THE HALL HOUSE
by Frances Jones

On February 20, 1830, the record of transfer of lots in a South Glasgow Addition was for 6 lots: 142, 143, 144, 145, 146 and 147 - enclosed and known as Doctor George Rogers garden and horse lot - bounded by Green Street, Short Street, Wayne Street and Chandler's Alley to William B. Kilgore.

Three lots, 145, 146 and 147 were deeded May 17, 1833, to Albert B. Crutcher; in 1839 to Hudson Martin Jr., and in 1842, to Robert Murrell.

On January 29, 1852, the three lots were deeded to Christopher Tompkins as lots 145, 146 and 147.

Christopher Tompkins deeded on January 7, 1853, lots 145, 146 and 147 and house to William E. Munford, Trustee for his daughter Thedosia Tompkins Hall (wife of Dr. James Hall).

In August 1861, the dwelling house and stables, etc., in possession of James Hall were conveyed to Joseph R. Garnett.

In July 1874 Dr. L. D. Satterfield bought the house and lots. In the deed the walls of the dwelling house were conveyed to stand for the time of 20 years.

In 1881, E. P. Neale owned and deeded again to Joseph R. Garnett. In 1886, his will was probated and his wife Lucinda was the owner. The Garnett heirs owned the property until 1919, when the corner lot and lot on another lot were separated from the original three lots. The Hall House was then transferred by deed to J. H. Harlin.

For some years between 1919 and 1933 it was rented as two apartments, then operated as the Rainbow Inn.

Annie Laurie Huggins Smith and her heirs occupied the house from 1933 until 1972.

The Federal Period house is constructed of brick made at the site. The walls of the main portion of the house are 14 inches thick. The construction of the house is a side passage plan with hall opening into two large rooms. Between the two front rooms on the first floor are large hinged doors between the rooms and on the second floor the large doors slide into the walls to either side.

In Franklin Gorin's "Times of Long Ago" it is stated that Christopher Tompkins died at the home of his son-in-law Dr. James Hall.

On a 1964 photograph of the house Mrs. Jennie Jean Jones recorded that Miss Annie Gorin said that Franklin Gorin died there also.

In 1984, the Hall House was included in the Southwest Glasgow Residential District of the National Register of Historic Structures.

THE HALL HOUSE IS NOW A BED AND BREAKFAST. SEE AD ON PAGE 2

Seventeen of Barren County's first settlers were recognized at the Glasgow Homecoming in 1988. Since the organizers of that event knew that there were many more first settlers than that, they had planned to recognize some more during the bicentennial observance in 1992. The first census taken of Barren County in 1800 enumerated 4,784 settlers. That, of course, would indicate that there were many more than the seventeen recognized in 1988 and the additional nineteen being recognized on this occasion.

The county was much larger originally in area that it is today. Part of the original county contributed to the formation of Monroe, Allen, Metcalfe and Hart Counties. The Bi-Centennial Commission did not limit itself to the present county bounds. All the original county was considered in selecting the first settlers to be honored.

The names of the seventeen settlers listed in 1988 were placed on a plaque which has been affixed to the north wall, second floor, of the courthouse. The nineteen additional ones are being recognized in the same manner; their names will be placed on the plaque in the courthouse. The original settlers names were: John Burks, John Cole, Alexander Davidson, William Depp, Valentine Dickerson, Robert Dougherty, John Garnett, John Gorin, Harlow brothers, John Hall, Ambrose Huffman, Jonathan Jewell, Jacob Locke, John Matthews, John McFerran, Henry Miller and Edmund Rogers.

The additional nineteen first settlers and their wives to be recognized are: Benjamin Wilson Clark, Jeremiah Everett, Jesse Everett, James Gillock, Lawrence Gillock, Jr, Joseph Harvey, Obadiah Howard, John Leech, William Logan, John Organ Morrison, John Mulkey, Phillip Mulkey, Edwin Porter, Thomas Roberts, Dorcas Collins Shirley, James Shirley, Thomas Shirley, Edward Young and Thomas White Sr.

A Statehood Parade in Glasgow will be held June 1, 1992, 11:00 a.m. Descendants of each First settler are asked to acquire a wagon and motivate descendants either riding in wagons or walking behind. You are encouraged to participate in Kentucky's 200th Birthday celebration!

Hall Place, a restored ante bellum residence, includes 3 bedrooms, each with private bath, sitting area with television, 2 telephone lines. A full country ham breakfast is included. Parking in rear of house.

Contributed by Sam D Lawson, 1929 Hiker Trace, Columbus, IN 47203

Benjamin F Strickler was born to Samuel and Sarah Strickler on 26 April 1829 in Sullivan County, Tennessee. On 27 Nov 1849, in Sullivan Co TN, he married Minerva Elsea. The Justice of the Peace, John Yokely, performed the marriage. Two witnesses were present, William S Smith and Mahlon S Elsea. Minerva Elsea was born 11 August 1826 in Sullivan Co TN. They had three children while living in Sullivan Co TN:

A. Samuel Strickler born Aug 1850
B. Mary Ann Strickler b 16 Apr 1852
C. Eliza Jane Stricker b 17 May 1854

Sarah Ann Strickler and Ann Bowry acted as midwives in Eliza Jane's birth.

Young Samuel Stricker apparently died between 1851 and 1863. He does not appear on Minerva's application for pension dated 1863.

The Strickler family moved to Monroe Co KY about 1855. There they had 4 more children:

D. George Washington Strickler b 7 Feb 1856

He joined Company H, 9th Regt of KY Inf Volunteers to serve an enlistment of 3 yrs or the duration of the War of 1861. He was mustered into service 26 Nov 1861 at Camp Boyle, KY at the rank of Corporal.

A portion of a document from Minerva (Elsea) Strickler's pension application reads "John W Huntsman and Joseph L Anderson state that they were members of Company C, 9th Regiment of Kentucky Infantry Volunteers, that they were both wounded at the battle of Stone River in the state of Tennessee on the 2nd day of January 1863, and were sent to Hospital #19 in the city of Nashville, Tennessee and when there they found Benjamin F Strickler, a member of Company H, of said regiment, sick with typhoid fever. Our wounds were slight and we were able to wait upon and attend to the wants of others. They knew said Strickler and paid him what attention they could and he required until said Strickler died on or about the 10th day of April 1863. The precise day they cannot state." The surgeon in charge was Dr L H Adler.

The Surgeon General reports the date of death for Benjamin F Strickler as 25 March 1863.

Minerva (Elsea) Strickler died 17 Dec 1898 in Monroe Co KY. She is buried in the Isenburg Cemetery in Monroe Co.

Mary Ann Strickler married a "Dunham" the first time the she married Harmon Smith. She died 6 Feb 1921 and is buried in the Bethlehem Cemetery in Monroe Co KY.

George Washington Strickler remarried after his first wife died to Sarah Elizabeth Fox, a daughter of Samuel Fox. George and Sarah had ten children: Cora, Bell, Benjamin Day, John Oren, Reathie, Lucy, Marvin George, Paulene, Bethel, and Chloe Strickler. Paulene and Beth died before they were two years old.

AN OLD LANDMARK GONE

The Glasgow Times, Sept 18, 1900.

The Old Anderson Homestead Torn Away

Boyd's Creek, Sept 1: In the early part of the present century William Anderson and family came to Barren County and settled about four miles southeast of Glasgow, between the Burksville and Tompkinsville roads. He build a large house of hewed logs, which would face anywhere from 12 to 16 inches. He dug in the side of a hill and walled up a room with solid limestone, the floor of which was almost level with the ground on the lower side of the hill, while the wall on the upper side was about 10x15 inches in size and 26 inches long; the width of the house 20 feet, and 17 feet from the first floor above the basement, to the plates. The first set of joists were 4x8 inches, and were probably sawed with the old-fashioned whip-saw and then dressed and beaded with old-fashioned hand panes. The second set of joists were 3x8 inches. The doors and windows were framed with the same kind of material as the joists, and put together with wooden pins and home-made nails. The chimney was a huge structure of limestone. It was upwards of 30 feet high, with three fireplaces. The fireplace in the basement was nearly five feet wide; the one for the first floor was large-about four feet; the one for the upstairs was very commodious-sufficient for all purposes.

This old mansion has stood the storms for more than eighty years, but is now a thing of the past, with the (missing piece) he used as another house, — erected--on the old foundation by Mr C T Harlow, who is the owner of this and--well known homestead.

About half a mile further on, in the same direction, and on some of the land owned by the Anderson estate stands a shaft with the inscription: "In memory of the Anderson family." This shaft, however, only representative of the family. William Anderson, born August 18-- , died March 29, 1829; Martha Anderson, born August 26, 1775 - died March 1, 1802. The three children buried there are: Sallie A Johns, born April 17, 1808, died October 24, 18--; Mary Anderson born November 1, 1803 - died November, 1863; Patrick & Anderson, born March 7, 1817 - died December 30, 1896. David and Robert went to Mississippi in early manhood and settled there. They both married. David raised a family of several children. Mrs Flem Parrish, of Horse Cave, Ky; Mrs William Dougherty, of Coldwater, Miss; Mrs Bettie Yarbrough, of Holly Springs, Miss; two sons, Henry and Peter. Henry died in early manhood. We don’t know whether Peter is living or not. Robert had one son. He died in his youth. James left home in early manhood and was never heard of afterward. William, the best known of any of the boys to the citizens of Glasgow and vicinity, settled about one mile west of Glasgow. For many years, he was a regular woodhauler to Glasgow. In those days there was about as much money in that business as any common business of the country. About the time work was begun on the Glasgow branch railroad he sold out and moved to Edmonson county. He afterward married a Miss Lawless and raised one son, the only one that bears the Anderson name of that family in Barren county or any other place, unless David’s son, Peter, is living or has children. Betsy, the oldest one of the girls, married a Kinslow and moved to Missouri. We know nothing of her family. Nancy married Hiram Hamilton and settled on the Burksville road, about 3 or 3 1/2 miles from Glasgow. Of her family four are probably living. Dr A P Hamilton, of Carthage, Mo. He is engaged in the lumber business and in the circumstances. Rev P T Hamilton is living at the Hamilton homestead on the Burksville road. He is in the circumstances. He has never married. Mrs Matilda Tolle, the wife of James P Tolle, of Carthage, Mo. They are in independent circumstances. Mrs Mary Gates, the youngest of the Hamilton children was living in Kansas when I heard from her last. Sallie A married William Johns and had two children, both girls. William E Peden married one of them and has one daughter by her. Hon U G Harlow married the other and raised a large family. The names of the two Johns children were Martha and Virginia. They are both dead. Charles T Harlow, a great-grandson, owns the old Anderson homestead. John Harlow owns a farm that belongs to the estate. The U G Harlow homestead is a portion of the estate. John B Snoddy owns a farm of the same land. Tom Jackson another portion. Mrs Mary Ann Bowles another. The Hamilton homestead is another portion. /s/ Elliot.

THANK YOU!!! Irene McGlasson of 911 E Main Street, Horse Cave, KY recently sent in a photostatic copy of a missing Barren County Marriage certificate for D B Carter to Mary E Jeffries! The copy will be placed in the files at the County Clerk’s office to help other researchers! Thank you so much!

DISPOSING OF YOUR GENEALOGY

Isn’t it time to consolidate what you have and provide for the disposition of this information should you die? None of us likes to think about it, but even worse is thinking about 2 other possibilities: (1) No one will be able to figure out what you did, and (2) your genealogy might just wind up in the trash!

Are there title pages on your binders/notebooks, giving the reader a clue about what is inside? An easy way to do this is to put a copy of your pedigree chart in the front, and circle whatever family is included in this binder/notebook. Get some manila envelopes, write the surname on the outside, put any unfiled information - letters, certificates, census reports, xeroxed pages from books, etc. in the envelopes and put them in a box in alphabetical order.

Are there some projects you had in mind? Some things you wanted to do with your genealogy, a book you wanted to write? Then write

You might know that this is a letter from Aunt Sue and should be in the Dawson folder, but nobody else will. Check your pictures to make sure you have printed the names on the back in pencil.

Give some thought: Does the person you want to give your genealogy to want it? Why not write him or her and ask. If you want any of your material typed or published or distributed as I have mentioned before, have you left money in your will for that to be done?

An hours worth of thought can save your precious, expensive records from being destroyed. Once you have thought this out, make a codicil to your will, providing for the disposition of your materials.

A HISTORY OF THE OWENS FAMILY - By Samuel Tate - Great-Grandson of William Owens; Copy of Article in a Somerset paper.

Contributor unknown - will give credit upon identity of same!

William Owens and his wife Nancy were cousins. Their children were 5 girls and 5 boys. Their oldest son of Reuben but I do not remember who his wife was (I later learned from a great-granddaughter, Isabel Story, that her name was Sally Lockhart.)

John Owens’ wife was Anna Chesney, a sister of the late Robert Chesney who lived near this town, Somerset, Ky. Another son was William Owens, whose wife was Margaret Newell, a sister of the late Joseph black Newelle, who lived at Clio, Ky. Another son was Samuel, whose wife was a Miss Mercer. Martin Owens’ wife Rebecca Chesney, also a sister of Robert Chesney. The oldest daughter was Sallie, and her husband was Hansford Price. The second daughter was Jane, and her husband was Samuel Tate, father of this writer. The third daughter was Nancy and her husband was Samuel Newelle. The fourth was Rebecca and her husband was Wesley Short. The fifth was named Avey, and her husband was Reuben Short. The two Shorts and Samuel Newelle and their families went to the state of Indiana in an early day where the older ones died years afterwards. Reuben Owens settled in Clifton Co, KY and lived there the rest of his life, and some of his offspring reside there now.

The writer was at the funeral of Reuben about 68 years ago. All of the five Owens men’s wives died before their husbands, and all of the husbands of the daughters died before their wives. None of either six ever married again except Martin whose second wife was a Miss Denney. Martin Owens died in Rockcastle Co about 50 years ago at the age of 70 years. He was considered an able preacher. The rest of the sons and daughters died of old age at about their 88th year.

William and Nancy Owens grandsons, Newton and Milton Short and John Tate were preachers in the Reformation and Milton Short was also a physician. The entire family of William and Nancy Owens was large-sized, healthy, robust and strong, and they all made a good living. They were of Welsh descent and came here about 1800.

Grandfather Owens and family settled on the lands of Pitman Creek where Vol Allen (Elihu) now lives, near the present machine shops (Ferguson), where he died. I was at his sale when about the age of 11 years. He had about 15 negro servants and several likely men and women (negroes) were brought at that sale and taken south by traders. When Grandfather Owens went to housekeeping the family bedding was made of bear skins. He was quite wealthy when he died. After the death of Grandfather Owens, Grandmother lived with Grandfather Samuel Tate and she kept one negro man and woman wait on until her death, but was helpless. I was present when she died, being about 15 years of age. William Owens was born on Nov 10, 1759, and died Aug 9, 1836. Nancy Owens died in 1846, aged 87 years. Their graves are near the large poplar tree (since this was written, trees and stones are gone) in the Old Baptist Cemetery, Somerset, marked by marble grave stones to the memory. By Samuel Tate, age 84 years, Somerset, Ky.

PHILEMON WATERS

Contributed by Marvin Waters of Cave City, KY in conjunction with the Pioneer Certificate program. Reprinted by permission. The following write-up was recently donated to the History of Washington Co, KY which was to be released this past fall.

Philemon Waters was born March 10, 1750. His family was associated with and intermarried into the family of Martin Hardin, ancestor of Ben Hardin. The families traveled together from Fauquier County, VA to Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania and then to Kentucky by 1780. Waters witnessed a will on Oct 13, 1780 as recorded in Jefferson County Court Minutes, Book A.

Governor Benjamin Harrison of Virginia appointed Waters as Captain of the Jefferson County Militia before Kentucky became a state. Philemon produced the commission from Harrison in Jefferson County Kentucky on May 4, 1784.

Philemon married Elizabeth Harrison, daughter of Thomas Harrison at the Falls of the Ohio in 1780. (Records were lost, marriage between 1780 and 1781). Waters, described as 5 feet 11, 184 pounds, with blond hair, clear blue eyes, fair skin, and massive features was a renowned hunter, marksman, scout and Indian fighter at the Falls of the Ohio and near Cartwrights' Station in Washington county, KY where he settled.

While living on a fork of Cartwrights' Creek, he was captured by Indians and taken to the Blue Lick where they joined Tucumseh with the main body of Indians. Waters was forced to run the gauntlet but kept singing, and did not flinch when a brave aimed his tomahawk at Waters' head, and at the last second, turned the blade of the axe broadside and struck Waters in the forehead, cutting him to the bone.

Waters was adopted by the tribe because of his bravery, and named Tucibia. Eventually escaping on a stolen Indian horse, he found his way back to Cartwrights' Creek.

When Gen George Rogers Clark was planning a campaign against the Indian tribes in Ohio, Simon Kenton recommended Waters as pilot and guide, as Waters was familiar with the Indian encampments, having been their prisoner. Waters agreed to pilot, and along with Kenton and Daniel Boone, set out with General Clark and his army, engaging in a successful campaign against the Indians.

Waters became a magistrate in Washington Co KY and a state Senator from 1805-1809. He was a colorful, gregarious member of the community, who was often consulted because of his memory of events.

Waters later owned land in Hardin and Barren Co KY with his son Philemon B Waters, and died at age 79 on May 30, 1829. His wife preceded him in death on October 9, 1824. His grave is marked by a hand-hewn stone slab with his name and death date carved on it. Next to his grave is a similar, broken slab assumed to be the grave of his wife, Elizabeth. Their graves are in the Waters Cemetery in a cornfield in Barren Co near Cave City.

The children of Philemon and Elizabeth were: Elizabeth, Philemon B, Mary H, Thomas H, Jane, Nancy, and Lydia. Philemon is listed on a bronze plaque on the Barren County courthouse as a Revolutionary War soldier who settled in Barren County. Compiled by Barbara S Penn, great, great, great, great, great granddaughter of Philemon Waters.
DESCENDANTS OF ALLEN BRADSHAW AND MOURNING RICHARDSON

Allen Bradshaw and Mourning Richardson were married January 26, 1793, in Franklin County, Virginia, surety Richard Richardson, consent her mother Lucy Richardson.

The will of Randolph Richardson of Russell Parish, Bedford County, Virginia, 18 May 1782 (I did not note if this was date written, or date of probate), wife, Lucy; sons, Randolph, John, Benjamin, Clinton, remainder to be divided between "all my children, both first and last" which indicates Lucy was the second wife.

Inventory & Appraisement of Randolph Richardson was returned 9 August, 1783, Executrix: Lucy Richardson, Appraisers: Jeremiah Pate, Arthur Cooper, John Bratcher.

Allen Bradshaw (or Bratcher, as it is sometimes spelled) was in Barren County, Kentucky, by 1818. In February, 1830, Allen and Zephiniah Bratcher were securities on a bond for Catherine Elmore, admrx. of John Elmore, Jr. Who was this Zephiniah Bratcher? Evidently he did not stay here very long.

Allen Bradshaw wrote his will May 25th, 1833, and it was probated in Barren County, Ky. in May Court, 1845, proven by the oaths of Jacob Peck and John L. Snow, witnesses thereto. Mourning Bradshaw evidently died shortly after her husband, as in the settlement of Seth Bradshaw, executor of Allen Bradshaw, are found the following notes:

"Recd. of Seth Bradshaw as administrator of Allen & Mourning Bradshaw his wife, both decd., three dollars for medical services rendered to said Morning." Feb. 20th, 1849 (This was the date of the bill, not date of services rendered.)

is back from the publisher, and available for delivery before Christmas.

The hard-back book is 350 pages, with index of 4,700 names, forty-five photographs, twenty illustrations, and copies of many wills and documents. An Addenda section gives short sketches of some institutions directly influencing the lives of these ancestors.

Primarily, the book traces:

Section 1 - Descendants of BENJAMIN DENNISON from Virginia to South-Central Kentucky to Middle Tennessee. Allied families of VANDERVILLE and McFERRIN are discussed in separate chapters.

Section 2 - Descendants of JOHN STROUD from Virginia to North Carolina to Middle Tennessee. Most of these descendants settled in Dickson, Cheatham and Robertson Counties Tennessee. Separate chapters are included for allied families of McLAUGHLIN, WHITE, ALLEN, WILLIAMS and HILAND.

Production of this book has been a labor of love, and we hope it will prove of interest to our many "cousins" and "kissin' cousins" who share our wonderful heritage.

To defray a portion of the final cost of printing and binding, we are asking $33.00 for the book, with an additional $3.00 if it is to be mailed.
