songs BARONS SING

EACH BARON
Thoughts are gay since we came to stay,
To be Barons the rest of our days;
   Each Baron, Each Baron.
No friend quite so true.
We'll miss the things together we've planned,
The friends we've learned to understand;
   The Barons, The Barons.
Always calling you.

CAMPFIRE SONG
Round the blazing campfire's light
We are met in comradeship tonight
Overhead the whispering trees
Guard our golden memories
And so before we close our eyes and sleep
Let us pledge each other that we'll keep
Baron friendships strong and deep,
Till we meet again.

THE BARONS ARE ROLLING ALONG
(Tune—"The Caissons are Rolling Along")
Oh, we fight and we fuss and sometimes we even cuss,
But the Barons go rolling along,
For we work with our hearts at everything we start
And the Barons go Rolling Along.
Oh, it's one, two, three, give out with melody,
We'll push that red wagon with a song
And then we'll Cheer, and tap a keg of beer
For the Barons are Rolling Along.
