Joseph Taylor who was an early member of Ivy Church. According to one account Joseph Taylor (father of Alfred G.; father of W. C. Taylor) was baptized by the pastor of Providence, Ed. Turner in 1812. Another record gives Joseph Taylor, the father of Alfred Taylor as being baptized by Nathan Arnett of Tennessee sometime prior to 1804. In 1804 he and his wife entered into the constitution of Providence Church where he remained as a minister until he moved to Butler County.

The Joseph Taylor baptized by Nathan Arnett was an early member of Providence Church. The son of Moses Taylor, he appears to be the same Joseph Taylor who entered the constitution of Sandy Creek Baptist Church in Butler County on June 15, 1805. In August 1812, he helped ordain John P. Taylor, who later pastored Ivy Baptist Church.

The Joseph Taylor of Ivy Baptist Church seems to have been Joseph Taylor, Jr., a Revolutionary War Soldier. Born in 1751 and died March 22, 1818, he was buried in Green River Union Cemetery.

Joseph Taylor was a Huguenot who moved to Warren County from North Carolina about 1806. He was instrumental in gathering the Green River Union Chapel at Richardsville in Warren County. The Green River Union Chapel is first mentioned in the Warren County Court records in reference to a road meeting held in the house of James Hudnall, a Huguenot, who had obtained a 200 acre grant of land near Richardsville in 1814.

Another early member of Ivy Church was Andrew L. Edwards. He moved from Virginia at an early date and settled on the Little Beaver Dam Creek in Edmonson County.

According to Associational records Messengers from Ivy Baptist Church during the early 1800's were: Joseph Taylor, John Early, Thomas Earnest, R. Armstrong, J. Glaston, John P. Taylor, Christopher Robinson, J. Glass, Thos. Brooks, J. Milligan, Jacob Henry, James Mitchell, J. Isbell, Thomas Brooks, Aaron Thornton, and Andrew Hack.

SMITH'S GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH

Smith's Grove Baptist Church was organized February 22, 1812. Many of the members who formed the church were from the Sinking Creek Baptist Church. Some of the early members were: John C. Smith, John Wright, Joseph Baker, Edward Baker, Beriman (Benj.?) Haley, and Thomas Smith. Their first pastor was Ed. Turner and since that time the following have served: Samuel Greathouse, Cornelius Dewese, Zachariah Emerson, J. Moon, J. Butrum, J. Garret, N. G. Terry, W. H. Williams, and W. E. Taylor.

BOWLING GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH

The First Baptist Church, Bowling Green, was constituted in 1818 under the leadership of William Warder. He served as pastor until his death, August 1836, for a salary of one hundred dollars a year. During this time Bro. Warder also served one fourth time in connection with the pastorate at Russellville. In 1837 J. M. Pendleton began a twenty years pastorate. He served as full time, preaching twice on Sunday, with a weekly prayer meeting at a salary of $400 a year.

An old manuscript written in hand by Brother John Burnam gives the names of some of the charter members of the First Baptist Church. Included are: Daniel Smith and wife; Thomas McNeal, mother, sister; Woody Grub and wife; John Moorman and wife; John Thompson and wife; Brother Burgs and wife; and old Brother Keel (of Providence Church).

Other members listed as Association Messengers 1820 through 1840 include: James Owens, Moody Grubbs, Armstrong Morehead, Fr. Johnson, John Keel, John Atkinson, R. B. Stockton, James M. Blakey, James Maxey, Henry Celsor, C. M. Webb, Wm. H. Thomas, Thos. J. Swimmey, and J. C. Wilkins.

A KENTUCKY FIRST

The first man in the state to make what was later known as Bourbon Whiskey was Elijah Craig, a Baptist minister, 1789.

BETHANY CHURCH AT GOSHEN

On February 26, 1848 eight men came together to establish Bethany Church at Goshen schoolhouse in Warren County, Kentucky. These eight men were Elder G. Weatherspoon, Joseph Skaggs, E. M. Haskell, James Rather, Oliver Duncan, Alfred Duncan, Nathan Hill, and Noel Johnson. The minutes in the record book describe this meeting in the following manner: "And after preaching by Elder Joseph Skaggs we proceeded to business by choosing Elder Y. Weatherspoon Moderator and Noel Johnson as clerk, and after being informed by the spokesman (viz) Brother Charles Howard that they desired to go into the constitution and producing their Articles of faith and after reading the same and being satisfied with them and their competency to keep house, constituted the following members into a united Baptist church. The first members of the church were John S. Claypool, Elizabeth Claypool, George Claypool, Rachel Claypool, William Pearson, Nancy Pearson, Anderson Sears, Stephen H. Claypool, Elizabeth Claypool, John Duckett, Nancy Duckett, Henry Butler, Rebecca Butler, Luther D. Porter, Eliza F. Porter, Eliza J. Porter, Henry Cassaday, Susan Cassaday, David Claypool, Margaret Claypool, Hester Cassady, Mose Howel, John Rickman, Jeremiah Satterfield, Francis Sears, Charles Howard and Joseph T. Bridges. Signed Noel Johnsonm clerk and Y. Weatherspoon, Moderator.

The church chose as its first minister Brother Joseph Skaggs. In 1856 he was succeeded by Brother Y. Weatherspoon, who remained for the next twenty years. Other pastors were Y. Weatherspoon, G. F. Howell, J. W. Dixon, and F. F. Page. During 1863 Wm. A. Procter served as a substitute pastor while, presumedly, Bro. Weatherspoon took part in the Civil War.

From the church records it is noted that members could be cited for conduct unbecoming a church member. Unbecoming conduct included non-attendance at church service, dancing, having a ball, profanity, appropriating a hog, having a still, and a man for separating from his wife. Engaging in a fight was, also, reason for a citation. In this case the entry was, "Guilty of fighting and sorry it took place."

MORE KENTUCKY FIRSTS

The first Baptist Church west of the Alleghenies was at Elizabethtown in 1779.

The first Catholic Cathedral west of the Alleghenies was at Bardstown - 1816. It is still in use today.

BURTON MEMORIAL (DRAKE'S CREEK) BAPTIST CHURCH

In the fall of 1850 Drake's Creek Baptist Church was organized and established by a group of people known as United Baptists. The first business meeting was held December 18, 1850, at which time M. F. Ham was chosen as pastor.. At the same meeting R. G. Potter was elected Clerk and a building committee was appointed. In February of 1851 Nathan Hill became the first deacon and in July Nathan Hill, William H. Burton, and W. Burton were elected trustees.

After the first building, a frame structure, was completed arrangements were made to hire a sexton. According to the minutes: "The sexton shall furnish forty-eight candles, make fires and sweep out the house and bring the water at each and every regular Church meeting. He is to sweep out the house and bring the water by ten o'clock." Bro. Miles Dearing was hired for a salary of $6.75 a year, to be paid in two payments at the end of each six months.

In 1909, W. H. Burton informed the members of Drake's Creek Church that he wanted to replace the frame structure with a rock building. As he wished to erect this building as a memorial to the memory of his parents, W. H. Burton, he asked that the name of the church be changed to Burton Memorial Baptist Church. His request was granted and work on the new building began in 1910 and was completed in 1911. All of the stone was dug out of Warren County soil and the building was built entirely by hand. The huge slabs of rock were hauled by horse drawn wagons to the building site and then split with a hammer and chisel. The only machinery used was a derrick to hoist the stone in place.

ISAAC GOODNIGHT

Michael Goodnight came from Germany to Rockbridge, Virginia in 1708. In 1762 he moved to Mecklenburg County, North Carolina and in 1780 he visited Lincoln County, Kentucky. In July 1781 he and his young wife joined a caravan coming to Kentucky. On September 1 they stopped to camp for the night at Harlan Station, a half day away from Fort Harrodsburg. During the night Michael was killed by Indians. His wife and son, John, managed to reach Fort Harrodsburg... Four months later on the first hour of January 1, 1782 she gave birth to Issac Goodnight, the first white male born on Kentucky soil.

In 1805 Isaac married Elizabeth McMurry and in 1808 they moved to Warren County near Three Forks, north of Barren River. They lived on a large tract of land secured through a grant signed by Patrick Henry, Governor of Virginia.

Isaac first became a member of the old Bays Fork Baptist Church. When that church divided, he went with the group that formed the Rocky Springs Baptist Church.

Isaac Goodnight was the 22nd child of his father, and he was the father of 21 children. He passed away on October 13, 1869 at the age of "87 years, 9 months, 12 days and 3 hours."

THE ELUSIVE ANCESTOR

I went searching for an ancestor. I cannot find him still.
He moved around from place to place and did not leave a will.
He married where a courthouse burned. He mended all his fences.
He avoided any man who came to take the U.S. Census.
He always kept his luggage packed, this man who had no fame.
And ever 20 years or so, this rascal changed his name.
His parents came from Europe. They should be upon some list of passengers to U.S.A., but somehow they got missed.
And no one else in this world is searching for this man.
So, I play genea-solitaire to find him if I can.
I'm told he's buried in a plot, with tombstone he was blessed;
but the weather took engraving, and some vandals took the rest.
He died before the county clerks decided to keep records.
No Family Bible has emerged, in spite of all my efforts.
To top it off this ancestor, who caused my many groans,
Just to give me one more pain, betrothed a girl named JONES.

BOOK REVIEWS

The following are reviews of new books which have been donated to the Southern Kentucky Genealogical Society.

THE SCOTTS - ALL THE FAMILY, compiled by Fern Scott O'Toole. (1989)
(Donated by Fern Scott O'Toole)

This softbound volume of approximately 400 pages is Mrs. O'Toole's recording of the lineage of Thomas Scott of Pennsylvania and related families. It contains copies of numerous family group sheets, pedigree charts, original records, newspaper clippings and memorabilia. It has excellent family photographs which are captioned, that help provide insight into Mrs. O'Toole's ancestors and their lifestyles. Mrs. O'Toole has included copies of correspondence with other genealogists and family members to show the cooperative and collaborative effort required to complete this type of work. This work will be of interest to the descendants of Thomas Scott and related families. It may be viewed at the Kentucky Library on the campus of Western Kentucky University. (Reviewed by Mark Lowe)

THE 1880 CENSUS OF ALLEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, compiled by Martha W. Jackson, 1996. (Donated by Martha W. Jackson)

This 114 page softbound census transcription is another in the useful tools and efforts of preservation produced by Mrs. Jackson. This excellent volume retains the order of the original census records while providing a full name index in the back. Mrs. Jackson has included a very helpful introduction to the abbreviations and order of information presented. She also points out the problems which may occur in census records. This volume should be very helpful to Allen County researchers and will be placed beside her other good works. This volume is available for $23.50 postpaid from Martha Jackson, 509 Pea Ridge Road, Scottsville, KY 42164. (Reviewed by Mark Lowe)

ELLIS ISLAND

If asked "In what state is Ellis Island?" most of us would answer New York. But lawyers from the State of New Jersey might tell us that we were incorrect. And, if they are successful in presenting their case to the Supreme Court we may have to start saying Ellis Island, New Jersey. A hearing is underway before a special master appointed by the Supreme Court, but the decision, which is subject to review by the full court, could be years away. So, there is no need to start changing all those port of immigration entries in your database just yet.

"We feel simply that New York has usurped a piece of New Jersey's property, and the old records prove fairly conclusively that this is New Jersey land," says Hope Alswang, the New Jersey Historical Commission's executive director. "We're closer. More than 1½ miles closer, in fact – the island lies about 1,300 feet off Jersey City's shores and two miles from Manhattan Island." In the 1800's the Empire State claimed sovereignty over the entire Hudson River, right up to New Jersey's beaches, says Michael J. Birkner, a history professor at Gettysburg College in Pennsylvania. To get New York off its back, New Jersey signed a pact in 1843 giving New York, among other things, Ellis Island – a mere 2.75 acres at the time.

In return, New York agreed to recognize New Jersey's sovereignty over all submerged land on its side of the Hudson. New Jersey maintains that includes 25 acres originally underwater but filled in the 1890s when the federal government expanded Ellis Island to accommodate more immigrants. The landfill makes up 90 percent of Ellis Island. New Jersey says it's on the New Jersey side of the island and New York must give it up. New York insists the pact gave the island to the city.

Ellis Island also depends on New Jersey for utilities. When the National Park Service once considered abandoning ferry service between the island and Liberty State Park on the New Jersey "mainland," the mayor of Jersey City threatened to shut off all water, electric, sewer and communications services. New Jersey "should not have to be the orphan on the other side of the Hudson," he declared.
