Death claims Urias LeFevre

Urias LeFevre

After a lengthy bout with cancer, Urias LeFevre, 69, founder of the famous LeFevre Trio, died in Atlanta on August 22. Funeral services were conducted the following day.

LeFevre devoted at least 54 years of his life to gospel singing prior to his retirement a few years ago.

He and his brother and sister, Alphas and Maude, formed the first LeFevre Trio. His bride, Eva Mae, replaced Maude; and the two brothers and Eva Mae were the nucleus for the popular gospel singing group for over half a century.

Although the group spent a few years in Philadelphia, Pa., Atlanta was their home base for most of their career. One of the pioneer professional groups. The LeFevres, under the guidance of Urias, introduced many innovations that helped pave the way for the continual progress of gospel music.

Urias is credited by many "old-timers" with the first-time use of a public address system by a gospel group.

For many years they had their own live television program in Atlanta and were one of the groups on the syndicated "Gospel Singing Caravan".

As the years passed, the group added other vocalists and band members; and four of the children of Urias and Eva Mae sang with them at various times. After the retirement of Urias, Eva Mae, and Alphas, their long-time bass singer, Rex Nelon, took over the reigns and has now changed the name of the group to the Rex Nelon Singers.

In addition to Eva Mae and Alphas, survivors include five children, Pierce, Meurice, Andrea, Mylon and Monteia, numerous grandchildren, and other relatives.

Summersville Revival

Rambos celebrating 25 years

The Singing Rambo's are celebrating 25 years in Gospel Music.

Dottie Rambo has written hundreds of gospel songs with many of them being recorded by various artists. Some of her top songs are "He Looked Beyond My Faults", "Build My Mansion", "Promises", "Sheltered in the Arms of God", "Tears Will Never Stain the Streets of That City", and many more. Certainly this group is a legend in their time.

What's Happening

The Polston Family has had a great summer singing Gospel music. We've sung for revivals, singings and homecomings. The Lord has annointed our singing for which we are very grateful. Without the Spirit our singing would not profit much for we're not very good entertainers. By the grace of God, we are what we are.

Bobby Lee who has played piano for us this summer had an opportunity to play full time and accepted a position as pianist for the Telestials. Some of the Polston Family went to the National Quartet Convention and saw Bobby with the Telestials. We're happy to report he's doing well in his new position and likes it very much. We wish Bobby all the success in the world, but we sure miss him! We appreciate all he did for us.

If you don't yet have our new album we'd be glad to send you one. See our ad in this issue.

The Polston Family

Gospel Music at the White House

Approximately a thousand people participated in an historical milestone in gospel music September 9 when President and Mrs. Carter hosted an "old fashioned gospel singin'" on the south lawn of the White House for the Gospel Music Association and invited guests.

Sixteen acts performed during the 2-5 p.m. sing, while all other artist, record industry, media and GMA guests relaxed on blankets spread in front of the stage, lunched on fried chicken, potato salad, banana pudding and lemonade, and roamed through the public rooms of the White House. Carter, comfortably suited in a sports shirt and slacks, slipped off his shoes while lounging on his blanket.

"Gospel music is really rural music from the country," said Carter. "It has both black and white derivations. Gospel music comes from deep within the heart of human beings." Describing the 24-hour sings he and wife Rosalynn had attended, Carter quipped, "This afternoon we have only three hours. I hope you won't be disappointed by the short program today."

Both the President and Mrs. Carter wandered easily through the crowd, being approached by guests for pictures and a handshake. Other notable figures reportedly taking in the afternoon of music included Secretary of State Cyrus Vance, Treasury Secretary William Miller, U.S. Senator Jim Sasser (Tenn.), Mississippi Governor Cliff Finch and CBS-TV newsman Roger Mudd. Amy Carter appeared during the afternoon and climbed a couple of trees.

Hosts Gloria Hawkins, Charlie Monk and Thurlow Spurr introduced artist the Archers, James Blackwood, Dave Boyer, Shirley Caesar, James Cleveland and the Cleveland Singers, the Happy Goodman Family, the Howard University Gospel Ensemble, Julia & Company, the Kingsmen, Barry McGuire, the Mighty Clouds of Joy, Larry Norman, Doug Oldham, Reba Rambo, the Speer Family and The Trio. To conclude the afternoon performances all artists joined the Carters on stage as U.S. Rep. Bill Hefner (N. C.) led the crowd in the old country-tinged hymn "I'll Fly Away."

Earlier that day GMA president Jim Myers, executive director Don Butler, board member Frances Preston, and artists Shirley Caesar and Brock Speer presented Carter with a framed proclamation and a Steuben glass bowl in appreciation of the gospel music day at the White House.

The program was set up by the GMA in association with the White House. GMA directors Arnold Ligon, Joe Moscheo, Ed Shea, Hal Spencer, Carrol Stout and Pat Zondervan, along with the other board members, worked to stage the special occasion.

That evening, the GMA board of directors hosted a buffet reception at the Hotel Washington for all White House performers and invited guests. Individuals were encouraged to step forward and comment on the day's events. Their reflections expounded the unanimous feeling that gospel music had just experienced its finest hour to date.

Two pairs of Bose® Model 802 loudspeakers and a Bose Model 1800 Power Amplifier. We call it the Super-Bose System.

Stacking two pairs of 802s doubles your sound output and quadruples your bass (with the help of acoustical coupling). Stacking also doubles the projection and sensitivity of the 802s.

The Bose Model 1800 Power Amplifier is a reliable, rugged, dual-channel amplifier just right for the power capability of two pairs of 802s.

The Super-Bose System is half the weight and a quarter the size of conventional systems. Less trouble to pack and carry, less room taken up in your car or van, less hassle unpacking and setting up.

The Super-Bose System adds up to a big, natural sound that stands alone for realism and clarity. Don't take our word for it. Check it out at your authorized Bose Professional Dealer today.
