THE COUNCIL OF ACADEMIC DEANS

The Council of Academic Deans met in Dr. Cravens' office at 1:40, Tuesday, May 20, 1969. All deans were present except Dr. Page who was represented by Dr. Arvin Blome.

Dr. Cravens opened the meeting by discussing several matters of interest to the deans.

Copies of the Interview Schedule and Summary Sheet for prospective faculty members were distributed.

Dr. Cravens noted that Western had not filed a certifiable program for school social workers with the State Board. He pointed out that guidelines for establishing an approved program for teachers in social work were included in the information given the deans.

Dr. O. J. Wilson entered the meeting and the University Lecture Series was discussed at length. Dr. Wilson distributed some proposed guidelines on the series and the deans' reactions were favorable. Dr. Cravens asked the deans to submit names of possible lecturers by June 23rd. Mr. David Porter, vice president of the Associated Students entered the meeting and commented on student reactions to the lecture series. The following names were mentioned for possible lecturers: Dr. Harvey Cox, Dr. S. I. Hayakawa, Lord Mountbatten.

Dr. Cravens asked the deans to read the draft statement on academic freedom, indicating this would be discussed next time.

The vice president said he intended to write the president and ask for more time for the deans to consider student membership on University committees.

Dr. Tate Page was selected to represent the deans on the stage at June commencement exercises.

Meeting adjourned.
