Meet Hovie Lister and The Sensational Statesmen . . . . .

Three decades ago, a young man with a dream organized a group known as The Statesmen. The man, Hovie Lister. Born and educated in the Southland, his roots ran deep in the culture of the deep south. His heritage was one of rich background in Gospel Music, His grandfather having been a music teacher.

Hovie Lister surrounded himself with the best talent available and formed a most dynamic male quartet. Shortly thereafter, Lister being endowed with Charisma in the "Nth" degree, led this group to heights never before realized by a gospel entity, the SATURDAY EVENING POST featured the group in an article title "They Put Rhythm In Religion". They were declared winners of the famous Arthur Godfrey Talent Scouts on Network TV. The Statesmen were the first gospel artist to be televised on a syndicated basis and sponsored by a national biscuits company.

The Statesmen were signed to a major recording contract with RCA and were selected to record the theme music of two major motion pictures.

Accolades have come in profusion to this group of artists, and it is said that Hovie Lister revolutionized the Gospel Music Industry in mode of dress, showmanship, musical and vocal arrangements, and stage presentation. Today this smoothly polished aggregation is very much in demand with its rich harmony, electrifying stage appearance and sensationalism.

Gospel Music, Hovie Lister and The Statesmen are synonymous.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I want to let you know I receive and read the singing news and appreciate knowing about the places and dates of the singing convention.

We especially received a blessing and enjoyment at the annual May sing at the tobacco warehouse.

Our aim is to attend more of your singings in the near future. Enclosed is my check for renewal of GOSPEL REACHING OUT.

Sincerely,
Mason Dawson

Gospel Reaching Out:

I am sending in my check for another years subscription to the GOSPEL REACHING OUT. I am glad you sent me a notice about it for I don't want to miss a paper. My husband and I look forward to getting our paper each month. We always look over the paper to see if any Gospel Singings are close to us so we can go. We both love Gospel Singing. I don't know why but not much singing are close to us, we live in Louisville. Why don't you try to get some singings in Louisville area?

I am so thankful I was saved when I was a small girl and do love going to church and good old time gospel singing, where you can feel the spirit. So may the Lord bless you and help the GOSPEL REACHING OUT.

C.E. Tarter
Louisville, Ky.

Dear G.R.O.

Please renew our subscription to GOSPEL REACHING OUT. We were richly blessed by being able to attend the Singing in the Smokies again this year. The singing was one of the best they have ever had. The attendance was good and most everybody thought the crowds were larger than ever.

Keep up the good work in your area and God Bless you.

The DeBells

Dear Gospel Reaching Out:

Probably you have received many letters, telling you about the Belle of Louisville Gospel Singing, sponsored by the New Rangers featuring the Kingsmen, but I would like to tell all of your readers of the happiness my wife and I felt that night.

At first when I ordered the tickets I thought that it would all be a very glamorous affair. I also thought the Number 1 Gospel group will be big headed, but I found out that fame and glory was not theirs, but the Lords.

I was very surprised by the way they were dressed - just like any good "ole" country folks you ever met and the wonderful free spirit of God's people at work. When they spoke and testified for the Lord you know where they stood.

If anyone "ever" gets the chance to see and hear the Kingsmen in person, take my advice, don't wait too long because the tickets go very fast. You will never experience a group as wonderful and as spirit filled as these people.

In closing I would like to make one comment, The Kingsmen take down their own equipment. So all of the Gospel groups in GOSPEL REACHING OUT the big groups do it too.

Praise the Lord for his workers
Larry Thomas
The Singing Journeymen Quartet

Dear Friends:

Along with our subscription renewal we want you all to know how we enjoy GOSPEL REACHING OUT and have every since its has been published. We know several of the groups and go every time we can to enjoy the singing.

You have our prayers and best wishes to keep up the work for our Lord.

Yours in Christ work also

A multiple plaintiff copyright infringement law suit involving the unlicensed use of 40 copyrights has recently been resolved. The legal action was brought by 22 different publishers against the Unification Church of America. The Reverend Sun Myung Moon is frequently identified with this organization.

After two years of vigorous pre-trial proceedings, the defendants agreed to a Consent Order against them providing for the payment of $90,000 in damages inclusive of legal fees paid by the Unification Church pursuant to this Order.

The law suit concerned a hymnal, SONGS FOR WORSHIP AND FELLOWSHIP, which was offered for sale by the church. The action claimed that since this hymnal included so many unlicensed copyrights, it was clear that the infringement was no accident.

Publishers of sacred music who have been reticent in the past to defend their property rights and sue civilly for infringement under the copyright law consider the example set by this case and the result obtained as a model for future actions. According to Hal Spencer, President of the Church Music Publishers Association (CMPA), "The problem of unlicensed copying within the church has reached epidemic proportions. The law provides copyright owners with appropriate remedies and the successful conclusion of this important suit is viewed as significant first step in enforcing the provisions of the statute."

This order in addition provided for the defendant's admission and acknowledgement of the validity and ownership of plaintiff's copyrights, as well as an admission by Unification Church affiliated religious organizations, as well as individual church members and executives, of their participation in the infringing activities alleged by the plaintiff. The defendants also voluntarily accepted injunctive restrictions as well as a requirement for the destruction of the offending pages in their publications.

We had a great singing at Halls Chapel, September 1 and enjoyed meeting all those nice people. Also enjoyed the Revelations Singers. Looking forward to going back again soon.

Polston Family Has New Album

The Polston Family is delighted to sing you some happy notes from their new album, "The Singing Family" featuring "Well Glory". All of you have to do to hear these notes is to sit back, and listen to some old-fashioned spirit filled singing.

The Polstons have always been a Singing Family and believe me, Momma gets up every morning and sends some notes up to heaven while she's cooking breakfast. I can sincerely say that singing with the Polston Family has been a wonderful experience that I shall never forget.

There is so much love that it just cuts thru any seams of unhappiness and fills up the gap with peace. Listen for the new album, and don't forget to come to a sing and buy one! We have been in some great services lately as the Lord has been blessing greatly and consistently. Thank God for all His love sent down to us. No one could be more wonderful than He! Praise God!!!
