Letters to the Editor

March 11, 1980

Gospel Reaching Out:

Please accept my check for another year subscription to your news letter. I look forward to receiving it every month.

The feature you had on drummers in a gospel group was rewarding in many ways. I feel if a person is lead to do his "Best for the Lord", it shouldn't make any difference what instrument he plays.

The Journeymen Quartet is looking forward to the coming summer and fellowship with all of the friends we have made in the past. So G.R.O., keep up the good work!

Dear Annette,

I was pleased and grateful to see that your Governor Brown's proclamation of Gospel Music Month in the Commonwealth of Kentucky appeared in the March Gospel Reaching Out.

Thanks very much for all that you do in helping promote Gospel Music.

Sincerely,

Opryland to feature Gospel Music

On March 29, Opryland U.S.A. will usher in the 1980s and a new decade of entertainment with special emphasis on what has made it unique in the theme park industry: The elaborate showcasing of some of America's most talented young people in productions that even turn the heads of Broadway producers.

The park will maintain its tradition of weekend operation in spring and autumn and seven-day-a-week operation in summer. The 1980 season, the park's ninth and also its longest, runs through Nov. 2. (Editors: Capsuled information about the season is at the end of this release.)

Favorite Opryland shows, such as "I Hear America Singing" and "Country Music U.S.A.," have been updated and fine-tuned, and they are being complemented by two new entertainment groups. The additions are a group known as the Opryland Cumberland Quartet that will perform a show called "Sing the Glory Down" at the Dixieland Patio in the park's New Orleans area and a nine-piece marching band that will entertain guests at the park entrance and various locations around the 110-acre park.

Gospel music, which always has been part of the "Showboat" production, is getting special attention. Besides "Sing the Glory Down," gospel music will be the focus of two special events--the Opryland Gospel Jubilee on May 24-25 and Freedom Festival '80 on July 4.

The two-day Gospel Jubilee will be in the Theater by the Lake and will feature artists such as the Hinsons, the Hemphills, the Inspirations and the Sego Brothers and Naomi. Freedom Festival '80 will be a series of gospel concerts in the Grand Ole Opry House to mark Independence Day.

An addition to the park itself for 1980 will be a group of craftsmen in the Hill Country area. In areas where you can observe the artisans at work, they will produce their handicrafts and offer the finished products for sale. Crafts that will be featured include woodcarving and wooden sign making, glass engraving and pottery.

Opryland has earned a reputation for its diversity of restaurants, and a behind-the-scenes addition should enhance that reputation this season. That addition is an on-site bakery that will provide breads, desserts and other baked goods for Opryland's numerous restaurants.

Examples of the bakery's production include cinnamon rolls and danish pastries that will be served with breakfast in the Plaza Cafeteria, French bread for specialty sandwiches in the Cafe Mardi Gras, fruit cobblers to complement the barbecue in the Country Kitchen and dinner rolls for use in the Gaslight Beef Room.

The 1980 schedule: Open Saturdays and Sundays from March 29-May 25; open seven days a week from May 26-Sept. 1; open Saturdays and Sundays from Sept. 6-Nov. 2. Main gate opens at 10 a.m. Closing time varies according to the season.

News from McCubbins Family

This past month has been quite busy, except for a cancellation the first part of the month at Mt. Roberts near Summersville, Ky.

On March 9, we were in Nashville, Tenn. at Woodcock Baptist Church with Rev. and Mrs. Cosby Dobson. We had a wonderful time there with a very spiritual service.

We were in a revival at Macedonia Baptist Church on March 14 through the 21 and at this writing are still in services there with Rev. Terry Wilkerson and family and Rev. and Mrs. Eddie Hubbard.

The McCubbins Family ask you all to continue to pray for us as we do the Lord's work. We look forward to seeing each of you in the near future.

Washington For Jesus!!

LEXINGTON - Washington For Jesus, an interdenominational gathering of Christians that will occur in Washington, D.C. April 29, is gaining both support and momentum in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. A state rally is presently being planned that will echo the national Washington For Jesus rally themes of unity in Christ and a commitment to pray for the nation.

The combined efforts of many Christian leaders and denominations will bring one million Christians into the city of Washington, D.C. on April 29, to celebrate the Lordship of Jesus Christ in unity and love. Among the many Christian leaders and personalities who support and will attend Washington For Jesus are Dr. Adrian Rogers of the Southern Baptist Convention, Dr. Bill Bright, head of Campus Crusade for Christ, Dr. Pat Robertson, President of the Christian Broadcasting Network, Jim Bakker, President of the PTL network, Demos Shakarian, Harald Bredesen, and many others.

On April 28, one day prior to the Washington For Jesus rally, delegations of Christians will visit their Congressional representatives, and later in the day, a seven block march will proceed down Constitution Avenue to demonstrate Christian unity in the United States. On the day of the rally, (April 29), a prayer and worship service of massive proportions will take place. During the rally, Christian leaders (some of whom have been mentioned earlier in this release) will speak and will lead the group in prayer for the United States government and its' officials.

In Kentucky, thirteen buses have already been reserved for the people who will be attending from various churches and organizations around the state. Students from various Christian groups at the University of Kentucky, independents, and members of practically every denomination will be among those going.

Jerry Horne, a Lexington attorney, is the director for Washington For Jesus for the state of Kentucky. For further information, call him at his office at (606)253-6411. If Mr. Horne cannot be reached, call Rev. William J. Henderson, State Youth Coordinator at (606)269-8438.
