AMERICAN BUSINESS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION
KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER
Bowling Green, Kentucky

REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in Heaven's name, WORK for him. If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him; speak well of him; stand by him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage - resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why.

KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER, ABWA

The meeting was called to order by President Pat Glasscock. A total of 37 were present, 29 members and 8 guests. Anna Sue Jackson, Recording Secretary, gave the Invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was led by Becky Morehead, Treasurer. Guests in attendance were: Bettye Anderson, art teacher of Bowling Green High, Joan Stockton of Ramada Homes, Sue Baucum, Secretary and Bookkeeper, Howell Oldsmobile and Cadillac, Inc., Kay O'Flynn, Departmental Secretary in History Department WKU, Martha Hunt, Assistant Cashier at B.G. Kentucky State Senator Ray B. White was the guest speaker. He related several stories from notable Kentucky politicians such as William Natcher and Gene Snyder. He noted that you cannot have a responsible government without response from the people. If it is of the people, it will be for the people. Senator White feels that we need to spend more money on national defense and education. He also spoke briefly on the special called session of the Kentucky Legislature for the purpose of reapportioning the state.

Iva Miller, an interior decorator, gave the vocational talk. Iva and her husband Gerald are owners of Gerald's Carpet Mart. They specialize in buying, selling floor coverings of all types, custom picture framing, and custom made drapes. They install for other local stores and in surrounding communities. Iva explained how much bearing color has on an individual's personality. She also explained the techniques of picture hanging.

The minutes of the January meeting were read and approved. A letter from National Headquarters concerning the January minutes was read. There was no other communications to the Chapter. ### PREZ SEZ

March winds are blowing up a lot of activity. As the Bulletin goes to press, the Southeastern District Meeting is in full swing, Florence, Jean, Barbara, Cindy, and myself are looking forward to a big ABWA weekend in Norfolk.

The wheels are in motion and the "Little Miss Bowling Green Pageant" is underway. Make yourself a committee of one to tell mothers, grandmothers, aunts, sisters, and those with whom you work to register their darling TODAY.

The Boss Night Souvenir Program ads need your attention also. Let's give our best. Each member should get at least one ad---your employer. Jean wants and needs your help in this Ways and Means Project.

Each of us feel deeply the loss of Arlene Rountree. Our sympathy goes to her family.

Pat Glasscock

1971 SOUTHEASTERN DISTRICT MEETING

Nautical Norfolk was the site of Action for March 12-14. 140 Chapters were represented by 677 ABWA's from the Southeastern District. Our Chapter was well represented by Jean, Florence, Barbara, Cindy, and me. We had more than any other Chapter from Kentucky. The official activities got underway on Friday evening with a reception for National representatives, National President Marilyn Tucker, National Woman of the Year, Betty Krenzer, Southeastern District Vice President, Daisy Connelly, who also served as Chairman of the meeting.

Saturday morning we were welcomed by a Presentation of Colors under the direction of the 17th Artillery Group and Councilman R. Braxton Hill, Jr. Mrs. Connelly presided over the Symposium. "SWEET WILLIAM BLAIR" and "THE GRAND DUTCHESS" Florence Barrett told us how to "PUT YOUR PERSONALITY IN YOUR PAY CHECK". Mr. Blair advised desire and self evaluation. Mrs. Barrett advised appearance, health, courage, imagination, environment, and mental health as the foundation for your personality.

The Workshops followed the Symposium. (1) Opportunities and Scholarships stressed the advantage of the loans for junior and senior students. At the beginning of each year the amount available is divided between grants and loans 50-50. This year each had $56,227. Today, ready for May scholarships $15,635 is available for grants and $29,000 for loans. (2) Three Ways to Go with Glorine Toohy, introducing us to TFE, three kinds of new chapters-Torchbearer...Friendship...Expansion. She informed us that now perfect attendance is carried over to new chapters and the installation of the new Chapter would count as your monthly meeting for that one month. For expansion, 25 from the present Chapter is enough to charter, no longer is the ten new members required, but it is encouraged. National does not have a hard and fast rule, but when a Chapter reaches 70 they suggest expansion--- this gives more members an opportunity to feel active and it holds members better. (3) Setting Goals was led by three District Advisors, Maxine Youngs, S.E.D. advisor, Sally Swartz, and Dorothy Parks.

Memorial Service for Arlene Frances Rountree
Kentucky Colonel Chapter, American Business Women's Association
February 23, 1971
J. C. Kirby Funeral Chapel

Personal and A. B. W. A. History (written by Pat Glasscock)

"We the Kentucky Colonel Chapter of the American Business Women's Association present this single, perfect, white carnation, the official flower of ABWA, as a tribute to Arlene Frances Rountree who passed away on February 23, 1971. Arlene was installed into the Kentucky Colonel Chapter on September 19, 1967. She has held the office of Recording Secretary for the year '69-70. She has served as Publicity Chairman and Membership Co-chairman. Special committees included Auditing and the Fall Hand of Friendship Tea.

Arlene was employed by the Bowling Green City School System and has taught English and Journalism as well as sponsored many activities for the student body.

Arlene was a member of the First Baptist Church of Bowling Green. She was a graduate of Bowling Green High School and Western Kentucky University. Her interests and hobbies were writing, drawing, and reading."

EULOGY (written by Joann Rudolph)

"LET US REMEMBER THE RADIANCE OF ARLENE'S YOUTH..THE DEDICATION OF THE LIFE SHE HAS GIVEN TO YOUTH THROUGH EDUCATION. IN DEATH THERE IS ALWAYS A LESSON FOR THE LIVING. LET US LOOK WITHIN OURSELVES TO LEARN THE LESSON ARLENE HAS TAUGHT US. TO GIVE OF OURSELVES UNSELFISHLY FOR A PURPOSE. TO LIVE FOR A CLOSER BOND OF FRIENDLINESS AND SERVICE...FOR THE GOODNESS OF A KIND THAT LIKENS ITSELF UNTO THAT TAUGHT BY THE HOLY SCRIPTURES. AND LET US REMEMBER THAT EACH OF US IN OUR OWN TIME MUST FOLLOW ARLENE. WE WILL MISS HER. BUT WE WILL REMEMBER THE CONTRIBUTIONS SHE HAS MADE IN SUCH A SHORT WHILE. SO, THEN...LET US SEEK THE WISDOM AND THE STRENGTH TO SHAPE OUR LIVES SO THAT WE TOO, MAY BE REMEMBERED FOR OUR GOOD WORKS."

District Meeting (Continued)

The luncheon followed the Workshops and it was highlighted by a fur fashion show. In the afternoon open forums were held. I attended Small Chapter Development. The three district advisors aided in this discussion. A small Chapter is one with less than 30 members. We heard many comments and suggestions; but to sum it up "If you don't use me, you lose me". The personal touch, contact, quality speakers and activities keep members and helps you to get new ones.

Saturday evening we all donned our prettiest formal attire and went to the Banquet. The best part was the Strolling Musicians and Greetings from National by Mrs. Ruth Bufton, wife of our founder. The speaker was Lawrence Maddrey, Humor Columnist, Norfolk Virginian Post. His subject was "Business Women and Other Ships that Pass in the Night". Well, he told some jokes--- enough said. Florence Barrett called the roll of states and many received gifts from a very hard-working door prize committee.

Sunday morning found us a little weary and worn, but after Worship and then some food we were in "the spirit" again. The National Woman of the Year, Betty Krenzer, Dayton, Ohio gave the Invocation. Glorine recognized the Inner Circle of which we were rightfully proud---Florence Perkins was introduced with the Star Gold Bracelet Award for sponsoring 18 or more members. Jean Fulkerson was one of the two present wearing the Sapphire Star Award for sponsoring 44 or more members; there are only 8 members in SED with this honor. There are 2 members in SED who have reached the 100 mark Royal Diamond Award for 88 or more; only 5 in the entire association.

Marilyn Tucker, National President, was the speaker. She is a businesswoman, a wife, and a mother. Her remarks related to the three cornered hat the working woman and career woman must wear. The results of a study showed that the children of working women were more successful in school, did not suffer from environment and attained higher goals toward advanced education and in business. She stressed women striving to bring EQUALITY THROUGH RESPONSIBILITY.

This brought us to the hour we had been waiting for--- announcement of Scrapbook and Bulletin winners. Well girls, we can beat Jacksonville in basketball, but not in Scrapbooks and Bulletins. The five Scrapbook winners out of 80 entered were: Knoxville Charter, Knoxville, Tennessee, Jaxteen Charter, Jacksonville, Florida, Gasparilla, Tampa,
Florida, Sunburst, Jacksonville, Florida, and Golden Key Charter, Jacksonville, Florida. The five Bulletin winners out of 69 entries were: DixieLand, Chattanooga, Tennessee, Regency, Atlanta, Georgia, Minaret, Tampa, Florida, Bold
City, Jacksonville, Florida, and Sunburst, Jacksonville, Florida. And to top it all off, a gal from Jacksonville won the Mink Boa.

A full but enjoyable weekend for all in Nautical Norfolk came to an end as we vowed to meet again in Anaheim,
October 22-24 and in Orlando next March.

Representative

A BELATED ST. PATRICK'S DAY WISH
ESPECIALLY FOR YOU

May St. Patrick smile on you,
The Lord above bless you,
And peace and contentment
Forever possess you!

HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY!

NEVER CEASE TO MARVEL

Patience Strong

Do not take for granted all the loveliness you see . . .
morning splendor, sunset gold and blossom on the tree . .

Never cease to marvel at the wonder of these things:
new life bursting from the soil and birds on soaring wings.

Commonplace the sight may be, but never let your eye . . .
grow accustomed to the glory of the land and sky . . .

Never grow too dull to wonder at the mystery --- of the beauty of the earth, the sun, the stars, the sea.

HAND OF FRIENDSHIP TEA
MARCH 21, 1971

The 1971 Spring Tea, March 21, 1971, is drawing near. As some may not know, since it's a whole new ballgame this year, we have a new way to meet our quota of new members (which is six) in order to receive our Tea credit. This can be done by:

- Enrolling new members
- Reinstating inactive members
- Returning members-at-large to active chapter status
- Or any combination of the above classifications totaling six members for our Chapter

(Example: Enroll four new members, reinstate one member, and return one member-at-large to active Chapter status--Total: Six members)

So, Members, let's get on the ball and win the game.

The invitations have been sent out and when you get your reply from the names you submitted, be sure they have a way to the tea. Also, Ann Bays, our Tea Chairman, requests that you call her and give her the names of those accepting the invitation.

Ann has an interesting and informative program planned and everything is GO!

We will be looking for you at the home of our President, Pat Glasscock on Sunday, March 21.

Iva Miller
Membership Chairman
