LANDMARK MEMBERSHIP MEETING

March 24, 1988, 7:30 P.M.

MAY 23 1988

The next Landmark Membership Meeting will be on Thursday, March 24, 1988 at 7:30 P.M. We will meet at Walnut Lawn, 1800 Morgantown Road, the home of George Anna and Bill McKenzie. Following the program by Dr. Lowell Harrison we will tour the house. (See the map on page 2 for directions to Walnut Lawn).

Josiah Wright, a linen merchant from Scotland, obtained a 400 acre land grant and built a two story log house on the property in 1805. After several owners, Col. Atwood G. Hobson bought the farm in 1872 and in turn gave it to his son and granddaughters in 1885. Upon acquisition in 1885, Col. William E. Hobson incorporated the original two story log house and ell addition into the present structure. Although the basic plan of the house is common to the area, the building's Eastlake and classic features are unusual for rural estates in the country.

Walnut Lawn was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1983 and was for many years the home of William's daughter, Miss Margaret Hobson, until her passing in 1987. The house continues to be in the Hobson family, and is presently owned by George Anna (Margaret Hobson's second cousin and Atwood Hobson's great granddaughter) and Bill McKenzie. The McKenzies undertook a major rehabilitation of the house during 1987 completely redoing the exterior and interior as a Bed and Breakfast business and for their private residence.

The McKenzies have graciously offered their house for our Landmark Meeting, and invite all members to come to Walnut Lawn on March 24 at 7:30 P.M.

In Memoriam

Carol Burford, long time supporter and friend and past President of Landmark Association, passed away June 11, 1988. Our heartfelt sympathy goes to her husband Bud and the children.

The family suggests that those who wish may make memorial contributions to Presbyterian Children's Home, Buck Horn, Kentucky 41721.

DECORATOR SHOWCASE '88

May 8 - 22

Quigley-Younglove Building, 900 State Street completed Exterior

Decorator Showcase '88, under the joint efforts of Arts Alliance and Landmark Association, is progressing at a rapid pace. The Showcase project is co-chaired by Sara Bennett and Terry Tichenor. The Quigley-Younglove Building at 900 State Street in the Downtown Historic District will be the site of this year's Showcase. Rehabilitation on this 151 year old landmark is currently underway and will be completed and ready for a number of local and out of town decorators on April 1. Barrow Construction is the general contractor on the project which will contain first floor retail space, a two story townhouse, and a suite of three professional offices on the second floor.

A gala preview party will be held on May 5 and the showcase will officially open on May 8 and continue through May 22. A number of special events are planned during the two-week event including Bill Samuels, Jr. discussing the history of Maker's Mark Distillery; representatives from Bradfords in Nashville discussing oriental rugs and English antiques; and Dr. Lawry Kirby, whose private silver collection is at Colonial Williamsburg, discussing silver and sheffield plate.

Ticket prices are $6 for adults and $5 for children under 12 and senior citizens. Preview party tickets are $25 each and include unlimited visits to the showcase.

Make your plans to attend Decorator Showcase '88, May 8-22. For further information, call the Landmark Office at 782-2489, ext. 545. Also, we are in need of people to be a host or hostess during the Showcase. If you are interested in helping out, please call Romanza Johnson at 782-1200 or 842-3416.
